

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 161

When Drake noticed their startled eyes, he looked very pleased. "Yes, I cooked it."

Bard and Edwin looked stunned and found it hard to believe.

"I'm good at cooking but I seldom cook. I came here today just to cook for you. If you like my dishes, I can cook more for you in the future."

Edwin was the first to react. "Wait a minute, I need to know, why do you cook for us? Why? We won't get rewards without paying, so, tell us, what do you want?"

Although Bard didn't speak, his face betrayed his thoughts. He nodded to show that he thought the same as Edwin.

'Well, I should better keep silent and listen to what they will say,' thought Sophia.

Still, Drake cast a glance at Sophia.

Edwin and Bard both looked at her in warning, as if implying that they would renounce her if she dared to speak up for Drake.

Sophia could only nod to show that she sided with her brothers.

Drake knew that it was time for him to confess.

"I want to pursue Sophia again!"

"No!"

"You must be joking!"

The two men said at the same time

At this moment, hearing it again, Sophia was once again disturbed.

Drake had guessed they would object, so he continued, "Not to mention the fact that Sophia and I have had sex, I have canceled my engagement to Cecelia and my mother is Sophia's teacher. We have every reason to get back together."

"I know that you don't like me or my family, but things are different this time. I didn't know the truth or how they treated Sophia by then. Yet now I do, and I promise I'll protect Sophia with all my might."
