

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 166

Sophia could feel it, but there were a lot of people noticing them...

"Emma, tell him to bring down his enthusiasm, please!" said Sophia resignedly.

Emma just smiled. "I can't meddle in his business. I willingly hope him to chase after you though."

Sophia lost her words. Emma and Drake were a team, for sure.

Olivia was too impatient to stay still. She walked to Emma and asked, "Emma, why do you come here?"

Sophia was a bit stressed. It seemed the battle was about to begin.

Emma tossed a casual glance at her, "Ms. Grant, what do you mean?"

"You know what I mean. I'm Baron's wife. Now that you have left, why do you come back in a high-profile way? You just want everybody to laugh at me."

Emma asked in confusion, "What do you mean?"

Olivia snorted. "You're complacent, aren't you? Baron fawns over you, and Aria brought up by me now knows you're her real mother. Your purpose is clear. You want me to leave Baron."

Emma sneered in disdain, "I will never return to the Riley family. I admit that I do miss my kids and want to see them. I think it is understandable."

"You should not come back as you chose to leave," said Olivia.

"Watch your mouth! You know why I chose to leave!" Emma knew Olivia was trying to make a fallacy.

"You forsook your children. I raise Aria, okay? She won't accept you," said Olivia.

Her words made Aria clear-minded.
