

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 168

"Rethink it. She seemed nice to you. But was it real? She just used you to restrict me."

Aria shivered with shock and asked, "What...What are you talking about? Why did she use me to restrict you?"

Drake replied, "Because she doubted if I had known that she's not our real mother. And she knew that I wouldn't leave you alone. She's being nice to you because she plan to threaten me with your life when the truth comes out."

Aria said after a tremble, "No. No way!"

"I know you can't accept it temporarily, but I should warn you that don't talk about it with Olivia. If she hurt you, I won't save you." Drake had to say so because he was afraid that Aria did go to ask Olivia. That would be a big headache.

But from Aria's view, she thought Drake was like a stranger, cold and cruel. If he was her real brother, why did he treat her like this?

Emma looked at Aria, a mixture of emotions spreading over her face, "Aria, I know it was my fault to leave you there. I won't beg for your forgiveness, but I hope you will have a good life. If...If you don't want to accept me as your mom, that's OK."

Aria stared at Emma. She didn't hate the woman, even a bit liked her.

She thought Emma was very kind, but she couldn't accept it now!

At last, she said the last sentence, "You must be lying!"

Then she turned away.

Drake was worried about her. Just then, Baron walked out. Drake said to him, "Dad, catch up with Aria and protect her!"

Baron looked at Emma, seeming that he had a lot to tell her, but he finally ran after Aria as he noticed Drake's eyes.

Drake turned his head towards Emma and said, "Mom, let's walk you home."

"OK!" said Emma.

Sophia spoke, "Emma, now that Drake goes with you, then I go home myself."

Emma stopped her in time, "No, we go together. After I arrive home, he goes with you."

"It's OK. I can go home on my own."
