

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 176

Although Paula's mother didn't know what had happened, she could tell the matter was severe. Therefore, she immediately called Paula.

Much to her surprise, Paula didn't answer.

"Rhett, I..."

"Call her again. Don't stop until she answers the call."

Mrs. Frost had never seen her husband be so furious. She couldn't help trembling and gingerly called Paul again.

They failed to reach their daughter, and Rhett panicked.

He called his subordinates, "Go to Sealand and find Paula. Take her back ASAP."

Mrs. Frost could tell her husband was indeed pissed by their daughter.

She secretly messaged Paula: "Paula, where are you? Come back ASAP. Your father is pissed off."

Paula didn't have any idea how horrible the cyberbully was.

She wasn't Noah's mistress, but those netizens criticized her for being a mistress.

She believed it must be Sophia who made her become the target of public criticism!

Again, she shifted all the blame on Sophia.

Paula asked around and found Sophia had been to a golf course. Therefore, she was about to find Sophia there.

However, she was stopped by the security guards.

"Excuse me, Ma'am. May I see your membership card, please?" one asked.

Paula was too anxious. "Membership card? How much? I can pay you."

"Sorry, but our club is only open to our members. You must have our membership card."

"How much does the membership card cost? I can give you the money."

The security guard told her, "I'm afraid it won't work. You need a recommendation from one of our members. Then you can apply for the membership."

Paul looked annoyed, as that was the rule for some classy places. Surprisingly, Sophia came to such a place.
