

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 185

The waitress did not admit it. After all, she wasn't that woman that set Sylvia up. She just received the money and did what she was told to do.

"I don't answer to you."

Suddenly, Sophia grabbed the waitress' hand, turned over the bowl, and pressed it on her hand, saying with sharp eyes, "I'll give you one last chance. If you don't tell me, I'll sue you and hold you accountable."

The girl next to them was shocked by this drama.

She tried to escape.

Sophia ignored her, as she was just an insignificant person.

The waitress screamed, "Let go of my hand!"

"Tell me who asked you to do this! I don't think you want to be sued!"

The waitress didn't expect Sophia to be so tough. Frightened, the waitress said, "Well, I'll talk. I do not know that woman. She gave me 100 thousand and asked me to do that. I did not expect her to post your photos on the Internet. She just told me that you and Mr. Greenspan were a couple. She wanted to give you a surprise!"

Sophia knew the waitress was telling the truth.

With no other people around, Sophia took her phone out and began to show some pictures to the waitress.

"Not this one! Yes, here she is! It's her!"

Sophia looked at the woman in the phone and sneered, "Cecelia, you did cross me!"

Sophia let go of the waitress, took her handbag, and strode away.

The waitress gasped and looked at the black mark on her hands, which scared her almost to tears.

The others asked with concern, "Are you okay?"

"I'm fine!"
