

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 189

Drake was stunned as well. He had even doubted that Sophia was Travis' cousin but did not expect that Sophia was the daughter of the Lawson family.

Sophia walked in front of Abbott and Laura, smiling and saying, "Dad! Mom!"

Abbott looked at Sophia dotingly and then said to everyone, "All along, I didn't announce our relationship because we love Sophia very much. We don't want her to be in danger. After all, she is always my little princess."

"But some people kept slandering her and said she depended on men. How ridiculous! She is always excellent and has talent in all aspects since she was a child. She has won so many international awards, so she doesn't have to rely on anyone."

The others got even more shocked!

They remembered the girl who had a painting exhibition at the age of six and a piano recital in her teens. They didn't expect that girl was Sophia.

Such a girl didn't have to marry into a rich family at all. After all, she herself was almost the noblest girl in Pinkerton.

Flynn, still in shock, whispered to Drake, "Do you have no idea about this like us?"

"Yes!" Drake was shocked as well. "I did not expect her to be Travis' sister before."

But quickly, many things made sense. Drake understood why Travis was so protective of Sophia. It was because they were siblings!

Suddenly, Flynn thought of something and laughed gloatingly.

Drake asked with an expressionless face, "What are you laughing at?"

"Look at your four brothers-in-law. They surrounded Sophia and kept any other man away from Sophia."
