

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 197

"No matter what happens between me and Mr. Riley, Miss Price, don't you find yourself disgusting always forcing your way between us?"

Cecelia didn't expect Sophia to admit her relationship with Drake.

What did it mean? In fact, even if Sophia said nothing, everybody knew that she and Drake were lovers, and it should be normal that they had sex. But if Sophia and Drake refused to talk about this, no one would.

But now, Sophia admitted it, which was equivalent to telling her future husband that she had had sex with Drake.

Thinking of this, even though everybody was scolding her on the Internet, Cecelia felt elated.

She didn't care about those things about herself at all. Her real goal was to see Sophia's reputation ruined.

She wanted Sophia to become a social pariah, just like her, and be abandoned by all men.

After seeing such news, Bard accused, "Sophia, what are you thinking? Why did you admit it? If you didn't, we could do something to clear your name, and everything would be fine! But you just admitted it, I'm afraid... "

"Of course, Noah wouldn't mind it, but what about his family? What do you think his family will treat you once you marry him?"

"If you don't marry Noah, what about others? Sophia, you have been intelligent. Why did you do this? "

Sophia said seriously, "Bard, didn't I tell you? If I can't be with Drake, I won't be with any other man."

Bard was stunned. "Sophia, what are you talking about?"

"Actually..." Sophia said lightly. "Although Drake and I won't work out, at the moment we broke up, I've made up my mind to be single forever. I can't accept any other man to be my lover."

"If so, why did you repeatedly refuse Drake?" Bard was thoroughly confused.

"Don't you know why?"

Bard was suddenly speechless.
