

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 210

"You mean he'll become the head of the Riley family sooner or later, right?" asked Roman aggressively, exposing his ambition.

"That's not what I mean," the CEO of the hotel denied as he dared not to offend the Rileys.

"No. You mean it. You don't take me seriously, huh? Wait and see. Our Riley family will take revenge. Get ready."

Roman hung up the phone.

The CEO snorted.

Just because he behaved humbly when talking to Roman didn't mean he feared Roman.

In fact, Drake wouldn't sit by and watch Roman do evil deeds.

Probably, Roman would be the dead one by then.

Roman ordered his men to teach that hotel a lesson. Most of them gave him positive responses but didn't do as they were told.

In the beginning, Roman thought they had executed his command. Gradually, he knew the truth.

Roman went ballistic in his office. "What's wrong with you all? You don't take my words seriously, do you? Or you've never considered me as the company's president?"

Paul tried to calm him down. "Mr. Riley, please calm down. That hotel has been our partner for years. If we did so, we would not only annoy its management but also upset our other partners. You've just become the president. It's not a good idea for you to do it."

"What do you mean? Think the Riley Group only has that partner to work with? If we teach it a lesson, other partners will become our opponents. Do you mean that?"

"Mr. Riley, we shall cherish the chance to work with every partner as they make profits for us more or less. Besides, we can find other ways to teach its boss a lesson. You don't have to harm the mutual benefits."

"You look down on me, don't you? You are unhappy as Grandpa let me become the president. You are fired! If you don't obey me, get out!"

Many employees had predicted Roman would send Paul away. However, they didn't expect it to happen so soon.

Paul also didn't want to work for such an ignorant asshole but he acted like he respected Roman.

He bowed at Roman and said, "All right. As you wish, I'm leaving now."

"Think I cannot find a more capable assistant than you, huh?"

After Paul left, Roman's man was hired as his assistant.
