

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 220

"No, but thank you," Sophia refused.

The waitress was taken aback. Earlier, she thought they should love each other deeply, so the man's plan could be carried out smoothly.

Besides, they could receive a gift, which was a considerable amount of money.

Much to her surprise, the woman refused without hesitation.

After gazing at Sophia for a long time, Drake said, "All right. You may leave now."

'Alas... My bonus is gone,' the waitress said inwardly.

While having dinner, neither talked.

Sophia could tell he was angry, but she didn't want to give him any chance.

Although feeling sorry for hurting him, she decided to let it be.

However, someone broke the silence pretty soon.

When Mr. Watts walked out of a private box, he saw Drake and Sophia.

He surprisedly greeted them, "Good evening, Mr. Riley, Ms. Lawson. I didn't expect to meet you here. Are you getting married soon? Please do invite me to your wedding."

His words brought a smile to Drake's lips. Here came Murphy's Law. Sophia was afraid of being seen by others, but Mr. Watts met them.

"Please don't be kidding, Mr. Watts. Ms. Lawson hadn't agreed to marry me," Drake replied.

Sophia's lips twitched. She wondered if he had said it on purpose.

As expected, Mr. Watts said to her like an elder, "Alas... Ms. Lawson, I hope you don't mind. But I can tell Mr. Riley loves you deeply and truly. If you miss a good man like him, you'll regret it all your life."

Since Mr. Watts was an outsider, Sophia didn't intend to explain.

"Thanks for your concern, Mr. Watts," she replied.

"You are welcome. I would have encouraged my younger sister to marry Mr. Riley if I had one. Ms. Lawson, we've known each other for a long while. You are like my younger sister. Please don't worry. You won't suffer a loss after marrying Mr. Riley."
