

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 230

"We four can work together to kick his ass!"

Bard's words made Sophia laugh.

"Well, got it. Thank you!"

Now that her family had agreed, Sophia had no worries.

Then, they hung up and went on with their own work.

After dinner, Sophia went back to the company.

"Ready?"

Chloe came over with the document and said, "Yes, it's ready. Let's go!"

Arriving at the bidding room, the two of them saw Abby coming over, Chloe asked strangely, "Why do I get a feeling that Ms. Pearce hates you? I don't remember there any feud between the two of you."

Sophia whispered to her ear and told her about last night.

Chloe was a straightforward person who immediately said, "So shameless!"

Her voice was so loud that a lot of people looked over.

Abby looked at her. "Miss, who were you calling shameless?"

"She's a smart person who knows herself. I was calling whoever has just answered me shameless." Chloe was sharp-tongued.

Abby walked straight up to them.

Chloe was not afraid of her.

"Have I offended you, Miss?"

"You don't need to offend me. Don't you know what you yourself have done?"

Abby took a look at Sophia. "I admit that I do like Mr. Riley who is not married yet. How does liking a single man make me shameless?"

"You know that he will only marry Sophia but still insist on seducing him. Doesn't that make you a bitch?"

she looked at Sophia and said, "Ms. Lawson, is this your demeanor? Although I have not known you well, her words. Just as she was about to say something more, always been a hot-tempered person.
