

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 251

Having gotten what she wanted, Sophia thought she deserved a good trip.

On the weekend, Bailey, Chloe, and Flynn came together.

On the way to the destination, Flynn said with a bitter look, "You shouldn't have invited me. Only I am single here, so it's painful to watch you make out with each other."

Bailey walked over and patted him on the shoulder. "Then why not hurry up and find your Miss Right?"

"Come on! It's not that easy! You are lucky to have found your mate, but I haven't!"

Sophia couldn't help but laugh. "Well, then you three men are a team. Chloe and I will be a team!"

"No!"

Drake and Bailey said in unison.

Flynn said angrily, "Did you hear that? Friendship always paled when compared with love!"

Sophia and Chloe both laughed and didn't say anything else.

When they arrived, they got out of the car, only to see Roman and Abby.

"Drake, what a coincidence! I didn't expect to see you here!"

Sophia and Chloe glanced at each other, wondering whether Roman and Abby's being together meant their open hostility towards Sophia.

"You know it well whether it is a coincidence."

Roman glanced at Abby. "Ms. Pearce has been in a bad mood recently. So, I accompany her here for a stroll, only to run into you guys here!"

Sophia ignored Roman and Abby, knowing they would do nothing good.
