

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 255

But Drake and others did not think so, thinking that Abby deserved it!

"Let's go!" Drake pulled Sophia and ignored everything else.

Sophia knew that Abby deserved it, but after all, it was a human life. "It is better that we make a call to the staff here and let them look for her. Whether she is dead or alive is her fate."

Drake felt that it made sense, so he made the call.

As soon as the other party heard that Abby fell off the hill, he immediately sent the staff members to search for her.

Drake glanced at Roman before leaving. "You know clearly what you should say!"

Roman indeed hated Drake, but he absolutely could not offend Sophia whom he wanted to marry!

So, Roman also did not care about Abby, and directly followed them down the mountain.

When they returned, they heard about Abby's condition. She was unconscious, and she had broken her leg, but her life was saved.

Chloe said angrily, "She deserved it!"

Sophia didn't care about Abby's condition at all, but the police came.

"May I ask if you are Miss Lawson?"

"Yes, I am!"

"Someone reported in real name that you have committed intentional homicide. Please come with us!"

Chloe stood in front of Sophia and defended, "It's not true! Sophia was just trying to defend herself."

"Whether it is self-defense is to be decided by our investigation!"

Chloe still wanted to speak, but Sophia signaled her to stop.
