

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 258

Roman had waited for several days but Sophia didn't come to visit him. Wouldn't she even come to see him? Was all he did for her nothing to her?

No, he didn't believe it!

He told the police that he wanted to see Sophia.

Although Roman was currently a prisoner, he had the right to apply for seeing anyone, so the police contacted Sophia.

Before they received a reply from Sophia, Olivia came.

"Roman, you have been here for days. Do you know how wrong you were now?"

Olivia deliberately didn't get him out and let him stay here for days. Roman seemed to have lost a lot of weight and looked distressed. She was his mother, of course, she felt sorry for him.

So, after letting him suffer for a few days inside, she came to see him.

If he showed weakness, she would get him out at once.

"Mom, what exactly are you talking about?"

Olivia was stunned. "What? Roman, do you know what you are talking about?"

"Mom, I shouldn't have had the idea of going against Sophia, and now I am taking the consequences for my mistake here. It's very fair, isn't it?"

Olivia was in a panic. She felt Roman was very strange not, unlike her son she knew at all.

How could he change so much?

"Roman, tell me, what is in your mind?"

"Mom, if you're here to ask if I have learned my mistake, I can tell you that I have. But my mistake is that I shouldn't have done that to Sophia, not that I didn't listen to you!"

"Good, Roman. I have raised you for twenty years while Sophia has done nothing to help you, and yet you chose her. You are really crazy. Since you like to stay here so much, then stay. I am going to leave you alone!"

"Also, do you think that Sophia will have the slightest pity for you just because of what you did? I'm telling you; you are too naive. She won't like you no matter what you do!"

In anger, Olivia stood up and left.
