

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 279

"What should he tell me? My brother never told me anything. In his eyes, I was just a troublemaker."

Sophia didn't expect this. She shouldn't have leaked that information.

"Sophia, come on. You are not going to keep it from me, are you? Do you think I'll just ruin your plan if I know it?"

Sophia had a headache. She thought for a second and said, "Stay on your set, I'm going there now."

On the way there, Sophia sent Drake a message. "Sorry, I made a mistake. I told Aria that your grandpa was controlled by Olivia. But I don't regret it. Aria was ignorant before, but she has grown up after going through so many things. So, I am going to remind her to guard against Olivia."

Drake replied, "Alright, do it then."

Sophia smiled upon seeing the text.

When she got there, Aria had finished filming and was waiting for her.

Sophia froze for a moment. "Are you done?"

"Yes, my part for today is over. I'll do the rest tomorrow. Let's go somewhere and sit down."

"Okay!"

They went to a cafe and sat at the same side of the table by the window.

Sophia murmured, "I thought your brother had told you."

Aria was sad. "Nobody had ever told me anything since I was young. I regarded the bitch Olivia as my mother for twenty years and whenever I think about it, I just feel like...!"

Sophia understood Aria's feelings, although she had never experienced such things.
