

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 285

The principal was surprised. He prepared a speech, but Sophia didn't give him the chance.

Not until now did he know this lady was unfathomable. Fortunately, he chose to leave in time. Otherwise, he might be put to rout.

"Ms. Lawson, thank you for your kindness."

"Never mind. If you need help in the future, you can turn to me," said Sophia.

It even made him more stunned. She must have known something about him since she allowed him to resign in such a short time. But her words of generosity were admirable indeed.

"If so, I will. Thanks again."

Spencer never expected that the man he cultivated left so quickly and decisively. When Hank went to meet Spencer, he asked, "Should I ask somebody to teach him a lesson?"

"No!" Spencer gestured him with his hand, "I hear that Sophia let him go easily. By virtue of her cleverness, she must have expected that we will do something in this time. If we do, she will get something on us."

Hank got a quiver, "You're right. I don't take it into consideration."

"No hurry. We can deal with him later. But now, I have lost control of the purchasing department. I'm afraid that I will gradually lose my position in the company."

Hank said in a viperous tone, "May I take some insidious action?"

"No! Sophia can think about what you think. This time, I fail to take advantage of her weakness and get beaten by her. If I can't be more meticulous, I will be kicked out of the company soon."

Hank asked in perplexity, "What should we do next?"

"Wait for the right moment!"

"We've been waiting so long. Abby was out, and we can fulfill our aspiration. But now..."
