

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 287

"It's good to see him leave. Otherwise, I can't help but doubt whether the company belongs to me or him."

Chloe understood quickly and said, "Sophia, don't mind it. Drake is outstanding. He can upstage every man even though he stands still without saying a word."

That was true though!

In fact, Sophia was not that angry. She just thought he needed to be taken down a peg in case he would be smug in front of her.

"Oh, an auction will be held in the evening. I hear there's something good. Shall we go together?"

Auction?

It sounded fun!

"Sure!"

After work, Sophia and Chloe intended to go to the auction. Unexpectedly, Drake, Bailey, and Flynn were waiting for them.

Chloe asked, "We're going to an auction. How about you?"

Bailey said, "What a coincidence! We come to drive you there."

Sophia and Chloe looked at each other. In a case like this, they could only go with them.

Soon, they arrived at where the auction held. When they five got off the car, they met Julia and Graeme, the two people they were "familiar" with.

Jesus, a coincidence again!

Julia was in a luxurious suit, with her chin up like a proud peafowl.

She was walking towards the venue with Graeme arm in arm.
