

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 293

Looking stern, Aria replied aloofly, "Sorry, mister. You made a mistake."

"No way. We had sex countlessly, didn't we? I know every inch of your body well. I cannot make a mistake."

Aria scowled at him immediately. He reminded her of the worst memories and even mentioned them in public.

"You shameless bastard, Rodney!"

Seeing her admit it, Rodney wore a nasty smile and added, "I knew it was you, Aria. Although you look prettier than before, you used to be my girlfriend. How would I have made a mistake!"

"Shut the fuck up!" Fortunately, there were only a few people in the lobby. However, Rodney's words disgusted Aria.

Rodney approached her. "What are you doing, Aria? We finally reencountered. Don't you want to talk to me?"

As he spoke, he wanted to touch her.

"Fuck off! Leave me alone!" Aria subconsciously dodged.

Rodney, however, chuckled, "Aria, you never reacted like this before. Back then, you praised me for being good in bed and wanted to be with me for the rest of your life. You also got pregnant with my baby. You cannot forget all those things, can you?"

Those poisonous memories almost overwhelmed Aria, who never wished to recall them. On the contrary, Rodney repeatedly mentioned them.

"Get out of my face!"

Instead of getting angry, Rodney got closer to her. "Aria, we finally reencountered in this city. It means fates bring us together. Do you have the heart to ask me to get out? Don't you know how much I miss you?"

If it were in the past, Aria would believe him again. However, she had changed and realized this man was a scumbag.

"Dare to approach me again. I'll call the security here."

"Haha... No security guard dares to do anything to me."

The security guards guessed Rodney must have some strong backing to work in this company. Besides, one security guard had been fired because of him. The security guards wanted to keep their jobs and dared not to make a move.
