

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 307

The security guards didn't sense anything wrong, so they let Rodney in.

Once Rodney entered the company, he carried out his plan.

He sneaked in to avoid all his acquaintances. Then he arrived at Sophia's office quickly.

He knocked on the door.

"Please enter," Sophia said.

Rodney immediately entered and quickly locked the door from the inside.

Sophia heard the sound and looked over at him, frowning. "Why are you here, Rodney?"

Rodney drifted towards her triumphantly. "Why can't I be here? Since you kicked me out of the company, you should know I'll return sooner or later."

Sophia looked as calm as usual.

Rodney was annoyed. They were alone in the office now. Why wasn't she fearful?

"Are you here to take revenge on me?"

Rodney kept walking towards her, wishing to see her fear. Then he would have a sense of accomplishment.

"Sophia, you should know how I managed to enter. You fired me, so you also offended Spencer."

Sophia snorted in disdain. "Do you think I'm afraid of that old jerk?"

"All right. You are not. If you let me come back, I can be your spy. What do you think?"

"Are you negotiating with me?"

"Of course. After all, I'll make a lot of profits for your company."
