

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 309

Those women had the guts to teach Chloe a lesson because Chloe's hometown was in Pinkerton instead of Sealand. If they were in Pinkerton, they wouldn't be so bold to do so.

Also, they wished to take this chance to impress Leah. After Zain was promoted to the city mayor, their families could be benefited.

Therefore, they also did it for their families.

The women rushed to Chloe and were about to scratch her hair and forcibly take off her clothes. However, Chloe reached out and grabbed one woman's hair.

She reacted pretty quickly and dragged the woman towards the cubicle behind.

After pressing the woman's head into the toilet, she pressed the flush button.

"Love it, huh?" Chloe pulled the woman's head up and asked, a murderous look flashing through her eyes.

Before the woman responded, Chloe pressed her back into the toilet again.

Other women wanted to save her, but Chloe gave them sidekicks. All of them fell to the ground in a blink.

How could they win against Chloe?

After leaving the ladies' room, Chloe looked as normal as earlier. She swung towards Leah triumphantly.

"If you want to do something to me, find competent helpers. They are too lame."

Then she returned to her table.

Leah was surprised to see her safe and sound, wondering what had happened.

She trotted into the ladies' room, only to find her friends lying on the ground and soaking in the water. Their makeup was messy, and they looked miserable.

"You guys..."
