

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 45

"Go, go to the bathroom and find her."

Bard, too, realizing the seriousness of the problem, shouted, "I'm going too."

The corner of Emilia's mouth lifted as the three of them rushed around. Who said she was no match for Sophia? She just didn't give her a chance.

The three arrived at the bathroom just as Sophia came out of it in a panic.

She was all a little messed up, and Helena asked, "Sophia, are you okay!"

Bard was even more angry and shouted, "Who bullied you, tell me, I will help you to teach him a lesson?"

Sophia straightened her clothes: "It's okay, I'm much better, let's walk out!"

Obviously, she doesn't want anyone to know.

Chloe and Helena both glared at each other and followed.

Flynn also saw the news, gave Bailey a look, plus saw that Sophia had also returned, he rushed towards the bathroom.

When I saw Drake again, I found that he had washed his face and even his hair was damp.

"Drake, are you all right!"

How it all feels as if he is injured.

Drake glanced at him, "Nothing!"

"No, you have something you do not hold back, since childhood you have been like this, I feel that in these twenty years, you must have held back."

Drake's eyes fell on Sophia over there, who had returned to her original appearance, as if the previous incident had nothing to do with her.

The corners of his mouth raised an ironic arc, he really lived so many years in vain, all the reason, in the moment of seeing her, all collapsed.
