

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 48

Back in the office, Sophia was getting ready to work when Bard came over and said angrily, "This Drake, this kind of thing is extremely bad for him to influence too, he could have taken the news down with a casual word, but he still didn't take it down, what does that mean?"

Sophia looked up at him, "He wants someone to see it."

"Who?"

"Travis!"

Bard although a little dumb, but good than ordinary people are still smart, he immediately understood: "Oh, he is trying to break up the two of you, you broke up his marriage, he was angry, so he thought of breaking up your?"

Sophia smiled and didn't say anything.

"This petty man, fortunately you broke up with him, otherwise brother must beat him eight hundred and sixty times a day."

Sophia looked over at him, "Well, get to work. If you don't learn anything here, Dad will say something about me."

"Fine, fine, I'm on my way!"

Drake, no, he still has to find a chance to teach him a good lesson.

the Riley Group.

Drake picked up the receiver of the landline and heard it say, "President, Master Travis of Lawson family is calling you, would you like to transfer?"

That's the call Drake was waiting for, but the tone was unintelligible: "Put it through!"

The call was quickly transferred.

"Mr. Riley!" came a not-so-good tone of voice from the other side.

"Master Travis!" Drake still had a smug smile on the corners of his mouth.

"I really didn't expect Mr. Riley to be such a childish person, do you think that just with such news alone, you can make us Lawson family think differently about Sophia? You are really doing it wrong, we Lawson family are not your Riley family, not knowing people well."

"Sophia in the end did not do, will not betray me, not only me, the family can see clearly, this time is only the only time, next time, Mr. Riley, can not blame us Lawson family not polite."
