

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 56

"Don't get into trouble, the employer said, never once slip up!"

"Alas, what a pity!"

The two of them had to throw the man down the outside, into the sea.

Sophia's whole body is tied up, there is no ability to move, even if she can swim, but the situation is not good for her.

Does it mean that the last time she didn't die, this time it's really going to end her life?

Mom, Dad, and brothers, I'm sorry, we may have to meet again in the next life

Sophia felt her body going down and down, unable to bear it more and more, and her eyes were dark, could everything really be irrevocable?

Just then, I saw a man coming towards her quickly and shouted, "Sophia, Sophia!"

Who is that person, is that you, Drake

When she woke up again, Sophia felt that someone was unblocking her breathing. She opened her eyes and a handsome beauty appeared in front of her.

She looked at him with wide open eyes.

By the time she reacted, she pushed the person in front of her straight away.

"Drake, what are you doing?"

She thought it was an illusion, but never thought it was really him.

After pushing it away, I realized that he was all wet, like he had just fallen into the sea as well.

Sophia's eyes sank, did he really save her just now?

Drake looked straight at her, "Sophia, you're not even human, I just saved your life and this is how you treat your savior?"

It's really him, but

"You did save me yes, but who knows if you had anything to do with me being thrown into the sea this time." With that, she climbed to her feet.
