

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 89

"He must be your cousin, right?" Drake looked like he was waiting for her answer.

Sophia hooked her lips: "This would have nothing to do with Mr. Riley, right, he loves to be mine who is mine"

Before the words were finished, he said with a true voice, "Of course there is a relationship."

Sophia's breath caught in a sudden pause.

"If there has never been another man by your side in these three years, it means that you still love me, it means that it is still possible between us."

At home, the more he thought about it, the more overwhelmed he felt.

The thought that they could go back to the old days made him feel that there was hope in his life all of a sudden.

Sophia spoke plainly, "Mr. Riley, you've had too much to drink!"

"I haven't been drinking at all!" Drake deadpanned her, forcing her to tell the truth.

Sophia tries to leave, but Drake won't let go of her at all.

Sophia said helplessly, "Drake, you're really annoying!"

He paused in his movements for a moment.

She said he's really annoying!

"So, you hate me already?"

Sophia lifted her head and looked straight at him, "Do you think I could ever like you again?"

In the end, they are still separated for three years, maybe it's not someone else's relationship, but there seems to be no way to go back to the old days between them

Sophia saw him loosen up a bit, pushed him straight away and went back to the private room.

Chloe has always been a fun-loving person and plays well with the staff, but when she saw Sophia back, she asked.

"I don't suppose you've met something, what took you so long to come back?"

"Nothing!"
