

Right Person 507

Chapter 507 Gotten Carried Away

In the meantime, Colton carried Hayden to another room. After making sure they were alone, Hayden stopped pretending and pouted, placing one hand on Colton's face. "How wicked that lady is! She pinched me so hard that I nearly died! You have no idea how much it hurt me!" Hayden recounted what happened while rubbing his waist.

Colton chuckled in response and asked, "So, did you deliberately pee on her?"

Hayden responded with a cold grunt, thinking he would have retaliated against Queenie if he hadn't pretended to be mentally ill. "That lady wanted to make me suffer.

If Aunt Wendy hadn't shown up just in time, she would have tortured me to death. Don't let her in next time. I still have a long way to go, and I don't want to die young!" Despite his young age, the boy expressed his words maturely like a grown man.

Colton kept a straight face and carried the boy to the bathroom. As he was about to take off Hayden's clothes, the child covered his lower body with his hands, his face blushing in embarrassment. "I can do this myself. Give me some space here."

eyes on his son from behind and raised his eyebrows as he grabbed Hayden by the collar. "I'm your father, so what's there to be ashamed of? Furthermore, been showering me ever since I was little, but the same but reflect on his past. Although Hayden was indeed his son, he couldn't deny don't be shy. Have you forgotten about our first time

Colton in the bathroom. Back then, the boy even complimented his manhood to gain his amusement, glimpsing the adorable child as he eventually decided to let go of him. "Well, you're still a kid, it snappy, and holler at me if you need to take a shower and wrapped himself with a big towel when he was done. Then, he opened the door and stepped out his hair with the hair dryer. Meanwhile, Hayden only kept his head