

Right Person 508

Chapter 508 Didn't Leave

When Anna heard what Queenie said, she couldn't help but get angry. She sent Queenie a cold glare and said in a low voice, "You are an adult, so how can you not know when to keep quiet?"

Queenie changed her expression, then instantly realized Anna was mad because she had said that Hayden was stupid.

She clenched her fists. She couldn't understand why the Gardners would favor a stupid child so much!

However, now was not the time to be fussy. Queenie curved her lips and apologized, "S-Sorry, I should've watched my mouth."

Earlier on, Queenie had intended to remind Anna that this child was a lost case, and if Anna wanted an obedient grandchild, she could only put her hopes on the child in Queenie's belly.

Sadly, Anna was very protective of her own family, so she couldn't tolerate a single bad word about Hayden.

Anna glanced at Queenie, then averted her gaze to look at Hayden's face.

a fuss as he lay quietly against Colton's when she first interacted with Hayden. This little child was extremely adorable back been cool and distant even from a young age. He wasn't likable even as a child, and he would just call her 'Mom' indifferently whenever "Hayden must be tired now.

turned around and looked at come near my grandson ever again. If you really wasn't me. This child is now out of his mind, and he doesn't know anything. No one knows when he'd suddenly act Anna's expression darkened completely. She was extremely dissatisfied as she glared at Queenie and reprimanded, "Enough! Why do you keep insisting that he's went pale in the face as she hastily shook her head and said, "No, Mrs. Gardner, please don't misunderstand. I am now Colton's wife, so I

eyes, waving her

I'm not concerning myself with you and Colton. However, you shall not enter the Gardner Residence ever again. I

from Anna, Queenie

but she felt fortunate that Anna hadn't

Hayden had gone stupid and Colton was about to marry