

Right Person 510

Chapter 510 Thankfully Alright

At this moment, Richard felt the most helpless and lost. The elders in the family never forced him to do anything. In university, he had resolutely chosen to study medicine.

When his family found out, they didn't object. Instead, they smiled and told him, "Studying medicine is good. When we have a doctor in the family in the future, we'll feel more relaxed no matter what sickness we get."

Meanwhile, the Jenkins ran a company focused on interior design. Even though they couldn't compare to the Gardners, they were still quite well-known in the country.

Now, he felt as if he were standing at the edge of the cliff, and a sheer drop with unfathomable depths was ahead of him. Behind him was a pack of ferocious and hungry wolves, yet he couldn't step forward nor backward.

Richard swallowed, but he didn't say anything in the end. He held his head between his hands as he waited outside the emergency room.

Fortunately, Julia was sent to the hospital on time, so she wasn't in serious danger. The doctor walked out with a grave expression and looked up to ask, "Who's the family member?"

Nicole hadn't even answered when Richard stepped forward first. With a stride, he went right up to the doctor and said, "Me."
