

Right Person 511

Chapter 511 Heard Everything?

Even though Hayden had now gone out of his mind, he would quietly sit at the side if there was nothing going on, and he wouldn't even make a fuss.

Colton smiled and said, "Queenie said that Hayden was playing by himself when he accidentally fell and got injured."

"Queenie?" When Nicole heard Queenie's name, her expression turned even worse. She frowned and said in a low voice, "Are you saying that Queenie has been alone with Hayden before?"

Colton nodded.

For some unknown reason, Nicole suddenly got mad, and she immediately began reprimanding Colton, "How could you leave Hayden alone with Queenie? You should know what sort of woman she is!"

Looking at Nicole, who was a little worked up, Colton reached out and patted her on the shoulder. He then comforted, "Don't worry, nothing serious happened to Hayden."

Hayden's condition was like a heavy piece of iron that weighed upon her these days, and it was threatening to crush her. Now, even the smallest thing could stir the woman's emotions.

serious? Can't you see that large red sniffled and continued with her eyes red, "We both know what sort of person Queenie is. She wants to marry you, so Hayden and I are the get so worked up. He was about to say a few words alone with Queenie in the

she was getting too emotional. She adjusted her temper, dabbing at the tears in the corners of her eyes as she said quietly, "I was more prone to anger these days, and she tense like a taut line, and to hug Nicole. He pulled her in his embrace as he comforted her by saying, "It's okay, my research

Nicole looked up at Colton and her voice

Nicole's hopeful look, Colton felt as if his whole neck had stiffened. He couldn't shake his head as he smiled and

"Yes."

on Nicole's face as she sniffled

and said quietly, "Go back and rest well. I'll have truly too fatigued, and she didn't want to

