

Right Person 513

Chapter 513 Recovery

Anna walked up and looked at Hayden, feeling distressed. "Let me have a look at you, Hayden. I'm glad that you're alright," she whispered.

Hearing her words, Hayden blinked his eyes and nodded, knowing that she was concerned about him. "I'm fine. I just feel a slight pain here." After finishing his words, he rubbed his waist, which was where Queenie had pinched him.

Then, he thought for a moment before continuing his words. "I had a nightmare, Grandma. I dreamed of a bad woman wearing a light blue dress. She pinched me." He tugged on Anna's sleeve and looked at her innocently with his big doe eyes.

When Anna heard Hayden's description of the woman, she knew immediately that he was talking about Queenie as she was wearing a light blue dress when she came to the Gardner Residence!

At that moment, Anna was fuming in anger. Yesterday, she kept insisting that Hayden fell on his own. I didn't know that she was lying to me! she thought.

furious Anna was, Hayden deliberately asked, "What's wrong, Grandma? You look he realized she was angry, Anna immediately regained her composure and looked at him gently. "No, I'm not angry. Since you have woken up, go for a walk with Mommy. I'll see if there is any food in the nodded his

the room, her face was gloomy. However, she did not make a huge fuss as Queenie's wedding was just around the corner, and she would ruin Queenie's reputation by then. As was awake. There were so many things she wanted to say to him, but Mommy. I'm fine," said Hayden obediently as hummed in guilty since he had been lying to her. Fortunately, Nicole didn't find out and Nicole to keep Hayden's well-being a secret. After all, Hayden was Queenie's target. If she were to know that he had heard his words, she furrowed her brows and fell into deep thought. After a moment, she felt that Colton was right and nodded. "This should indeed be a secret. Otherwise, we won't be able