Chapter 519 A Clarification

Colton didn't feel pity for the man when he heard the man's grief. "Who tempted you?" he asked. "I-I don't know. I haven't met him before. All I know is that he is a man through the phone." The man shook his head and choked on his words.

Hearing his words, Colton sneered and looked at the man. "I'll give you two choices. The first one is to explain the situation of your sister's death. Either that, I'll let you join your sister," he said.

"I choose the first. I don't want to die." The man nodded as he was frightened by Colton's words.

Then, Colton chuckled and waved his hand, signaling the bodyguards to let the man go. "I like people who know what they are in for. Tomorrow, I will hold a press conference. I'm sure you will know what to say and what not to," he said coldly.

The man nodded his head repeatedly and promised, saying, "I understand."
