

Right Person 528

Chapter 528 Feel Better

Whitney's words angered Mr. Booth, and he pulled her over, trying to do something. Just as his hands were pulling her clothes, the door was being kicked open, and Douglas entered with a gloomy face.

Seeing that it was Douglas, Mr. Booth was displeased. "What are you doing, Douglas?" he questioned.

However, Douglas didn't reply to his words. When he looked at Whitney, he stepped forward and pulled her to his side, saying, "I'm afraid that I can't give her to you, Mr. Booth. If there's anything you want to say, we'll talk about it next time." After finishing his words, he was going to leave, but Mr. Booth wouldn't let him do so. After all, he almost got his hands on Whitney. How could he watch as Douglas took her away?

"Think it through, Douglas. If you are to take her away, there's no way we will be working together!" Mr. Booth threatened.

said, "Working with you isn't the only option for F&R Enterprise. Think about it, Mr. Booth. Goodbye." With that being was hazy, she could still sense the familiar scent of Douglas. At that moment, she staggered and would have fallen to the ground if it weren't for Douglas pulling her. However, under the influence of alcohol, she swatted his hand away. Then, she frowned took a step you give me. However, you don't need to act as if you care about me." As she spoke, she was getting hysterical. "You have already started a family, and nothing will happen between us. If you want to take revenge, you should have given me to that man. I don't need you to was silent. Then, he took a step forward and carried her on his shoulder, still not saying a single word. Whitney who was waiting by the car, saw him in the backseat of the car, of the car and looked at the secretary. "I'm sure you know what to say and what not if