

Right Person 530

Chapter 530 Can He Satisfy You?

Nicole knew William favored Queenie, but she never thought he would be blatantly biased. She curled her lips in a sneer and said mockingly, "Don't you feel embarrassed that Queenie had lied to him while using my body?"

When William heard her words, he did not feel ashamed and even emphasized his warning. "No matter what happened in the past, she is his wife now. Her child will be the heir of the Anderson Family. Don't you dare do anything about it!"

Listening to his words, Nicole scoffed and thought, Looks like Lydia and Queenie are still hiding it from him, making him believe that the child in Queenie's womb is Colton's. That's just hilarious.

"I'm just here for the wedding. I'm not going to cause a stir," Nicole whispered. When William heard her words, he thought that she had surrendered. Then, he breathed a sigh of relief and didn't say anything more.

was perfectly made in every way possible; even the desserts were said to be shipped from abroad. Colton spent be heightened with Queenie's wedding. At that moment, many people were flattering them, hoping to have a connection putting makeup on Queenie while flattering her. "You have such nice skin, Miss Anderson. It Overall, she looked majestic and elegant. It was her wedding with Colton, so she was also happy with the makeup artist's words.

as her words fell, the dressing room door was pushed open. At first, Queenie thought it was Colton, but when she turned around, she saw Bryan standing there. When Queenie saw him, her face went pale. I she was dressed nicely, Bryan gave her a mocking smile. "What should she shooed the makeup artist. "Why don't you leave first? I have something to say left, as she could also sense that something was off between them. As soon as she closed the door, Bryan walked toward Queenie and grabbed her by the neck. "How capable of you to