Chapter 134

“Good afternoon, Mr. Dawson!” A group of senior executives of the Junlin Group once again bowed respectfully and excitedly to Joseph. They were the backbone who had worked hard together with Joseph six or seven years ago. After Joseph disappeared, they helped him to manage the Junlin Group. They didn’t let the Junlin Group fall. Later, these old men were fired by Fu Junlin, but they quietly waited for an opportunity. Because they believed that one day, their king would return. Today’s Joseph again was Fernando from seven years ago. At that time, Fernando was in high spirits. He acted incomparably and moved forward bravely.

He had a natural king momentum, which made the top business elites follow him voluntarily. The king of these people returned and seemed to be more powerful than before. They were very excited.

Meanwhile, in the Junlin Group, staff were all looking at the window of the dozens of floors. But in the next moment, they were strictly prohibited from taking photos or making noise.

Joseph smiled at his precious daughter, Chloe, who was in his arms. He pointed at the Junlin Group building in front of him, which was hundreds of meters high, and said, “Chloe, let’s let mom come here to work, okay? How about giving this building to mom? What do you think?”

Chloe clapped her hands happily. She nodded excitedly and said, “Okay, Dad, let’s give this building to Mom and let her come here to work. Mom will definitely like it. This building is so big.”

“Hahahaha.” Joseph listened to his daughter’s naive words and couldn’t help laughing out loud. Then he took a step forward and walked to Junlin Group with Chloe in his arms. Naturally, he was followed by dozens of top executives of Junlin Group. Wherever Joseph passed, everyone bowed their heads, except for Chloe, who looked straight ahead.

At this moment, Joseph felt extremely happy when he told his daughter that this high-rise building was theirs. They gave it to Paige, and Chloe, the natural supporting actor, did a good job. Joseph felt that life should be like this. Only in this way could it be exciting enough!

Joseph went in with Chloe in his arms, while Serena was still standing next to the Porsche that Joseph had bought for her.

For some reason, looking at the towering building of the Junlin Group, she felt that she had suffered a great loss. She thought that Joseph had a company in Usmit and should have the money to buy her a luxury car worth two or three million yuan.

However, he didn’t tell me that the Junlin Group was his. This was the Junlin Group, ah ah ah. Serena was roaring in her heart.

At this moment, the shock in her heart was beyond description.

“My sister, my sister, what kind of man did you find? This is too excellent. Paige, do you know that the Junlin Group, which ranks first in Usmit City, is owned by your family?” Serena’s heart could not calm down for a long time.

At this time, Alpha 1 in white suddenly appeared beside Serena and said with a smile, "Oh, Serena, keep it a secret. This is a surprise for your sister. Soon, it will be about ten days. Junlin Group will be handed over to your sister. You must keep it a secret."

Serena suppressed the shock in her heart and nodded, saying, "Well, I will keep it a secret. But Alpha 1, the Junlin Group belongs to Joseph This, this is the Junlin Group, which ranks first in Usmaït City!!!

Alpha 1 asked in confusion, "Yeah, yeah, what's wrong? Is there a problem? Boss is now the seventh commander of the Divine King level military. Is it strange that he has a company? Boss still has a few companies, but they are only in the Outer Region.

"It's just Junlin group. Is it strange?" Alpha 1 frowned.

Serena was shocked. She continued to point to the Junlin Group in front of her and said to Alpha 1, "Well, but this is the Junlin Group."

Alpha 1 patted Serena on the shoulder and said, "All right, Serena, you haven't changed your mind yet. Don't forget that Wang Tianhai, a late-stage God of War, can be in charge of the military in Usmaït City with great power. Boss is a Divine king, and even we are at the peak of the God of War. Any one of us can beat Wang Tianhai. So is it strange for him to be in the Junlin Group?"

"Er... It seems that I can accept it, but... Well, okay, I accept it. Joseph is so awesome!" Although Serena felt that Alpha 1 was right, and in theory, it was true. However, she just felt a little awkward, and there was an indescribable feeling in her heart, and she didn't know why.

"The Junlin Group belongs to Joseph. Five years ago, the legend in Usmaït City was Joseph. Now, the seventh commander of the Frogua's military is also Joseph!" Serena kept telling herself in her heart. She wanted to force her to calm down, but she couldn't do it anyway.

Alpha 1 smiled and said, "Well, go upstairs. Boss has already gone in. It should be your first time to come to Junlin Group. Let's go directly to the top floor. There is a leisure area on the roof, where can see the scenery of the whole Usmaït City. It is very beautiful. Let's go there and have a look.

"Okay..." Serena nodded in a daze, and then followed Alpha 1 up.

At this moment, Wang Tianhai, who was far away in the Usmaït Military, suddenly trembled. His back was covered with cold sweat. He first glanced around and found that he had returned to the headquarters of the Usmaït Military. He breathed a sigh of relief. But the next moment, he frowned tightly and murmured, "No, why did I have a very dangerous feeling just now? Did someone miss me?" Wang Tianhai was confused and couldn't figure it out after thinking for a long time. But in the end, he made a plan in his heart, which was to keep a low profile. It was very dangerous now in Usmaït City. Well, it was extremely dangerous.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, in the president's office on the top floor of the Jun Lin Group building, Chloe was sitting happily on her father's lap, looking at the dozens of people standing respectfully in front of Joseph. Chloe herself couldn't express her mood, but she just felt very happy and proud.

Joseph said to Ren Pingsheng, "Well, you can arrange the rest. The press conference of Junlin Group will be held half a month in advance. At that time, I will let my wife be the president of Junlin Group! You can hold the ceremony!"

Ren Pingsheng nodded respectfully. "Yes, Mr. Dawson. Don't worry. We promise to complete the task."

Well, well, you can go out. By the way, bring in the people I arranged. After Joseph finished arranging the press conference, he let Ren Pingsheng go. Let him personally manage Junlin Group? Don't joke. He didn't have that interest. It was better to give it to his wife. He was easy.

After a while, Dennis, Ernie, and Logan, who had not seen each other for a long time, all walked to Joseph's office. After the three greeted Joseph respectfully, they all smiled and greeted Serena. "Miss Mooney, long time no see. When Serena saw these acquaintances, she was shocked again. She pointed at the three of them and said with her mouth wide open, "You, the three of you are also here?"

Joseph smiled and said, "Well, the three of them are very capable people. In the past, their vision was limited in a small place.

Now when they come here, they will help your sister take over the Junlin Group in half a month. Your sister is also familiar with the three of them, so it will be more convenient.

"Well, Joseph, are you serious? Did you really give Junlin Group to my sister? Don't you manage it yourself?" Serena was a little shocked.

Joseph nodded and said, "Well, of course, if I manage it myself, it will be boring."

"Chloe, I'll spend more time with you in the future, okay?" Joseph kissed her on the face, which made Chloe laugh. She nodded and said, "Well, you stay with me, and Mom will manage the company, and I go to play with you."

Serena couldn't help patting herself on the forehead.

When Joseph took Serena to the Porsche 4S shop to buy a car, Paige drove to Usmaït Industries Company to work at the same time. However, as soon as she entered the company and hadn't sat down yet, her supervisor, a woman in a black suit with a high bun behind her head, stopped her. When the woman saw Paige, her face was dark. With a bang, she threw the folder in her hand on Paige's desk and said to Paige coldly, "You are Paige, right? You haven't passed the probation period yet, but you don't come to work? Do you think the company is run by your family? Do you think you can come and go as you like? Huh?"

"Um, Madam Zhao, I... I've asked for leaves, Paige said with a little guilty."

Hearing that, the supervisor surnamed Zhao was even angrier. He shouted, "You asked for leave? Well, then did I approve it? I didn't approve of it. You're so good. You've been working for five days a week, and you've skipped half of it! Come with me!" After Zhao Xiaogging finished speaking, she turned around angrily and left. She was going to take Paige to her office to teach her a lesson. Furthermore, she was already thinking of firing Paige! It was too disrespectful of the company's discipline!

Paige's heart trembled and her face paled. She hurriedly apologized. "Madam Zhao, I'm sorry. I really have something to do at home, so I didn't come. I promise that I'll finish all my loose workload and I'll definitely work overtime in the future!" Paige whispered behind her as she chased after Zhao Xiaogging.

“Hmph! You’re still thinking about the future? Huh, you don’t have a future! Paige Mooney, I’ll tell you right now that you’ve been fired!” Zhao Xiaoqing, who was walking to the corridor, said to Paige harshly before slamming the door behind her and walking into her office.

Hum... After hearing her words of being fired, Paige stood rooted to the spot. In an instant, she felt extremely disappointed. She didn’t expect that she would actually be fired in two days. At this moment, Paige’s heart was filled with too much unwillingness.

However, before she could think much, a voice came from behind. “Getaway. Don’t block the way. Can’t you see that Mr.

Shangguan is here?”

“Oh, I’m sorry, I’m sorry; Paige quickly apologized, then raised her head and walked to the side. At this moment, the old president of Usmit Industries Group, the head of the Shangguan family, Shangguan Bo was surrounded by a large group of people, suddenly saw Paige’s face out of the corner of his eye.

When he saw her, he was shocked and threw away the document in his hand. He was so scared that he fell backwards. For a moment, he felt that he had no strength at all.

Shangguan Bo was very clear about this woman in front of him. Yin Zheng had told him before that this woman’s real identity was Joseph’s wife! Moreover, Joseph would give up everything to protect her.

When Shangguan Bo saw Paige have his company’s badge hung on her chest, and her face looked very strange as if she was going to cry?

“F*ck, God, don’t play with me. I’m about to die. I’m really scared.”

At this moment, Shangguan Bo looked at the expression of Paige, who had clearly suffered a great grievance in his company.

His heart was about to pop out of his chest, and his lips were trembling.

“God, do you want to kill me? Do you want to destroy my Shangguan family?” Shangguan Bo was about to cry at this moment.
