Chapter 135

“Quick, quick, quick! Let’s go and see what’s wrong with the woman. Help me over there, quick, quick!!!” Shangguan Bo saw that Paige was sad and about to walk away, so he quickly asked his assistant to help him over there.

At this moment, when Paige was about to leave, she suddenly heard Shangguan Bo’s anxious voice...” Miss Mooney? Miss Mooney, please stay. Please stay.’

She paused and looked back at Shangguan Bo, who was surrounded by the crowd, in confusion. Then she was a little confused.

She felt that Shangguan Bo in front of her was a little familiar as if she had seen him somewhere before. At this moment, she thought that Shangguan Bo in front of her was the old president of Usmit Industries, the head of the Shangguan family! He was such a big shot in the whole Usmit. How could he stop her? But she was confused, and at this moment, Shangguan Bo had already come over to her.

“Mr. Shangguan, are you calling me?” Paige asked doubtfully. Looking at Shangguan Bo’s pale face and trembling body, she was a little worried, as if the old master of the Shangguan family was not in good health.

Shangguan Bo was so anxious that he was about to cry. He was in good health, but when he saw that Paige had been wronged by him, he felt very bad. He had just received news last night that two days ago, the Yin family was about to attack again. It seemed that they were Semi Titan level. Moreover, there were ten superiors of the God of War, but they were all dead.

Shangguan Bo knew that it was done by Paige’s husband. At the thought of this, Shangguan Bo was scared. If Joseph knew that his wife had been wronged in his place, wouldn’t he be revenge?

Thinking of this, Shangguan Bo broke out in an even more cold sweat. He quickly walked up to her and said, “Yes, yes, Miss Mooney. Have you forgotten that we met at the Yin family’s dinner two months ago? But there were too many people that night.

You, you didn’t remember it clearly.”

At this moment, Shangguan Bo was speaking very politely to Paige. At this moment, the executives of the Usmit Industries Group, as well as some of the direct descendants of the Shangguan family, such as Shangguan Bo’s granddaughter, were all shocked. Her grandfather was the head of the Shangguan family, the old president of the Usmit Industries Group. How could he be so polite to a small employee of the company? How was this possible?

At this moment, not only were the executives of the company and the descendants of the Shangguan family but also Paige was shocked. Was the Shangguan family one of the most important figures in Usmit City so friendly to her?

She suppressed the doubts in her heart and nodded at Shangguan Bo. “Oh, then may I ask, President, what can I do for you? Shangguan Bo’s pale face was still dripping with cold sweat. He quickly squeezed out a smile and said to Paige cautiously, “Well, Miss Mooney, can I ask you, what’s wrong with you? You don’t seem to be happy. I saw that you have our company’s badge on you. Are you working in our company?”

Paige nodded, then shook her head and sighed. She said sadly, "It used to be, but I'm afraid it's not now. I took a few days leaves a few days ago, and my supervisor fired me just now. Alas."

A few days ago? D'mn it! Wasn't that the time when something happened to the Yin family? Joseph was worried that something would happen to his wife, so he asked her to stay at home? Shangguan Bo was indeed a smart guy. He almost made up some things in an instant.

But then, he suddenly reacted and was scared. He stammered to her, "You, you, you, you were fired?"

She nodded and said, "Yes, I'm sorry, President. I'm going to pack up my stuff. Don't worry, I'll be leaving right away. I'll be leaving soon.'

"F*ck!" Shangguan Bo went crazy. At this moment, he was truly crazy. He hurriedly stopped Paige and said, "Don't, don't, don't, don't go. Wait a moment. What's your supervisor's name? Where is he? I'll make the decision for you!" At this moment, Shangguan Bo anxiously ran in front of Paige and stopped her. F*ck, he really couldn't let her go. If she went back now, the Usmit Shangguan Family would just wait to be destroyed. At this moment, Shangguan Bo was scared.

Without waiting for her to speak, he couldn't wait any longer. He slapped the assistant behind him and kicked him again. He shouted with an anxious look, "You are such a good-for-nothing. Why are you still standing here? Where is Miss Mooney's supervisor? Where is the supervisor? Hurry up and find him! Hurry up!"

The supervisor was also shocked by Shangguan Bo. At this time, Shangguan Bo's granddaughter, who was also the vice president of Usmit Industries, hurriedly said to Shangguan Bo, "Grandpa, what's wrong with you? It's just firing an employee. Don't worry, don't Worry."

The next moment, Shangguan Bo was so anxious that he slapped Shangguan Tong in the face. He roared, "What the f*ck do you know! Hurry up, hurry up, we meet big trouble."

Shangguan Tong also panicked at this time, because she had never seen her grandfather so anxious and beat her in such a hurry. Then, what kind of person was the woman surnamed Mooney in front of her? How could her grandfather be so scared? The next moment, when Shangguan Bo was furious, the door of an office in the distance opened. Zhao Xiaqing, who had just fired Paige, hurried out. She was also anxious. Just now, she heard Shangguan Bo in the office calling her anxiously. So she did not dare to let him wait for along time. She rushed out and shouted to Shangguan Bo from a distance, "President, it's me. I am Paige's supervisor. Zhao Xiaoqing, what's wrong?"

Hum... Shangguan Bo suddenly targeted the supervisor, Zhao Xiaoqing. The next moment, he rolled up his sleeves and rushed to Zhao Xiaqing angrily. He slapped Zhao Xiaoqing's face continuously. "You are the supervisor of Miss Mooney, aren't you? It's you. I'll kill you, kill you."

Shangguan Bo roared and tried his best to smash Zhao Xiaoqing's face with all his might.

"Ah. President, please listen to my explanation. Please listen to my explanation. Paige didn't come to work for no reason. I fired her according to the company's regulations. I was right. Chairman, please listen to my explanation. Listen to my explanation... Zhao Xiaqing was also stunned by Shangguan Bo."

To be honest, Zhao Xiaoqing, was a senior executive of Usmit Industries. No matter on any occasion, she was still a top figure.

After all, she came from a big company. But at this moment, facing the furious Shangguan Bo, who slapped her in the mouth crazily, she did not dare to say a word, because it was easy for Shangguan Bo wanted her to disappear in Usmit.

“A reason? Fk! What’s wrong with Miss Mooney’s absence for a few days? Who the hell are you? Huh?”

“This company was Miss Mooney’s home. She could come and go as she wished. What did it have to do with you? You are just a dog raised by me! How dare you bark at your master? I will kill you today!!!” The more Shangguan Bo said, the angrier he became.

Zhao Xiaoging had been beaten to the ground by him, but Shangguan Bo was still angry and continued to hit her hard.

“President, calm down. Calm down.” At this time, the group of senior executives behind Shangguan Bo couldn’t stand it anymore. They were not worried that Shangguan Bo would beat Zhao Xiaoging to death, but they were afraid that Shangguan Bo would get into trouble. He was an old man. If something bad happened to him, he would be in big trouble. Therefore, a group of people rushed forward to stop Shangguan Bo.

At this moment, Zhao Xiaoging, who was lying on the ground, also rushed to beg for mercy to Shangguan Bo. “President, I was wrong. I’m sorry, I was wrong. Zhao Xiaoging was so scared that he knelt down in front of Shangguan Bo. At this moment, her fear had reached a critical point. No matter how stupid she was, she knew that Paige was far from someone she could afford to offend. Shangguan Bo gasped for breath and said to Zhao Xiaoqing with a cold face, “Don’t apologize to me, apologies to Miss Mooney. If Miss Mooney doesn’t forgive you today, I’ll tell you. You’re finished. You’re completely finished! Even if Jesus come today, they can’t save you. I’m telling you!” There was already a trace of cold killing intent in Shangguan Bo’s eyes! Compared with the whole Shangguan family, this silly woman was not worth mentioning at all. Kill her! And this kind of snobbish person was not a good person!

Well, Paige in the distance sometimes had low EQ and slow reactions. So it was not until the moment that she realized it, but she still couldn’t figure it out in her heart. The next moment, her supervisor, the commercial elite supervisor of Usmit City, had already knelt down in front of her, cried and apologized to her, while slapping herself, “Paige, I’m sorry, I’m wrong, I’m sorry, it’s all my fault. Can you forgive me?”

“Huh? Paige, are you qualified to call her like this? Call her respectfully!” In the distance, Shangguan Bo’s face darkened as he continued to speak to Zhao Xiaoging.

Zhao Xiaoging’s expression became even more sullen, and she slapped herself even harder. Her eyes were filled with horror as she spoke to Paige, “Miss Mooney, I’m sorry, I’m sorry, I was wrong, I was really wrong, I’m sorry.’

“Well, it was fine. Madam Zhao, please get up. Forget it, it’s all past;’/ How could she bear it? She wanted to help Zhao Xiaoging up, but Zhao Xiaoging did not dare to get up.

“F*ck off! F*ck off!” Shangguan Bo walked behind Zhao Xiaoging and kicked the Zhao Xiaoging whose face was covered with many layers of powder, out.

After Zhao Xiaoging scrambled out of the office, Shangguan Bo immediately put on a smiling face in front of Paige and said cautiously, “Miss Mooney, I’m really sorry for what happened today. Miss Mooney, don’t worry. It’s our blessing that you can work in our Usmit Industries. In the future, you can come and go as you like. Miss Mooney, you just got scared, right? How about you go to my office and rest for a while. By the way, we can talk about your work. You can choose any position you want in the company, whatever you like.”

“Well, I... Mr. Shangguan, I... I was confused and didn’t know what to say for a while,” Paige replied. Shangguan Bo gave her granddaughter Shangguan Tong a signal, and Shangguan Tong immediately got it. At this moment, she was also extremely shocked.

She was very smart. In the top families in Usmit City, the Yin family had Yin Chaage, and the talented female descendant of the Shangguan family was Shangguan Tong. Not only was she beautiful, but she was also very smart. Her grandfather had just hit her in anger because she had said something disrespectful to Paige. And her grandfather’s frightened look made her suddenly think of something.

Yes, at present, among the top level of the whole Usmit, everyone knew that there was a terrifying figure in Usmit. That powerful figure took back the Junlin Group. Two days ago, he killed ten God of War-level killers in the Yin family, and there were two matchless masters who were far more terrifying than the God of War.

So at this moment, Shangguan Tong almost instantly understood. Was this Paige in front of her was Joseph’s wife? At the thought of this, Shangguan Tong looked at the harmless and kind-hearted Paige and instantly felt extremely scared. So after Shangguan Bo signalled her with his eyes, she quickly walked to the side of the Paige, took Paige’s arm, and walked to the president’s office of Shangguan Bo.

When Paige and Shangguan Bo disappeared, the entire Usmit Industries was in an uproar. Almost everyone was talking about who Paige was.

Two and a half hours later, Paige, who was in a good mood again, walked out of Shangguan Bo’s office accompanied by Shangguan Tong. Besides, Shangguan Bo accompanied her personally because Paige told Shangguan Bo that her husband was coming to find her. Shangguan Bo was scared again. Shangguan Tong, who was also accompanying her, was also frightened. Shangguan Bo and Shangguan Tong and hundreds of Usmit Industries employees were leaning against the window and looking down when Paige walked out of the Usmit Industries.

Five minutes later, a bright black Lamborghini rushed to the gate of Usmit Industries at an extremely fast speed. After a beautiful and domineering drift, the car stopped.

He was more than 1.8 meters tall and in a pure black suit. He was extremely handsome, but his eyes were cold. Joseph got out of the car.

“Shangguan Bo! You’re courting death!” After getting out of the car, Joseph noticed that there was a very obvious tear stain in the corner of Paige’s eyes. The killing intent on his body instantly! Half an hour ago, he received a report from Alpha 7, saying that Paige
