

Rise 139

Chapter 139

The next morning, Estella got up early in the morning and began to dress up as soon as possible. At eight o'clock in the morning, Estella couldn't wait to take Joseph back to his parents' home.

"Mom, are you really not called Paige and Dad come with us?" Joseph said to Estella in a strange way. Estella shook her head and said, "Paige? Let her sleep more. She was very tired last night."

"Eh..." Joseph couldn't help but blush. He felt a little guilty when he thought of how Paige had slept very soundly when he got up in the morning. Since Paige had taken the initiative last night, he had to let her know how powerful her husband was. No matter what, he was a Royal level existence, and his physical quality was very good. Well, in the end, Paige's physical strength was exhausted. Joseph estimated that Paige would not wake up until noon or afternoon.

Estella saw that Joseph's expression was strange. As an experienced person, she instantly understood something. So she quickly changed the topic and said, "Well, didn't Paige drink a lot last night? Let her sleep for a while. We'll come back after lunch. And Yahir? Huh, I don't want to talk about him anymore. Is he addicted to disco? How old is he? I think he's crazy. In a few days, I'll have to teach him a lesson!"

Only then did Joseph say, "Well, okay, Mom, let's go."

Estella was also full of excitement. Finally, she could return to her hometown proudly. Her son-in-law was the commander of the Seventh Department of the Frogua military. He had great power! Even Wang Tianhai, who was in charge of the Usmit military, did not dare to breathe heavily in front of her son-in-law. Well, Estella was so excited that she did not even play mahjong last night to sleep early and went back to her parents' home to vent her anger.

Moreover, Estella's clothes were all top brands. She asked Serena to accompany her to buy them. They went to the top shopping mall in Usmit City. Well, of course, it was paid by the black card of Joseph. Anyway, Joseph has plenty of such cards, Serena was always asked for them. So he gave the black card of tens of thousands or hundreds of millions of yuan to Serena. Serena also promised him to keep it a secret.

So Serena and Estella bought the top shopping mall in Usmit City without looking at the price. So at this moment, Estella was wearing a luxurious dress. No matter how you looked at her, she was a noblewoman! When Estella and Joseph went downstairs, Estella said to Joseph in confusion, "Joseph, um, which car should we drive? Is it your Lamborghini? That car is so good. I heard that it's a limited edition in the world. It's so domineering..." Since Estella knew that Joseph had a Lamborghini, she wanted to go there by it. She thought about it all night, thinking that she would take Joseph's luxury car back to her parents' home. At that time, those people would envy her!

But the next moment, Joseph shook his head and said, "Mom, I don't want to drive that car. Of course, you can drive it and I'll take another car."

"Huh? I drive? You..." Estella said to Joseph in confusion. But before she could finish her words, there was a sudden brake sound in the distance, and Estella was shocked.

In the next moment, in a neat row, there were more than a dozen cars of the Usmait military parked in front of Joseph and Estella. Even the car numbers was an extremely domineering one! In the front and back of the motorcade, there were several tanks of the military! The front and back of the cars were full of the most elite soldiers in Usmait. Each of them was a warrior at the peak of the five-star level. Their domineering unified clothes made people know that they were elite troops! Moreover, they were elites among the elites.

The next moment, the God of War of Usmait military, Wang Tianhai, the chief of the Police Department in Usmait City, and the chief of the Municipal Administration Department, Si Tianzheng, got out of one of the cars in formal attire. They walked respectfully to Joseph's side and greeted him. "Good morning, Mr. Dawson."

Joseph nodded. He took out the Lamborghini's key from his pocket and threw it to Estella. He said with a smile, "Mom, you can drive the Lamborghini first. We'll follow you. Don't worry. I'll be with you!"

Estella looked at the three top figures in Usmait City and felt very excited. "Good Joseph, you understand me!" She was so excited that she didn't know what to say. She kept nodding. She quickly said to Wang Tianhai, Lu Tianxun, and Si Tianzheng, "Sorry to trouble you, Sir. I'm sorry."

Wang Tianhai and the others quickly shook their heads and said, "Don't say that, Estella, don't say that. Well, we're not busy. You go first, and we'll follow you."

In fact, they were very helpless. It seemed that the three of them had high status. In the past, they would not even pay attention to a woman like Estella. But she was the mother-in-law of Joseph. Moreover, they had a thorough understanding of Joseph's character. He was a person who was good to him, and he would treat the person better. For those who were hostile to him, he would revenge them at any time without hesitation.

"Well, all right, get in the car and go back early. You can have breakfast with me and we talk about something by the way," Joseph said.

"Well, don't look for me in these days. I'm not free these days..." Joseph said with a smile. Then he got in the car. Paige immediately went to work at Junlin Group. He planned to get Chloe to school in person these days. Chloe had found a school in the community, but Joseph had been busy all the time, so he had never personally gotten Chloe to school. He felt very regretful.

Moreover, Chloe was at an interesting age, very cute. He wanted to stay with Chloe every day and play with her.

Estella drove Joseph's luxurious car. She stepped on the accelerator and left. Well, although Estella was a little older, she still had youth in her heart. She was particularly excited. So when she drove, she was so excited that she kept speeding up.

More than half an hour later, Estella arrived at her parents' community. Her mother had passed away. Her father was there, and Estella had left early. All her two brothers had not gone to work, so they lived in the same community.

In fact, the Sheppard family were not poor. There was a small company in Usmait City. Master Sheppard had been there all the time. Although it was not big, it was worth tens of thousands of yuan. Moreover, these years, the Sheppard family also bought some real estate in Usmait City.

Therefore, the Sheppard family looked down on Estella, who had been married to Oplen. They also knew that Estella's father was a good-for-nothing. The car they drove was just worth about 100,000 yuan. They couldn't even afford a better car.

Therefore, Estella's relatives had a sense of superiority in front of her.

But at this moment, in the courtyard of the Sheppard family's community, Estella's father and her two brothers were shocked when they saw Estella parked a Lamborghini in front of them. Estella's father looked at her with wide eyes and asked, "Estella, Is this... Is this your car?"

The next moment, Estella's brother also frowned and said, "Estella, I haven't contacted you for a long time, but this is your car?" Estella's second brother also said, "Estella, if I'm not mistaken, this car is a limited edition Lamborghini in the world, isn't it? Even if you have money, you may not be able to buy it, and the price is not low. Where did you get this car?"

Estella was so proud of herself. At this moment, as she chatted with the Sheppard family, a lot of people had gathered around the medium-sized residential quarter of Usmait City. This was a real luxury car, the top luxury car in the world! All of them looked at Estella with admiration.

Estella looked at her family members' shocked expressions and listened to their unbelievable words. Estella was so proud. At this moment, she only felt that the anger that had accumulated in her heart for so many years was gone!

The next moment, Estella said with a smile, "Well, this is my son-in-law's car. Is it okay? Oh, by the way, we have returned to Usmait, living in the centre of the city, the house is not big, only a few hundred square meters. Dad, is there any difficulty in your company? If there is, remember to tell me, and I will help you solve it."

After Estella finished speaking, she said to her brother, "Brother, I heard that you went to work at the Municipal Administration Department, right? If you are in trouble, you can tell me."

In the end, Estella looked at her second brother and said, "Second brother, and I heard that your child went to the Police Department, right? Okay, do you want me to say hello to Lu Tianxun? We are a family. Do you want me to help you?"

By the time Estella finished speaking, the three people of the Sheppard family were all shocked. At this time, there were more and more people around.

They all looked at Estella in surprise.

Master Sheppard stared at Estella. After a while, he said, "Oh, Estella, we have been sorry for you these years. There are difficulties for you. Please return your car. I also know a few experts in the hospital of Usmait. Dad will take you to see them."

After Master Sheppard finished speaking, Estella's second brother and eldest brother also looked at Estella with sympathy. They meant that Estella was sick!

Estella looked at them meaningfully and said, "Dad, brother, second brother, don't say that I didn't give you a chance. Do you really not need my help?"

The three of them shook their heads. Then Master Sheppard took out another bank card from his pocket and handed it to Estella. "Estella, there's still some money in this card. Take it... you."

"Hahahaha. That's what you said. Don't say that I didn't give you a chance!" Before Master Sheppard could finish his words, he was interrupted by Estella's laughter. The next moment, Estella took out her mobile phone and called Joseph.

At this moment, in the motorcade where Joseph was not far away from the community, in Joseph's car, Joseph smiled helplessly and said, "Well, it's time for us to show up. Let's go and support my mother-in-law!" As soon as Joseph finished his words, the whole motorcade started to move. One after another, the highest-level cars of the Police Department, Usmait's Municipal Administration Department and the Usmait military drove in. In the next moment, under the shocked gazes of the Sheppard family, they saw some big shots on TV, Lu Tianxun, the chief of the Police Department of Usmait City! Si Tianzheng, the chief of Usmait City's Municipal Administration Department! Wang Tianhai, the God of War of Usmait Military! All of them appeared, and hundreds of the most elite soldiers around instantly guarded the surroundings. At this moment, Joseph, who was standing in front of Lu Tianxun, Si Tianzheng, and Wang Tianhai, walked up to Estella with a wry smile and said, "Mom, you must be feeling better this time."

Estella nodded excitedly and said, "Well, it's so comfortable. Hahaha, good Joseph, let's go home for dinner. This is also our home!"

After Estella finished speaking, she quickly said to the frightened and trembling Master Sheppard, "Dad, hurry up. Joseph is here. Go home quickly. Do you want Joseph to stand outside?"

"He, he, he, he, who is he?" Master Sheppard stammered to Estella.

Estella nodded and said, "Well, my son-in-law, the son-in-law you scolded back then, the one you were scolding him for bullying Paige? Joseph went to the military at that time, but now he is back. Well, his level is not high, he is now the seventh commander of the Frogua's military, and he only cares about a dozen Gods of War under command."

Estella kept a low profile at this time, but the three Sheppard family members were so shocked that they couldn't speak.

Joseph smiled bitterly and bowed to Master Sheppard. "Nice to meet you, Grandfather.

During lunch, all the Sheppard family members were extremely reserved. Joseph talked to Lu Tianxun, Wang Tianhai, and others about some things. After lunch, Joseph took his people away. He did not have a good impression of this family.

When Paige was alone with Chloe, they were no different from the Mooney family in recent years. They didn't help at all and even sneered at her. It was impossible for Joseph to forgive such behaviour. This time, he came here just to vent Estella's anger and made these snobbish people feel regretful. If it was in Oplen, the fate of this family would not be better than that of the Mooney family.

Therefore, Joseph would not stay long.

When Joseph returned home in the afternoon, Paige had already woken up and had eaten something. However, she still felt weak and sore all over. When she saw Joseph go back, she looked at Joseph with resentment. She didn't want to go to her grandfather's house, not to mention that she hadn't gotten up today. Even if she got up, she didn't want to go. She had never been there since she was a child. Moreover, she had not had any contact with the Sheppard family in the past few years when she had taken Chloe with her. She had already cut off contact with them.

Joseph walked behind her and hugged her from behind. He kissed her slender and fair neck and said with a smile, "Honey, how about resting for a while? Yesterday, Yin Chaoge said that she would invite us to dinner tonight. Didn't she always want to see me? I don't know what she wants to do. Why don't you rest for a while? Let's go there later?"

Paige turned to Joseph confusedly and said, "Chaoge wants to see you? Well, hasn't she seen you long ago?" Joseph spread out his hands and said with a smile, "Well, yes, I've seen her for a long time, so I don't know why she wants to see me. Honey, do you think she likes me? After all, I'm so handsome, don't you think so?"

"Ow!" Before Joseph could finish his words, Paige bit his arm and glared fiercely at Joseph, saying, "How dare you!" She bared her little tiger teeth and clenched her little fists as she spoke. She had an extremely fierce look on her face.
