

Rise 146

Chapter 146

Early morning on the next day, which was a Friday, Paige put on a white lace dress and went to work as usual. Junlin Group encouraged female employees to do makeup before work as putting on make up would boost their confidence level at work. Well, this was also a suggestion from the founder of the Junlin Group in the past.

Joseph sent Chloe to school after Paige left for work, then he had nothing to do. He had practically done everything he wanted to show Paige. He could also tell that after her arrival at Usmit, in addition to her onemonth plus working experience at Shangguan family's, and now her work Junlin Group, her horizon had been widen a lot. She was no longer who she used to be compared to those days in Apren City and Oplen.

At present, in Usmit City, both the environment she as at as well as the people she met were all cream of the crop. After such a long time, she had completely blended in. After all, everything she had was the best, including a husband who was impressive enough in Usmit, so she was improving at a tremendous speed. Her ability might not be quite there yet to manage the entire company, but her vision was already sufficient. The saying of "the height of where you stand dictates your scenery" was indeed true. Paige was standing at the tallest building in Usmit City. She was witnessing not only the scenery of Usmit City, but also the scenery of the entire world.

Standing at the gate of Chloe's school, Joseph looked in the direction of Junlin Group with a smile on his face.

He had nothing to do anyway, so he decided to have some fun with Paige.

Therefore Joseph drove to the Junlin Group. When he was in the car, he changed into a new set of clothes. His face was covered with an imitated human skin mask, and he wore a special pair of contact lenses that could change the look in his eyes. Then he changed his hairstyle, and extended his height by a few centimeters with his magic. So almost in an instant, Joseph became a different person. His temperament was no longer the natural king of righteousness, but a man with a little evilness. Well, of course, this kind of temperament was even more fatal to women, especially in the eyes of beautiful women.

At the gate of Junlin Group, when Joseph got out of the car, Ren Pingsheng was stunned. His old eyes were wide open. He looked at Joseph in disbelief and said, "Mr. Dawson? You, you, you... what are you doing?" Joseph smiled and said, "I'm here to have fun. The press conference hasn't started yet, so of course I can't show up with my identity. And I'm now Fernando Dawson, you better not leak my little secret. I'll go and see my silly wife now. Do you know which level is she at now?"

"Oh, Mrs. Dawson is at the marketing department on the 23rd floor. Are you going to go there now?" Ren Pingsheng was serious. If Joseph hadn't sent him a message telling him to pick him up, he really wouldn't have recognized him. Until now, he still looked shocked.

Joseph looked at Ren Pingsheng speechlessly and said, "It's just a little trick. If you use a modern technology such as checking my fingerprints, my identity will be easily revealed. It's nothing. So I told you before that you must double check the company's security. In the future, everyone who attempts to assess the important departments must be checked, otherwise you won't know if someone breaches in."

Ren Pingsheng stared at Joseph, who had changed into another person. He could not help but ask, "Mr. Dawson, has the Outer Region technology reached such a level? Have you changed your voice too?"

Joseph's mouth twitched twice when he heard that. He looked at Ren Pingsheng with disgust and said, "Screw those technology!"

"It's just a small trick. An average killer in the Outer Region battlefield can do it easily. There's nothing new about it. Reconstructing body is the real top medical technology. Besides, isn't this what Jun Lin is doing as well? Well, don't talk nonsense. Hurry up and go in. With you following me, no one will recognize me."

"Well, alright, Mr. Dawson..." Ren Pingsheng suppressed the shock in his heart and followed Joseph into the company.

After Joseph entered the Junlin Group, wherever he went, there would be a sensation, because only the President of the Junlin Group could make Ren Pingsheng follow him while he roamed freely in the Junlin Group.

"He's so handsome. The President is so handsome. No, I could no longer feel my legs... A beautiful employee said so after Joseph walked pass her.

The President's so imposing, he's just like the prince of the royal family. His temperament is outstanding, and he's really handsome, much more handsome than the celebrities...' Another female employee with high heels and long legs had her heart racing fast too.

Joseph was smiling at those female employees who were screaming and covering their faces. To be honest, if he wanted to be a jerk, he could make all the scums in Frogua lose to him in no time. He didn't even need to make a move and those women would pounce on him as soon as he showed up. Alas, fortunately, he was a gentleman.

"Alas... Pingsheng, do you think I can make a good living with my face? Why am I surviving with my talent instead." Joseph said to Ren Pingsheng with a face full of emotion while they arrived at the corner of the walkway that had no one else.

Ren Pingsheng, who lowered his head, twitched the corner of his mouth a few times. A strand of hair in the middle of his head was blown by the wind from the window a few times. He was trying hard to digest that statement. However, he had no choice but to remain silent and nodded. "Well, yes, isn't this quite true? Alas, Mr. Dawson, what a pity for your handsome face!"

In fact, Ren Pingsheng was so disgusted in his heart that he almost threw up. "D*mn narcissistic." Well, although Joseph was very handsome and elegant, Ren Pingsheng was also a man. At this moment, although Ren Pingsheng was complaining in his heart, he still nodded to Joseph. After all, he was the President of the Junlin Group.

He couldn't afford to offend him.

“Alas... pity on my handsome face. How nice it would be if I could be a jerk. However, I’m not allowed to do so as I am an educated young man. Alas... what a dilemma.” As Joseph spoke, he nodded and smiled at the two beautiful employees coming from the opposite corridor.

Suddenly, the two beautiful employees were so surprised that they couldn’t walk properly. They quickly covered their faces and ran away.

“F*ck! You’re out of your mind! If you continue to do this, I’ll quit! This is your company. It’s not mine, not mine!!!” Ren Pingsheng looked at Joseph’s narcissistic look at this moment and wanted to clench his fists.

At this time, Joseph, who was standing in front of him, suddenly turned around and looked back at him, saying, “Haha, old man, what are you dissatisfied with? You have to endure it. To be honest, I have been in the Outer Region battlefield over these years. Don’t you know that I am already a Divine King? You really can’t beat me. If I deal with you, you will die within one move.”

Ren Pingsheng cried, he was crying in his heart. He didn’t know why the current Joseph would become like this. Well, because before leaving Usmaït City five years ago, he was not like this. He was as serious as he could be and rarely joked.

Thinking of this, he couldn’t help but ask Joseph, “Mr. Dawson, what have you gone through on the battlefield these years? Why has your personality changed?”

“What did I go through? Haha, nothing. I just fought thousands of life-and-death battles. Later, I thought it through. You only live once, so don’t let yourself suffer too much. Do whatever you want. Why don’t we live a happy life instead? Tell me, am I right?” Joseph said to Ren Pingsheng with a smile.

The corner of Ren Pingsheng’s mouth twitched twice, and he said gloomily, “Mr. Dawson, don’t poison me with your fake motivational quotes, so is this the reason why you threw Junlin Group to us old guys and went to live a happy life?”

“Hahaha...” Joseph looked at Ren Pingsheng’s expression and immediately laughed.

He patted his shoulder heavily and continued to walk forward. Well, it was time to find his silly and sweet wife. By the way, he wanted to see if her wife had hooked up with another man behind his back.

“Believe it or not! I’ll quit!” Ren Pingsheng gritted his teeth and said to himself in his heart, staring at the back of Joseph who was already leaving. But the next moment, he was discouraged.

“Alas, forget it. Anyway, I am the international vice president of Junlin Group.” He held back his anger.

After muttering a few words in his heart, a voice sounded in his ears again, “Don’t go against money, okay?”

Hehe.

At this moment, Joseph saw no signs of Paige, instead, he encountered Bethany, who was going out with a stack of documents. She was also stunned when she looked at “Joseph”.

“What the hell? Is this the President of Junlin Group? Didn’t my father say that the President of Junlin Group is Joseph? Then who is this person in front of her? Is that Ren Pingsheng that’s walking behind him?” Bethany was suddenly confused and didn’t know what was going on.

Joseph didn’t expect to meet Bethany here, so he smiled at Bethany. He walked to Bethany and said, “Miss Parry, don’t be in a daze. Let me introduce to you Mr. Dawson!”

Only then did Bethany suppress the doubts in her heart and shouted to Joseph, “Hello, Mr. Dawson! Joseph nodded with a smile and said, “Well, you must be Bethany, Logan’s daughter. I heard Logan mention you. Well, not bad, very excellent. By the way, I heard that the wife of the new commander of the Frogua’s military is also here, right? Is her name Paige?” Bethany nodded in confusion.

“Yes, yes.” Joseph showed a charming smile and said, “Well, okay, where is she? Take me to her. I also want to see what type of lady managed to conquer the youngest commander of the Frogua’s military... Lead the way.”

The smile on Joseph’s face grew wider.
