

Rise 147

Chapter 147

“Oh, okay, okay.” Bethany nodded and took Joseph to Paige. She led the way with doubts, followed by Joseph with a smile. Soon, they arrived at an office hall of the marketing department. Paige was in front of the computer drafting a proposal seriously. The next moment, Paige, who was working hard, heard screams and exclamations. The whole office was boiling.

“Good heavens, the President’s here. He’s so handsome...”

All the female employees were screaming beside her. Junlin Group was too big. There were more than 100,000 employees in the world, and even the headquarters at Usmit had about 20,000 to 30,000 people.

Therefore, most of the employees here were seeing the President of Junlin Group for the first time. Moreover, most of the employees joined the company within the last five years. As for why would they recognize the President? It was as simple as ABC Ren Pingsheng was following behind him.

Hearing the scream beside her, Paige was also stunned. Then she couldn’t help raising her head and looking at the door.

Then she saw Bethany walking toward her, followed by a tall and handsome man with an indescribable temperament. Behind the man was Ren Pingsheng, the vice president of Junlin Group.

When she saw the President of Junlin Group walking towards her, she was stunned. The President of Junlin Group was actually looking for her?

At this time, Bethany had already walked towards her and whispered to her, “Paige, Mr. Dawson is looking for you. He wants to see you, probably because your husband is Joseph.”

Paige nodded and was a little surprised. The President of Junlin Group was also a real legend, and in some aspects, he was comparable to a commander of the Frogua’s military. He was as outstanding as her husband. As for Paige, even though she wanted to meet this legend badly too, she had no feelings for him too. How should she phrase it? It was like a fan liking a celebrity who only wanted to meet the celebrity without other thoughts in mind.

Well, this was Paige’s mindset now. She was also very curious of the person who could make the company the leading company in Usmit, or even one of the top five companies in Frogua or the top 100 leading companies within the entire world in merely a couple of years.

At this time, Joseph walked to the front of Paige, looked at her with a smile, and said, “Haha, are you Paige, Miss Mooney?”

Her heart kept pounding as she said nervously, “Yes, I am. Mr. Dawson, what can I do for you?”

Looking at his silly wife’s expression, Joseph really wanted to laugh. Well, then he really laughed out loud. His silly wife really didn’t recognize him. “Mr. Dawson, what are you laughing at? Is there anything on my face?” Looking at the man’s smile in front of her, Paige became even more nervous.

Joseph waved his hand and said, "Well, nope, I came here for something else. Let's talk in your supervisor's office."

As soon as Joseph finished speaking, Ren Pingsheng walked to the front and drove the people in the office out. Then Joseph and Paige entered the office under everyone's gaze.

"Oh my god, what's Mr. Dawson going to do by calling her in? Is he going to do that? Mr. Dawson, why don't you choose me? I'm willing to give myself to you" A beautiful employee said with jealousy.

"Well, Mr. Dawson won't choose you. I read in novels that such an overbearing president like Mr. Dawson likes innocent and somewhat ignorant girls more. You are such a playgirl. You must have no chance..." Another female employee curled her lips and said.

At this moment, Bethany, who was standing in the hall, frowned deeply. She felt that something was wrong. Wasn't Joseph the President of Junlin Group? Then who was the man standing in front of her? Moreover, the position of the President of Junlin Group was not much lower than that of Joseph. Now that the man had took Paige into the office and there were only the two of them inside. what would Paige do if the man did something to her?

The more Bethany thought about it, the more anxious she became. So she rushed to the corridor outside and took out her mobile phone to call her father eagerly. She knew that her father had also settled in the Junlin Group and was on the top floor of this building.

As soon as the phone was connected, Bethany said eagerly, "Dad, let me ask you, two months ago, when you were in Aglela, you told me that the President of Junlin Group is Joseph, right?" Bethany covered her mouth and asked Logan in a low but extremely eager voice.

On the other side of the phone, Logan was obviously stunned, and then he replied to her, "Yes, is there a problem? And I have told you that Mr. Dawson is holding the press conference of Junlin Group the day after tomorrow to give Paige a surprise."

Bethany was anxious and hurriedly said, "But Dad, just now another President of Junlin Group came to find Paige. Now he has already taken Paige to the office, and there are only the two of them inside. Dad, that person does not look like Joseph though."

On the other side of the phone, Logan was also confused. He paused for a few seconds and asked, "Bethany! Don't joke around. Junlin belongs to Mr. Dawson. How could other man fake his identity? And how could you be sure that the man that you are talking about is the President of Junlin Group?"

She said, "Ren Pingsheng's following him though. He's the vice president of Junlin Group and he's following Fernando Dawson. But didn't you say that Fernando and Joseph are the same person?"

At this time, Logan, who was on the other side of the phone, was also anxious and hung up the phone. Logan had to contact Ren Pingsheng. If someone dared to pretend to be Joseph and do something to Paige, it would really be a blow to the sky. At that time, the entire Usmit would be in chaos.

At that time, the youngest commander of the military in the history of Frogua would collide with the youngest commercial legend in the history of Frogua. How could it turn the world upside down? The more Bethany thought about it, the more she felt that it couldn't go on like this. Something would really happen. Thinking of this, she quickly called her father Logan, but the phone was engaged. After more than ten seconds, Bethany couldn't wait any longer and turned to rush into the office, trying to pull Paige out.

But just as she was about to go in, Ren Pingsheng came out with a bitter smile on his face. He made a subtle gesture to Bethany and whispered, "Miss Parry, don't worry. The one who just went in is the one you're expecting him to be."

Hearing this, Bethany's mouth suddenly opened wide. She looked at Ren Pingsheng in disbelief and said, "Mr. Ren, are you kidding me? Let me tell you, if something happens to Paige in there, it will be very troublesome. It will really be very troublesome."

She looked at Ren Pingsheng seriously. He sighed with a bitter smile and said, "Miss Parry, I swear it's really Mr. Dawson. His face is just covered with a layer of skin, but he is so bored that he insisted on coming to have some fun with Miss Parry. And he even f*cking took Fernando's identity."

After that, he took out his mobile phone and clicked on the WhatsApp message that Joseph had sent him before asking him to go down and pick him up. He then handed it to Bethany and said, "Look, this is Mr. Dawson's mobile phone number, right?"

"Uh. After she saw the phone number clearly, she was speechless. Then she also understood that Joseph was now the seventh commander of the Frogua's military. The President of Junlin Group must be crazy enough if he really wanted to provoke Paige out of no reason. Therefore, no matter how bizarre what she saw, it was true. It was indeed Joseph.

Bethany, who finally understood what was going on, was immediately speechless. "D*mn it, the two of them are showing off their love under broad daylight." The corners of her mouth twitched fiercely.

At this moment, in the office of the marketing department, Joseph was sitting in a chair and staring at the extremely nervous Paige in front of him. After looking at her for a long time, he said, "Miss Mooney, I have no other intention of asking you here. I just wanted to see how would the wife of the youngest commander of the Frogua military look like."

Joseph looked at her and said with a smile. When she heard this, she nervously bit her lip and did not know what to say for a while. After all, the man in front of her was also a legendary man. He was more than a legend in the company.

"Mr. Dawson, I, I..." Paige stammered, but she couldn't say a complete sentence.

At this time, Joseph stood up and walked in front of her. He was getting closer and closer to her. She quickly moved aside and said seriously, "Mr. Dawson, please behave yourself! I am a married woman. Don't be like this!"

"Are you referring to your husband, the commander of the military? After coming back to Usmit, I too heard that he's also an excellent man. I heard that he's the same age as me, and his surname is Ye too, right?" Joseph felt relieved when he saw that Paige had escaped, but he felt that it was fun, so he continued to tease his silly wife.

Hearing that, Paige nodded. "Yes, my husband's name is Joseph. He is now the seventh commander of the Frogua's military. Mr. Dawson, I have always admired you in my heart. Don't take it further."

Hearing this, Joseph turned around and sat back in his seat. He looked at her with a faint smile and asked, "Haha, Miss Mooney, you think too much. I can have plenty of women if I really want to. Well, although you are also very beautiful, I'm sorry. My conscience will not allow me to do anything to you. And I was just joking with you just now. Don't take it seriously. If I have indeed offended you, I'm sorry."

Hearing this, Paige let out a long sigh of relief. That's right. The man in front of her was the dignified President of Junlin Group. He was handsome and rich and he could have all kinds of women easily. She knew she was overthinking it so she patted on her chest with a sigh of relief.

"Mr. Dawson, my husband will be here at your press conference too. I think you two might be able to befriend each other." Paige replied.

Joseph shook his head with a smile and said, "Befriend? Well, I don't think so. You will know the reason soon."

"Forget it, let's not talk about that. I'll ask you now. In fact, I'm very curious. Who do you think is better, me or your husband?"

"Ah?" Paige was stunned, because the President of Junlin Group had asked the same question that Joseph had asked her the night before.

"Well, you two are like orange and apple. My husband is from the military, and you're from the business world. You're different. Both of you are excellent." Paige said after thinking for a while.

"Are we both excellent?" Joseph, who was sitting in the seat, narrowed his eyes.

In the depths of his elegant eyes, there was a trace of dangerous coldness. Was this silly woman lying to him last night? How could she deny the fact that her husband was the best?

Well, it seemed that he had to teach her a lesson tonight. Joseph was secretly determined.

"Mr. Dawson, is there anything else that I can help? If you don't, I'll get back to work..." said Paige nervously.

Joseph nodded and said, "Well, okay, it's all right. I'll meet with your husband at the press conference the day after tomorrow."

After that, he got up and opened the door for her in person. Then, he walked her all the way to her work place.

Paige also realised that all the colleagues were staring at her with admiration, and she felt that something was wrong. So she looked up at Joseph and said, "Mr. Dawson, I, I need to work now."

"Okay, go ahead then." Joseph nodded and then said to her with a smile, "Don't overwork yourself. If you need anything, feel free to look for me at any time. I should be here these days."

She nodded smiled awkwardly. At this moment, she felt that she could not explain clearly. However, the man in front of her really did not do anything to her. He seemed to have stayed with her in the office for half an hour.

Finally, Joseph took a deep look at her and said to Ren Pingsheng behind him, "If Miss Mooney needs anything in the future, you'll need to help her out."

"Yes, Mr. Dawson!" Ren Pingsheng nodded very seriously.

He then turned to her and said, "Miss Mooney, in the future, if you need anything, you can call me whenever Mr. Dawson is not around. I'll be there at any time."

After Ren Pingsheng finished speaking, he followed Joseph out, he really had fun with his little trick. When they walked to the door, they met Bethany, who was standing in the corridor.

At this time, Bethany was speechless and whispered to Joseph, "Mr. Dawson, is it fun?"

Joseph was stunned and then laughed. He nodded and said, "Well, it's really fun. She was perfunctory last night. She said that I was better than the President of Junlin Group."

Bethany was stunned and asked, "Well, I bet you asked her the same question as the President of Junlin Group just now. What did she say though?"

At this moment, Bethany suddenly had an ominous feeling.

Sure enough, the next moment, she felt a trace of dangerous coldness in Joseph's eyes.

"She said that we are equally excellent."

After saying that, Joseph left. Ren Pingsheng quickly followed him.

As for Bethany, she turned around and looked at Paige's office desk in the office. Then she couldn't help patting her forehead.

"Silly girl, you're screwed. This time, you've really pissed the devil off. Alas, Paige, you're screwed."
