

Rise 148

Chapter 148

When Paige returned home in the evening, she found that Joseph didn't cook dinner. His face was dark and he seemed to be in a bad mood.

She walked up to Joseph and asked gently, "Honey, what's wrong with you?"

"Humph!" Joseph snorted and gritted his teeth. He ignored Paige and went to guide Chloe in her homework. Paige was confused.

At this moment, Serena walked to her side, Paige took the opportunity and asked, "Serena, what's wrong with your brother-in-law?"

Serena stared at her with a strange look and said, "Don't ask me about this. Didn't Joseph go to find you today? You provoked him, didn't you?"

She was stunned. After thinking for a long time, she shook her head and said, "No, I didn't provoke him."

Ah... Serena looked at her and sighed deeply while shaking her head. "When Joseph came back in the afternoon, he did tell Serena about what happened at the office. Since Serena had been to Junlin Group, Joseph had nothing to hide from her so he told her everything.

"What's going on? Why do you have the same expression?" Paige was even more confused. Even until the present moment, she hadn't associated the President of Junlin Group who was looking for her today with Joseph.

At night, he still had a cold face and didn't want to talk to this silly wife beside him. So she went to Joseph to comfort and coax him.

"Honey, don't be angry, okay? I was at fault. I'm sorry, can you smile for a moment?" She began to act like a spoiled child in his arms.

Joseph snorted and said, "Humph, isn't there another man who's as excellent as your husband in your heart?"

Uh... Paige was stunned. At this moment, she suddenly remembered what she had said when the President of Junlin Group asked her the same question. However she was wondering how did he find out about it, and how could he get to know the incident this quickly?

"Honey... You, you know all about it?" She looked at Joseph in great surprise.

The corners of Joseph's mouth twitched a few times. He turned over and refused to talk to this woman anymore! Well, he wanted to deal with her with silent treatment.

Looking at Joseph's bad temper, Paige suddenly became speechless. "How can my husband be this narrow-minded, isn't this a little bit too much?"

She then coaxed him in various ways. After a long time, she even gave him another good time in bed. And eventually, he was no longer mad.

It was midnight. She trembled as she looked at the man sleeping soundly beside her. She was really speechless for what that had happened.

“My husband is really a little narrow-minded, isn’t he? I didn’t say that you’re not good, nor did I say that you’re not excellent enough. I just said that both of you are equally excellent. Do you need to care so much?”

Well, in fact, what she didn’t know was that Joseph was really a man with jealousy, especially when it came to Paige. In fact, Joseph himself might not have noticed this too. He would feel uncomfortable in his heart even if Paige was just casually chatting with another man. Time flew by and it was already the next day, Joseph deliberately took the human skin mask to visit Junlin Group and continued to show off his presence in front of her.

On Sunday, the day before the press conference, Joseph went to gain a sense of existence again.

However, Joseph only sat next to Paige and accompanied her as the President of the company. He did not speak to her.

But even so, the employees of Junlin Group were in a heated discussion. Rumors were everywhere that the President of Junlin Group fell in love with this married woman, and even many female employees who didn’t know the identity of her husband began to privately persuade her to divorce and be with the President.

It was obvious that the company’s employees were more and more envious of the relationship between Paige and the President of the Junlin Group. The crowd began to split sides, one admired Paige, and the other party became jealous of her. Some began to treat her better, and some began to be indifferent to her.

Well, no matter what, Joseph showed up in front of Paige for three days in a row with the identity of the President. It was until the extent that all the employees of company knew the existence of Paige.

And then, the identity of Paige’s husband as the God of War became another rumor in the company.

Therefore, the Junlin Group that was already full with gossips, became messier. The President of the Junlin Group was a legendary figure, yet Paige’s husband was also the God of War in Outer Region! For a time, everyone felt that the Paige was just like the heroine in the love novels. The two most outstanding men in the entire Usmit City were actually circling around her.

Well, Paige became extremely famous in Junlin Group, and soon the news spread throughout the whole Usmit City. Because on Sunday noon, the President of Junlin Group invited Paige to sit beside him at the first row of the press conference on the next day.

Hundreds of media reporters, who had been stuck at the entrance of Junlin Group, immediately rushed to report the breaking news. Paige face too instantly appeared over the headlines in Usmit City.

At three o’clock on Sunday, in the President’s office of Junlin Group, Joseph stood in front of a huge French window and looked at the scenery of Usmit City in a distance. There was a smile on his face. He was almost there, and the press conference would be held the next day.

He was looking forward to seeing the expression on her face when she realized that he was the President of the Junlin Group.

Ren Pingsheng stood respectfully behind Joseph. It was not easy for him as well. In the past few days, he had been accompanying the masked Joseph every day, while suffering all kinds of setbacks in his heart. This kind of life was finally coming to an end. Mr. Ren immediately felt that he had finally made it, so he smiled more brightly.

The next moment, Ren Pingsheng said to Joseph with a smile, "Haha, Mr. Dawson, when Mrs. Dawson sees that you're the President of Junlin Group tomorrow, she will definitely be stunned... But Mr. Dawson, now everyone in the company is talking about the gossip between Mrs. Dawson and the President of Junlin Group. Should I do anything about it?"

Joseph smiled and said meaningfully, "Do anything? Why? I did it on purpose."

"So that everyone remembers Paige's name before the press conference. Isn't that better? So that it won't look awkward tomorrow, will it?"

Ren Pingsheng was stunned and reacted almost instantly at the next second. Yes, if all this was done in order to make everyone remember Paige's name, then everything would make sense. He finally understood what Joseph was thinking and couldn't help sighing with emotion, "Mr. Dawson, you are really amazing."

Joseph smiled and said, "Well, nothing amazing about it. I just don't want her to suffer. Remember, till tomorrow's press conference, no matter what happens, the press conference will be held as usual! Well, I'm leaving. Go get the work done!"

Ren Pingsheng also said seriously, "Yes!"

Joseph left. When he went downstairs, he took a deep look at the floor where Paige was and then left.

Ten minutes later, he arrived home in his car. After getting out of the car, he suddenly thought of the Paige's expression when he met her at noon, so he couldn't help smiling.

"Silly girl, that's your husband, the person who sleeps with you every night, but you can't even recognize him. Hey, wait for tomorrow, I'll give you a surprise tomorrow..." Joseph took a deep breath with a smile, feeling very comfortable.

But the next moment, when Joseph was about to walk into the house, he suddenly felt someone's aura running toward him. The figure suddenly stopped when it was ten meters behind him. "Hmm?" Joseph frowned.

"Brother." Suddenly, a shrill cry came into his ears.

"What?" When Joseph heard this voice, he felt very familiar. He suddenly turned around, and he was shocked to see a girl in a ragged white dress covered with all kinds of dirt. The girl's face was extremely pale, and the corners of her mouth were bleeding. There were cuts that were cut on her arms and legs. Some of the wounds had been healed, while some were new, and blood was still flowing out.

"Tang Mei." A name suddenly appeared in Joseph's mind.

At this moment, the girl standing more than ten meters away from Joseph, who was so dirty and messy, burst into tears when she saw Joseph's face clearly. "Brother, it's really you. It's really you."

The girl's crying was extremely miserable. She was from Vowhye and she fled for three thousand miles.

It was because she once heard that Joseph had come back to Usmit. When she arrived at Usmit, she didn't know where Joseph lived. A few minutes ago, when she was wandering in confusion, she suddenly saw a person driving a car past her. She instantly saw that the person in the car was very similar to Joseph, so she dragged her extremely tired body and chased after him. Perhaps it was meant to be, Joseph who was in a good mood didn't drive too fast.

"Brother, I finally found you. I finally found you!" The girl mumbled.

Joseph was also shocked. But the next moment, when Joseph was about to speak, he suddenly saw a man in a suit with a knife behind the girl. The man almost appeared instantly and wiped the knife in his hand toward the girl's neck.

In a distance, there was another man with a sniper rifle aimed at the girl's heart.
