

Rebirth of the Best Businesswoman at School

Chapter 21: Shooting Herself in the Foot

Li Yunmei knew better than anyone how she got injured. Seeing her mother calling the police, Li Yunmei was so scared that she quickly said, “Mom, don’t...”

“Xiao Mei, don’t be afraid. Mom is here. This isn’t over!” Liu Chunxia interrupted her daughter and said into the phone, “Yes, it’s Erzhong in Baiyun. The people involved are here. Please hurry up.”

When the others saw Liu Chunxia call the police, they all looked at one another. Headmaster Feng wanted to say something, but the principal stopped him.

Liu Chunxia was difficult to communicate with. It was obvious that the other party wanted the school to expel Jian Ai. Instead of being stuck in a deadlock, it was better to let the police handle it. There had to be a fair result.

Jian Ai had a calm expression on her face. Obviously, Liu Chunxia’s action of calling the police was like shooting herself in the foot. When they reveal the truth, she would inevitably be embarrassed.

In comparison, Li Yunmei was the most nervous. She had done many bad things in school but had never faced the police. Now that things had developed to this stage, she did not know how to explain.

The police officers were quick and arrived at the principal’s office within ten minutes.

After carefully understanding the whole story, and with so many leaders of Erzhong present, even if it was just a conflict between students in school, the two police officers did not dare to neglect it.

One of the older police officers said, “Since both sides have their own views, let’s check the surveillance cameras at the school gate.”

The security chief nodded. “Although there are only six cameras installed in the school, we should be able to capture the scene at the school gate.”

Li Yunmei panicked even more when she heard that they were going to check the surveillance cameras. She was so nervous that she started to stutter. “Ah... Uncle Police, let's just... forget about it. We won't pursue the matter anymore. Anyway... Anyway, it's just a small misunderstanding between classmates."

"Don't!" Jian Ai smiled and said slowly, "The police are here. If you don't pursue the matter, they would have made a futile trip. That will be a waste of the country's resources."

"This kid is right. Since we are here, we have to resolve the dispute." The police officers nodded.

Liu Chunxia did not seem to have reacted to her daughter's abnormality. She still had a victorious expression on her face. "It must be resolved. If my daughter goes to the same school as such a violent person, as a parent, I will be on tenterhooks every day."

The group of people followed the security chief to the security office. Then, the security chief personally pulled out the surveillance video at the entrance of the school gate yesterday afternoon.

Li Yunmei's face turned pale, revealing guilt, uneasiness, and fear. Especially when everyone saw her kick, which Jian Ai dodged, thus resulting in her split, she was so embarrassed and angry that she wanted to find a hole to hide.

The scene on the screen was obvious. From when Li Yunmei and the rest deliberately stopped Jian Ai and when Li Yunmei took the initiative to attack and finally fell to the ground injured, Jian Ai did not touch her. It was all because of her own mistake.

Chapter 22: The Heavens Will Punish People

One was most afraid of the air suddenly turning quiet...

Everyone was silent after watching the surveillance video. Even Liu Chunxia, who was clamoring to seek justice for her daughter, shut her mouth. The scene was obvious. Anyone with eyes could see that Jian Ai did not touch Li Yunmei.

After a while, Principal Sun broke the silence and said, "Madam Liu, the surveillance camera does not lie. It seems that Jian Ai is not lying. Your daughter's injury had nothing to do with her."

Although Liu Chunxia had a bad temper, she still had her pride. No matter how arrogant she was just now, she was already in a difficult position. Her face, which was covered with foundation powder, could not hide the redness. Her previous arrogance was instantly extinguished.

“That’s right. According to the video, from a legal point of view, the perpetrator is the victim herself. It had nothing to do with anyone else,” the police officer said calmly.

Li Yunmei and her mother were too ashamed to show their faces. They hung their heads and looked defeated. At that moment, they felt like clowns being mocked by everyone. They wanted to leave immediately.

Guan Tao raised her eyebrows at Jian Ai. She thought that it was fortunate that there were surveillance cameras installed at the entrance of Erzong. If not, based on Li Yunmei’s mother’s personality, she would be punished by the school.

This was what it meant to suffer the consequences of one’s own actions.

“Since the matter has been resolved, we’ll take our leave now.” The two police officers did not want to stay any longer since they already had an answer.

“Wait.”

Suddenly, Jian Ai spoke.

Everyone was stunned. Why did Jian Ai stop the police?

Li Yunmei was the most flustered. Although there was no sound from the surveillance video, anyone with a discerning eye could tell that she was the one who had provoked her. Now that Jian Ai asked the police officers to stay, could it be that she wanted to hold her accountable?

The police officer stopped in his tracks and looked at Jian Ai. “Kid, you are not injured. If there is any misunderstanding between classmates, you can just ask her to apologize to you.”

“Yes, Jian Ai.” Teacher Li walked forward and said, “Let’s end this matter here. Look, Li Yunmei is injured too. Let her apologize to you, okay?”

Jian Ai smiled and looked at everyone. “This matter has long been digested by my dinner yesterday. It is not worth mentioning in my heart, so there is no need to apologize.”

After she had finished speaking, Jian Ai’s expression suddenly changed. Then, she glanced at Li Yunmei, who was sitting in the wheelchair, and said, “However, there is another matter that I need an explanation from the other party.”

Everyone frowned when they heard that. They guessed that there might be some other conflict between the two students.

Without waiting for anyone to ask, Jian Ai walked to the security chief and said, "Teacher, there's a second camera capture right by the school pond, right?"

Li Yunmei, who was sitting in the wheelchair, broke out in cold sweat. She seemed to have guessed what Jian Ai was going to do.

"That's right."

There was an artificial pond at the back of the school, and there was a bicycle shed built by the pond. It was used to store bicycles for the school teachers. As it involved personal property, a camera was installed there, capturing the bicycle shed and the pond.

Chapter 23: Don't Blame Her for Trying to Gain Something Without Risking Anything

Guan Tao and Teacher Li also understood Jian Ai's intentions. A few days ago, Jian Ai fell into the pond and even took a few days off due to illness.

However, Teacher Li, who did not know the inside story, thought Jian Ai fell in by herself. But Guan Tao was different. She knew that Li Yunmei pushed her.

"Yes, Teacher. Jian Ai fell into the pond a few days ago. It was actually Li Yunmei who did it. She pushed Jian Ai into the pond," Guan Tao reacted and quickly said. She looked anxious, as if afraid that Li Yunmei would run away.

Everyone was shocked when they heard this. Although Jian Ai was a Class Three student, all the teachers present had heard about her falling into the pond. They heard that a male teacher passed by and saved her in time. Later, she fell ill, so this matter passed quickly.

However, they did not expect another version to appear now.

"You... You're talking nonsense... I..." Li Yunmei panicked. She wanted to say that she did not do it, but she had already suffered from the surveillance camera once. If she pulled out the surveillance video later, she would be slapped in the face again.

Unfortunately, Li Yunmei still did not realize that her pushing Jian Ai into the pond was completely different from what had happened yesterday afternoon.

“Whether Guan Tao is speaking nonsense or not, we’ll know once we see the surveillance video.” Jian Ai’s expression was cold. She initially didn’t want to pursue this matter anymore. After all, it had been so many days since the incident happened, and there was no evidence, so there was no point in pursuing it. However, she didn’t expect that she would accidentally discover six surveillance cameras, and one of them was able to capture the pond. A plan immediately formed in her mind. Since some people were rich and unkind, then don’t blame her for trying to gain something without risking anything.

According to the time Jian Ai provided, the security chief pulled up the surveillance footage of the pond. In the footage, Jian Ai looked very depressed after discovering that Lin Yi had written the love letter to her because of a bet. As such, she walked to the stone bench by the pond and sat there in a daze. After a while, she saw Li Yunmei walk aggressively to Jian Ai. As she spoke, she poked Jian Ai’s head with her finger. Although no one could hear what Li Yunmei said, they could tell from her expression in the video that it was not something good.

Jian Ai kept her head down and looked very afraid of Li Yunmei. She was being poked on the head as she retreated. She was getting closer to the pond. Beside Jian Ai was a public sign, which clearly said that the water in the pond was three meters deep. Students are not to approach!

The teachers watching the scene knew that Jian Ai had fallen into the water, but they could not help but take a deep breath. Their hearts tightened. Then, Li Yunmei’s action of poking her head changed. She pushed Jian Ai’s shoulders with both hands. Jian Ai was caught off guard and fell backward into the pond.

It was not the end. Facing Jian Ai, who was struggling in the pond, Li Yunmei did not panic or shout for help. Instead, she stood on the shore and laughed while cursing for a while. In the end, she walked away calmly.

When they saw this, all the teachers’ expressions turned exceptionally grave. Even the two police officers had serious expressions on their faces. It was as if they didn’t expect a fourteen-year-old high school student to be so cold and indifferent in the face of a classmate’s death struggle. It was simply chilling.

It was also the first time Jian Ai had seen the situation so directly. In the eyes of outsiders, the result might be that she was saved in time and fell ill. But Jian Ai knew very well that only by dying would she be reborn.

Therefore, in this incident, she actually drowned to death.

Chapter 24: She's Still a Child

Jian Ai's face turned cold. She walked towards Li Yunmei and looked down from atop at her. She said softly and coldly, "Li Yunmei, do you know that I can sue you for murder just based on this footage?"

Jian Ai's words frightened Li Yunmei. She immediately said in horror, "I didn't murder... I... Aren't you alive and well now..."

Liu Chunxia was also scared out of her wits. Although she didn't know much about the law, she knew that her daughter was underage and didn't have the qualifications to bear criminal responsibility. She immediately went forward and grabbed the police officer's hand. "Officer, my daughter is still young. She's insensible. Besides, isn't the other party fine? Can you let the matter rest..."

Jian Ai couldn't help but sneer. "I'm fine because I'm lucky. If I hadn't been fished up by a passing teacher, do you really think I would be standing here alive?"

Jian Ai's calmness made everyone present tremble. When they looked at the surveillance video just now, the girl who was pushed into the water was obviously timid and weak. However, Jian Ai, who was standing in front of them, was completely different from her. She had an invisible and fierce aura that made the teachers who wanted to plead for Li Yunmei to stop.

Yes, she almost lost her life because of this. What right did they have to ask her to forgive Li Yunmei?

"Jian Ai, what do you want!"

Li Yunmei sounded like she was crying. She was obviously frightened. However, the more she acted like this, the more ridiculous Jian Ai felt. Did she know fear now? Why was she not scared when she was facing the life that was struggling in the water? Why was she not worried that the other party would die?

"I don't want to do anything." Jian Ai kept her aura and said calmly, "But those who did something wrong should be punished. It's true that I didn't die, but this surveillance footage is enough to accuse you of attempted murder. Of course, you're just an underage high school student, so you don't have to bear criminal responsibility. However, it's enough for you to stay at the juvenile detention center in Baiyun City for a year and a half!"

When she heard that she did not have to bear responsibility, Li Yunmei could not help but secretly heave a sigh of relief. However, when she turned around and heard that she would enter the juvenile detention center, she immediately grabbed her mother in horror. "Mom, I don't want to enter the juvenile detention center..."

Liu Chunxia also panicked. She thought that her daughter didn't need to go to jail because she was still young. At most, she would have to pay some money. Her family didn't lack money. However, she didn't expect Jian Ai to mention a juvenile detention center all so suddenly. It sounded like a children's prison.

She only had this one daughter, so how could she let her daughter go to jail? Her eyes immediately turned red from anxiety, but she did not know how to defend her daughter. She could only grab the police officer's clothes and repeat over and over again, "She's still a child, ignorant..."

"This is a criminal case. It's different from normal violence in school. You should follow us back to the police station first," the police officer said helplessly.

The teachers looked at one another. They did not expect things to develop to this stage. However, they could not sympathize with Li Yunmei. Although she was a child, she was so vicious and cold at such a young age. When she grew up, she would probably endanger society.

On the second day after her rebirth, Jian Ai got into a police car in Baiyun City and entered the police station.

Li Yunmei and her mother were brought into the interrogation room by the police. Jian Ai was waiting on the bench outside while Teacher Li accompanied her.

Chapter 25: Tea at the Police Station

"Teacher already called your mother. She should be here soon." Teacher Li patted Jian Ai's shoulder as if comforting her.

At this time, Jian Ai no longer had the imposing manner from when she was at the security office. She sat on the chair with a calm and gentle expression. Hearing this, she couldn't help but smile and nod at Teacher Li. "Thank you, Teacher."

Although she could handle this matter, she was still too young, so her parents had to be informed.

Teacher Li couldn't help but sigh. "Why didn't you tell me about this?"

"Actually, I didn't really want to pursue the matter," Jian Ai replied. "No one actually saw Li Yunmei pushing me into the pond. She was the one who showed off to others, so there were some rumors in school. However, there was no evidence after all! Today, I accidentally saw that the security camera could capture the pond, so I wanted to seek justice for myself.”

Jian Ai was not lying. Initially, she did not intend to pursue this matter. But today, she was lucky. After all, it was Li Yunmei and her mother who did it. If not for today's incident, she would not have been invited to the police station for tea.

“Xiao Ai!”

Just then, Jian Yu's voice came from the other end of the corridor. Jian Ai looked up and saw her mother and brother running over.

“Mom, Brother.” Jian Ai quickly went forward.

At this time, the breakfast stall at home had not closed yet, so Wang Yunmei was still wearing an apron with flour on it. Obviously, she had rushed over the moment she received Teacher Li's call.

“Xiao Ai, are you okay? What's going on?” Wang Yunmei's eyes turned red when she saw Jian Ai. Her daughter was the most sensible one, but now she was in the police station. How could she not be worried?

“Jian Ai's mother, don't worry. Sit down first.” Teacher Li went up to comfort her.

When Wang Yunmei saw Jian Ai's teacher, she became even more agitated. She quickly grabbed the teacher's hand and said, “Teacher, my Xiao Ai is the most obedient in school. You know this. She definitely won't do anything bad.”

“Yes, Jian Ai's mother. Listen to me first. It was my fault just now. It happened so suddenly, so I didn't tell you in detail over the phone. Actually, this was what happened...”

Teacher Li told her everything that happened. She did not hide anything for Li Yunmei. Now that things had come to this, there was nothing to hide anymore.

“A classmate pushed my sister to a pond?” Jian Yu was shocked and couldn't believe it.

No matter how bad a fourteen-year-old student was, they wouldn't dare to do such a thing, right?

“She's being interrogated inside. Don't worry, we'll get justice for Jian Ai,” said Teacher Li.

Wang Yunmei was scared silly. When she came back to her senses, she still couldn't hold back her fear. Jian Ai saw this and held Wang Yunmei's hand to comfort her. “Mom, don't worry anymore. No matter what happens later, just listen to me, okay?”

Wang Yunmei was a very strong person. Otherwise, she wouldn't have raised her two children alone for more than ten years. Jian Ai and Jian Yu were her pride. It was also because of this that Wang Yunmei felt afraid when she suddenly faced such a situation. If anything happened to Jian Ai, she wouldn't be able to bear it.

Wang Yunmei took two deep breaths before she calmed down. She gripped her daughter's hand tightly and gently nodded.
