

Schoolgirl 1001

Chapter 1001: No Second Person In This World

Corinton was also famous in the car racing scene.

Why was that? Why was he so renowned here even when he did not race?

Well, that was because the sports cars Corinton modified were the best of the bests. Any racer would have the dream goal or wish to own a sports car modified by Master Corinton himself.

This explained why the old man was esteemed even in the car racing scene.

Moreover, Corinton had a peculiarity. People who were in the know were all aware that no money—no matter how much you had—could buy a modified sports car by that man. It all depended on his mood; if he were in a bad mood or if he simply disliked you, he would not touch the car regardless.

These were all mentioned previously.

That said, the reason Corinton was able to act however he wished was because of his skills. He had what it took to be presumptuous and take his liberties about it!

Therefore, when Shan Tiansheng and his friends heard that someone like this was bowing down to ask for Yun Jian as his master, they were overwhelmed with shock.

“Huh? That old man Corinton is still asking Sister Jian to be his master?”

To Shan Tiansheng and the other guys, the fact that Corinton was begging for Yun Jian to be his master was startling, but Alluring Demon merely sighed at his persistence.

It seemed to her that Corinton wanting to become Yun Jian’s disciple was nothing out of ordinary.

“Sister Jian, that old man is determined! Do you wanna just accept him?” Alluring Demon crossed her hands in front of her chest casually and smiled at Yun Jian with squinty eyes. There was a soft sparkle to her eyes that a mirthful glow bounced off them.

“No.” Came Yun Jian’s one-word reply.

Shan Tiansheng and others shuddered again at Yun Jian’s curt rejection. That was Master Corinton! The utmost famous engineer across the world!

Had it been any one of them, forget Corinton wanting to become their apprentice, they would have been overjoyed if the man could meet them.

And what did Yun Jian say?

“Why? Why aren’t you taking Master Corinton as your apprentice, Yun Jian?” Shan Tiansheng asked in befuddlement. If she had accepted Master Corinton as her disciple, she could have him modify her any sports car; it was a matter of course, an expected exchange...

“Because...” Yun Jian squinted slightly as she turned to look at Shan Tiansheng. Her eyes were gleaming with an unmistakable radiance.

“He’s not up to the level!” Yun Jian’s voice rang like a light whistle in the next second.

Her words stunned the guys.

What did she mean Master Corinton was not up to the standard? If even he was not up to par, who else in this world could achieve said qualification?

Yun Jian smiled after she spoke and turned around to leave first.

“Xiao... Xiao Xuanxuan, uh... your little sister is SG—the king of car racing, yes, but Master Corinton isn’t famed for nothing either! Talking about Master Corinton like this, isn’t she too...” Shan Tiansheng spoke up hesitantly.

“Kid, that’s a high pedestal you’re putting the old man on. Corinton is barely anyone significant when it comes to Sister Jian.” Alluring Demon threw them a wink and laughed before she went after Yun Jian and left the place in large strides.

What Alluring Demon said felt like a thunderbolt to Shan Tiansheng and the group. That was not all, though, as Ge Xuan could not help telling his best friend, after hearing the whole thing, “Uh... Tiansheng, I used to think that Master Corinton is the most outstanding engineer in this world too but ever since I’ve driven the Ferrari sports car my little sister’s modified, I...”

“The Ferrari sports car my younger sister’s modified could go double the speed compared to the sports car Master Corinton’s worked on!”

The sports cars that went under Master Corinton’s ministrations were already twice faster than average sports car. That was supposed to be the maximum limit. However, for an engineer to enhance the cars to be twice faster than those the man had modified...

There would hardly be a second person in this world who was capable of doing it!

Shan Tiansheng and the others dropped their jaws.

Chapter 1002: That Girl, She Is...

While Shan Tiansheng and others were still caught in the shock, Ge Xuan had already gone after Yun Jian to tell her that he was going back to the racetrack to watch Shan Tiansheng race and ask if she wanted to go back together too.

Having just stirred up quite the commotion, now was certainly not an appropriate time for her to return there. Yun Jian quirked her rosy lips into a smile. “I think I’ll pass. Call me when you finish watching the race later.”

Yun Jian patted her pants pocket gently as she spoke and grinned. Her cellphone was in there.

“Sure.” Ge Xuan nodded.

Shan Tiansheng had yet to race. As his best friend, it was only acceptable that Ge Xuan stayed there as support. Otherwise, he would be a lousy bro.

Yun Jian left with Alluring Demon after she talked to Ge Xuan.

She had come to Country M's Maryland to check out how Dime And Prime Company was doing recently, and since Ge Xuan was occupied for the night, she went to the company with Alluring Demon.

Dime And Prime Company was located in the largest busy area of Maryland. With the large area it had taken up, it was the tallest building in Maryland.

Currently, it was already night time—nearly midnight. In spite of it, the busy area of Maryland was the most popular section in the neighborhood and was filled with people even at this hour.

There were also people who were still working overtime in Dime And Prime. When Alluring Demon entered the company after Yun Jian, the employees who were still there took a double take at Yun Jian in surprise and curiosity.

Alluring Demon was the CEO of Dime And Prime Company. This was a known fact within the organization. However, what was going on now?

Why was their company CEO, Alluring Demon—who had singlehandedly managed Dime And Prime from the small-time company it used to be to one of the top ten MNCs currently—following behind a girl who did not look like she was even 18?

What was the situation?

Before they could dwell on it, Alluring Demon who stayed behind Yun Jian had come to the group of employees who were still working overtime and gone past them.

“Good evening, Ms. Alluring Demon!” These employees greeted politely when said woman went past them. It was just that they gaped when they saw Yun Jian, not knowing how to address her.

It was until both of them had gone some distance away that the workers began to gossip.

“Who’s that girl? Why does it seem like our CEO keeps staying behind her?”

“It’s probably just a coincidence. This is our Ms. CEO you’re talking about! It could only be a coincidence for her to walk behind that girl.”

The female employees who were standing there were incredibly jealous that Yun Jian could make Alluring Demon follow her around like she was commanding her subordinate.

Jealousy was a green-eyed monster as these women then began to delve deeper into the gossip. As they started to talk about it, all of them were either assuming or comforting themselves that it was mere coincidence for Alluring Demon to go after Yun Jian when they overheard Alluring Demon talking to Yun Jian farther away.

“Sister Jian, the company is at a lower season right now due to Hachi Company’s oppression...”

Whatever that followed did not register with the few female employees who were standing around the place. They did, however, catch a keyword.

“Sister Jian”?

The CEO of Dime And Prime Company was actually addressing the girl so respectfully?

What could it mean? Was this girl's status more esteemed than Alluring Demon?

Who was she?

Chapter 1003: Calling Yun Jian A Beggar

With that thought occurring to them, the female employees' hands flew up to cover their mouths as they looked in disbelief at Yun Jian's retreating back.

Good gracious, was she... was she the legendary founder of the company? The director of Dime And Prime?

Since the establishment of Dime And Prime Company, its director had never shown their face. That was why these women made such guess when they heard Alluring Demon calling Yun Jian so respectfully.

All of them looked shell-shocked. They seemed to have just... met the founder of Dime And Prime—the legendary director of the company!

Instantly, these employees had completely forgotten how they had just been inwardly criticizing Yun Jian and despising her earlier.

...

On the other side, Yun Jian had taken the elevator with Alluring Demon to go straight up to the office on the 25th floor.

The 25th floor was where all the executives of the company worked at. Similarly, Alluring Demon's office was here as well.

Once they exited the elevator, Alluring Demon led Yun Jian to her office directly.

When Yun Jian had heard Alluring Demon report that the company was recently on a downhill trend, she was neither worried or delighted. All she asked indifferently was, "Hachi Company?"

"Yes. Hachi Company is also one of the top ten MNCs in the world but its international standing is slightly higher than ours."

"The reason being Hachi has been an enterprise passed down through generations. Its foundation is deeply rooted as it's been running for thousands of years.

"What's happening for the time being is that the CEO of Hachi Company keeps overtly oppressing us, so our sales have decreased significantly..."

Alluring Demon explained to Yun Jian in detail, meticulous and to the point once she got down to business.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes just as the woman got to where she was. Both of them had arrived at the door of Alluring Demon's office by now but Yun Jian espied two silhouettes in the room.

When Alluring Demon saw the two shadows in her office—one standing and one sitting, a deep frown etched between her brows. Yun Jian raised a brow.

Usually, Dime And Prime Company had guards on duty, so outsiders would not be able to enter. Now that it was almost midnight, most of the company workers had gone off work except those who were working overtime. As there was no guard at the door and the office was not empty either, it did not seem bewildering that someone could enter since the door was opened.

What was bizarre was how the person came to Alluring Demon's office.

"Maier?" Alluring Demon gasped with a frown.

Yun Jian immediately knew who the standing and sitting duo in the office were once she heard what Alluring Demon called out.

The man who was standing was Maier, CEO of Hachi Company, while the woman who sat with her legs crossed on the couch was his younger sister, Maine.

Hachi Company was none other than the company that had been pressuring Dime And Prime recently. At the very least, Alluring Demon was unable to defend Dime And Prime Company from Hachi Company's tyranny for now.

"Hah, my darling Alluring Demon, I've finally caught you." Maier glanced at Yun Jian but turned to speak openly to Alluring Demon.

"What are you doing here? Are you not scared that I'll kill you?" Alluring Demon glared daggers at Maier.

Based on the current situation, it seemed that Alluring Demon, as the CEO of Dime And Prime Company, was being held down by Hachi Company, so Maier was her most challenging rival to date.

"Pft!" A chuckle escaped the man. There was a commanding hint of the presence of CEO on his considerably handsome face.

"Of course we're here to gloat in your misery!" Maine looked at Alluring Demon with a proud tip of chin.

She then shifted her gaze to Yun Jian and cackled when she noticed the cheap clothes the latter was wearing and mocked, "Where's this beggar from? How's she coming all this way to beg? Alluring Demon, looks like you've gotten pathetic enough that even beggars could come in your company as they please huh?"

Chapter 1004: Beggars On The Streets Are Better Than You

Yun Jian had not planned to speak at all. When the topic of conversation shifted to her all of a sudden, she merely raised a brow.

Hachi Company was one of the top ten multinational companies with a global influence that no regular company could compare to. To be honest, Hachi Company and Dime And Prime Company were almost similar in standing. The only difference was that Dime And Prime had only risen in the recent years while Hachi Company had come a long way from being passed down for generations.

In comparison, perhaps Hachi Company's international status was several notches higher than Dime And Prime's. It could be considered a strong opponent to Dime And Prime Company.

Maier and Maine were biological siblings. The former was Hachi's CEO with 20% of the company's shares, basically one of the bigger shareholders there.

Initially, Yun Jian was only planning to see why Maier and Maine were here, not expecting Maine to come at her as her target. She squinted but looked over to Maine with an unflinching gaze.

As for Maine, she thought of teasing when she saw Yun Jian standing there quietly, more so because Hachi Company had been at loggerheads with Dime And Prime's CEO, Alluring Demon. She had the idea to mock Yun Jian once she saw how she was dressed, thus throwing degrading insults at her.

Right after she was done, Maine looked back at Alluring Demon with a straight gaze. Maine thought that Yun Jian was most probably a small fry in the company or actually some random beggar, and her purpose of putting her down was to hit at Alluring Demon's composure. It was not like she was regarding Yun Jian; to Maine, Yun Jian was only a stepping stone for her to overpower Alluring Demon.

Yun Jian was not even infuriated but Alluring Demon exploded once she heard what Maine said. How dare she called Sister Jian a beggar? If Sister Jian was impoverished, was there even a rich man in this world?

"You're not welcomed here. Get out right now! Scram as far as you can!" Alluring Demon had the sensual and enchanting look usually but she was a force to be reckoned when her temper flared.

Wearing her stilettos, Alluring Demon stomped toward Maier and Maine, grabbing a mop on her way to chase both of them out—looking kind of like a feisty housewife.

"Aww, my darling Alluring Demon, don't be like this. Maine's still young, she doesn't know better. Don't stoop to her level if she's said something she shouldn't," Maier turned to say as he caught the mop Alluring Demon had found purchase on.

"Ge! I wasn't wrong. Look at what she's dressed in—how dare she steps into Dime And Prime. Hmph, even if Dime And Prime isn't as good as us Hachi, it's still one of the top ten MNCs!"

"How could someone like this get to enter too? You Dime And Prime need to step up on your standards, tsk!"

Maine put a hand on her cheek in a snobbish way that even her brother, Maier, felt a little embarrassed hearing her.

Alluring Demon jumped in rage. She grabbed the mop that was now in Maier's hold and was going to fling it to Maine when Yun Jian spoke up in time.

"What do the standards of my company have to do with you? I think the beggars on the streets are better than a certain woman who had Dior perfume sprayed all over her anyway."

A woman who had Dior perfume sprayed all over her? Maine froze. That was her!

How did Yun Jian know that she was wearing a Dior perfume today?

Chapter 1005: Harm Set, Harm Get

Maier and Maine did not even notice Yun Jian mentioning "my company".

Yun Jian was not complaining about the Dior perfume either, she was indirectly slapping it in Maine's face that she was worse than the beggars on the streets.

In fact, most women wore perfumes. Alluring Demon did too. There was a wide variety of perfumes. Some people liked lighter, elegant notes. Alluring Demon, for example, looked like the embodiment of sensuality but she wore a light, sophisticated scent.

Maine, however, put on one that was incredibly potent in fragrance.

Of course, everyone had their preference and Yun Jian was not complaining that she was wearing a Dior perfume. It just so happened that it was the brand, Dior, that Maine was wearing.

As expected, everyone there knew that Yun Jian was basically calling Maine a lesser person than the beggars on the street. It was an insult without curse words.

Moreover, Yun Jian emphasized that it was a woman wearing a Dior perfume. There were only four of them around. Yun Jian and Maier did not wear any fragrance while Alluring Demon wore a faint one that one sniff was all it took for Yun Jian to know that it was not from the brand Dior.

Consequently, there was only one person there who matched the description—Maine.

Maine's face fell the moment Yun Jian said that. Born with a silver spoon, Maine had assumed Yun Jian to be a beggar. Now that she heard her saying she was lesser than one, she erupted in rage.

"What did you say? How dare you say that I'm worse off than a beggar? Argh! I'm going to kill you! I'll kill you!" Maine went berserk on the spot, grabbing a teacup from the coffee table to hurl it toward Yun Jian.

A typical heiress, one of Hachi Company—one of the top ten MNCs in the world, too—Maine was spoiled. There was usually no one who would criticize her, only people who pandered to her.

Hence, when she heard Yun Jian insulting her to be lesser than a beggar, it felt like she was utterly humiliated. The blow felt worse when Maine assumed Yun Jian to be someone lowly. The humiliation of being mocked by a lowly person was what triggered her explosion.

"Die!" Maine grabbed the teacup and threw it at Yun Jian.

It had happened so abruptly that Maier failed to react. By the time he turned to stop his younger sister, the teacup had left Maine's grasp to fly toward Yun Jian.

The teacup was still filled with cooled tea.

"Maine!" Maier looked appalled but it was already too late for him to stop her.

The teacup with the chilled tea spun in the air and the liquid was going to spill on Yun Jian with the cup hitting her.

Alluring Demon's gaze darkened but she did nothing else. She knew how capable Sister Jian was.

As for Maier, he felt his heart lurch as he witnessed the scene. He could feel that Alluring Demon cared deeply for Yun Jian and he was not even here to confront the former but to...

If the cup of tea were to drench Yun Jian with the cup crashing on her, he could forget any positive progress with Alluring Demon.

Right when he thought about it, he was suddenly greeted with the shocking turn of event. Maine who stood beside Maier saw it too.

There was a loud thud as Yun Jian took a step forward. During the several seconds that the teacup spun in the air and the tea was still contained within the cup, she lifted her leg high up and kicked it back toward Maine.

The tea had yet to spill from the cup while the power of Yun Jian's kick was precisely estimated.

Maier and Maine were stunned.

Despite the trance, Maine suddenly felt herself being soaked with a cool liquid and a sizeable teacup hit her forehead. She fell backward from the force while the sting of pain from her forehead made her shriek.

"Ahh!"

Chapter 1006: Dragging Her Out Directly And Relocating Her Head

The original course of teacup was to crash on Yun Jian but a lift of her leg to kick it accurately just now sent the teacup back to Maine without spilling the liquid in there.

Not only was Maine's upper half soaked by the cold tea and felt sticky, the collision had also caused a big bruise to swell on her forehead instantly.

To a pampered heiress like Maine, such agony was nothing she had ever felt her whole life. Other than feeling tears brimmed her eyes from the pain, the knock had also triggered her deep resentment for Yun Jian. She saw red and the thought of wanting to kill Yun Jian on the spot sprouted in her mind.

"Arghh! Die, go to tell!" Maine growled at Yun Jian with a hand covering her forehead that the teacup had hit.

She then told Maier through the pain, her tone laced with the ferocity to tear Yun Jian apart, "Gege, that b*tch hit me. Kill her right now! I want her dead! Arghh!"

In spite of it, Yun Jian who pulled her leg back crossed her arms and looked at Maine in despise. She scoffed, "Alluring Demon, since when could a rabid dog like this come into my company too? Hurry up and chase it out."

Yun Jian was talking to Alluring Demon but her gaze was blatantly trained on Maine. The latter was like an unreasonable beggar who was both pathetic and farcical currently.

"I'll chase both these rabid dogs out right now, Sister Jian!" Alluring Demon smiled and marched to Maier.

Seeing Maier hold Maine who currently looked deplorable, Alluring Demon snorted and taunted him, "Take your sister and get the hell out of my domain!"

Maier felt his heart squeeze when he was greeted with Alluring Demon's annoyed face but he tried explaining his younger sister's earlier action. "Alluring Demon, darling, don't get angry. My sister's just—"

"Ge! Whose side are you on? It hurts! I'm dying from the pain!" Maine screeched and wailed.

Yun Jian frowned at the girl's high-pitched scream, unable to take it anymore, and went up to her to drag her out of the office holding her collars.

"I'll give you a hand since you're not leaving." Disregarding Maine's struggle, Yun Jian dragged the former all the way to the first floor from the 25th floor.

With Alluring Demon blocking his way, Maier obviously did not dare get violent with her for fear of hurting her.

...

There were still numerous employees who were working on the first floor, especially the female workers who had been discussing about Yun Jian earlier. When they saw Yun Jian coming out of the elevator dragging a pile of something by the collars, they were befuddled.

Although those female workers were guessing that she was the director of Dime And Prime, they did not have sufficient evidence to prove their guess. Moreover, Yun Jian was so young. The theory was quickly casted aside.

However, when they saw Yun Jian dragging Maine out of the elevator and throwing her out of the building, the employees were all baffled.

Why was this girl so fierce? And who was the person she dragged? That was Maine! The heiress of Hachi Company's director! How dare she...

"You better not step into the company again or I'll make sure to relocate your head!"

Chapter 1007: Maier's Feelings. She's The Director

Yun Jian's icy voice was what the employees heard when they snapped back to reality. They were completely shocked.

That was the daughter of Hachi Company's director! Even if it were their CEO in Dime And Prime, Alluring Demon, she would have to think twice before doing anything. After all, Maine was no doubt in the elite society as the daughter of Hachi Company's director. Basically, offending Maine was going against the whole Hachi Company.

Dime And Prime Company was only parallel to Hachi Company in presence. Even then, it was slightly weaker than the latter in terms of international standing.

Therefore, the workers who were still in the office working overtime paused in shock when they saw how Yun Jian was treating Maine.

With her forehead still throbbing from being hit by the teacup, Maine gritted her teeth through the pain only to hear Yun Jian's cold words just as she looked up. She wanted to shout "Think you'd dare do it?" back at her but she was met with the latter's gaze that was murderously piercing.

Maine shuddered. The immense pain she was in scared her off from staring straight back at Yun Jian.

"Alluring Demon, my dear, let's talk about this. Don't be like this, it'll break our peace." Maier was at a loss. He could not bear offending Alluring Demon but he also could not bear letting Yun Jian keep bullying his sister.

Business wise, Maier had indeed picked on Dime And Prime Company using Hachi Company's reputation, but he would also admit that he had done so with a personal ulterior motive.

He had liked Alluring Demon the first instant he saw her back then and had been on a relentless pursue after her but she ignored him completely.

It was love at first sight for Maier and since wooing her did not work, he resorted to harsher means. Using his status as Hachi Company's CEO, he targeted Alluring Demon constantly. Nonetheless, it was only a touch-and-go situation; he did not dare go to the extreme—what if it drove his darling away instead and she decided to ignore him forever?

Despite that, Alluring Demon disregarded Maier's expression of love, so this had been his recent woe.

"Scram!" Alluring Demon glared at him.

To Maier, however, the glare felt incredibly refreshing and attractive. He even thought that she looked cute glaring at him.

"Alluring Demon, dear, my feelings for you are sincere. You—" Before Maier's cliché confession could be finished, Maine's enraged shout sounded.

"Ge! Are you crazy? You like her? Her underling is bullying me like this—are you taking revenge for me or not?" Maine yelled, her earlier fear for Yun Jian vanishing.

She glared at Yun Jian resentfully with presumptuous threats tumbling off her tongue. "Just you wait, stupid b*tch. Who do you think you are? Dime And Prime's director? Just wait, I'll make sure my dad finish you off!"

Maine and Maier's father was the director of Hachi Company.

Just as Maine said that, however, a female voice rang from behind them.

"Ms. CEO, you're here." This was no doubt directed to Alluring Demon.

Yun Jian turned slightly to see a girl who looked like she was 16-17 years old making a sudden appearance. The latter was Alluring Demon's subordinate and was also from Gu Sha Mercenaries with the moniker Fox.

Fox was twin sister to Civet who had sent the Ferrari sports car to Yun Jian in Longmen City the last time. Although Fox looked like a teenage girl, she was actually already 25 years old as she had the same baby face like Civet.

Fox worked under Alluring Demon. When she saw the latter and called out to her just now, attracting Maier and Maine's attention, she espied Yun Jian. Despite her surprise, she then greeted Yun Jian in front of the siblings, "Ms. Director, you're back?"

The term of address made Maier and Maine gape. Fox was under Alluring Demon and was someone who had interacted with the mysterious director of Dime And Prime before.

D-did she just call Yun Jian director?!

Chapter 1008: A Slap. Her Impulsive Words

"You... You're the rumored director of Dime And Prime Company?" Maine widened her eyes in disbelief at Yun Jian, looking at her with a dropped jaw, once she heard what Fox said.

Maine currently looked like a pathetic beggar who was questioning Yun Jian incredulously. She could care less about the throbbing pain from getting hit by the teacup as she stared at Yun Jian in bafflement.

Fox who stood on a nearby step looked down at Maine in condescendence and scoffed before replying her on behalf of Yun Jian, "Of course Sister Jian is Dime And Prime Company's director!"

Fox was unlike Alluring Demon. She was first an assassin from Gu Sha Mercenaries and later worked under Alluring Demon. As for Alluring Demon, she was a daughter of a bankrupted wealthy businessman who Yun Jian had saved back then; she was not an assassin or a secret agent but she had mastered basic self-defense.

When Yun Jian saved Alluring Demon, the latter's talent in business management was what caught her eyes.

Alluring Demon knew Yun Jian's identity as Slaying God. She was loyal to Yun Jian since she had saved her during her family's bankruptcy. Moreover, she was running Dime And Prime Company now, so her international status was reputable.

It was just that while Alluring Demon's skill could fight a big group of regular people, she was far from being able to keep up with advanced assassins or secret agents. After all, she was only talented in business management. She used to be a rich man's daughter and had been born with a silver spoon with people at her beck and call. The self-defense was acquired much later.

This was also why Yun Jian had sent Fox to assist Alluring Demon. As someone from Gu Sha Mercenaries, Fox could at least fight three advanced secret agents on her own. This had also ranked her within top 20 on the international secret agent chart.

As Fox came from Gu Sha Mercenaries, she was more aware of the status of both Yun Jian's Gu Sha Mercenaries and Yun Jian herself in the world compared to Alluring Demon. That was why she did not act courteous to Maine.

Even though Maine was the heiress of Hachi Company's director, the company could easily be wiped off from this world if Gu Sha Mercenaries wanted to in case of Hachi wanting to confront Gu Sha.

Fox's answer surprised Maine and Maier. It was after that, that Maine recalled Fox's tone when she spoke to her.

“And what are you? You’re just a dog going after your master. How dare you talk to me in a tone like that? Do you want to die?”

Knowing now that Yun Jian was Dime And Prime’s director, Maine could not bear to lose her pride further, so she shifted her target to Fox now that she dared not confront Yun Jian.

To Maine, Fox was just a minion of Dime And Prime Company since Yun Jian was the director. How dare an underling like her disrespect her so much?

“Maine, shush!” Maier scolded his younger sister at once.

Maine pouted at her brother’s nagging. Just as she was about to continue speaking, she caught a smooth and fair hand coming for her from the corner of her eye.

The next second, a resounding slap rang in the air. All Maine felt was her cheek being hit violently and she was sent falling to the floor. By the time she recovered from the pang, she saw the owner of the hand standing in front of her.

Yun Jian cracked an icy smirk at Maine. “Do you believe that I’ll make Hachi Company a thing of the past just for the impulsive words from someone like you who dared cuss at me?”

Chapter 1009: Cleanse Your Neck And Wait For Your Death

As Yun Jian spoke, she went closer to Maine. Maier was still as he watched Yun Jian slapped his younger sister—because Alluring Demon was next to him stopping him from going over there.

Yun Jian had now come in front of Maine, pinching her chin up gently before putting more force into it. She told her in an unnerving tone, “Or... you could become part of history on behalf of Hachi Company, what do you think?”

The words “become part of history” felt like a heavy hammer that rammed Maine’s heart. It made it lurch anxiously.

“You...” Maine felt an unprecedented fear. The truth was, she was very much intimidated by Yun Jian, especially when the latter squeezed her chin and talked to her in an airy voice. Maine thought that she had never been so scared all her life.

Just when she thought that her jaw would be crushed between Yun Jian’s fingers, the girl let go of her abruptly.

“Take your sister and leave!” Yun Jian kicked Maine and turned to say. Her emotions were unreadable on her pretty face but it ran shivers down Maier anyway. He had never met a girl like this.

Yun Jian was the director of Dime And Prime Company while his Hachi Company was a notch higher in terms of social standing. If Yun Jian were a typical businessman, she would have been eager to pander up to Hachi and ask for peace.

However, what did Yun Jian say? She threatened to not let Hachi Company see the next sunrise. Was this something a teenage girl could muster?

Fine, Maier reckoned that Yun Jian was not a typical girl. If she was considered an average Joe, there was no longer a single prodigy in this world.

While he thought about it, he had already grabbed his sister's hand. Maine grew up being coddled; Yun Jian's slap had thoroughly overwhelmed her with horror.

Just when Maier helped his younger sister up and was going to leave, intending to come back for Alluring Demon next time, Yun Jian spoke up from behind him calmly, "Tell Maide to play nice if he doesn't want to disappear in the long-flowing river of history. If he dares try anything on Dime And Prime again, he could get his neck cleansed and wait to be slashed!"

Maide was father to Maier and Maine. He was also director of Hachi Company. Maier had indeed picked on Dime And Prime Company using his status as the CEO for Alluring Demon but that was in a harmless manner.

While Yun Jian was in Longmen City, any plan, scheme or action of the international tycoons did not escape her eyes. She was also well aware that the person plaguing Dime And Prime Company was not Maier but his father, Maide.

As for Maide's intention, it was obvious. He wanted to absorb Dime And Prime Company as his own.

Maier paused but quickly recovered, holding Maine up and leaving after that.

Needless to say, today was the most humiliating day in Maier and Maine's entire life.

Watching both of them leave in a haste, the employees who were still working overtime in the company were dumbstruck. Yun Jian's arrogant and flagrant declaration, specifically, stunned them.

Dime And Prime Company was most probably weaker than Hachi Company when it came to its worth but Yun Jian had asked Maier to pass such outrageous message to Maide, director of Hachi Company—if he dared try anything else, he ought to cleanse his neck and wait for his death!

Yun Jian was... bold as brass!

Chapter 1010: Abducting An Innocent Girl In Broad Daylight

Actually, it had not been the first time Maine came to cause a commotion in Dime And Prime Company. The previous times Maier and Maine were here, the former wholeheartedly wanted to see Alluring Demon but Maine was different—she was here purely to riot.

Back when there was no one for her to find fault with, Maine went to the employees to humiliate them. Even then, these workers did not dare fight back. Excuse them, this was the daughter of Hachi Company's director—who would dare offend her? Unless they did not mind losing their jobs!

Hence, the employees usually loathed to see Maine. They hated her to the core. It was just that they did not verbalize it.

When they saw Yun Jian hit Maine just now, all of them nearly ran over clapping and cheering. The former's domineering image was a lasting impression in their mind.

If someone were to mention the director of Dime And Prime Company the next time, they would proudly tell them how amazing and brilliant their director was!

...

While the employees were still admiring Yun Jian, the latter was already roaming the streets of Maryland with Alluring Demon and Fox.

“Haha, we finally got rid of that annoying fella Maier and beat up that little b*tch Maine. Sister Jian, let me buy you both supper as a reward for your wonderful feat just now.” Alluring Demon patted Fox’s shoulder and told Yun Jian with a hearty laugh.

“Let’s go.” Yun Jian beamed with her eyes.

The three of them then came to the busiest beachside supper shack in Maryland.

Alluring Demon was incredibly generous with ordering. After they were done ordering and the dishes were served, she and Fox reported the recent doing of the company to Yun Jian together. The latter listened to them with smiling eyes.

By the time they were done with supper, it was already 1am.

Ge Xuan, Shan Tiansheng and others were also done with racing and watching it, rushing over from the racetrack to meet them after receiving Yun Jian’s call.

It was during the three-day break of Labor Day that Ge Xuan took Yun Jian to Country M to watch the race. After staying a night at Maryland’s hotel, Yun Jian bought the ticket to fly home the next day. Before she left, she gave Alluring Demon and Fox an invitation each, inviting them to attend her mother, Qin Yirou, and Ge Junjian’s wedding on 21st May.

At the same time, Yun Jian had also sent out many more invitations, inviting internationally known personages with the name of Gu Sha Mercenaries to attend Qin Yirou’s wedding. For now, everything was done quietly.

Yun Jian returned to Longmen City alone. Ge Xuan had already gone back to school for his classes, so he sent her to the airport and left after watching her board the flight.

Yun Jian landed in Yiyang City, somewhere close to Longmen City, and took the bus back to her hometown, arriving in noon. When she came home, she saw a tall figure standing by the door.

Having parted with Si Yi for several days, Yun Jian ran to him with a smile the moment she saw him. Actually behaving like a teenage girl, she threw herself into Si Yi’s arms as her heart thumped in excitement.

Qin Yirou was not home, probably having gone to chat with Mrs. Yang.

Si Yi had just engulfed the girl in his embrace and was about to speak up with that husky voice of his when three tiny heads popped out from the stairs and a voice interrupted him.

“Wow, Si Yi-gege’s actually abducting an innocent girl in this free and lawful country in broad daylight! Shame!”

Little Yun Zhu's innocent voice rang as he constructed the sentence with the vocabulary he had recently learned.