

Schoolgirl 1071

Chapter 1071: The Wedding Ceremony—Serving The Humble Pie (6)

Ms. Lu had hated Yun Jian's nonchalance toward her and she had already planned to ignore the latter but she had to suck up to the girl once again when she found out that she was New Cruise's director.

After knowing that Hua Yun and Hu Chaoqun were actually much more successful than Yun Jian, the teacher switched team in an instant.

"You guys are amazing! A multinational company! Oh my goodness!" Ms. Lu went up to Hua Yun, extending a hand to touch the latter as she spoke in a gesture to initiate friendliness.

"Hello, nice to meet you. I'm a teacher in an exclusive primary school in Longmen City. If you don't mind, can we be friends..." Ms. Lu approached Hua Yun without a hint of shame.

Before her hand could touch Hua Yun, however, the latter turned to her in contempt. "Stay away from me! Country bumpkin!"

When Ms. Lu extended her hand, she had felt like she was one of those wealthy women too. It was like she would become one of the rich wives that garnered envy as long as she became friends with Hua Yun.

Despite that, her half-stretched hand paused in the air from Hua Yun's curt jeer.

There was always such type of people in this world who assumed themselves to be superior and were always confident to extend their hands to get acquainted with people who were at the peak of their domain. What they did not know was that they were as insignificant as the ants in the latter's eyes.

For lack of better words, why should others acquaint themselves to someone of a lower status when said someone had never helped them?

Ms. Lu was exactly the type of person mentioned. She was very confident that Hua Yun would befriend her when she extended her hand, so it came as a surprise that Hua Yun did not even spare her much of a glance.

After what she told Ms. Lu, Hua Yun turned to Hu Chaoqun and threw him a flying kiss. A woman in her forties, she spoke to the man in a cutesy voice, "Hubby, uncle isn't here yet?"

"Uncle is parking his car. He'll be here in a moment. Let's wait for a bit longer, baby. There's no hurry," Hu Chaoqun coaxed greasily with a pat on Hua Yun's butt.

Just as he said that, the group saw a muscular, robust man coming through the door.

This man was most probably in his fifties, close to 60 years old even, but he did not look old at all, looking around the age of 40 at most. This was Hu Chaoqun's uncle, Hu Batian.

Hu Batian was from Country Z too but had started his establishment overseas. He succeeded building a career for himself and had changed his citizenship to Country M.

Once Hu Batian walked in, Hu Chaoqun felt like he himself had risen in status as well.

His uncle was not among one of the top ten multinational companies but he was able to chart among the top 20. It was unfortunate that the ranking of multinational companies had only ten placings.

Even then, Hu Batian was still an outstanding businessman globally!

“Uncle!” Hu Chaoqun greeted confidently when he saw the man before he turned to look at Yun Jian with a lordly look and smugly told her, as well as everyone else, in introduction. “This is my uncle. My uncle’s company is within the top 20 multinational enterprises globally! This means that my uncle’s company is one of the top 20 companies in the world, understand?”

Hu Chaoqun emphasized again as if he was afraid that some people who were there could not understand him. His preening mien felt like he was scared that others did not know how brilliant his uncle was.

Hu Batian had just taken his place and stood over proudly when he espied three figures not too far away.

“Uh...” He had looked rather confident and proud just moments earlier but all that vanished during this instant.

Under Hu Chaoqun, Hua Yun and others’ curious gazes, Hu Batian went over to Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner who were playing cards.

Yun Jian arched a brow wearing a small smile.

As Hu Batian came to the trio, his gaze at the group who was killing time by playing cards was in disbelief.

“Uncle, what’s the matter...” Hua Yun gave Hu Chaoqun a pinch, to which the man understood immediately and went over to ask Hu Batian with a smile.

He had just raised his question when he saw Hu Batian, their respected uncle, the uncle who they were so proud of, bowing at Diane and the other two people deferentially.

Right before everyone, Hu Batian looked at the trio a little meekly and asked in respect, “The three of you are the three executive heads of Gu Sha Mercenaries, right? May I know what brings you here?”

Chapter 1072: Got Too Much Time On Your Hands? Hurry Up

When Hu Batian went over, Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner were still very much engrossed in their card game.

“Game! Yes! I finally won for once! Hahaha, hand it over!” Diane knocked the table and extended a gleeful hand to Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner.

“Oh sucks, I just won 100 million and you got them all! I refuse to accept this!” Phantom Flame whined.

She then grinned blinking her eyes and turned to Spectral Flame to say joyously, “Luckily I’m not making a loss though! I won 100 million from you just now, haha!”

The three of them were absorbed in their card game and had blatantly ignored Hu Batian. It was not just ignoring him; Hu Batian had gone up to bow respectfully and speak to the trio in a deferential tone but they did not even spare him a glance.

It was as if Hu Batian was just a puff of air that was overlooked entirely!

The crowd who stood farther away felt their heart lurch, especially the several people who were intimidated by Hu Chaoqun boasting about his uncle, Hu Batian, to them.

Hu Chaoqun had said that his uncle, Hu Batian's uncle company was among the top 20 in the world!

What could that mean? While New Cruise was among the top in Zhe Province and could expand to the world, Hu Batian's company was already famous in the world. There was simply no ground for a comparison!

A person like Hu Batian was not someone the existing crowd could meet even if they wished to. Hence, when a person everyone thought to be so successful that he was unrivaled like Hu Batian greeted the trio in deference but did not receive any form of response, everyone froze in shock.

Big shots like Hu Batian should be pandered to wherever they went! Yet not only did Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner not respond to him, they blatantly ignored him! Were the three of them of a higher status than Hu Batian?

The crowd was nonplussed.

Ms. Lu and family, as well as the villagers who came from Xinjiang Town, might not know what Gu Sha Mercenaries was but Hua Yun and Hu Chaoqun were very clear about the significance of the organization internationally. That was why once they heard what Hu Batian, their uncle, said, both of them paled instantly.

Why were Gu Sha Mercenaries' people here?

"Uncle, why are the big guns from Gu Sha Mercenaries here..." Hu Chaoqun looked aghast as he shuffled closer to Hu Batian and asked softly.

Before he finished his question, he received a glare from the older man to stop him from speaking mindlessly. In spite of it, said older man took another step closer to the trio.

Hu Batian wore his signature smile once more following his advance to the trio, asking in deference, "Why, how did you three have time to visit a small place like this?"

The incredibly courteous pleasantry was still left unanswered.

Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner went on with their card game.

The crowd who saw it farther away immediately felt that these three people must have a powerful background. Just as they wondered, they heard Yun Jian drawl, "The three of you have too much time on your hands, haven't you? My brother's bustling here and there and you three are here playing card? Get up and go help him out!"

Chapter 1073: Off To Help Like They're Fleeing

Once Yun Jian spoke up, people stared at her with widened eyes, especially Hua Yun, Hu Chaoqun and Hu Batian. The three of them knew about Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner's identities—they were the three executive heads of Gu Sha Mercenaries!

Frankly, the three departments the trio led were the symbol of Gu Sha Mercenaries!

Snake.Lizard and Tiger.Leopard seemed to be more respected in the world compared to Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner but that was not actually the truth. The reality was that it was only the fame of the trio's status that did not surpass Snake.Lizard and Tiger.Leopard's but they were equally brilliant in the domains they led.

In Gu Sha Mercenaries, the trio were also members of the higher-ups.

Other than Hua Yun, Hu Chaoqun and Hu Batian, the others probably had never even heard of the name Gu Sha Mercenaries but they could see that Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner must be influential from Hu Batian's earlier reaction.

As for now, the trio who they thought were influential were being called to work by Yun Jian? No, to be precise, Yun Jian had asked the three of them to get working?

"Are you crazy? Do you know who they are? How dare you speak to them like this! If you want to die, don't drag us all into it!" Hua Yun nearly fell to her knees in fear.

How dare Yun Jian order the trio around? They were the leaders of the three executive departments in Gu Sha Mercenaries!—Not that anyone had any idea why these powerful people were here.

Nonetheless, Hua Yun was scared witless because the tone Yun Jian had used to speak to the trio would stir rage from the latter. She did not want all of them here to die just because of Yun Jian's fault! This was the consequence of anyone who enraged people from Gu Sha Mercenaries!

Hua Yun had spoken to Yun Jian in a hushed voice, lowering her volume so the trio did not hear her from the distance away. After she spoke, Hu Chaoqun told Yun Jian in a relatively threatening tone as well, "Watch your tone! How bold of you to be speaking to Gu Sha Mercenaries members like this! You—"

Hu Chaoqun was talking to Yun Jian in a lowered volume and did not get to finish his threat as...

"Okay, okay, pack it up! Both of you, who started it first? Who had the guts to play cards so idly here huh? Sister Jian has spoken! Let's go and help out!"

Hu Chaoqun had just gotten halfway through his sentence when Diana tossed her cards on the table despite not finishing the game, grabbing Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner's cards as well, and nagged as she kept them.

"I didn't start it!"

"Absolutely not me!"

Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner said in unison. They looked at each other after that and sprang up in a swoosh before fleeing to wherever their help was needed.

It was like they were trying to make up for their mistake.

Hu Chaoqun had only managed to admonish Yun Jian halfway while the rest of the crowd was stunned when they saw such a shocking scene.

Diane stood up then and turned to look at Yun Jian with a grin. “Sister Jian, uh—um... I’ll get going too...”

She went after Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner to help as well, as if she was scared of being reprimanded by Yun Jian.

The onlookers were stupefied. Yun Jian merely raised a brow.

Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner could not even be bothered with Hu Batian, the director of a multinational company that was ranked top 20 in the world—not even sparing him a glance, but why were they so fearful around Yun Jian?

People furrowed their brows curiously, a little at a loss. Compared to them, however, Hua Yun, Hu Chaoqun and Hu Batian who knew about the trio’s identities were dumbfounded.

Chapter 1074: Hired To Make An Appearance

It was until Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner had gone out of their sight that the crowd snapped back to themselves.

Ms. Lu had her grip on her son, an arm linked with her husband, and seemed to be quite lost from her expression.

What was the Gu Sha Mercenaries? The teacher and the others there were befuddled but from Hu Batian, Hu Chaoqun and Hua Yun’s reaction, it was evident that the organization must be something impressive!

Ms. Lu might be able to understand the significance of the word “mercenaries” but the rest who were standing around were mostly villagers from Xinjiang Town—some of them were not even schooled—how would they know what the word stood for?

While they were bewildered about Diane and company addressing Yun Jian as “Sister Jian”, Hu Batian, Hu Chaoqun and Hua Yun were paling in terror.

“Y-you... know them?” They listened to her without a problem too! Hua Yun shuddered and her eyes bulged in shock as she took in what happened.

“Who?” Yun Jian nonchalantly turned to ask the obvious with a smile.

“T-them!” The three executive department heads of Gu Sha Mercenaries! Hua Yun’s heart nearly leapt out of her chest.

Yun Jian merely chuckled but ignored the rest of them and made her way into Crystal Rhythm Hotel.

Hua Yun could not help the gulp she took as she watched.

“Darling, what should we do? She wouldn’t actually...”

Hua Yun was a little intimidated. Yun Jian actually knew people from Gu Sha Mercenaries! Nonetheless, even when Yun Jian had ordered the Gu Sha members around like that just now, the woman did not think that the girl was actually someone high ranking. It was apparent by Yun Jian's age—how could she possibly be someone superior?

“Stop making a fuss! What are you scared of? She's just a young girl! How scary could she be?” Hu Chaoqun was intimidated himself but he growled at his wife, Hua Yun, angrily.

Hu Chaoqun had attended the wedding today alongside his uncle, Hu Batian, with the intention of boasting about the latter.

Hu Batian's company was one of the top 20 multinational companies in the world! Not only did an accomplishment like this make the man a big shot globally, he was a figure everyone in Country Z would rush up to get acquainted with.

With such status, Hu Batian was incredibly influential in Zhe Province's Longmen City. It was just unexpected that the three heads of executive departments in Gu Sha Mercenaries popped up out of the blue.

Hu Chaoqun himself was panicking but he forced himself to pretend to be composed and berated Hua Yun.

“Calm down,” Hu Batian said only after Yun Jian made it some distance away with a frown locked on his face.

Yun Jian had gone farther away but Ms. Lu and family were still standing by the door dumbly.

Hu Batian's voice was dark with a hint of menace. “No need to get anxious. She's only a teenage kid. Anyone adequately wealthy could hire people from Gu Sha Mercenaries.”

What the elder man said mollified Hua Yun and Hu Chaoqun's perturbed mood.

If Yun Jian was really able to order the trio around just now, her status in Gu Sha Mercenaries must be higher than the latter! But for something like this to be plausible... How old was she? And how capable could she be?

“Uncle, you mean...” Hu Chaoqun quirked a brow.

“Yes. I'm guessing that she's hired the three leaders of the executive departments from Gu Sha to make an appearance!” Hu Batian said, analyzing seriously, before taking a two-second pause and continued, “Gu Sha Mercenaries would never get involved with us over a kid. Everything'd be fine as long as we didn't provoke them directly!”

Chapter 1075: The Official Appearances Of International Tycoons

Here, what Hu Batian said was like the royal decree. To Hu Chaoqun, especially, he had only come to his success today all thanks to his uncle's training. Hence, he thought that what Hu Batian had analyzed must be correct. He did not even doubt him.

To put it nicely, it meant that Hu Chaoqun trusted his uncle, Hu Batian, completely. For lack of better words, Hu Chaoqun had no mind of his own, believing what his uncle said 100% without even being critical.

“Mn! This must be the case, uncle! I was just wondering why the three heads of Gu Sha’s executive departments were taking orders from a kid. Now I know it’s because of this...”

Hu Chaoqun nodded in confidence.

Gu Sha Mercenaries was a mercenary organization. A mercenary was hired to act. As long as the price was fulfilled, the organization would accept the mission whether it was homicide, investigation, counter-detection, or assassination.

Having just found out that Yun Jian was a director of a rather famous company in Longmen City—with the name New Cruise or something, Hu Chaoqun and Hu Batian unanimously assumed that Yun Jian must be somewhat capable for establishing the company at such a young age.

Owning New Cruise also meant that Yun Jian must be making a considerable income. With that, it was not a challenge for her to pay and hire the heads of Gu Sha Mercenaries’ executive departments for show and intimidation in Qin Yirou’s wedding today.

If Yun Jian had actually commissioned the trio, Hu Batian who knew of the latter’s status knew that they would only act with Yun Jian but not help her with more or other petty matters. This was Gu Sha Mercenaries’ rule.

That was why he said “everything’d be fine as long as we didn’t provoke them directly”.

As long as they did not directly offend the three executive leaders in Gu Sha, the latter would not step in even if they berated or beat Yun Jian up.

“I got it, uncle!” Hu Chaoqun told Hu Batian after some thoughts and grabbed his wife, Hua Yun’s hand.

“Alright, let’s go in.” Hu Batian naturally assumed that this was the reason the Gu Sha trio had appeared here and was ready to enter with Hu Chaoqun and Hua Yun.

Guests were gradually pouring in from the entrance of the Crystal Rhythm Hotel. They were either Qin Yirou or Ge Junjian’s family and friends. As for the international tycoons Yun Jian had invited, they had yet to show up.

Yun Jian supervised Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner as they helped Yun Yi.

It had been a long time since the three of them got hands-on, putting up streamers and décor in the center of where the wedding ceremony would be held and placing the wedding treats that the guests would take home with them when they left after the feast on the seats.

Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner might be brilliant in other fields but they had never done chores like these their entire lives.

“Sister Jian, you’re making the three of us fly all the way here for this?” Diane picked up a wedding streamer and looked weakly at Yun Jian who was nearby.

“Less talk, more work and you can have dinner earlier.” Yun Jian had her arms crossed in front of her wearing a smile.

At the same time, a group of people who were dressed sophisticatedly came in through the door. From the vibe they exuded, they felt completely different from the family and friends of Qin Yirou and Ge Junjian who sat in the hall.

When these people came in, it felt as if one had come to a party of the international high society!

When Hu Batian who was already seated looked up lazily, he sprang up with a quiver after seeing the faces.

Chapter 1076: Alluring Demon’s Appearance and Batian’s Discomposure

Since he had appeared, Hu Batian had shown the composure that a very successful businessman should display.

Even when he saw the executive trio of Gu Sha Mercenaries, he did not embarrass himself. While he was nonplussed, he did not entirely show it on his face earlier. He had acted and spoken with respect to Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner but there was no flaw in his poise.

In spite of it, when Hu Batian turned and coincidentally saw the group of sophisticatedly dressed people coming in, he jumped from the shock and had sprang up immediately. At the same time, due to his flurry of emotions, he had accidentally tripped on the chair he sat on.

Hu Batian’s calm and authoritative air diminished instantly. He did not actually fall as luckily, Hu Chaoqun who was next to him had caught him swiftly.

“Uncle, what’s the matter?” Hu Chaoqun had just asked when Hu Batian had already straightened up and gone over to the group of newcomers.

“Uncle! You...?” Hu Chaoqun got up doubtfully as he followed Hu Batian over in puzzlement.

“Dear, where are you going?” Hua Yun had already peeled a longan served on the table and was going to pass it to her son when she saw Hu Chaoqun going after Hu Batian, so she grabbed her son’s hand and hurried along.

“Mom, I want the longan! Wu... wu...” Seeing Hua Yun drop the longan that he was about to eat back onto the table and his hand being grabbed to catch up with his father, Hu Chixiang nearly cried like a soft little girl as he watched himself grow farther away from the fruit.

Simultaneously, the person who entered being escorted by a group of international tycoons was Alluring Demon who had appeared previously.

As the CEO of one of the top ten multinational companies in the world, many people knew that Alluring Demon was the person-in-charge of Dime And Prime Company. As for the director of said company, the person had never shown herself, so big and small decisions of Dime And Prime—as long as it did not concern the rise and fall of the company—could be made by Alluring Demon alone.

This was why people in the business world sucked up to Alluring Demon. Dime And Prime Company was not just one of the top ten—it was top five in the world’s multinational companies! It was soon advancing into top three and would be among the three best multinational companies in the world!

It was not the matter of whether someone insignificant like Hu Batian was qualified to stand in presence of Alluring Demon, it was the fact that while Hu Batian’s business was top 20, the top 20 companies and top five companies were not on the same level.

For example, if a company that wanted to get ranked top 20 in the world needed ten billion US dollars in total asset, the amount required for it to go into top five would be a hundred times more on the basis of ten billion US dollars!

This meant that the higher the company climbed in ranks, the harder it was to surpass the company ranked above it and the more total asset would be required!

Hence, in comparison to Dime And Prime Company, a wave of Alluring Demon’s finger could make Hu Batian’s company disappear in the global scene forever.

One could only imagine Hu Batian’s emotions when he saw Alluring Demon walking through the door with the entourage... He did not even mull over the reason the woman would appear in Qin Yirou’s wedding.

“What...w-what brings you here?” Hu Batian asked shakily.

Pausing, he extended a trembling hand to Alluring Demon.. “Nice to meet you, I’m the director of Batian Company. I wonder if I’d have the honor to discuss...”

Chapter 1077: The Tycoons Dropping Their Jaws

Before Hu Batian finished his greeting, he was already extending his hand for a handshake with Alluring Demon. It was then a handsome man rushed in from the entrance of the hotel all of a sudden and shoved people along his way away to slap Hu Batian’s hand off.

“Old man, don’t touch my darling Alluring Demon!” Maier’s handsome face greeted everyone there.

Alluring Demon who saw that it was Maier heaved a deep sigh and palmed her forehead. Why was the man everywhere she went? He had come to Country Z’s Longmen City all the way from Country M—when would he stop?

When Alluring Demon was in Dime And Prime Company, Maier went there all day. This gave the woman an extreme headache.

Finding his hand that was extended to Alluring Demon for a handshake being slapped away by an unknown man, Hu Batian’s gaze was dark when he looked up only to meet eyes with Maier.

“You... Y-you...” Hu Batian was wondering which idiot it was who dared hit his hand away from shaking hands with Alluring Demon when he saw Maier’s gorgeous face in full view.

Maier... Goodness! Hachi Company’s CEO, Maier!

Hu Batian tried to calm his thumping heart, nearly losing his sanity from the shock!

This was Maier, the CEO of Hachi Company! What was Hachi Company like? Its long history meant that it was currently higher in status compared to Dime And Prime Company!—And the CEO of Hachi was here today?

Also... Looking carefully at the tycoons around Alluring Demon, each of them was someone umpteenth times better and more successful than him, Hu Batian! There were at least a dozen of them here!

Hu Chaoqun and Hua Yun who caught up later were perplexed.

“Uncle, what’s going on? Who are they?” Hu Chaoqun asked.

“Uncle, did you call these people here as our support?” Who knew where Hua Yun got her confidence from as she asked in delight thinking that the entourage in front of her were their helping hand Hu Batian had called here.

Just as the couple finished their silly words, Hu Batian suppressed the thought to squash both of the idiots and growled at them in a low snarl, “Shut your trap, both of you!”

Ms. Lu who was seated at a nearby table was baffled. These people... were all wearing expensive clothes... The teacher suddenly saw Yun Jian making her way over.

Hu Batian, Hu Chaoqun and Hua Yun had their backs facing where Yun Jian came from, so they did not notice her coming over. It was until Hu Batian saw Alluring Demon greet Yun Jian with a polite “Sister Jian” that he realized Yun Jian was standing not too far behind him.

The girl had gone around Hu Batian to stand in front of Alluring Demon then, nodding gently at the latter’s greeting. “Mn.”

The international tycoons around Alluring Demon looked at Yun Jian in shock. How did this young lady get Alluring Demon, the CEO of Dime And Prime Company, to call her that?

Hu Batian was thoroughly stunned.

“Uncle, what’s happening?” Hu Chaoqun and Hua Yun were growing more mystified but they had a sense of foreboding.

Hu Batian was near his wits’ end. If the guess was that Yun Jian had hired the three heads of Gu Sha Mercenaries’ executive departments to put up a show for her, then what was this situation now? Alluring Demon was no doubt Dime And Prime Company’s CEO—why was she calling Yun Jian “Sister Jian” in deference?

Just as Hu Batian wondered, a bigshot standing next to Alluring Demon suddenly pointed at one of the four tall silhouettes entering the door and exclaimed, “Isn’t t-that... one of the four An Hun Group commanders, Snow Eagle?”

Snow Eagle frequented events and venues, so it was easy to recognize him.

Once the tycoon spoke, another man of similar status responded shakily while everyone watched on, “It—It’s not just Snow Eagle. If I’m seeing it correctly, the four of them are the four commanders of An Hun Group!”

The words baffled everyone there. All the tycoons widened their eyes and paled in shock.

The four commanders of An Hun Group were responsible for different duties in the organization and rarely appeared together. Why were the four of them gathered here today?

Chapter 1078: Flung. Better Dead Than Alive

The four men had already made their way in from the entrance.

Ya Dang had completely healed from his injuries by now and did not need Lan Su's help anymore. As Lan Su had spent longer time with Qin Yirou, she was still currently with the latter to help her out with anything the woman needed and had yet to arrive at the hotel.

"The f-four commanders from... A-An Hun Group?" Compared to the surprise of the tycoons around him, Hu Batian was overwhelmed with incredulity and horror.

Why? How was it possible? The four commanders of An Hun Group were here to attend Qin Yirou's wedding?

An Hun Group was an organization parallel to Gu Sha Mercenaries! The four commanders of An Hun could directly represent the entire organization! As for the rumored leader of An Hun Group, the person had always been incredibly mysterious.

While Hu Batian was baffled, Si Yi who had helped Yun Yi hang the last of the wedding streamers using his tall height as an advantage came over casually with his hands in his pants pockets.

With Si Yi's help in addition to Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner who Yun Jian had asked to go and help, Yun Yi was swiftly done with the wedding venue decoration. The set up was now completed.

As Si Yi went over to Yun Jian and eventually showed his handsome face to the tycoons, his appearance did not stir up any commotion among the latter. This was because he had never revealed himself to these big shots.

Yun Jian and Alluring Demon were standing face to face while Hu Batian stood half a meter behind Yun Jian.

The tycoons watched as the 1.85 meter charming young man approach them from afar, slowly shortening the distance. Due to Si Yi's commanding presence, people there could barely disregard him. They wondered where the young man was from as his presence was equally powerful despite being in the face of so many international tycoons and business elites.

While they thought about it, Si Yi came and frowned when he saw that Hu Batian was only half a meter behind Yun Jian, successfully blocking him from going straight to the girl.

The furrow of his brows meant that he was currently disgruntled. When the leader of An Hun Group was irked, it hinted at...

The four commanders who had just entered and met Si Yi's eyes felt their hearts give a squeeze.

As expected, Si Yi kept the crease between his brows as he made his way over directly to where Hu Batian was being in his way of getting close to Yun Jian and did something startling.

With his left hand stretched, Si Yi grabbed the collar of Hu Batian's suit jacket from the back and yanked the oblivious man to the side roughly.

This way, he could come up to behind Yun Jian without any obstacle in his way. He then extended his right arm and wrapped it around Yun Jian's slim waist as he stood on her left to make his possessiveness known at once.

The tycoons were bewildered. Hu Batian had more or less of a social standing but this young man had dared act so recklessly?

Hu Batian who was flung away lost his balance in that instant and fell on the floor.

Hu Chaoqun did not help him up immediately but turned to shout at Si Yi when his most respected uncle fell, "Who are you? Do you know who my uncle is? How dare you do that to him! I'll make sure you'd rather d—"

Before he could say the word "die", Snow Eagle had come up to Si Yi alongside the other three An Hun commanders and bowed in unison to greet Si Yi. "Young master!"

Chapter 1079: You've Been Working For The Whole Day, Thank You

The term of address "young master" greeted everyone's ears by surprise.

The appearance of Gu Sha Mercenaries' executive heads was already baffling to everyone there but it was far from being the most absurd. What seemed even more unbelievable was that the four commanders of An Hun Group was actually calling a young man... young master?

Putting aside their intention behind the term of address for now, the four An Hun Group commanders were known to only listen to one person. Other than that, no one across the globe could dictate how they treated others.

Then why were the four commanders of An Hun Group... calling this young man "young master" today? Hmm...

The tycoons who were present were dumbfounded.

Hu Chaoqun who had pointed a finger at Si Yi shouting "who are you" just now was frozen. He was well aware of the four commanders from An Hun Group. They were the higher-ups of the organization!

Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner who had made their appearances just now could not even compare to these four men—and not only were the latter here together, they had simultaneously greeted Si Yi, the young man who shoved his uncle to the floor, as... young master?

What could it mean?

It was not just the tycoons, Hu Chaoqun, Hu Batian and Hua Yun who were stunned, Alluring Demon and Maier were dumbstruck as well. Ms. Lu who was seated farther away did not know what was going on currently but anyone with a sane mind could guess as much.

The tycoons who were standing around were famous worldwide. How successful were they? Even Hu Batian with a company that was ranked within top 20 multinational companies in the world had to look up and pander to them!

Once these four men appeared, however, the big shots who even Hu Batian had to bow down to were instantly deferent, acting like mice meeting a tiger. Yet why did these four men, who the big shots were reverent to, were similarly reverent to Si Yi when they greeted him as “young master”?

Needless to say, Si Yi must be extraordinary in status!

Those who were around Ms. Lu were stunned as well.

At the same time, after the four commanders greeted Si Yi, they turned to Yun Jian, greeting her respectfully in unison, “Young madam!”

It made so many people there envious.

Whether it was Si Yi’s looks, his height, or his loving gaze on Yun Jian, all of that enchanted the women who were present. Moreover, the four commanders who obviously gained the reverence of the international tycoons spoke deferentially only to Si Yi; it only served to emphasize that Si Yi must be someone incredibly eligible!

People grew even more envious of Yun Jian.

They watched as the girl nod lightly. When the onlookers thought that she would be close to passing out from ecstasy, she nodded and told the four men, “Go on inside. You’ve worked hard for the day, thank you.”

Worked hard for the day?

Did it mean that Yun Jian ordered the four commanders of An Hun Group around for the entire day?

Oh my gosh!

The tycoons were shocked, straightening up unconsciously. It was natural that they did not assume Si Yi to be An Hun Group’s leader. After all, he seemed too young to be one. It was not that they did not find it possible, they dared not believe it!

They did not know why An Hun’s four commanders would address Si Yi as young master and why the four of them would willingly let Yun Jian order them around for the whole day. It simply did not make any sense!

Chapter 1080: You Idiot, Shut Up!

While the tycoons remained baffled, Ya Dang who stood at the end among the quad rubbed his head and chuckled at Yun Jian. “Not at all, it’s no hard work. How is it hard work? Heh!”

One of the four An Hun Group commanders, Ya Dang, said that to Yun Jian? He sounded utterly servile too?

“Head in,” Yun Jian smiled and said with a nod.

“Let’s go, let’s go. Hurry up, young madam has spoken.” Ya Dang struck a cool pose and took a step back before he acted like he was chasing ducks, spreading his arms and slapping the behind of Snow Eagle and Mo Sen who were the nearest to him, then slinging his arms around their shoulders with a grin and pushing them inside.

What Ya Dang had done—slapping Snow Eagle and Mo Sen’s buttocks—made the two men glower a little while Lin Wei who was standing to the side made his way in alone. The latter managed and trained An Hun Group’s secret agents and assassins. He was incredibly skilled himself or else the secret agents and assassins he trained in the organization would never bow down to him.

The best secret agent ranked in the world chart back then, Slaying God, was trained by Lin Wei. From being weaker than him to easily defeating him, Slaying God started turning stronger and capable when she learned from Lin Wei.

The man was not only skilled, he was cold in nature. A man of few words was basically describing him.

While Ya Dang was skilled, he was no rival against Lin Wei who spent all of his day with secret agents and assassins. Moreover, Lin Wei was impartial. Ya Dang knew that if he had ever tapped the man’s behind, the man would grab him and give him a good beating on the spot.

Snow Eagle and Mo Sen, on the other hand, did not react much physically when their buttocks were hit in public.

After the three commanders were led into the venue by a jolly Ya Dang, Alluring Demon flung Maier’s hand that had been gripping her wrist off. It was only then she went to Yun Jian and told the girl, “Sister Jian, I’ll be heading in first too.”

Upon receiving Yun Jian’s silent assent, the woman went in with an alluring sway of her hips.

The tycoons behind her fought each other to rush to grovel to her. As for Maier whose hand was flung away by Alluring Demon, he chortled weakly but spread his long legs to go after the woman still.

Hu Batian who fell from Si Yi’s push was helped up by Hu Chaoqun and Hua Yun.

“Uncle, did she hire all these people here today...” Hu Chaoqun was not just short, bald and fat, he was also stupid.

When he saw the group making their way inside merrily, he instantly remembered that his uncle had said Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner were possibly hired by Yun Jian to put up a façade when they first made an appearance. In this case... would the group of people just now be hired by Yun Jian as well? All of that just for show.

“You idiot! Shut up!” It would be unfair to call Hu Batian a fool when he could survive to this day. He slapped Hu Chaoqun and growled at him furiously.

Unfortunately, what Hu Chaoqun said was heard by Yun Jian and Si Yi.

Hu Batian was not as stupid as Hu Chaoqun.

If it had just been Diane, Phantom Flame and Spectral Refiner—the three heads of Gu Sha Mercenaries' executive departments, who were here, perhaps Yun Jian had spent a little fortune and hired them.

Those who came after that, any one of them, were people Yun Jian would not be able to hire no matter how much money she had!

As Hu Batian thought about it, he saw a pair of man and woman coming in through the door. The man was tall and muscular while the woman was slim and sexy.

“Gu...” Hu Batian could only manage to utter one word while blood was drained off of his face.
