Chapter 1121: Attending the Military School With Her

Duan Xincheng's face grew as dark as the coal once Si Yi had spoken.

How could she already have someone?!

The only thought Duan Xincheng currently had was that the girl he finally found himself liking already had a man!

At the same time, he saw Yun Jian stay in Si Yi's embrace despite being in public—and lift her head to look at Si Yi and ask softly after a press of her delicate lips, "What brings you here?"

The soft girly intoned question nearly melted Si Yi's heart as it went to his ears. It was only to Si Yi that Yun Jian would wear such a dreamy and girly expression.

Her soft voice made Si Yi think that he would do anything she said without any hesitation even if she were to ask him to die now. Usually indifferent and aloof, like he would never wear a different expression on his face that was not ice this whole life, Si Yi flashed a smile that he would only show when he faced Yun Jian.

"I'm here... to register." Si Yi was so close to kissing Yun Jian's lips when he looked at her small face but ultimately held himself back and told her softly with a gentle gaze.

"Register?" Yun Jian repeated after him in slight surprise with a small raise of brow.

"Register? Min City military school has a limited quota and only takes students through the Senior High School Entrance Examination. Our school will not accept you for just registering like this!"

Hearing that Si Yi was registering to attend their school, Duan Xincheng felt like killing the guy. He looked at Si Yi's face that was several times more charming than his and thought about how he was going to wait to woo Yun Jian when she would start school in the next semester. With Si Yi appearing suddenly and looking much more handsome than him, Duan Xincheng was very much annoyed.

Moreover, Duan Xincheng knew at a glance that Yun Jian must be an internally decided candidate as the result of the Senior High School Entrance Examination was not even published yet. Even if Si Yi wanted to attend the military school, he had to see if he was qualified! It was not like he could attend the school just because he said he wanted to.

"That's right! Our military school isn't somewhere you can attend just because you wanted to. It's also not some regular school you can attend by spending more money!"

Gu Chisi who saw Si Yi's gorgeous face was stunned just like everyone else. How could there be such a fine man in this world? It was like when they first saw Yun Jian.

There was no doubt that when Si Yi went to Yun Jian's side, their compatibility made everyone envious and wish they were either one of the pair. Gu Chisi thought the same but she was well aware that she would never have Si Yi.

Since that was the case, she might as well destroy them! She thought that since she could not have Si Yi, she did not want him in the military school so he and Yun Jian would not get their happy-ever-after as well! She was going out of her mind at the sight that greeted her and wanted nothing more than to ruin it!

The drillmasters who stood by the side furrowed their brows.

It was at the same time a middle-aged man in a pressed suit and leather shoes ran in from the cafeteria entrance in a haste. The middle-aged man was bald in the center but had incredibly lush hair on the side of his head.

After he ran into the cafeteria, he scanned the place eagerly. The students were flummoxed for a moment before someone recognized the middle-aged man instantly.

“Oh my goodness! It’s our principal who hardly ever shows himself! Our principal is here in school today!” a student cried in surprise.

Just as the student said that, the bald middle-aged man espied a tall figure and dashed over almost shakily. He came to Si Yi the fastest he could sprint and bowed to him as he respectfully passed an acceptance notice to the young man.

“P-please attend our military school the next semester!”

Chapter 1122: A Showdown to Attend the Military School

This middle-aged man was the headmaster of Min City military school with the last name Murong. As the head of the military school, Principal Murong was old-fashioned. Students of the military school all knew that he was a just and fair man.

Principal Murong rarely appeared in the school. Even if he was present, it would only be a flash of his face. When students met him and greeted him, he would nod at them but would never crack a smile. The man had always been reserved and poised.

What about now, though?

Their Principal Murong who was known for being boring and conservative in the military school actually looked like he was meeting his superior right now. He was treating Si Yi in even more initiative and respect than when he met the leader of the nation. It felt like he was pandering to Si Yi!

Min City’s military school was a famous school with a long history. Its principals had always been incredibly authoritative and powerful. In other words, even if the provincial leaders came, Principal Murong did not have to bow down to them because his status was unlike the headmasters of regular high schools!

Right now, however, he was so deferential to a young man in his twenties!

It was a shocking sight to everyone who was present, especially Duan Xinchun and Gu Chisi. What they had told Si Yi just now was undeniable. They had spoken to him in such convinced manner that someone like him was unqualified to attend their military school!

With Principal Murong appearing now, it was an invisible slap to both Duan Xinchun and Gu Chisi. Both of them paled instantly and were absolutely mortified.

Contrary to Duan Xinchun and Gu Chisi's embarrassment, Si Yi kept his arm around Yun Jian's waist and extended just a hand, waving a large and fair hand with prominent joints. Mo Sen who understood him took a step forward and extended his hand to Principal Murong on behalf of Si Yi. "Hand it over."

Principal Murong placed the acceptance letter in Mo Sen's hand delightfully and beamed kindly at Si Yi.

"Uh, have you eaten? Do you want me to swipe my card for you?" Principal Murong asked and quickly pulled a cafeteria card out from his pocket.

One could not buy food in the school cafeteria without the cafeteria card.

"No need." Si Yi was a man of few words to outsiders while he trained his eyes on Yun Jian who was in his embrace. As long as he saw his Xiao Jian, anything upsetting did not matter.

After rejecting Principal Murong, Si Yi suddenly thought that his Xiao Jian might not have eaten, so he looked down at her and asked gently—unlike how he treated outsiders, "Are you hungry?"

"I've eaten," Yun Jian replied and pointed at the lunch she was having not too far away.

"You haven't finished?" Si Yi trailed his gaze after where Yun Jian pointed and frowned.

"Have your lunch first. Don't starve yourself, it's not good for health," Si Yi said and picked up Yun Jian's hand to make his way to where her lunch was.

Si Yi's commanding presence intimidated the whole cafeteria that no one there dared make a move and could only watch as he brought Yun Jian over. Halfway there, Duan Xinchun's voice came from behind them.

"Let's have a duel! If you lose, you're not allowed to attend the military school!"

Chapter 1123: The Scheming Couple's Duet

Watching Si Yi hold Yun Jian and even pick up her hand as they made their way to the lunch table like a young couple in love, Duan Xinchun could not bear to take it!

Duan Xinchun had always known that he excelled in life; he worked harder than others when he was younger and was the "golden child" as he grew up. Previously, he had even defeated the six members of Team Monarch alone and earned the title of "Teen God of War".

All of these boosted his confidence and raised his standard when he looked at others. As for his criteria for a girlfriend, he thought that regular girls were unworthy of him!

Ever since he saw Yun Jian, however, Duan Xinchun felt like spring had descended upon him and it was time for him to fall in love. It was love at first sight for him, especially when he saw Yun Jian standing among the crowd so confidently as if she was the king of the world.

Duan Xincheng felt his heart thump and roar. Only a girl like this could match someone as excellent as he was!

Yet he had never expected Yun Jian to already have a man. Right now, Duan Xincheng only had one thought—that was to make Si Yi vanish from his line of sight. He did not even consider the reason Principal Murong was so deferential to Si Yi.

Once he spoke, everyone looked over like they were awaiting the drama to unfold. Principal Murong had been reverent toward Si Yi but when he suddenly heard Duan Xincheng speaking so recklessly at Si Yi, he shuddered in fright, “Shut up! Shut up! Shut it right now!” Principal Murong growled at Duan Xincheng the moment he heard that the latter was challenging Si Yi.

“This VIP is not someone you can challenge just because you want to!” Principal Murong roared at Duan Xincheng.

The young man grew more indignant at his principal’s berating.

“I accept it,” Si Yi answered in his deep baritone voice, a sharp edge in his tone, just when Principal Murong was at the verge of tears over Duan Xincheng’s idiotic decision.

This VIP accepted it? Principal Murong nearly broke out in cold sweat. He then saw Si Yi looking down at Yun Jian with a smirk. He crouched his tall and muscular form slightly and went close to Yun Jian’s ear.

“What should his consequence be when he loses, Xiao Jian? Hmm?”

Si Yi continued. “Should we break his arm? His leg? Or his head?”

The gory options tumbled out of Si Yi’s lips sounding so serious but the others who heard him felt chills running over them. How could he say something like this so casually?

Duan Xincheng could not help the shudder that ran through him.

“He’ll p*ss out of the military school if he loses.” Yun Jian squinted.

Duan Xincheng took a deep breath. Compared to Si Yi’s brutality, Yun Jian was truly more gentle. Although she did say “p*ss out”, she did not ask for his limbs to be broken in comparison. Was she reluctant?

Duan Xincheng could not help thinking that the girl must have feelings for him just like he had expected it. After all, a guy like Si Yi was flawless in appearance but he must only be a toy boy. Duan Xincheng himself was a handsome man that was both capable and gorgeous!

Just as he thought that, Yun Jian was heard speaking again. “Because I don’t want to see such filth when I start school here.”

There was a pause between Yun Jian’s words. “Or break all his tendons when he loses so he can’t practice martial arts his whole life.”

Her tone was flat and indifferent, like she was just commenting on something ordinary.

Chapter 1124: Duan Xinchun Who Doesn't Know Better

The last of Duan Xinchun's fantasy shattered at what Yun Jian said. Was he that worthless in her eyes?

"Anything Xiao Jian says," Si Yi answered gently as he patted Yun Jian's head.

Yun Jian wore a high ponytail that looked incredibly youthful and exuberant no matter one saw her from near or far.

Girls in school usually liked wearing their hair down but a lot of schools had set their rules to dictate that girls must not wear their hair down but tie them up in ponytails.

What a lot of girls did not know was that the true beauty of a girl came from her heart. Like the high ponytail, it made one look bright and assertive.

Yun Jian liked wearing her hair in a high ponytail and the hairstyle suited her too. Although it was not as girly as some girls, it perfectly showcased her unique and charming beauty that no other girl could compare to.

Her hair that Si Yi ran his hand over was extremely smooth.

Taking in Si Yi's fond gaze, Duan Xinchun who stood farther away could not hold himself back. Confidently, he told Si Yi, "Alright! If you lose, you get out of the military school. If I lose, not only will I quit the military school, I'll wreck my tendons and cease practicing martial arts for life!"

What Duan Xinchun said shocked everyone there.

"Chen-gege, have you lost your mind? All these just because of her?" Gu Chisi shouted at Duan Xinchun pointing at Yun Jian, bewildered by the young man's decision.

"Chisi, move aside." Duan Xinchun pushed Gu Chisi away to go to Si Yi.

"No! No way!" Even if Gu Chisi were stupid, she could see Duan Xinchun's infatuation for Yun Jian. Under such circumstance, there was no way she would let the guy she liked go now.

Duan Xinchun's gaze darkened. He finally ran out of his patience. With a resolute decision, he extended a hand to shove Gu Chisi away harshly.

"Stay out of my business, Chisi!" Duan Xinchun said and approached Si Yi.

Si Yi wore a small smirk as he rubbed Yun Jian's head and stole a peck from Yun Jian's lips right in front of Duan Xinchun.

Everyone watched the scene unfold while some squealed directly, "Whoa! Whoa!"

The scene felt like a prick in Duan Xinchun's heart and he pounced at Si Yi with a loud growl.

"Go to hell! Die! Argh!" he roared and sprinted toward Si Yi without any grace but his speed was shocking.

Si Yi squinted. As expected, someone who had learned Wushu at a young age, especially someone like Duan Xinchun who learned it from a master living in seclusion, was unlike the people he met in the past.

“Gosh, they’re fighting! That’s aggressive! I think Duan Xinchun will win for sure!”

“I know, right? Duan Xinchun’s beaten the six Team Monarch members previously and knocked five out of six of them down. The girl who wasn’t knocked down lost anyway!”

“That guy’s probably just some toy boy who’s better looking and isn’t really capable. Why else have we not heard of his name?”

“Yeah, exactly!”

The students gossiped noisily.

Just as these people had come to this point in their discussion, Duan Xinchun had come to Si Yi and lifted his leg to kick the latter who was still hugging Yun Jian in an attempt to kick his arm that was holding her.

Mo Sen and Ya Dang stayed behind Si Yi without showing any sign to counter or defend.

With his leg lifted up, Duan Xinchun was applying a technique in Wushu, wanting to kick Si Yi in the air.

It was when Duan Xinchun’s leg was about to reach Si Yi that the crowd tensed in horror at the next scene...

Chapter 1125: Leaving for Yulong Mainland Soon

Duan Xinchun raised a leg while his other leg sprang up from the floor close to Si Yi, using both his legs to propel his body forward. With one leg staying straight and another leg leaving the floor and bending into a triangle, his jumping kick was aimed at Si Yi.

Duan Xinchun was also being very speedy. While it was unlike Yun Jian’s earlier speed that one failed to catch physically, his speed was definitely among the top three in the military school.

The other students could not help quivering for Duan Xinchun for daring to fight in front of Principal Murong. In spite of it, Principal Murong’s current concern was not his student breaking the school rules and fighting openly but...

How dare that damned Duan Xinchun provoke that personage! Was he trying to get himself killed?

While the headmaster thought about it, Duan Xinchun’s jumping kick had come to Si Yi.

The onlookers gasped hard.

At the same time that Duan Xinchun’s kicking leg came to Si Yi and it was coming to a critical juncture, Si Yi’s gaze was still shining affectionately at Yun Jian.

Duan Xinchun was already feeling victorious that he could kick Si Yi away when the latter extended his arm. His fair, large hand lunged forward for a grab without him even turning to look and caught the front leg of Duan Xinchun’s legs that were both in the air.

Si Yi had not even raised his head and he had caught Duan Xincheng's leg!

Everyone there was shocked by his action. The guy did not even look and caught Duan Xincheng's foot blindly! Duan Xincheng had jumped up in his flying kick to kick Si Yi; that meant that if Si Yi could catch his front leg, he was singlehandedly holding all of Duan Xincheng's weight!

Si Yi was tall and lean. He was not the slightest bit fat and had perfect proportions. Judging by his exterior, however, one could not even perceive that he had such strength in him!

While everyone thought about that, Si Yi pulled Duan Xincheng toward the side holding his leg and flung him down mercilessly.

Thud!

It had not even been that long when Duan Xincheng was flung to the ground by Si Yi and twitched sprawling on the floor.

It was just a stretch of hand—it was only that. Si Yi did not even spare a glance at Duan Xincheng who was kicking him and caught the latter's leg before flinging him off! He had kept his eyes on Yun Jian while all that happened.

It was simply a blind grab!

The onlookers knew that they could hardly react to the speed Duan Xincheng was moving in just now. Forget having to catch his leg and throwing him off without even looking!

All of Duan Xincheng's previous accomplishments turned into dust due to Si Yi at this moment.

"Cough—cough—cough!" Laying on the floor, Duan Xincheng felt like his heart nearly erupted from Si Yi's throw.

"Ya Dang, break all his tendons. He shall not step into Min City military school his whole life." Si Yi's icy declaration sounded before everyone could keep up with the events.

"Got it." Receiving the order, Ya Dang went over to the guy.

Everyone there paled in terror. Was he really doing that?

As for Si Yi, he grabbed Yun Jian's hand and made his way out of the cafeteria right after making the order.

"Eh, Yun Jian, you're leaving already?" Chu Ning wanted to go up to them but was stopped by Chu Xiangnan.

"Are you trying to be a third wheel?" Chu Xiangnan teased with a grin.

Yun Jian was already tugged to a small forest nearby the cafeteria by Si Yi during then. There was no one around the place.

"Didn't you say that you're busy with An Hun Group? Why are you back so fast?" Yun Jian asked snuggling gently in Si Yi's embrace.

“You’re going to Yulong Mainland tomorrow. I’m back to go with you.” Keeping an arm wrapped around Yun Jian, Si Yi held Yun Jian’s hand with another one and looked at her in brimming affection.

His tender affection had always been only for her.

Chapter 1126: Challenge the Dominance, Any Time

“Mn.” Yun Jian nodded hearing what Si Yi said. She was going to say something more when Duan Xincheng’s shrill, agonized cries and Gu Chisi’s desperate bawls came from the cafeteria.

“Argh!”

“Chen-gege! No!”

Needless to say, Ya Dang must have broken all of Duan Xincheng’s tendons, making the latter’s promise come true for him.

With the atmosphere being affected by the situation, Si Yi furrowed his brows and took Yun Jian back to the military school’s cafeteria. There, Duan Xincheng lay limp on the floor as his limbs were already crippled.

Principal Murong, as the headmaster of the military school, should have stepped up to stop the incident upon seeing what was happening but he dared not say a word. Why did Duan Xincheng even provoke the personage out of the blue? Did he have too much time on his hand?

Principal Murong dared not intervene with the matter at all! The drillmasters stood still gulping as well.

As Si Yi came in through the cafeteria door with Yun Jian, Chu Ning called out for her the moment she saw her, “Yun Jian’er!”

Yun Jian had gone back to where she was earlier while Duan Xincheng had already passed out from his tendons being broken in public with Gu Chisi wailing.

“Hmph, that’s for digging his own grave!” Chu Ning glimpsed over her shoulder in gratification and huffed.

Back when Duan Xincheng injured the six Team Monarch members in the battle, Fang Xiaoran, especially, was the one who was the most severely injured that he suffered from the sequelae now. He had gone to get it checked in the hospital but the doctor said that the sequelae would stay with him for life. Chu Ning, Chu Xiangnan and his other teammates were furious and resentful back then.

While Duan Xincheng won the school students’ admiration due to the battle, the six Team Monarch members were gravely injured and despised by their peers. The reason Chu Ning and her teammates trained so hard after that was to win Duan Xincheng.

Due to Duan Xincheng’s mercilessness before this, Chu Ning and her teammates not only did not sympathize with him now, they felt gratified instead.

Just as Yun Jian came to stand with Chu Ning, Gu Chisi who had been wailing before Duan Xincheng suddenly stood up in resentment and pulled a knife out of her belt, dashing for Yun Jian.

“Gah, you hurt my Chen-gege, I’m going to kill you! Go to hell!”

Gu Chisi had loved Duan Xinchun since a young age. The guy was her everything. When she had to watch his tendons get wrecked and could no longer practice martial arts for his entire life, she felt like she was going crazy.

Gu Chisi could not think straight. She only had one thought right now—that was to kill Yun Jian. It was all because of Yun Jian that her Chen-gege became like this!

Nonetheless, how could Gu Chisi rival Yun Jian? The second before she could swing her knife down at Yun Jian, the latter had kicked her away with a swing kick.

The same time that Gu Chisi’s knife fell to the floor with a crisp clink, Yun Jian spoke up in an icy voice that reached everyone’s heart.

“I keep my words! Since he dares make a bet, he has to keep his end of the promise!”

Yun Jian was telling it to Gu Chisi. It was not her or Si Yi who had destroyed Duan Xinchun; it was the guy who had ruined himself. If he did not have the capability, why force it? Since he did force it, he had to pay the price for his own action.

Yun Jian took a pause. She was currently standing before the six Team Monarch members. As she looked up, there was a gleam that flashed across her eyes. Two seconds later, she continued; what she said made one feel fervent.

“Team Monarch is under my wing! If anyone dares challenge the dominance, they are against me!”

“If you refuse to accept it, come fight! I, Slashing God, am ready any time!”

Chapter 1127: Forgive Me. Let’s Get Married

Team Monarch was under her wing! Anyone who was unwilling to accept that would end up like Duan Xinchun from The Indomitables!

What Yun Jian said in addition to her earlier flash of bewildering skill, as well as the man standing beside her whom the principal obeyed to, made everyone there shudder in chills.

“Heh, our Yun Jian’er is simply awesome!” Chu Ning exclaimed proudly while the rest of her peers watched the scene in fright.

Subsequent matters of the incident were left to Ya Dang and Mo Sen. Both of them were speedy in handling the case.

As for Duan Xinchun, not only were his tendons destroyed, he was expelled by the military school. It was certainly a crushing blow that he was unable to take. Gu Chisi would leave the military school as well seeing that Duan Xinchun would have to leave; after all, she had attended the military school back then because of him.

With the president and vice president missing, The Indomitables naturally dissolved. All these were what eventually happened.

Now, Yun Jian had gone back to Longmen City with Si Yi. She had initially planned to stay in Min City for the night and return to Longmen City the next day to go to Yulong Mainland with Lan Su. However, Si Yi's appearance caused her to change her plan abruptly.

Nevertheless, Chu Ning and her teammates had successfully applied leave from Principal Murong to spend time with Yun Jian and go around Min City with her in the afternoon. They would only be free at night but once they applied for leave from the principal, Principal Murong approved it immediately knowing that Yun Jian was close to them.

Before departing to Yulong Mainland early the next morning, Yun Jian had things to do.

Yulong Mainland was an unknown world to both Yun Jian and Si Yi. They did not even know when they could come back after leaving this time.

Considering this, Yun Jian planned to go back to Dime And Prime Company while Si Yi planned to go back to An Hun Group.

Yun Jian was going to Dime And Prime the next day. Right now, the company was the only concern she had. Alluring Demon ran Dime And Prime Company but Yun Jian knew that Hachi Company's director, who was also Maier's father, had been setting his eyes on it. Not knowing when she would come back after leaving this time, Yun Jian found it necessary to go to Dime And Prime first.

Si Yi drove off after sending Yun Jian home. He planned to rush back to An Hun Group through the night and had decided on the time to meet Yun Jian at the entrance to Yulong Mainland they had discovered at the catacomb.

After sending Si Yi off, Yun Jian went to Qing You's place and left her some instructions and reminders before going to Lan Su's place.

Since Qin Yirou got married, Lan Su had moved out. She rented a small suite to herself; while it was not as luxurious as the one Qing You was staying at, it was cozy and comfortable.

Yun Jian had the key to Lan Su's place, so she opened the door directly upon arriving there.

Lan Su was crouching on the floor as she packed up, wearing a loose pair of jeans and oversized long sleeves that completely covered her perfect figure up. She was from Yulong Mainland—it was the custom there to be dressed relatively conservative.

The moment she saw Yun Jian, she called in delight and waved at her, "Yun Jian!"

Yun Jian did not close the door and went over to her with a beaming smile.

"Yun Jian, have a look. I'm planning to bring these gems back to Wu Clan. The clan members mustn't have seen these things all their life..." Lan Su expressed in excitement holding pots and pans—kitchen utensils, basically.

It was then a familiar voice of a man came from the door. "Lan Su, are you forgiving me since you have the door opened? Then let's get married tomorrow..."

Yun Jian turned around to see Ya Dang appearing at the door. The latter froze when he spotted Yun Jian and his words slowed down..

Chapter 1128: On the Way to Yulong Mainland

This was not the first time Ya Dang came to Lan Su's place asking for forgiveness but Lan Su had always kept her door closed and refused to see him.

Of course, Ya Dang could enter easily through other means but he did not resort to that. He felt that Lan Su would only grow more repulsed if he did that. In spite of it, he came here every day recently to ask for her forgiveness.

When he came and saw the door opened today, he thought that Lan Su had forgiven him but it was actually his young madam who was here.

"Uh, young madam, you're here." Ya Dang froze for a bit before coming in. Despite what he said, Ya Dang was actually thinking, 'Young madam, this isn't the time for you to be here.'

"Mn," Yun Jian replied with a slight smile and turned back to Lan Su, telling her, "Get your things ready. We'll depart at 5:30am tomorrow."

She then scanned Lan Su and Ya Dang cryptically before turning to leave the place.

"Hey, Yun Jian, don't go! I..." Lan Su called out and wanted to go after Yun Jian to pull her back when she saw that Yun Jian had already left her place but Ya Dang was still around. She was stopped by said man and could only watch Yun Jian leave.

"I haven't seen you in so long, woman. Why are you so cruel?" Ya Dang held Lan Su's wrist and stared at her.

After a while, he suddenly tugged her to his embrace and hugged her close.

Yun Jian had come just to tell Lan Su their departure time. Since she had told her what she needed to, there was no reason for her to linger around.

When the next day came for Yun Jian to leave Longmen City for some time, she told Qin Yirou that she was visiting Si Yi's family and could only come back after some time. Qin Yirou initially wanted to go with her when she heard that Yun Jian was visiting Si Yi's family but the girl made up a lie to stop her and succeeded in preventing her mother from following.

Early in the morning, Qin Yirou prepared a few steamed buns for Yun Jian to take with her. Yun Jian and Lan Su had agreed to meet at the east station. Once Yun Jian was there, she saw the two figures standing a short distance away. They were none other than Lan Su and Ya Dang.

Ya Dang was carrying Lan Su's heavy luggage for her. Who knew what happened between the two of them after Yun Jian left yesterday as Lan Su was not as on edge with Ya Dang as she had been in the beginning.

“Yun Jian, this guy keeps pestering me. Can you chase him away for me?” Lan Su ran over to Yun Jian when she saw her but her tone did not sound as annoyed about Ya Dang as her words suggested.

“Young master’s asked me to protect young madam. I won’t be leaving!” Afraid that Yun Jian would help Lan Su and stop him from going with them, Ya Dang quickly used his young master as his shield.

Watching the pair’s interaction, Yun Jian smiled and went up the bus first carrying her backpack.

“Let’s go. The flight is at 6:30am. We’ll be late,” Yun Jian said and softly brushed her high ponytail over her shoulder to her back.

Lan Su stayed quiet and hurried to board the bus with Yun Jian after that.

...

Departing from the airport, this was Yun Jian’s second time to Country M’s Maryland after her rebirth. It was almost noon by the time they landed.

There was a time difference from Country Z’s Longmen City to Country M’s Maryland. While it was around noon in Country Z, it was about 5pm in Maryland.

Upon arriving in Maryland, Yun Jian had Lan Su and Ya Dang stay in Dime And Prime Company while she went to the university Ge Xuan was in.

Chapter 1129: Ge Xuan’s Roommates. Expand Her Horizons

Thinking that Yun Jian was visiting Si Yi’s family, Qin Yirou knew that she would pass Country M’s Maryland where Ge Xuan’s university was. The woman was a considerate mother. Even if she was not Ge Xuan’s birth mother, she thought that it was her duty to treat Ge Xuan like her own since she had gotten married to Ge Junjian.

Moreover, Ge Xuan was nice to Qin Yirou as well. During her wedding previously, he had brought Qin Yirou an expensive gift from abroad.

Today, Qin Yirou had just asked Yun Jian to bring Ge Xuan some homemade local dishes because she had heard him saying that he missed the taste of home more now that he was overseas.

University students usually spent relatively more time in their dorms. As Yun Jian came to Ge Xuan’s university, she went to the male dormitory with the bottles and jars containing Longmen City’s local specialties.

A while later, Ge Xuan came jogging out from his dorm with several students who were also studying abroad here from Country Z. Ge Xuan’s best friends when Yun Jian came the last time, Shan Tiansheng, Wu Dazhuang, Zhu Zilin and others were not around.

It was easy to guess that the few of them must not share the same dorm building with Ge Xuan. The three guys who came with Ge Xuan today were obviously his roommates.

“Mom asked me to bring these for you.” Yun Jian passed the Longmen City specialties—pickled vegetables that Qin Yirou had personally preserved—to Ge Xuan when she saw him.

Ge Xuan's three roommates cackled the moment they saw a pretty girl coming to the dormitory building to look for him.

"Oh ho, Ge Xuan, I didn't expect a girl to come here specifically to send you a token of love!"

"What a surprise!"

Ge Xuan's three roommates slung their arms around each other as they giggled and grinned dramatically.

Youngsters this age paid exceptional attention to interactions between opposite sexes, so these three clueless guys cackled in exaggeration.

Ge Xuan did not actually share a close bond with his three roommates but he was naturally disgruntled when he heard them misunderstanding him and Yun Jian like this.

"Cut the nonsense. This is my younger sister!" Ge Xuan huffed at his roommates and turned to Yun Jian.

"Meimei, is something the matter that you come all the way here?" Ge Xuan's tone turned softer.

Yun Jian started her summer break in advance while Ge Xuan's university would go on the break later, so he was still in school for now.

"I'm here for a holiday," Yun Jian replied.

"Whoa, whoa, whoa. A little girl like you coming all the way from Country Z to Country M for a holiday? How old are you? Do you want to hang out with the few of us?"

It was apparent that Ge Xuan's three roommates were no decent fellas. One of them with a flat nose and below average looks but was rather tall and lean looked at Yun Jian and invited her easily.

"Zhang Jianguai, my meimei isn't that type of person. She won't be fooling around with you guys!" Ge Xuan blocked the trio's gaze brimming with an ulterior motive toward Yun Jian with a frown.

"Tsk, what are you saying? Ge Xuan, we're not fooling around this time. The three of us applied for Hachi Company's recruitment. We're going there for an interview now!"

"Heh, Hachi Company's one of the top ten multinational enterprises! Asking your sister to come along with us is expanding her horizons! Please, if she were like you, she'd be... too shallow!"

Zhang Jianguai tipped his chin in pride and spoke confidently. It was as if it was an honor to be able to go for an interview in the famous Hachi Company.

"Hachi Company?" Yun Jian raised a brow wearing a smirk.

What a coincidence...

"Heh, you know it too, huh? Let me take you there and enrich your experience, yeah?" Zhang Jianguai said victoriously when he saw that Yun Jian knew about the company he was talking about.

Yun Jian smiled, a gleam flashing in her eyes, as she answered, "Sure."

Chapter 1130: It's on the Way. I Don't Eat Ice Cream

Hachi Company was the company of Maier's father as well as the workplace of Maier who had been courting Alluring Demon.

Due to its long years of establishment that contrasted Dime And Prime Company's short years of success, Hachi Company was better known internationally than Yun Jian's Dime And Prime.

The sole reason Yun Jian had come to Country M's Maryland this time was because she was concerned about Dime And Prime Company. Hachi had been oppressing Dime And Prime.

Maier was Hachi Company's CEO and had targeted Dime And Prime just to court Alluring Demon but his father, Maide, the director of Hachi, had been coveting Dime And Prime for a long time. He wanted to acquire Dime And Prime Company as his own.

Although Alluring Demon was Dime And Prime's CEO, her ability was limited. She was at a disadvantage battling a long-time enterpriser like Maide.

Maide was unlike their past competitors. He had come to this stage today with proven ability and influence. That was why Yun Jian came to warn him, the director of Hachi Company, before she left for Yulong Mainland; the man might have already made his move before she could return from Yulong Mainland otherwise.

Of course, it was not like Yun Jian's warning would be effective just because she was the director of Dime And Prime Company.

Yun Jian squinted. She had not expected Ge Xuan's roommates to be on her way as well. It worked in coincidence—she now had a guise to slip into Hachi Company.

"Meimei, are you really going to Hachi Company with the three of them?" Ge Xuan's voice broke Yun Jian's train of thought. He was slightly skeptical. Was his younger sister really following his roommates to Hachi Company?

Ge Xuan had been a delinquent previously and often stayed out late into the night but it was an intentional act to anger Ge Junjian. The reason he did not get along with his three roommates now was because the trio fooled around by going to clubs and sleeping around with women; it was also common for them to touch women inappropriately.

Ge Xuan had thought that Yun Jian would decline the trio's invitation, so it was a surprise that she agreed.

"Meimei, you're unfamiliar with the area. I think it's best you don't wander. Where do you stay for now? I'll send you back to your hotel," Ge Xuan said and made his way to her.

Zhang Jianguai shoved Ge Xuan away right after he said that and grinned lecherously at Yun Jian, telling Ge Xuan, "She's happy to go with us. What are you trying to say, Ge Xuan? We share a dorm. Do you not trust us or what?"

Ge Xuan furrowed his brows deeper once Zhang Jianguai said that. Although he knew that his younger sister was the racer SG and an Advanced Special Forces soldier, he was still worried for her. After all, she was just a girl to Ge Xuan despite her shocking identity.

Glancing at Yun Jian, Ge Xuan knew that she would definitely do what she said, so he spoke up after a pause, "I'll go too!"

Zhang Jianguai and the rest did not stop Ge Xuan from going anyway. After Ge Xuan kept the bottles of pickled vegetables in the dorm room, they made their way to Hachi Company.

Summer was all bright and glaring. With the burning sun hanging high in the sky, a stroll on the street would drench one in sweat.

Zhang Jianguai was struggling with the heat. Glancing at Yun Jian out of the corner of his eye, he took off his clothes and hung it on his shoulder to show off his abs. When Yun Jian did not look over to him, he went over to ask her, "It's so hot. Do you want to have an ice cream to quench the thirst?"

Without waiting for Yun Jian's reply, Zhang Jianguai ordered Ge Xuan to do the errand for him like usual, "Ge Xuan, go get me..."

Just as he started, he suddenly felt that it was awkward for him to order Yun Jian's brother around right in front of the girl, so he went off to buy the ice cream himself.. When he finally came back and passed the ice cream to Yun Jian, the girl replied coldly, "I don't eat ice cream."
