

Schoolgirl 1231

Chapter 1231: His Curt Order—Kill Them

Other than shock, a major reason for Madam Hong's reaction was because she and her people were involved in illegal business—human trafficking, basically. Under such circumstances, they were the most afraid of running into the police.

Madam Hong would have gone the other way when she saw the police on the street usually; what was more, meeting the police forces face to face?

When Yun Jian claimed that she was a member of the Advanced Special Forces, in addition to how she had kicked Boss Jia away just now, Madam Hong was not able to explain why a teenage girl like her who looked frail was skilled like this even if she did not believe that Yun Jian was from the Advanced Special Forces.

That was unless she was telling the truth—she was a member of the Advanced Special Forces... But how old was she now? She was only a teenager! How was it possible.

“You—you're an ASF soldier?!” Madam Hong pointed at Yun Jian and exclaimed in disbelief. There was even a hoarseness in her voice.

“What else did you think?” Yun Jian did not show even a hint of fear facing Madam Hong and the group of herculean men behind her. On the contrary, she stepped forward to them as she talked.

“What... what are you doing?”

Knowing that Yun Jian must be trained from how she had kicked Boss Jia just now, Madam Hong and the muscly men behind her stumbled back together when she saw Yun Jian approaching.

It was apparent that she was very much alarmed by the girl's skill just now.

Yun Jian was still making her way toward Madam Hong while the other girls who were still tied felt both emotional and shocked. As she walked, she lifted her hand gently, scaring Madam Hong into thinking she would pull out some sort of weapon and taking three quick steps back at the same time. However, Yun Jian was only stretching her hand to pull the only tattered stool available in the basement and sit on it. She then tucked the rest of her hair to the back of her ear and smirked charmingly.

“Actually, I wouldn't have poked my nose into your business.”

She paused and suddenly looked up to continue saying, “But since you've gotten me here and put up such an amazing show for me, I'd feel sorry if I didn't leave you guys some reward.”

Yun Jian's tone was flat that one could not discern the emotion behind it. In spite of it, the monotonous words leaving the girl's lips struck most of them there.

Madam Hong was filled with regret. She had thought that she picked up a gem but.

Bang!

The closed door was kicked open in the next moment. The force of the kick was so strong that it sent the whole door flying, breaking the door!

Those in the basement were shocked. When they turned around, they saw an astonishingly gorgeous man who wore black casual wear walking in with a frown. His fetching looks attracted attention once he entered.

Si Yi scanned the basement with furrowed brows upon entering and finally saw Yun Jian who sat on a stool. It was only then his frown smoothed out and he made his way over.

The rest around him shuddered from the intimidation of his aura. His kick at the door just now was frightening and unexpected!

As Si Yi made his way to Yun Jian, he suddenly paused and turned slightly to order Mo Sen, Snow Eagle and Lin Wei who came in after him icily, "Kill them.."

Chapter 1232: Si Yi Strikes. Killing All of Them

There was no emotion shown on Si Yi's face but the three commanders who were familiar with him knew very well that their young master was seriously angered this time.

"W-Who are you?" Madam Hong stumbled several steps back, frightened by Si Yi and men who barged in. She had a vague feeling, especially when she heard Si Yi saying "kill them", that she had provoked a terrifying big shot.

"Old hag, you don't need to know who we are..." Snow Eagle walked over to her first with a chortle. There was a long scar under his neck that significantly discounted his handsome face.

"You... You..." Madam Hong kept retreating in fear.

"No need to waste time with her. Just kill the group directly." Mo Sen had already made his way here. He had very long legs, especially when one looked at him from the back. His figure and looks basically made him the fantasy of all girls.

Just as Mo Sen took two steps forward, the muscly men behind Madam Hong took two steps back.

The next second, a sharp gleam of murderous intent flashed across Mo Sen's eyes and the rest of those in the constrained space felt a gale ruffling past them the next moment.

When they broke out of the daze, Mo Sen had somehow gone past the burly men and the latter spurted blood all of a sudden. Nobody was even aware of when he had attacked them.

The burly men then fell face first toward the floor in one linear line and stopped breathing in a while.

Mo Sen went back to Lin Wei after killing the few of them. Lin Wei was the strongest out of the four commanders but he did not do anything because the few men in front of him were unqualified for him to even lift a finger.

As Mo Sen went back to stand next to Lin Wei, Snow Eagle had gone toward Madam Hong.

"Ah! You! You killed them! How dare you! You—" Madam Hong could no longer piece her words together out of the immense fear she was in.

snow Eagle, on the other hand, slowly made his way toward Madam Hong, clicking his tongue as he did, and told her, "Say, you could do anything but you had to capture our young madam. Do you think you could still stay alive after catching our young madam? Tsk, tsk... You already have one foot in the coffin and you're still out and about to harm others..."

Snow Eagle rested his chin against his slender hand and looked at Madam Hong in amusement as the latter retreated toward where the girls were. When she backed herself to a corner, she kneeled down at Snow Eagle directly.

"Please don't kill me! Don't kill—"

As she said the last word, she suddenly grabbed a girl who was cowering next to her and threw her toward Snow Eagle.

Since the girl's hands and feet were tied, she could not even stabilize herself when Madam Hong hurled her at Snow Eagle.

Madam Hong squinted and sprang, fleeing for the basement door at the side. She was actually quite skilled!

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes. That was unexpected of the old woman but it was destined that she would not be able to leave this basement today.

Lin Wei flicked his hand but the others could only see a golden glint. No one saw what he tossed.

Madam Hong who was sprinting for the basement door and thought that she was about to make it froze suddenly. The next second, blood spurted from her mouth and nose before she fell to the floor and died.

"Dead." Lin Wei frowned slightly, reluctant to even utter another word..

Chapter 1233: The Girl Who Followed Snow Eagle

Lin Wei had just killed Madam Hong in passing for Snow Eagle. When the woman fell to the floor, her eyes were wide open in disbelief that she was killed just like this.

She had yet to enjoy good times and retirement but she had vanished forever from the face of the world. In spite of it, there was no inkling of shame and guilt from Madam Hong till her very last moment.

She had been human trafficking for life, abducting countless girls at the prime of their youth and destroying families, causing agony to young girls who were wrecked by old men in their fifties and sixties. Some of them chose to end their lives under the torment, unable to take a life like that. Madam Hong deserved to die! What she did warranted death!

Snow Eagle did not care what happened at Madam Hong's after this.

'When Madam Hong threw the girl at Snow Eagle just now to distract the latter, a smart man like him would never get tricked but the girl who was hurled was tied and nearly fell since she was unable to stand properly. Snow Eagle did not know what got into him as he caught the girl right away.

Usually, when he encountered similar situation, he would avoid the girl directly even if she was a beautiful, voluptuous girl. It might be due to Si Yi's influence but he was uninterested in sexy girls like that at all.

Nevertheless, this girl that Madam Hong had thrown at him seemed to exude a particular fragrance by herself. It smelled like mint, light and refreshing, and made one want to wrap the girl in his embrace automatically. That was why Snow Eagle caught her.

He managed to get a clear look of the girl too despite the dimly lit basement.

The girl was pretty like a doll. She was around 16-17 years old and her long eyelashes fluttered as she blinked, easily making one fond of her just by watching her—what was more, men.

It was Snow Eagle's first time seeing a delicate doll-like girl who also smelled faintly like mint. It was enough to mesmerize him.

While Snow Eagle was stunned, Si Yi had gotten to Yun Jian. Even though he still looked stoic as always, Yun Jian could feel that he was truly furious this time. Once she got up from the wooden stool, she was pulled into Si Yi's embrace.

Despite knowing that Yun Jian would certainly be fine, Si Yi was still worried the moment he found out that she was missing.

"Xiao Jian... what should I do about you? I wish I could squeeze you into myself so you'll follow me and stay close to me for the rest of my life!" Si Yi said softly as he stroked Yun Jian's smooth long hair.

There was a tingle in Yun Jian's heart. She had always been alone when she went on missions in her past life, so what Si Yi said right now filled Yun Jian's heart with warmth. She stretched her hands and hugged him back.

The rest of the incident was left to the three commanders to take care of.

Since Ning Xia was captured to the basement with Yun Jian, she had not woken up at all. She was lucky for that as she was exempted from a part of bad memory in her life.

Ultimately, Mo Sen contacted Ning City's local police and human traffickers like Madam Hong were all caught. The innocent girls were saved!

As Snow Eagle, Mo Sen and Lin Wei were on their way back to Ning Xia's house, Snow Eagle turned around every two steps to glance at the girl who had been following him.

The girl carried an old cardboard box and stopped each time he turned to look at her, keeping a five-meter distance as she followed him and looked at him with an innocent gaze.

Snow Eagle palmed his forehead and asked her directly, "What do you want?"

The girl was the one who was thrown into Snow Eagle's embrace just now... She blinked timidly but braved herself to look at Snow Eagle and speak softly, "I'm homeless... Can you take me in?"

Chapter 1234: The Girl's Name Is Si Luo

snow Eagle nearly tripped because of what the girl said. He had only caught his balance by grabbing Mo Sen who stood next to him.

"Cough! Cough!" Snow Eagle coughed, choked when he gulped from hearing something like this for the first time.

“Sure, he’d be happy to,” Mo Sen who had usually kept to himself suddenly patted Snow Eagle’s back and told the girl with a grin, He smirked evilly after that, rarely joking like he did today.

Mo Sen then pried Snow Eagle’s arm that was wrapped around his shoulders off and turned to leave with Lin Wei first, leaving Snow Eagle a cryptic message as he walked away. “Don’t you mistreat a young lady...”

Mo Sen cackled, absolutely unlike his usual mature and collected self. He wore a smirk and left with Lin Wei after that.

Snow Eagle who stood rooted wanted to grab Mo Sen and Lin Wei to beat them up. How could they just leave him like this? However, he dared not beat Lin Wei nor Mo Sen up. Mo Sen was the closest to Lin Wei, perhaps because they were similar in their personalities. Snow Eagle was sure that Lin Wei would not just stand around if he were to beat Mo Sen up.

Why did he feel so alone suddenly

While he thought of that, Mo Sen and Lin Wei had already left him briskly. Snow Eagle glowered and turned to glare at the girl.

It was all because of her! If it were not for her, Mo Sen and Lin Wei, the two ungrateful dudes would not have abandoned him!

As Snow Eagle glared daggers at the girl, the girl’s frail body flinched in fright. When he saw how feeble she looked, he looked down and ultimately reeled in his piercing gaze and turned to go toward Ning Xia’s house.

He had only taken two steps and the girl followed instantly, stopping when he did. It seemed that she dared not go forward, keeping five meters of distance behind Snow Eagle all the time.

Snow Eagle rubbed his forehead and let her tail him in the end.

Royal Club closed down within a night. It was not just the Royal Club in Ning City. All Royal Club’s franchises within Country Z announced bankruptcy within the night. It caused a huge wave of commotion in Country Z, especially with the big bosses who frequented the club. As for why Royal Club was shut down, no one was able to find out the reason—but these were what happened afterward.

Yun Jian and Si Yi had just arrived at Ning Xia’s house while Ning Xia was brought home by Si Yi’s men. Yun Jian explained that Ning Xia had tried drinking a little in Royal Club but passed out since she could not hold her alcohol.

That was the truth, anyway. Ning Xia did not know how to drink at all. Hence, her mother took her back to her room for some rest.

Yun Jian and Si Yi stood in front of Ning Xia’s house and stargazed, seeing Mo Sen and Lin Wei come back after a while. Not too long after the two of them went inside, Yun Jian saw Snow Eagle coming over with a scowl.

There was a girl who was aged 16-17 years old behind him and carried a cardboard box. She hung her head and looked meek.

“You’re still here!” Snow Eagle palmed his forehead and yelled in frustration, “F*ck, I don’t care anymore!”

He went inside after that. However, he was reluctant to actually leave, so he hid behind the door and peeked.

The girl looked at Yun Jian timidly carrying the cardboard box while the latter scanned her and asked, “What’s your name?”

Yun Jian had seen the girl in the basement. She was also drugged by Madam Hong.

Flinching as she carried the cardboard box, the girl then looked up at Yun Jian and answered softly, “Si... Si Luo..”

Chapter 1235: My Disciple. Hurry Up and Come In

Si Luo answered and gripped the cardboard box tighter with her bony hands before hanging her head again looking a little frightful.

Yun Jian squinted and stared at Si Luo again, scrutinizing her, then pressed her lips together before she asked, “Are you not going home?”

There was a sharp gleam that flashed across her eyes as she spoke. It was like she had a new idea.

Si Luo did not look up at Yun Jian’s words. She shrunk into herself and shook her head, replying, “I don’t have a home anymore...”

“Would you like to follow me then?” Yun Jian asked promptly.

It made Si Luo snap her head up. Someone was willing to take her in? Was this... was this for real?

Holding the cardboard box and hugging it closer to herself, Si Luo looked at Yun Jian with her expressive pair of eyes. Her voice was a little shaky when she asked, “Are you... taking me in? You’re really taking me in?”

It was as if Si Luo was in disbelief that Yun Jian was willing to take her in as she widened her eyes and seemed to speak with them.

Yun Jian nodded before narrowing her eyes. “Yes but I have one condition.”

“Lagree! I agree to it! As long as you feed me and keep me alive, I can do anything!” Si Luo nearly kneeled down before Yun Jian in gratitude.

If one took a closer look, one would see that Si Luo’s clothes were tattered and immensely soiled. There was dirt on her face too and she looked like a beggar overall. If it were not for her doll-like face and the natural minty scent she had despite her dirty clothes, she honestly looked like a refugee who fled the slum.

Yun Jian merely squinted at Si Luo. It was impossible that she was taking in random people but “Hold on!” The voice of a guy suddenly interrupted Yun Jian from speaking.

Yun Jian raised a brow and glanced at Si Yi who stood next to her and always gazed at her fondly before turning to see Snow Eagle who hid behind the door witnessing all that happened coming back again.

“Young madam—cough!” Snow Eagle coughed softly realizing that he had just barged out.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes but heard Snow Eagle say, “Young madam, she came back with me.”

Yun Jian was instantly aware of what he meant. “You want to take her in?”

It was apparent that Si Luo had caught Yun Jian’s eyes just now. Although Si Luo looked feeble and weak, Yun Jian could see that she was a potential! Someone who Yun Jian had laid her eyes on at first glance definitely had her strength.

Si Luo, for example—Yun Jian was confident that if she personally trained her, it was only a matter of time before a potential like Si Luo became one of Gu Sha Mercenaries’ higher-ups! She might even surpass Snake.Lizard with time!

Nevertheless, Snow Eagle jumping out now was.

“Yes, young madam!” Snow Eagle was not hesitant at all.

“alright then.” Yun Jian did not push it either.

She agreed and turned to Si Luo, telling her with a squint, “You’re welcome to come to me anytime if you think staying with him isn’t great.”

She then winked at Si Luo, unlike her usual austere front.

Si Luo shrunk a little hugging the cardboard box but nodded fervently.

“You’re my disciple from now on, young lady. Hurry up and come in!” Snow Eagle hooked a finger at Si Luo from the door..

Chapter 1236: Snow Eagle Used to Be the Most Shameless

‘When Snow Eagle waved at Si Luo, Yun Jian could see that she was obviously afraid of him. Perhaps, she was afraid of the long scar around Snow Eagle’s neck.

Nevertheless, the girl picked up her courage and went toward Snow Eagle holding her cardboard box.

Watching Si Luo and Snow Eagle enter Ning Xia’s home, Yun Jian could not help smiling. “What an interesting girl...”

“Not as attractive as my Xiao Jian is to me no matter how interesting.” Si Yi squinted at Yun Jian holding her tightly with one hand.

It made Yun Jian blush and she softly patted Si Yi’s larger hand before heading inside Ning Xia’s house.

Si Luo’s arrival added trouble for Ning Xia’s mother because she had to prepare another room for her but luckily, Ning Xia’s house had many of them.

Initially, when Si Luo stood in Ning Xia’s house holding the cardboard box and saw Ning Xia’s mother preparing a room for her, she started to walk out. “Thank you! But there’s no need for the trouble. I can sleep under a nearby bridge.”

Si Luo said and planned to leave the house holding her cardboard box.

Yun Jian arched a brow at the situation as a certain part of her heart flinched. She was abducted in her previous life too—when she was five.

As a five-year-old, she should have been an innocent child safe in her parents' embrace without having to think about anything but she only remembered that her parents lost her when she was five years old in her past life.

Yun Jian used to be a beggar for some time after she separated with her parents and before she was abducted into An Hun Group.

It was not an exaggeration to say that she was a beggar. Anyone could have a dark past and anyone could have grown from having nothing at all.

She had only been five at that time when she lost her parents' protection. Yun Jian went out begging in the day and slept under a bridge or a dog's place at night. She would have to thank her good luck if someone kind had given her newspapers so she could stay a little bit warmer in the cold nights. Those days were not fit for a human but it was good enough when one could not even be sure of staying alive.

Seeing how Si Luo was dressed in addition to what she said now, what kind of past had made a pubescent girl say something like "I can sleep under a nearby bridge" so calmly?

Countless teenagers who were cared for by their parents threw tantrums as they pleased but who could have thought that those who lived at the lowest level of society were not even certain if they could have a meal that would sustain them.

Hence, Yun Jian instinctively wanted to speak up when she saw Si Luo walking out only for a man to act faster than her.

Snow Eagle who stood next to Si Luo grabbed her hand, not disdainful about it being dirty, and forced himself to calm down before he growled lowly at her, "You're my disciple now! My... disciple sleeping under a bridge? It'd be embarrassing me if words about this got out!"

Snow Eagle forwent stating his identity but yelled grabbing Si Luo's hand without caring that it was dirty.

Mo Sen and Lin Wei had already gone to sleep. If the two of them were here, they would definitely be shocked by what Snow Eagle said.

Snow Eagle was known to be shameless globally. When had he cared about being embarrassed when he attended various activities and events representing An Hun Group?

He was even rumored to be the most shameless person in the world!

Yet he emphasized about being embarrassed today? It was a joke!

Yun Jian did not expose him and smiled instead..

Chapter 1237: What a Pretty Girl

As Snow Eagle grabbed Si Luo's hand, the girl looked up at him closely and shrunk back to herself before dipping her head when she saw the long scar around Snow Eagle's neck. She was scared and it was normal.

The scar around Snow Eagle's neck was deep and it was because of this deep scar that took points off the man's good looks.

In terms of appearance, Snow Eagle looked the most charming among the four commanders. Even then, beautiful girls did not dare approach him because of his scar.

"You don't have to sleep under a bridge. From today on, you won't be living the life you used to have," Yun Jian spoke up next.

Once she said that, Si Luo looked up gratefully at her.

"You don't have to look at me like this."

What Yun Jian did not continue to say was "I'm only helping you because I see a profit I can reap'.

Yun Jian was not a saint. If it were not for a potential profit, she honestly would do nothing even if Si Luo got on her knees in front of her.

It was not that she was brutal. This was simply how the world was. No one would coddle you when you were not strong yourself.

"Thank you!" Si Luo thanked her anyway. If one looked closely, there was a hint of tear in her eyes.

Yun Jian nodded but said nothing else.

Ultimately, Ning Xia's mother prepared a room for Si Luo.

Ning Xia's family was wealthy. Their rooms were all suites with attach bathroom. It felt like a hotel room.

Seeing how Si Luo looked rather pitiful, Ning Xia's mother personally taught her how to prepare a bath. Yun Jian stood beside to watch the woman teach the girl as well.

Si Luo then had a warm bath and changed into Qing You's clothes. Both of them were similar in height but Si Luo was a little thinner than Qing You as she was almost bony. Qing You's clothes were slightly larger on Si Luo but they fitted alright.

By the time they were done, Snow Eagle and others had long turned in for the night.

The next morning, Yun Jian woke up early since their plan was to take the cruise to Zhou Island from Ning City's port.

Qing You and Si Luo were already up when Yun Jian woke up. When she went downstairs, she saw the two of them sitting together and chatting; it looked like they got along quite well.

After Si Luo cleaned herself of the dirt and changed into Qing You's clothes yesterday, she no longer looked like a beggar. Even Yun Jian could not help doing a double take at her. As she was clean, the faint minty scent Si Luo naturally exuded smelled stronger while her doll-like face was beautiful.

Even Ning Xia's mother could not help praising, "What a delicate looking young lady!"

Ning Xia's mother, Qin Yirou and Mrs. Yang had made breakfast together in the morning.

'When Si Yi, Snow Eagle and the others came downstairs, the three commanders halted their steps in surprise at what Si Luo looked like now. Snow Eagle, especially, did not expect Si Luo who had changed into a white dress to be so beautiful.

Si Yi was unfazed. No prettier girl could win his Xiao Jian. He was not even interested to glance at Si Luo as he went straight to Yun Jian and held her hand.

"Wow! What a pretty girl!" Little Yun Zhu cried when he came downstairs with Duan Li and Duan Ya, and saw Si Luo, wanting to run toward her. He also spread both of his arms like he wanted to give Si Luo a hug.

"Hello, pretty jiejie!"

It was just that Yun Zhu saw his own sister, Yun Jian, standing nearby halfway through his jog before he felt himself being lifted. When he looked up, he saw Snow Eagle's glowering face..

Chapter 1238: Stay Away, Will You Die Standing

"Kiddo, have you had breakfast?" Snow Eagle asked dully when he saw Yun Zhu looking up at him after he lifted the boy up in front of Yun Jian like he did not mind risking his life.

Little Yun Zhu wriggled around and realized that Snow Eagle had gotten a tight grip on him. He pouted and looked reluctantly at Si Yi, complaining to him, "Si Yi-gege, Wang Er-gege is bullying me! He's not putting me down! It hurts, jiejie will be sad!"

Yun Zhu knew what to say, saying that since he knew that Si Yi cared about Yun Jian.

Putting aside what the sentence meant, Snow Eagle's gaze sank the moment he heard "Wang Er-gege". He had an impulse to go to Yulong Mainland and kill Ya Dang when he heard Yun Zhu still calling him Wang Er-gege.

Ya Dang had introduced him as Wang Er to Yun Zhu initially and now the boy was refusing to change the term of address!

Feeling Si Yi's murderous gaze, Snow Eagle quickly let go of his hold on Yun Zhu.

Yun Zhu who was released did not go to Si Luo. Instead, he ran back to hold Duan Li's hand and told her, 'Chessie, we're going to the beach later! Yay, yay, yay!'

Yun Jian who watched the boy nearby merely smiled charmingly.

Snow Eagle, Mo Sen and Lin Wei were not planning to go to the beach. They had gone to enough seaside like Hawaii and whatnot, so they no longer wanted to visit one.

Si Luo expressed that she did not want to go either because she had lived worse than the lowest class of society previously and she was not able to accept it so quickly now that she was asked to enjoy herself in a vacation.

As Yun Jian stood by the door and glanced inside before they departed, she saw Mo Sen asking Snow Eagle who stood nearby in a rare teasing tone, "Didn't you say you want to go to the beach when we came?"

'Mo Sen did not usually tease people but when he did, Snow Eagle was unable to make a comeback. He replied ultimately, 'I decided that I don't want to go anymore last minute. Isn't it a normal thing to do?'

'What Snow Eagle said received Mo Sen's smile in return and even Lin Wei deadpanned, 'Very normal.'

Ning City's cruise harbor.

Ning Xia's mother knew someone working at the cruise harbor, so she took the backdoor and got Yun Jian and others a few cruise tickets that were better in service. She did not go with them but had let Ning Xia go to Zhou Island with Yun Jian and group.

'Those who were going were Mrs. Yang and family, Qin Yirou and Ge Junjian, Yun Yi and Qing You, little Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya, and finally Yun Jian and Si Yi.

There were a lot of people when they boarded the cruise. One had to queue up and get their ticket checked to board. Zhou Island was no doubt a tourist's destination as visitors swarmed there. It took more than an hour from being in the line to entering the ship.

As there were so many people during the queue, Si Yi took advantage of his tall height and kept Yun Jian in his embrace with his arms around her, preventing others from accidentally stepping her or touching her due to the crowding.

Seating was fixed in the cruise; one sat according to the seat stated in their ticket. At the very least, this was how the cruises worked here.

Yun Jian and Si Yi found their seats and sat down while Qin Yirou and Ge Junjian saw a couple sitting on their seats when they found said seats according to their cruise tickets.

Qin Yirou glanced at Ge Junjian before she went forward and spoke up politely, "Hi, have you folks gotten the wrong seats? Our tickets show that these are our seats.."

"Stay away! It's just seats.. Will you die if we sit on them for a little bit? Will you die if you stand for some time? We'll arrive at Zhou Island soon anyway!"

Chapter 1239: Scramming on Your Own or Should I Help You?

It was a young woman either 25 or 26 years old who was dressed skimpily with her shoulders bared, exuding a western vibe, holding the arm of a man around her age who sported a crew cut and looked thuggish, who sat on the seats that were supposed to belong to Qin Yirou and Ge Junjian.

This skimpily dressed woman was the one who growled at Qin Yirou.

Putting aside the tone the woman had spoken to Qin Yirou in and scrutinizing what she told the latter about how they would arrive in Zhou Island shortly, it would actually take at least 45 minutes from Ning City's harbor to Zhou Island-if the journey was smooth.

Zhou Island was in the middle of the ocean—an island, a piece of land in the middle of the sea. Since it was an island, it was surrounded by water. Due to that, people chose to have their vacation in Zhou Island to better experience the ocean.

In spite of it, a large cruise ship that took hundreds to thousands of people needed at least 45 minutes to sail from Ning City to Zhou Island. If they ran into any unexpected circumstance, the sail would take more than an hour.

Even then, tourists flocked to the island. It caused an insufficient supply of cruises that traveled between Ning City's harbor and Zhou Island. That was why the tickets specified seat numbers as people who did not manage to snag a sitting cruise ticket could only stand the whole way there.

It was not surprising that Ning Xia's mother could grab some seats since she had a friend working at the harbor.

Obviously, the young couple had failed to grab seats for themselves, so they shamelessly snatched Qin Yirou and Ge Junjian's seats.

What the woman said put a frown between Qin Yirou's brows. Qin Yirou did not like picking fights but she was not a doormat afraid to speak her mind when she was in the right. Hence, she retorted the moment she heard the woman, "Young lady, we're allocated these seats when we bought the cruise tickets.

Please move aside!"

Qin Yirou raised her voice. Although she was docile, she would still speak up to ask for what belonged to her back when others took it away, especially when the other party was not related to her at all.

"Please, old woman, are you crazy? Will you die if we sit here? The woman refused to budge.

'What was more infuriating was that the man beside the woman peeled a grape and fed it to her right after she barked haughtily. The man even glared at Qin Yirou and soothed the woman, "Darling, don't mind them. That woman's probably in her menopause."

"You." Qin Yirou was furious, as any person should be, when she heard the young couple dramatized it.

Ge Junjian had just put a hand over Qin Yirou's hand to step up and talk to them when a dainty hand got to Qin Yirou first.

Yun Jian took two steps toward them and held Qin Yirou's hand as she told Ge Junjian, "Dad, you and mom go take our seats."

Yun Jian had already changed to address Ge Junjian as dad.

The man led Qin Yirou decisively by the hand over to Yun Jian and Si Yi's seats after what Yun Jian said while the girl looked at the couple with her arms crossed. She did not say a word but kept her gaze on the two of them.

Initially, the young couple minded their own business like nothing had happened but when Yun Jian kept her stare long enough, the woman panicked and scolded her, "Are you crazy? What are you looking at?"

Yun Jian took an abrupt step forward and grabbed the woman's hair, much to the shock of the tourists around them, and yanked her off the seat to throw her a distance away before she could react.

The woman crashed on the floor and took a roll as she was not prepared for it.

Yun Jian dusted her hands with a clap and put a foot up the seat the woman had occupied, speaking to the man, "Are you scrambling on your own or should I help you?"

Chapter 1240: The Shameless Man and Si Yi's Rage

'The man was shocked by Yun Jian bolting forward and yanking the woman off the seat before hurling her to the floor. When he broke out of his surprise, Yun Jian already had one foot on the seat that the woman had just sat on as she spoke to him icily.

Gulping, the man did not get up instantly to free the seat nor help his girlfriend whom Yun Jian had just thrown to the floor up. He was mesmerized by Yun Jian's pretty and delicate face.

He had not realized it just now but he was currently aware that the older couple earlier had such a gorgeous daughter. The girl was so beautiful that he was bewitched!

The man swallowed.

Yun Jian wore a shorter black top today that was figure hugging, It hugged her ample bosoms with a lower collar as well as her thin waist. Couple that with her attractive face, any man would be enticed by her.

This man did not even care that he had a girlfriend as he was so enthralled by Yun Jian that he could not even speak. Despite Yun Jian's threat just now, he still inexplicably felt like teasing her.

Disregarding his girlfriend, the man flicked his crew cut coolly and was about to flash a self-assumed ravishing look at Yun Jian when the ship shook.

The gigantic cruise quaked twice all of a sudden, shaking as if it had sailed into a choppy wave.

The quake caused the man to lose his balance. After he stumbled, he was suddenly aware of Yun Jian standing before him with her voluptuous breasts jiggling in front of him. His mind worked quickly and he thought of taking advantage of the swaying ship to pretend falling into Yun Jian's breasts.

As soon as the idea popped into his mind, he immediately planned to fall into Yun Jian's embrace leveraging on the cruise's tremor. As he was doing so, falling toward Yun Jian, he suddenly saw a large hand appearing by Yun Jian's waist when he was 30 centimeters away from her.

The hand wrapped around Yun Jian's slim waist and pulled her away.

'The man was stunned. He was already falling toward where Yun Jian was just now; if he continued with the fall, he might actually crash onto the floor!

It would be unrealistic for him to fall down, however, because a long leg entered his field of vision just as he fell to where Yun Jian had been. Said long leg lifted itself off the floor and kicked the man's stomach before any pair of eyes could keep up with it.

The man watched with his own eyes how the long leg met his stomach before he was flung dozens of meters away. He felt like the breakfast he had in the morning was about to rush back up and out of his mouth due to the force of the kick.

As the man went flying, he saw the owner of the long leg that had kicked him; from the distance away, the owner of the leg was currently holding the girl he had tried to approach but failed to even lay a finger on the hem of her clothes just now.

The others who were standing around them were shocked by Si Yi's action. When they looked up, they were greeted by Si Yi's glower. He held a possessive arm around Yun Jian and his gaze was piercing like he was going to kill the man.

There was a pause before the tourists heard this gorgeous man snap at the man with rage tinting his voice, "Has a scum like you gotten bored of living to dream of laying a finger on my woman?"
