

Schoolgirl 1251

Chapter 1251: Berserk Dragon's Here. Leaning Close to Her Ear

'What Si Yi said warranted a misunderstanding while Yun Jian pinked after hearing him.

Lin Huiyi, Xiong Yushu and others startled before looking a little different—mainly rather awkward—when they managed to react to it.

All of them felt shy from what Si Yi said just now. He sounded incredibly possessive and assured, as if he was scared that others did not know there was something going on between him and Yun Jian. To be honest, just how Yun Jian and Si Yi matched so well in terms of their appearance sufficed to earn the envy of Lin Huiyi, Xiong Yushu and their friends.

Yun Jian snatched the spoon back from Si Yi without being disdainful that he had used it, flushing a little.

"None for you," she told Si Yi with a blush as she dipped her head to feed herself another spoonful of ice cream.

To Si Yi, it sounded like she was playing coy, so he could not help smiling.

"Cough! Cough! Cough! Uh, so, do you guys know? There'll be a surfing match at the beach later. Let's go check it out together?" Xiong Yushu suggested to save all of them from the awkwardness, even rubbing his mouth with his hand as he spoke.

"Surfing? Big brother, is surfing like a person standing on a piece of wood and going around the sea?" Yun Zhu asked cleverly after giving it a quick thought.

Xiong Yushu nodded promptly at the boy's description. "Yes!"

"Twanna go! I wanna go!" Yun Zhu ran over to shake Yun Jian's hand and asked cutely, "Can you take us to watch surfing, jiejie? Our teacher told us about surfing before in class. I want to go see it!"

'There was no way Yun Jian would refuse when Yun Zhu asked for something, Pressing her lips together, she promised right away, "Sure."

Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya were over the moon.

By the time they finished the ice cream and headed back to the beach, the three kids were not as mischievous as they were earlier—probably because they had a big bowl of ice cream.

Since it was Xiong Yushu's suggestion, he led the group to the beach where the surfing match would be held.

This beach area did not have a shallow shore, so Yun Jian and Si Yi held Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya closer by their hands lest the three of them ran off on their own.

There was a large moving crowd here since there was about to be a surfing match. The shore that was initially spacious enough for a person to run wild was now packed tight until one could only walk. Under such circumstances, Yun Jian ought to hold Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya closer.

Xiong Yushu who guided them here finally found an empty spot where they could still see the contest. He called for the group to come over but Yun Jian narrowed her eyes, spotting a familiar face among the crowd.

Yun Jian went closer to Si Yi and told him softly, "Berserk Dragon's here."

She had asked Berserk Dragon to meet in Zhou Island and fixed this beach as the location. It was just that she had not expected the shore to be teeming with people.

"Hey, come have fun together..." Lin Huiyi, who saw how lively the place was, waved to gesture for Yun Jian and Si Yi to take the three kids over only to see Si Yi leaning close to Yun Jian's ear.

The intimate position made Lin Huiyi blush and turn around immediately.

Chapter 1252: Take It Anytime, I Only Want You

Si Yi did not know nor want to know if Lin Huiyi had turned around. He was uninterested in others as all he cared about was his Xiao Jian.

As he dipped his head now, he pressed his lips softly below Yun Jian's ear disregarding how others around them were watching him with a strange gaze. He spoke softly, inaudible to others around him.

'The others thought that Si Yi was saying something intimate to Yun Jian but the truth was, he had leaned close to her ear and asked her, "Xiao Jian, you want Berserk Dragon to join Gu Sha Mercenaries?"

It sounded like a question but Si Yi had basically confirmed Yun Jian's plan.

As expected, Yun Jian nodded lightly after hearing what he said. "Mn."

She had asked Berserk Dragon to meet in Zhou Island for one thing only, that was to ask him to join Gu Sha Mercenaries and expand the organization's capability.

Internationally, Gu Sha Mercenaries' reputation was already intimidating but it was not adequately powerful. At least, that was what Yun Jian thought.

A person or an organization would never stay on the same spot forever. One had to bravely take a big step forward in order to achieve a bigger success. Yun Jian was never satisfied with the current situation because she knew that she was not good enough.

'There was always someone better than her. She had to be strong enough to hold up her world to protect who she wanted to.

Gu Sha Mercenaries had never refused the addition of talents. What was more, an elite like Berserk Dragon?

Berserk Dragon was truly weaker than Yun Jian in ability, might be far worse than her, but if he were to be recruited by another force in the future, he would be another enemy and another threat to Gu Sha Mercenaries. That was why Yun Jian planned to invited him to join her.

"Stay here and keep the kids company. Have fun with them. I'll take care of this," Si Yi said in his baritone, looking up and straightening up with a hand in his pants pocket.

There were a lot of people walking around them but no matter how outstanding Yun Jian and Si Yi looked, no one would halt their steps to keep staring at them or eavesdrop on their conversation like the couple were circus monkeys.

Hence, Si Yi did not try and lower his volume when he spoke.

“You...” Yun Jian looked up once she heard him, suddenly pressing her lips together with slight surprise but there was a gush of warmth that rushed through her heart.

Berserk Dragon was currently a member of An Hun Group.

Why was this the case? Assassins or secret agents that came from An Hun Group worked for the organization.

In her past life, Yun Jian had worked for An Hun Group for several years too. It was when she was strong enough that she became the first person to leave An Hun Group.

With that said, Berserk Dragon had yet to completely leave An Hun Group—but An Hun Group was not actually involved in the intricacy of this. One could leave the organization once one accomplished the missions it had set. Moreover, An Hun Group never stopped any capable secret agent or assassin from leaving its clutch.

Yun Jian was the only secret agent to date who had accomplished all An Hun Group missions and left the organization because the other secret agents and assassins who had wanted to leave An Hun Group by completing the organization’s tasks had not managed to live till the day they got to leave! Nevertheless, Yun Jian believed that Berserk Dragon could do it because he was strong enough!

She was touched by Si Yi because Berserk Dragon was still an An Hun Group member. She had only wanted to reach a consensus with Berserk Dragon, so when he got to leave An Hun Group, he would formally join Gu Sha Mercenaries, However, what Si Yi said

Yun Jian had just uttered a “you” when Si Yi suddenly wrapped an arm around her waist. His eyes seemed to glow as the lips on his gorgeous face curved up; Yun Jian was all his eyes reflected—there was nothing else aside from her.

After a pause, he told her softly, “Xiao Jian, if you want to, you can take the whole An Hun Group anytime. I only want you.”

Chapter 1253: Yanking His Collar. A Vast Change

He could forgo anything, even if it were An Hun Group. He only wanted her! He had never thought that he would meet a woman whom he could abandon his life for and only wanted to keep her within his embrace so she belonged only to him in this lifetime.

Si Yi loathed women, used to be repulsed just by seeing them. He thought that he was destined to be alone and he had never yearned for romance either, but fate made him encounter his Xiao Jian.

Once Si Yi fell in love, it was for life, it would be impossible to ask him to let go. His woman was naturally the apple of his eyes.

When Yun Jian heard what Si Yi said, she blushed. His words moved her so much. If they were not among a thronging crowd right now, she wanted to pull him into a hug.

“Be good and stay here with Xiao Zhu and the girls and wait for me,” Si Yi said and gently stroked Yun Jian’s smooth and shiny hair.

“Mn.” Yun Jian nodded at him, no longer refusing.

Si Yi had just turned and left into the bustling crowd after what he said when little Yun Zhu clapped and cheered, “Wow! Si Yi-gege stroked jiejie-s hair, like how he stroked me hair!”

Lin Huiyi took a peek due to what the boy said only to be greeted with Si Yi’s back. She was a little doubtful but went over to Yun Jian anyway.

“Where’s your boyfriend going? Heh, I’ll hold your little brother for you. You keep any eye on both your younger sisters. We’ll stand here. The surfing match is about to start.”

Lin Huiyi asked just to gossip before offering with a giggle as she shuffled closer to Yun Jian. She was kind to help Yun Jian hold on to Yun Zhu, so the boy would not get pushed away or stepped on in a jam-packed area like this.

“Thank you.” Yun Jian smiled at Lin Huiyi and thanked her for her kindness.

“Haha, you’re welcome.” A little delightfully surprised, Lin Huiyi scratched her hair and said no more.

It was then someone at the organizer part of the beach announced the start of the contest with a microphone, “A big thanks to the visitors who’ve come to watch the contest. We have a lot of people here, so we hope all of you can watch from a safe spot. Thank you! The contest shall begin then

Not too long later Si Yi left, the surfing match was beginning.

Si Yi went toward the center of the crowd with a hand in his pants pocket. It was eye-catching as his tall figure walked toward the center of the throng of people.

As others watched him, he went there and grabbed the collar of a man who had his back against him. Without a single word, he then dragged the man to a deserted corner by his collar.

Berserk Dragon, whose collar was suddenly yanked by Si Yi who was behind him, was infuriated, not knowing that the culprit was Si Yi. He was Berserk Dragon, a combat god who was ranked third on the international secret agent chart. How did he get teased yesterday then get dragged away with his collar being yanked today?

Wanting to struggle away, Berserk Dragon realized that his ability that sufficed to intimidate countless internationally famous experts was futile against the person who gripped his collar.

Si Yi had only thrown Berserk Dragon to the ground when he dragged him to a deserted beach area. When the latter saw his face, his expression went through a vast change.. “It’s you?”

Chapter 1254: On the Waste List. His Face Goes Taut

It was the man beside SG back then?

‘There was a huge change of expression on Berserk Dragon’s face. He had met Si Yi on the beach yesterday because the latter had stood next to Yun Jian.

More importantly, An Hun Group’s three commanders were all there, so Berserk Dragon had suspected that Si Yi was possibly the head of An Hun Group!

One must not question why Berserk Dragon did not know if Si Yi was actually An Hun Group’s leader. Other than the four commanders, no one in the organization had seen the leader before.

Even Slaying God had no idea that Si Yi was the head of An Hun Group back then!

If Si Yi had not admitted to it himself, Yun Jian did not even know where she would start investigating. No matter how good she was, she was unable to find out who the leader of An Hun Group was! While Berserk Dragon’s expression took a swift change, he did not lose his composure.

It must be mentioned that Berserk Dragon was much stronger than all the opponents and teammates who Yun Jian had met before. It was basic for a capable man to stay calm in the face of an incident.

Berserk Dragon could not be sure that Si Yi was the head of An Hun Group just from seeing the three commanders. After all, An Hun Group had existed for so many years. To ask him to believe that the leader of An Hun Group was only a young man who was around his age—might even be a year or two younger than him, it was not that he did not believe it; to be honest, he was just a little skeptical.

“Berserk Dragon.”

While Berserk Dragon thought with a frown and was still trying his best to guess Si Yi’s identity, Si Yi’s voice interrupted him in time.

With his name being called, Berserk Dragon looked toward Si Yi with a furrow of brows. As a professional secret agent, he did not answer Si Yi.

“I give you three days. An Hun Group will let you leave as long as you join Gu Sha Mercenaries within three days,” Si Yi expressed his intention curtly. He never cared to beat around the bush because he was not that free to go on and on with others.

“You...” Berserk Dragon’s eyes widened in utter shock from what Si Yi said.

There was too much information included in his simple words. For example, he had indirectly stated that he was the head of An Hun Group because other than the four commanders of An Hun, no one could take the liberty to release any secret agent or assassin from An Hun Group—except the head of An Hun Group!

“Remember to join Gu Sha Mercenaries on your own after you leave An Hun Group or you know what An Hun Group does to traitors,” Si Yi said simply without an extra word wasted.

It made Berserk Dragon gulp. When he snapped back to reality again, Si Yi had walked away.

Not too far gone, Si Yi seemed to have suddenly recalled something and turned around. His flawless face impressed even Berserk Dragon who was a man.

“Remember, that’s my woman. Don’t stand anywhere three meters near her when you see her in the future or you’ll be right at the top of An Hun Group’s Waste List,” Si Yi said with a light arch of brow and without any change of expression.

People on the Waste List of An Hun Group were wanted criminals of the organization. An Hun’s assassins and secret agents who saw anyone on the list had to kill them instantly.

The top of An Hun Group’s Waste List would only mean that he was wanted by the entire organization! Even if he did not die, it was no joke still! Berserk Dragon’s face went taut.

Chapter 1255 Going to Your House. Snow Eagle Gets Jealous

That would be more terrifying than death! Berserk Dragon’s face had fallen beyond being salvageable. “I’ll definitely go to Gu Sha Mercenaries within three days and... I promise I won’t be three meters around her!”

Berserk Dragon was inwardly sweating nervously but there was no change in his expression from the outside. Nonetheless, no one could imagine how earth-shatteringly shocked he was. This was a revelation-a huge one!

Gu Sha Mercenaries’ boss, the top one on the international secret agent chart, had gotten together with the boss of An Hun Group, the organization that used to train her?

Moreover, the fact that Si Yi asked him to keep his distance from Yun Jian or he would put him on the top of An Hun Group’s Waste List was enough to terrorize Berserk Dragon. He would not dare to even touch SG even if he had to die! That was someone who belonged to An Hun Group’s leader!

After Si Yi heard Berserk Dragon’s promise, he smirked and said nothing else, turning to head to where Yun Jian and the kids were.

Yun Jian was holding Duan Li and Duan Ya’s hands while Lin Huiyi helped to hold Yun Zhu’s hand for the former as they stood where they had been to watch the surfing competition.

“Whoa, jiejie, they’re so good! I want to be as good as them when I grow up!” Yun Zhu was still young, so what he said did not hold much credibility.

Children loved to make wishes about what they wanted but had no idea of the cruel reality. This was why it was nice being kids. They did not have to think about the petty things in life. Like Yun Zhu, he could say anything that came to mind without much restraint. “Xiao Zhu will definitely be as good when you grow up!” Yun Jian pulled her hand out from holding the two younger girls to pat Yun Zhu’s head and told him after holding hands with the girls again.

“Heh heh.” Yun Zhu stuck his tongue out at that.

By the time Si Yi came back, it was already halfway through the surfing contest. He accompanied Yun Jian and watched over Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya while they watched the last round of the surfing match. It was already four plus in the afternoon then.

Since the latest trip of the cruise to go back to Ning City from Zhou Island was five in the afternoon, they had to get ready for the return trip now.

Lin Huiyi, Xiong Yushu and their friends planned to stay in Zhou Island and spend another day here before they went back, so Yun Jian parted with them, saying goodbye at Zhou Island's harbor. This goodbye usually meant that it was for life.

When Yun Jian, Qin Yirou and others were all back to Ning Xia's house in Ning City, it was already six in the evening.

Ning Xia's mother was nice enough to prepare a lavish spread of dinner and they had a meal together harmoniously.

Early morning the next day, they got ready to return to Longmen City. Ning Xia and her mother warmly asked Yun Jian and Qin Yirou, as well as Mrs. Yang and family, to come to Ning City again next time.

It was after a good session of bidding goodbye that the group returned to Longmen City.

When they were back this time, it was different from before because they had an additional person—Si Luo.

Since Si Luo got along well with Qing You, she wanted to follow the latter to stay at her place after they arrived in Longmen City. "Heh, you've made an absolutely correct decision in staying at my place. Right, Sister Jian?" Qing You came to ask Yun Jian when she tugged Si Luo along to go back and stay with her.

"Mn, it's a good idea." Yun Jian squinted. She had her hair down today, her lustrous locks not tied with a hair tie.

They were still on the bus back right now. As the cool breeze outside the window blew, it fluttered Yun Jian's hair. There was a slight fragrance that wafted from her shiny hair that was soothing to the nose.

"But I have a silly goose making noises at home every day. You have to get used to her, her name's Gu Nian!" Qing You introduced the girl to Si Luo in advance with a cackle.

"Mn, mn!" Si Luo was fine with anything. She was already immensely grateful that Qing You could take her in.

Snow Eagle could no longer take it then. He dashed over from the backseat to grab Si Luo's wrist and told Qing You, "Hey, hey, hey, when was it a deal that she's staying at your place? Have I said yes to it?"

Chapter 1256 Before the Tea Party and The Class Gathering

It was not just those listening who were stunned by what Snow Eagle said, he himself was astonished as well.

Despite that, he was different from others. If it had been others who blurted something so awkward, they would have wracked their brain to divert the conversation. When it came to Snow Eagle, he froze on the spot before he leaned against the backrest of Si Luo's seat with a self-righteous huff holding her hand and argued with Qing You in front of the whole bus.

"She came back with me back then. E-Even if someone's taking her in, it should be me. Why are you snatching the person with me?"

He sounded quite certain, adding after a slight pause, “Besides, she’s the one who begged me to take her in. Ask her if you don’t believe me.”

Taking it a step further, Snow Eagle did not only want to grab Si Luo, he wanted her to admit that she wanted to follow him. As he spoke, he tugged her wrist to make her speak.

“I...” Si Luo felt that Yun Jian had the most say here, so she turned to glance at her. The reason she felt that Yun Jian had the most say was because Si Yi had to listen to Yun Jian; the guy dared not go right if Yun Jian wanted him to go left.

Si Luo was replied with a grin from Yun Jian when she looked at her. She pouted and turned her head back, shifting her gaze back to Qing You after shrinking a little in fear from looking at the scar around Snow Eagle’s neck.

“I think I’ll still... stay with Qing You...” Si Luo was scared as her wrist was gripped by Snow Eagle but she braved herself to speak her thoughts.

Once she finished, she ducked her head in fear that Snow Eagle would berate her. The scar around Snow Eagle’s neck was terrifying and Si Luo was genuinely scared. If she were to stay with Snow Eagle and suddenly see him in the middle of the night, that was really...

Qing You was different. She was so pretty and she would defend her. More importantly, Qing You said that there was a silly girl named Gu Nian who made a lot of ruckus at her place. Si Luo would not be bored staying with Qing You then.

Therefore, she had still picked...

“F*ck this, you really plan to go with her? Nope, no! You came back with me, you have to stay with me!” Snow Eagle’s hold tightened even more.

Ultimately-if one had to ask, Snow Eagle had pulled Si Luo to his house directly.

Snow Eagle stayed a day in Longmen City upon returning to his place then he rushed back to An Hun Group. When he left Longmen City, he was supposed to leave with Lin Wei but he was a different man today—he left with Si Luo.

Si Luo had wanted to settle down in Longmen City but she dared not defy when Snow Eagle pulled her along and could only leave with the man with a ducked head as well as Qing You and Yun Jian’s warm send-off.

“Oh goodness, what a poor thing Si Luo is, don’t you think so, Sister Jian?” Qing You shook her head, currently at the bus station to send Snow Eagle and others off for a ride to the airport.

“I think they’ll be fine.” Yun Jian turned and smirked at Qing You before going toward Si Yi who stood nearby.

The following days went by normally. For Yun Jian, though, her days were nothing regular since she had Si Yi’s company. It would be the third global mafia tea party in a few days, which plainly, was just a gathering for secret agents and assassins across the world.

Yun Jian had a month of peaceful summer break up until three days before the mafia tea party. It was going to be August soon. Three days before the tea party, Yun Jian was invited to the graduation ceremony of Grade 9th Class A.

The graduation ceremony was July 29th, a little late since it was a last minute arrangement by the students.

When Yun Jian met up with her friends in the hotel, she saw Zhang Shaofeng and Chen Xinyi waving at her. "Here, over here! Jianjian, we're here!"

Chapter 1257: A Little Smug. Worth of Tens of Millions

Zhang Shaofeng was waving fervently at Yun Jian while Chen Xinyi had both hands cupped around her mouth to amplify the volume of her voice to call for Yun Jian who was farther away.

It had been days since Yun Jian last saw the pair of jokesters, so she could not help flashing a smile.

"Hey, you two are being embarrassing shouting here and there. We have to maintain our poise!"

Ling Yichen, who stood next to Zhang Shaofeng and Chen Xinyi, coolly flicked his hair that was shaved so short there was no movement at all and struck a cool pose.

"F*ck off! We all know each other! What's with the hypocrisy!" Zhang Shaofeng swiftly thwacked the cool pose off Ling Yichen.

"You're not from our class and you're still attending our class' graduation ceremony with us. Do you have shame?!" With his master, Yun Jian, around as support, Zhang Shaofeng mocked Ling Yichen. "It's not like I'm the only one here who's not from this class. Your classmates asked others who aren't from your class to join this graduation ceremony too," Ling Yichen retorted promptly.

"Psh, come on, Where's that confidence coming from when you're here for our class' graduation ceremony as an outsider..." Zhang Shaofeng began to banter with Ling Yichen.

Before they could go on further, though, Yun Jian's icy threat rang. "Another word from the both of you and I'll make you two walk upside down right now."

Zhang Shaofeng shrunk once he heard his master while Ling Yichen shuddered, also intimidated by Yun Jian's commanding presence. Both of them shut up instantly, trusting that Yun Jian would do what she said.

"Hahaha! Our Jianjian is the best!" Chen Xinyi cheered and hooked arms with Yun Jian before sticking her tongue out at Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen.

"Everyone's here, right? We can enter the hotel and have lunch now!" The person who organized the informal graduation ceremony was the academic representative of Yun Jian's class, Lin Yagian.

Lin Yaqian was a girl with average looks. Not only did she do well academically, she was skilled in organizing events. It was just that she usually kept to herself and did not talk much.

In school, Lin Yagian wore the school uniform as she was supposed to, but today, she wore a white dress and looked ethereal.

“Alright! Aye-aye, academic rep!” Zhang Shaofeng responded spontaneously and went in the hotel with his friends with an easy laugh.

They had asked their teacher to attend the graduation ceremony today as well. The results for the Senior High School Entrance Examination were released a long time ago and the class would part ways when they would go to different senior high schools.

Entering the room, Yun Jian sat at a table following Zhang Shaofeng and others.

There were three to four tables set up in the same room so the class gathering could be held smoothly.

After Yun Jian sat down, a few more boisterous boys in their class began to make noise.

“Hey, no one leaves later. Our Qi Xiaoxiao’s boyfriend is coming later. He’s the heir of Zhe Province’s Sheng Yuan Company and is super rich!”

“Qi Xiaoxiao has mentioned just now that she’ll ask her boyfriend to take her to Longmen City’s riding center later to ride a horse! It’s free for all of us! Sheng Yuan Company’s heir is treating, heh heh!”

The girl, Qi Xiaoxiao, used to be quite the goody two shoes in school but not even two months out of school, she was caked in makeup and even wore a pink super miniskirt today.

Right after the noisier boys said that, Qi Xiaoxiao who had thick makeup piled on her face stood up to say smugly, “That’s an exaggeration. My boyfriend’s family is only worth tens of millions.”

A worth of tens of millions was already an unimaginable figure to regular people in 1999. It was richer than rich..

Chapter 1258: Footing the Bill of All the Expenses

Hearing what Qi Xiaoxiao said, boys and girls all gasped.

“Whoa... Qi Xiaoxiao, your boyfriend’s family is so well off? Having a net worth of tens of millions!” a girl told Qin Xiaoxiao with glittery eyes.

Another guy spoke up after her, “Qi Xiaoxiao’s status is different now. She’s the future madam of Sheng Yuan Company! The whole company will belong to her in the future eh!”

A wave of “oh” resonated in the room with what the guy said.

Qi Xiaoxiao grew even smugger at that.

The guy then continued to say, “Hey, Qi Xiaoxiao, don’t forget us when you’re rich and successful in the future yeah!”

The reminder attracted everyone’s clamor.

While Yun Jian’s identity as a member of the Advanced Special Forces was shocking, the students preferred to pander to Qi Xiaoxiao in comparison, knowing that the latter could possibly end up as the future madam of Sheng Yuan Company. That was because Qi Xiaoxiao would become rich! People were realistic. Honor was unworthy of a mention in the face of profit.

Qi Xiaoxiao picked up a cup of tea and drank it like a wealthy mistress while everyone else showered her with praises and admiration.

Yun Jian was not affected by that kind of atmosphere as she sat chatting with Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen at the corner of the dining table.

“Master, you’ll be studying out of the city when you go to the military school. You’ve got to come back and visit us!” Zhang Shaofeng spoke up longingly.

They were friends for almost a year now. It was not something to be forgotten so easily.

“Yeah, Jianjian, we’re going to Longmen City’s senior high school while you’re going to be away to attend senior high elsewhere. You have to make sure to come back and visit us when you’re free!” Chen Xinyi said gripping Yun Jian’s hands.

“Yes, that’s right. There’s me too. I’ve gotten into the same senior high with Shaofeng and Xinyi!” Ling Yichen butted in swiftly.

Taking in the anticipating gazes from the three of them, Yun Jian nodded with a smile. “Mn, I will.”

Come to think of it, the first friends she made since she left Xinjiang Town and came to Longmen City were Zhang Shaofeng and Chen Xinyi; she even knew Ling Yichen shortly after that. To this day, three of them had remained by her side.

Despite that, Yun Jian knew that all good things must come to an end—just like Lu Feiyan back then. If they were fated to meet, they would be bound to meet.

One must go on with their life on their own. No one could be there along the way until the end because everyone’s longevity and experience were different. No one could be sure of anything.

“My boyfriend’s here!” It was during then Qi Xiaoxiao who sat at the table next to Yun Jian’s suddenly looked at the door in excitement and got up to run over.

To Qi Xiaoxiao, she managed to change all because of her boyfriend. She had also grown much more confident now that she had a boyfriend.

Back when she was in school, she was ugly and did not know how to dress herself up. Having left school now, she had learned how to dress up and doll herself up.

Now, she could even boldly and “humbly” disclose the net worth of her boyfriend’s family then get people around her to exclaim. Such satisfaction pleased Qi Xiaoxiao.

Yun Jian did not look up but her three other friends looked toward the door, seeing a man in his early twenties who wore a pair of distressed pants and stood at the door in self-assumed coolness.

One glance was enough to tell that it was how a typical delinquent would dress.

Qi Xiaoxiao dashed to him to hold his arm and showed off to everyone else, “This is my boyfriend, Lin Zihang... He’ll be footing the bill of all the expenses for this gathering today!”

Chapter 1259: Who Do You Think You Are?

Qi Xiaoxiao bragged to the class holding this young man named Lin Zihang.

As expected, her boast was effective. Once she said that, her classmates broke out into loud exclamations.

“What? Qi Xiaoxiao, do you mean it? Your boyfriend’s paying for all that we’re spending today?” someone asked Qi Xiaoxiao in disbelief.

Seeing how surprised the others were, Qi Xiaoxiao was pleased that all of them were looking at her in such astonishment. She did not even feel like regarding them who looked at her like that.

She hooked arms with Lin Zihang and acted cute like a little girl. “Zihang, isn’t that right? We’ll foot the bill today! It doesn’t cost much anyway, just half a day worth of your allowance!”

It seemed that Lin Zihang had not agreed to it beforehand.

While Yun Jian did not look over where they were, she scoffed.

Lin Zihang repressed his urge to slap Qi Xiaoxiao for the nonsense she spewed about wanting him to pay for everything. In front of others, he still pretended like a rich heir who had so much money it was nothing to him.

“Eat whatever you want today. It’s all on me!” Lin Zihang announced through gritted teeth.

“We’ll help ourselves then, haha! Rich people are just made different!” a guy teased.

Everyone was jovial and chatty but most of the students were bootlicking either Lin Zihang or Qi Xiaoxiao.

At this time, Yun Jian’s identity as an Advanced Special Forces soldier felt unremarkable. It was exactly what Yun Jian wished for, though.

Halfway through the meal, Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang went out to pay. Since they were going to Longmen City’s riding arena in the afternoon, they had to finish lunch earlier or they would not have enough time to enjoy themselves later.

“Jianjian, go to the washroom with me please...” Chen Xinyi told Yun Jian with a hand over her stomach.

Yun Jian was already done eating and did not have anything else to do, so she got up and accompanied Chen Xinyi to the restroom when the latter asked her to.

The restrooms in hotels were usually separated into ladies’ and gents’ with sinks outside.

Yun Jian did not follow Chen Xinyi into the women’s restroom since she was only here as company, so she waited for the latter at the sink.

Suddenly, a soft conversation was heard coming from a distance away.

Yun Jian’s sense of hearing was sharp. She was not listening intentionally but she could still hear the conversation coming from the staircase next to the sink.

Instead of a conversation, it was more like a couple kissing.

“Zihang... Zihang...” Yun Jian could easily recognize that the voice belonged to Qi Xiaoxiao.

Raising a brow, Yun Jian leaned against the wall and hid at the start of the staircase to glimpse with one eye. What she saw was Qi Xiaoxiao hugging Lin Zihang as both of them kissed passionately by the stairs.

Desperate much, Yun Jian scoffed soundlessly.

Hotels did not have many surveillance cameras during this era. There was none here, at least. Moreover, the staircase that Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang were hugging and kissing at had no window, so it was dark and dim, rarely frequented by anyone.

“Xiaoxiao...” Lin Zihang already had a hand crept under Qi Xiaoxiao’s clothes by now.

“Don’t...” Qi Xiaoxiao whined.

The sound racked goosebumps over Yun Jian. Yun Jian saw through her squint that Qi Xiaoxiao stopped Lin Zihang’s wandering hand and told him shyly, “Zihang, we’re already doing this. When are you getting engaged with me...”

Yun Jian raised a brow. The next second, she heard Lin Zihang’s glower and raised voice at Qi Xiaoxiao from the stairs.. “You’re expecting to get engaged with me? Who do you think you are? You really think I’ll actually marry you?”

Chapter 1260:

One Can Order Me, so Get Out of My Way

Yun Jian could obviously feel Qi Xiaoxiao startling at Lin Zihang’s sudden change of demeanor. After all, Qi Xiaoxiao dated Lin Zihang with the goal of getting married.

“Zi-Zihang, what are you talking about? Haven’t I... done it with you? Why... why are you backing out from your words? Didn’t you previously say that—”

Qi Xiaoxiao was stunned. She really thought that she would turn out like what her friends said and get married to Sheng Yuan Company’s heir, Lin Zihang.

“Previously? I previously said what?” Lin Zihang denied it.

Initially, Lin Zihang could have still coaxed Qi Xiaoxiao but he changed his mind completely when she claimed that he would pay for all the expenses of the class gathering today.

That was not a small sum at all! Who did she think she was to decide for him? Did she really think she was his wife now?

Lin Zihang was genuinely infuriated.

“But we’ve already... You said that as long as I... with you... you’ll treat me well and what’s yours is mine, I...” Qi Xiaoxiao was thoroughly dumbstruck by what Lin Zihang said.

While they were still arguing, Yun Jian had gone back to the sink only to hear Chen Xinyi crying out from the restroom.

“Ah, Jianjian, I didn’t bring any toilet paper! What do I do? Jianjian, can you ask the front desk if they have any for me? You’ll see the front desk going down the stairs from here!”

Chen Xinyi was exasperated, crying out for Yun Jian as she covered her face crouching in the stall.

“Sure.” Yun Jian nodded lightly.

Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang were still arguing at the stairs but the latter had gotten an upper hand in the situation.

Lin Zihang told Qi Xiaoxiao pinching her chin, “I’m just not bored of you yet and you really think highly of yourself? You think I have to marry you just because we’ve slept together a few times?”

“Hah, you’re like a dead fish in bed and I’ve been taking the initiative all this while. Be good if you know what’s best for you, don’t try to ask for more! I can still do you a favor and have fun with you a little longer. Otherwise, I’ll teach you a lesson today itself!”

Lin Zihang snapped at Qi Xiaoxiao, basically exposing his true colors now. That was simply how he had always been.

Qi Xiaoxiao was frightened by the guy’s menace. She had thought that it was only a matter of time before she became the madam of Sheng Yuan Company. She boasted about it today as well; how was she supposed to face others from now on?

“Lin Zihang, how could you be like this? You weren’t like this before. You said that you’ll treat me well for life if I get together with you! And you said...” Qi Xiaoxiao managed to say.

Lin Zihang did not even get to interrupt her when a shadow went past them soundlessly.

Yun Jian did not make any sound when she took the stairs. She passed by Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang just like that, going downstairs as if she did not hear their heated argument.

Since Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang were fighting and Yun Jian was silent in her walk, the two of them had only realized that she was there when she appeared before them. They nearly fell from the shock when they suddenly saw Yun Jian since the staircase was so dark.

Yun Jian had already gone past Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang to go downstairs.

It was only then Qi Xiaoxiao caught a clear sight of her, losing colors once she saw that it was Yun Jian. Lin Zihang was stunned as well.

No one wanted their scandal to break out, especially egoistical ones like Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang.

“Yun Jian? Hold it right there!” Qi Xiaoxiao yelled at Yun Jian upon seeing that it was her.

Did Yun Jian hear her conversation with Lin Zihang just now? How much did she hear?

Yun Jian ignored Qi Xiaoxiao only for her and Lin Zihang to rush over together and block her way.

Qi Xiaoxiao pointed a finger at Yun Jian. “Yun Jian, hold it there! I ask you to stand right there!”

“No one can order me!” Yun Jian glanced sideways at Qi Xiaoxiao suddenly, her sharp gaze almost murderous.

‘What she said jolted both Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang. She then continued speaking, “So get out of my way..”