

Schoolgirl 1261

Chapter 1261: A Dumb Solution. Throw Them to the River

What Yun Jian said so abruptly shocked Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang.

“Wh-what did you say?” Qi Xiaoxiao quivered from Yun Jian’s words.

Once she recalled that Yun Jian was an Advanced Special Forces soldier, she took two steps back.

Despite that, she grew more scared of her scandal with Lin Zihang being exposed and the fact that she had blown her own trumpet in front of others just now. They had even said that she would become the future madam of Sheng Yuan Company.

How long had it only been and Lin Zihang was already disposing her? This was beside the point, though; point was, Lin Zihang had not gotten bored of her yet for now, so this meant that no one would know if Qi Xiaoxiao said nothing.

For all the bluster she put up in front of others just now, Yun Jian saw the truth behind it? Did Yun Jian hear what they said? How much had she heard? How was Qi Xiaoxiao going on with her life if Yun Jian spread the words?

“Yun Jian, what did you hear? I’ll have you know that my boyfriend is the heir of Sheng Yuan Company. If you dare speak a word of what you heard just now, I’ll make sure you don’t see the light at the end of the tunnel!”

Qi Xiaoxiao was clearly scared witless. If others found out that she had already slept with Lin Zihang and the latter did not even want to marry her now, she would be embarrassed when words got out. It was not just that; she would be doomed! People would call her a sl*t when they spoke of her for being so inconspicuous at a young age.

Qi Xiaoxiao was scared, so she stopped Yun Jian from going downstairs.

Yun Jian turned to glance at Qin Xiaoxiao. She was a little taller and a little slimmer than Qi Xiaoxiao as the latter was a bit plump.

Lin Zihang could not see clearly what Yun Jian looked like standing on the dark staircase but he knew that she would not be too bad judging by her figure.

His prodigal and womanizing ways were triggered.

There was no doubt that Lin Zihang did not want what he had done to be exposed. If his father were to discover him messing around with a woman like Qi Xiaoxiao, his allowance would be cut!

Hence, Lin Zihang who stopped Yun Jian from going downstairs told Qi Xiaoxiao with a pant, “You don’t want others to find out too, right? Come record it for me. I’ll f*ck her right here! Then she’ll no choice but to be on our side!”

Lin Zihang tossed his phone to Qi Xiaoxiao in self-assumed coolness. The cellphones during this era could not do video recordings yet but were already equipped with the voice recording function.

“What? You...” Qi Xiaoxiao was stunned, not expecting Lin Zihang to actually say something like this.

“What else? This is the best way to shut this girl up! Qi Xiaoxiao, get moving right now!” Lin Zihang growled at her.

Qi Xiaoxiao gritted her teeth. She thought that this was probably the best solution as well.

Lin Zihang was already pouncing at Yun Jian by then.

It was undeniable that Lin Zihang’s idea had the lowest risk. If it had been any other girl today, she would be thoroughly ruined by Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang.

Fortunately, the one standing here today was Yun Jian.

Yun Jian squinted. There was no lighting here but she could feel Lin Zihang extending a hand toward her. She took a side step agilely and kicked his stomach, keeping her foot there as she pressed him to the floor.

Yun Jian had not even shown any hand, throwing Lin Zihang to the floor just by using her leg. The entire process took less than two seconds.

Even in the dark, Lin Zihang was startled by Yun Jian’s skill. Qi Xiaoxiao had also suddenly recalled that Yun Jian was from the Advanced Special Forces!

The next second, they heard Yun Jian’s unnerving words ringing loud and clear, “Hah, say, it’s so quiet here without anyone passing by. Will anyone discover your bodies if I kill you two now, cut you up into eight pieces, keep you in a gunny sack, and throw you into the river?”

Yun Jian sounded terrifying when one took into account her skill and the darkness of the environment. She sounded as if she would really do it that Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang shook in fear..

Chapter 1262 I Don’t Use Makeup. Going to the Riding Arena

Yun Jian did not waste more time with Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang. She had not planned to care anyway and Chen Xinyi was still waiting for her in the restroom stall.

Yun Jian went downstairs indifferently and leisurely with both her hands in her pants pockets after what she said.

Qi Xiaoxiao, who was shocked, accidentally dropped Lin Zihang’s cellphone on the floor due to her unstable hold. Despite that, neither her nor Lin Zihang’s attention was on this. What they focused on was if Yun Jian would spread what they had been talking about earlier.

Watching Yun Jian go downstairs toward the front desk on the first floor, Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang stayed silent. It was only after a while that Lin Zihang shouted at Qi Xiaoxiao, “Hurry and help me up! It hurts so bad! F*ck!” Jolting, Qi Xiaoxiao quickly went over to help Lin Zihang up. After all, she knew that she could only impress others longer by pandering to him.

After Qi Xiaoxiao helped Lin Zihang up, both of them rushed back to the room their friends were in. Although they were scared that Yun Jian would expose what she saw just now, they were even more afraid of her going back to the room first. By getting back to the room before Yun Jian, they could at least make sure that she had no proof even if she were to say anything.

Both Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang were tense for the following period of time. Their classmates could clearly feel that they were both distracted when they talked to either of them. Since the students had no idea what was going on, they paid them no mind. It was until Yun Jian and Chen Xinyi came back from the restroom that Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang did not even care to regard their peers' polite pleasantries as their eyes kept fleeing to Yun Jian.

Zhang Shaofeng grumbled aloud once Yun Jian and Chen Xinyi returned to their seats, "Oh my goodness, why did you take so long to go to the restroom, Xinyi? I thought you've fallen into the toilet!"

"Another word of nonsense and I'll hit you!" Chen Xinyi was a little miffed, clenching her fist and throwing it lightly toward Zhang Shaofeng with a pout.

With a chuckle, Zhang Shaofeng caught Chen Xinyi's fist and continued to tease her, "Save it. I'm different now! I have master's personally taught lifetime experience with me now! Ha-ha-ha!"

Zhang Shaofeng waved his arms about as he spoke to pretend like he was commanding in presence but of course, he was only clowning a joke among those who were familiar with each other.

Chen Xinyi giggled, amused by what he did. Even Yun Jian cracked a grin.

"Xiaoxiao, why are you looking at Yun Jian?" a girl from the table next to theirs asked curiously.

The noise of chopsticks falling to the floor came from the same direction before Qi Xiaoxiao's frantic voice was heard, "Oh, it's n-nothing. I just think that she looks unusually pretty today and wonder what foundation she used. Haha."

The voice alone was evident of Qi Xiaoxiao's current panic.

The more nonchalant Yun Jian was, the more Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang were scared that she had some ulterior motives.

In actuality, Yun Jian simply did not care about what happened.

"I don't use makeup." Yun Jian's stoic voice rang. The unfeeling tone of her voice gave chills to those listening. Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang shuddered in unison.

It was then the academic representative, Lin Yaqian, stepped out to say, "Is everyone done eating? Let's get ready to go to the horseback riding arena if that's the case. It's already past 12pm now. It's getting late if we're still hanging around."

Chapter 1263:

'0 Right as a Captive

Lin Yaqian defused the awkward atmosphere earlier. All of them were done eating and had gotten up to leave the hotel with their closer cliques of friends.

Yun Jian, Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen exited the hotel as well.

Qi Xiaoxiao and Lin Zihang left holding hands right after them. From their expressions, though, it was clear that both of them looked laden with worry.

"It's not far to walk from here to the riding arena. It'll take us about 20 minutes," Lin Yaqian announced standing before everyone.

"Our academic rep has spoken. Keep up, everyone, haha!" a few guys who were more playful cheered hearing what she said.

Although it was a class gathering, the class dispersed into smaller groups as most of the students walked with their closer friends. It was just that they had the same destination.

Yun Jian got along with Chen Xinyi, Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen, so the four of them walked together.

Just as they stepped out of the hotel, Yun Jian saw a familiar face at the door. It was Qing You. The girl was obviously here for her, so she smiled and went over to her.

"Sister Jian," Qing You called out upon seeing Yun Jian.

Yun Jian also saw that Qing You held a rope that was restraining Gu Nian's pair of hands as the latter stood some distance away.

With both her hands being tied up with the rope, Gu Nian was standing to the side with a purse of lips. When she saw Yun Jian, she huffed, "Yun Jian, I won't kill you anymore. Let me go back. This rope makes me look like a criminal. It's embarrassing me when my name intimidates a bunch of people back at where I come from!"

Gu Nian yanked at the rope as she spoke.

Since failing her attempt to assassinate Yun Jian the last time, she had thoroughly given up on killing the latter. Yun Jian was simply too good; she could not subdue her at all. Hence, Gu Nian wanted to return to Yulong Mainland. She was from Yulong Mainland after all and she was an assassin there.

If Gu Nian got to choose, she would not have torn the notice from the board and come all the way to earth to assassinate Yun Jian for that lucrative reward even if she had lost her mind. She f*cking regretted it now! If there were an antidote for remorse, she would be the first to buy it!

Seeing the sudden appearance of the pair who were here for Yun Jian, the classmates who passed by turned to glance at Yun Jian. After all, classmates paid closer attention to each other.

This was especially the case when Gu Nian was tied up by Qing You. They looked striking.

'When the classmates who were about to move past them heard what Gu Nian told Yun Jian, they halted their steps. There was even a girl who asked Gu Nian, responding faster than Yun Jian, "You wanted to kill Yun Jian? You're talking about murder here, are you guys joking? Or are you acting? Murder is against the law!"

Of course regular people were shocked at what Gu Nian said. Students this age commonly had more time and were more laidback, so those who were passing by Yun Jian stopped to look at her and Gu Nian.

“The thing is I can’t beat Yun Jian. I’m not able to kill her!” Gu Nian answered innocently like she did not think killing was something wrong.

Gu Nian who came from Yulong Mainland was like Lan Su back then; she had no idea about things on earth.

After that, Gu Nian turned to Yun Jian. “Yun Jian, let me go. Qing You’s kept me locked up for so long and I finally get to come out for some sun today. I feel like I’m turning into a vampire soon.”

The students standing there were slightly puzzled by what Gu Nian and Yun Jian said. The more confused they were, the more interested they grew.

Yun Jian merely raised a brow and chuckled at Gu Nian. “As a captive, you have no right to say no..”

Chapter 1264: That Horse of Yours Won’t Do

Yun Jian rubbed Gu Nian’s shiny black hair and flashed a smile before stepping forward. She paused and turned back to Qing You. “You two should come along.”

Qing You nodded and pulled the rope tying Gu Nian’s hands as she went to Yun Jian.

Gu Nian pursed her lips but ultimately kept up to Yun Jian with Qing You.

On their way there, Qing You had even stopped and rubbed Gu Nian’s head like Yun Jian did then went close to her ear and lightly teased her, “Silly little Niannian.”

Qing You held her laugh in after that and went after Yun Jian.

Gu Nian was speechless. How was this her life again? Why was everyone bullying her?

The group of students who stood behind them were baffled. What was going on? Why did what Gu Nian and Yun Jian say sound so deep? Why did they feel like both of them were purposely putting up a front when they talked to attract people’s attention?

Some of their classmates were repulsed, thinking that Yun Jian must have done that intentionally just to stir attention from others.

Despite that, no one said it aloud or showed their disgust on their faces.

Yun Jian’s class gathering was also considered a graduation ceremony. It was not limited to only students from their class; students from other classes and even students who were not from Longmen Yi Junior High School had come along as well. That was why it was fine adding Qing You and Gu Nian too. Qing You had brought Gu Nian out for a walk today but knowing that Yun Jian’s class was having a gathering, she took Gu Nian along to drop by for some fun.

“Let’s go, let’s go. We need to hurry and try to arrive at the stable before 12:50pm because we have to pick the horses we like once we’re there. There’ll be a race in the afternoon.”

Lin Yagian was in front of them all, leading the way like a little tour guide.

It ought to be mentioned that she had made a nice arrangement.

Back when they were still in school, Lin Yaqian had already showcased exceptional event organizing skill as the academic representative, so everyone was happy to follow along her plan now.

Shortly, they came to the horseback riding arena and first met the old caretaker there.

The old man who took care of the horses had the last name Zhang. Uncle Zhang was either in his fifties or sixties and had taken care of horses for 30-40 years. Basically, he knew a lot about horses as he had started taking care of them seriously when he was 16-17 years old.

Uncle Zhang managed and ran the whole stable currently.

Lin Zihang obviously knew Uncle Zhang. After he smugly went over to talk to the older man, the latter took everyone to pick their horse.

“Xiao Jian, which horse are you choosing?” Chen Xinyi looked thrilled as she squealed at Yun Jian tugging her.

“These horses can’t fly. I’m not riding them,” Gu Nian spoke after a disdainful glare at the others who were selecting their horses.

Horses in Yulong Mainland could fly, so she did not want a horse like these.

Yun Jian smiled.

“I think this horse looks good. It looks robust and muscular, it’ll definitely run the fastest. I pick it!” Zhang Shaofeng went to a horse and spoke as he untied the rope around the black horse.

“Pft!” A scoff of aman rang suddenly.

The guy who snorted was not from Yun Jian’s class but probably a friend or relative who came with one of their classmates.

The guy mocked Zhang Shaofeng, “You don’t pick a horse judging if it’s muscular. Being muscly doesn’t mean the horse will run fast. Never mind, amateurs like you all won’t know. I’ve been racing horses for years.. That horse you pick won’t do at all!”

Chapter 1265: This Horse Is Mine

‘The guy spoke in an absolute sense and his tone brimmed with smugness. He was only 17-18 years old and seemed to be a senior high school student, probably a relative or friend of a classmate from Yun Jian’s class.

Someone spoke up immediately after the guy, “Wow, are you Cai Lin’s elder cousin, Cai Yi?”

‘When the guy, Cai Yi, heard that someone knew him, he nodded all puffed up. “Yes.”

“Huh, so you’re the elder cousin who Cai Lin from our class said to be excellent in horse racing? I’ve heard that you’ve joined the—uh, provincial level race and gotten the second place!”

Once the student who asked Cai Yi just now heard that the latter was indeed the horse racing expert who he had heard about before and was said to be impressive, he admired Cai Yi even more—especially when they were going to have a race soon.

“Heh, I’ve only gotten the second place. It’s something anyone could’ve done as long as they stay determined and race once a day for three years like I do,” Cai Yi said humbly, thinking that the trumpet was not blown hard enough.

Sometimes, the more humble it sounded, the more boastful it actually was. Cai Yi was only humble to contrast his swagger. That was all.

More people around them heard what he said and they showered him with praises.

“Wow, that’s so cool. See, he’s so good because he trains. That’s three years! He’s amazing for persevering!”

“I’m so impressed by him! He could be like, the coolest guy in school!”

Students around them began to comment among each other and that made Cai Yi feel prouder, as if he was really some big shot.

Zhang Shaofeng was angry while Yun Jian walked into the herd of horses with a squint and untied a horse that was tied to a wooden pole. “I’ll pick this one!”

“Hey, hey, hey, young lady. This horse isn’t easy to control. It’s the most aggressive horse in the stable here. Anyone who rides it will fall off in less than three seconds and only an elite horse trainer could ride it—barely, even then!”

“You’ll break your leg if you ride it!”

Uncle Zhang who saw Yun Jian untying the aggressive horse’s rope hurried over to stop her.

“Uncle Zhang, why don’t I try taming this horse? I’m not the best but I’ve been learning for three years already,” Cai Yi came over and told Uncle Zhang, repressing his eagerness, when he heard what the older man said.

“Uh...” Uncle Zhang looked troubled.

“Don’t worry, Uncle Zhang. I can do it!” Cai Yi assured him confidently. He was just waiting to shine in front of his peers!

“Alright then,” Uncle Zhang agreed with a nod after a two-second silence.

Yun Jian stayed quiet, standing on the spot and watching Cai Yi led the horse to the group.

Due to what Uncle Zhang said, everyone tensed up as they looked over. The elder man claimed that this horse could only be tamed by an elite horse trainer! What Cai Yi was doing right now was obviously a challenge to see if he could tame this aggressive horse.

The teenagers found their attention attracted by this as they nervously watched what was about to happen.

Feeling the gazes trained on him, Cai Yi was even more excited to show off himself. He grabbed the rein and forcefully stepped on the stirrup to sit himself on the back of the aggressive horse directly.

Once he got seated, the aggressive horse neighed in a low growl and shook itself in a frenzy. Cai Yi was stunned for a few seconds before he clung to the rein but was thrown to the ground in less than three seconds.

He held back the pain he felt and stood up quickly. To make it less embarrassing for himself, he purposely explained, "This is really an aggressive horse. I think none of us here can tame it..."

It was when he said that, that everyone saw a petite silhouette flashing before their eyes.

They saw Yun Jian sprinting forward, using less than three seconds to reach the horse, and stomping her feet on the ground before doing a somersault and riding the horse without even needing to step on the stirrup.

At the same time, she grabbed the aggressive horse's rein. The moment the horse bellowed and shook itself vehemently, she held the rein and used it to constrain the restless horse in the shortest time possible—until the horse quieted down and was tamed by her.

The surrounding was pin-drop silence. Yun Jian sat on the horseback holding the rein. With a smile, she looked down at the others and announced four shocking words with the commanding flair of a general, "This horse is mine..""

Chapter 1266: Beat Me in the Race and You're Free

Yun Jian spoke loud and clear, her voice traveling across the ranch. It shocked everyone there.

"S-she managed to ride this horse? Didn't they say that it's an aggressive horse? Didn't they say that only an elite horse trainer could tame it..."

Yun Jian's classmates watched her get on the horseback in a stupor.

No one doubted that the horse was not aggressive, especially after they saw Cai Yi being flung off from the horse in less than three seconds just now.

As for Yun Jian who could control the black horse, how capable must she be to accomplish that?

'A few guys whose limelight was snatched by Cai Yi earlier and resented him for that clapped and cheered at once. "Good job! Well done!"

"Yun Jian, you're awesome! You make Class A proud!"

Even when they had already graduated, they called themselves with the name of their class.

Cai Yi was not from their class. The boys from Grade 9th Class A were extremely put off by guys like Cai Yi and Lin Zihang who were invited by their classmates and showed off eagerly in their graduation ceremony. It was just that they did not show their disgruntlement openly.

'When Cai Yi fell off the horse, the handful of guys from Yun Jian's class were so close to applauding but they held themselves back.

Now that Yun Jian rode the aggressive horse that Cai Yi was unable to tame and had fallen off from, it was like a huge slap in Cai Yi's face!

'That was why the guys in class cheered and hurraed so enthusiastically.

Cai Yi glowered instantly; he had hastily gotten up just now to explain himself only for Yun Jian to overshadow him completely.

"Cai Yil" Cai Yi's younger cousin, Cai Lin, came to him and passed him some tissue.

Cai Lin was from Yun Jian's class. The reason Cai Yi was here today was because he was invited by Cai Lin.

After Cai Lin passed the tissue to Cai Yi, she turned around to face her classmates and glared, out of the corner of her eye, at Yun Jian who was seated on the horse, saying, "So what if she's able to get on the horse? Horse racing depends on one's techniques. My cousin's racing skill has been complimented by the national horse racing coach before."

"That coach has once represented Country Z to join international competitions and said to have won too!"

Cai Lin made sure to get her point across. She was stubborn to believe the reality. The fact that Yun Jian was in the Advanced Special Forces was already bewildering; could she be an all-rounder secret agent? Could she be like the secret agents in films who were the best in their game and could stay undetected despite going around various professions?

Pft, it would be a joke! She was so young!

Cai Lin was upset. She had long been annoyed with Yun Jian.

"Wow, that's awesome!"

'There were girls who chorused at once.

"Oh my gosh, he's amazing! He was complimented by a national horse racing coach!"

The girls began to talk among each other again.

At the same time, Yun Jian had reined the horse securely and led it with her to go to Gu Nian holding the rein.

She did not care nor mind what the others were saying.

Smiling, Yun Jian hooked a forefinger at Gu Nian and said, "I'll give you a chance to be free—as long as you pick a horse and beat me in the race."

'What Yun Jian said, had yet again, successfully attracted everyone's attention.

Being called out, Gu Nian wore an exaggerated expression before pointing at the horses and asked, "What? You want me to race you with these low class horses that can't even fly? Is this a joke?"

The conversation between Yun Jian and Gu Nian baffled everyone else.

Cai Lin crossed her arms like a haughty little princess, scoffing when she heard them, “Low class horses that can’t even fly? Hah, is the girl out of her mind? Does she think she lives in the fairytale?”

Chapter 1267: Preaching to Them. He Won’t Go Easy

Cai Lin had one or two friends around her. It was easy for girls to be jealous of each other, especially when Yun Jian took everyone’s attention away with what she had done and said just now. Hence, a few girls picked on Yun Jian, Gu Nian and Qing You as well once Cai Lin started it.

Yun Jian simply ignored them, keeping her eyes on Gu Nian and smirking with a clear tick of lips.

The most girls would do to other girls was running their mouth. Seeing that Yun Jian ignored them, Cai Lin and the girls around her could only give up.

Gu Nian was unsettled from being stared at by Yun Jian. Ultimately, she looked at Yun Jian awkwardly and stuttered, “Would you really free me if I beat you?”

“I give only one chance and it waits for no one,” Yun Jian said cryptically as she crossed her arms and looked back at Gu Nian.

“Okay! A race it is! This horse is a little subpar but I, Gu Nian, no longer want to walk around being tied like a captive!” Gu Nian narrowed her eyes.

“Both of you ladies are racing, yes?” Uncle Zhang came before Yun Jian and Gu Nian to ask kindly.

“Mn,” Yun Jian hummed in reply.

“Young ladies, there is only one racetrack in our riding arena here. You youngsters must all want to race too and you don’t have much time.”

“Why don’t we do it this way? Five people in a race and both of you are still able to compete against each other?”

Uncle Zhang explained.

There was only one racing arena here. If these 40-50 classmates of Yun Jian in addition to the friends and family they brought along all wanted to race one-to-one, one afternoon would not suffice.

Although plenty of them might not even be able to bring the horses to gallop riding on their back, all of them must want to experience how it felt like to do horseback racing when they were already here.

“I’m fine with it” Yun Jian had no objection. She only wanted to race with Gu Nian, so it was irrelevant to her if there were others racing alongside them.

“Okay, great. Three more people to the first race then. Is there anyone who wants to join this first round?” Uncle Zhang breathed in relief and asked the rest of the group.

“Sister Jian, you two have fun. I won’t be joining.” Qing You loosened her hold and easily untied Gu Nian’s hands.

'When Gu Nian was finally untied, she stretched herself.

"THI join in!" Cai Yi spoke and came toward them.

"Any two of you want to race this round? Come on and join them!" Uncle Zhang nodded at Cai Yi and continued to ask.

In the end, two guys who did not really know how to ride a horse were pushed out. Both of them had never seen a living horse, forget if they could ride one. Nevertheless, the fact that they were brave enough to step up and give it a try deserved to be praised.

Hence, Yun Jian, Gu Nian, Cai Yi, and those two guys all tugged the horses they had chosen and stood side by side on the starting line of the racing track in preparation.

"Cai Yi, you can do it! You're the best! You'll get the first place too!" Cai Lin cupped her hands around her mouth and cheered standing some distance away.

Hearing his younger cousin, Cai Yi's slight jitters calmed down instantly. He thought that Yun Jian was only a regular junior high school graduate. So what if she did subdue the aggressive horse earlier?

Thinking of that and to calm himself down some more, Cai Yi tured to preach to Yun Jian and Gu Nian, "It's not like whoever could tame the aggressive horse would win a horse racing. This has nothing to do with that. Do your best. I won't go easy on you because I genuinely like horse racing. You don't get results from others going easy on you.."

Chapter 1268: The Last of Its Force. The Start of the Horse Race

Not only had Cai Yi condescended Yun Jian and Gu Nian, it sounded more like he was boasting. He said that he would not go easy on both of them due to his passion for horse racing; the reason seemed convincing but he was also indirectly stating that he would definitely beat them both.

Yun Jian merely scoffed at what he said while Gu Nian scratched her head and inwardly deadpanned how such a fool existed on earth. Was the guy being real? How dare he said that in front of her and Yun Jian?

Disregarding everything else, Gu Nian knew that Yun Jian was truly capable. At least, the undeniable truth was that she could not beat Yun Jian. That was why... cough—she was currently her captive.

'When Cai Yi saw that Yun Jian and Gu Nian had both ignored him, he coughed dryly, clearly feeling a little more than embarrassed.

In spite of it, the cheers from the girls around them made his confidence rush back in. The girls were shouting, "Hey, don't you guys think that the guy is cool?"

"He is! And didn't Cai Lin say that he's won the provincial level horse racing? I think he'll certainly come in first place this time."

"Tknow, right!"

Those who were outside of the horseback riding ranch had no idea about what was happening in there. At the same time, Si Yi was seated in the study room of his and Yun Jian's home with Snow Eagle and Mo Sen who were supposed to have already gone back to An Hun Group's headquarters standing before him right now.

Snow Eagle took a grim step forward with furrowed brows and said, "Young master, Lin Wei's coming over with our members. The destination of those people is...the horse riding place at the suburb of Longmen City!"

Si Yi raised his brow. It was obvious that he did not know that Yun Jian was there, He arched a brow and cracked a smirk. "Whatever the last of Inferno Ring's force is here in Longmen City for, none of them lives past today!"

"Yes, young master!"

"Yes, young master!"

Snow Eagle and Mo Sen nodded at his order.

"We're starting soon. I don't have a whistle here, so this red flag shall act as one. When I swing this red flag down, the race starts," Uncle Zhang explained standing next to the starting line.

No one objected to what he said, so Cai Yi and the other two guys promptly tensed up at the preparation state. On the other hand, Yun Jian and Gu Nian looked laidback, like they were not just about to race.

Cai Yi merely scoffed at them, criticizing them in his mind for not even feeling nervous before a race. How could they be horse racing then? They could never win!

"Get ready, everyone! Get set! ..." Uncle Zhang held the red flag up high and began to countdown.

Cai Yi's heart gave a squeeze when he heard the elder man's shout. He was going to win this—he definitely would! He had already won in Zhe Province's horse race, it was impossible he could not beat these two girls; what was more, the other two guys.

Just when Cai Yi thought about that, Uncle Zhang's "go" rolled off his tongue loud and clear as he swung the red flag down.

It was then Cai Yi gripped the rein and was going to whip the horse to make it gallop but two silhouettes who were seated on the horseback and were umpteenth times faster than him had already raced toward the track.

Witnessing the scene, Cai Yi watched the two figures bolt off dumbly, forgetting to even raise the whip to whip the horse into moving.

The others who were farther away, too, saw the two figures charging out with their horses like two strikes of lightning upon Uncle Zhang's command. Those who had mocked Yun Jian and Gu Nian earlier widened their eyes in shock.

Forget about whether the possibility of Cai Yi matching them; from this situation, it would already be a miracle if Cai Yi could finish one-third of the race when Yun Jian and Gu Nian arrived at the finishing line!

Chapter 1269: You Were My Captive Anyway

Cai Yi was stunned since the start, frozen on the spot holding his whip. It was until Yun Jian and Gu Nian were ten meters ahead that he snapped back to himself and whipped his horse to give chase.

As for the other two guys—since they had never learned how to horse race, both of them actually directed the horses elsewhere and thoroughly veered off the race track as they pulled the reins.

Of course, the students' attention was not on the two guys. From the moment Yun Jian and Gu Nian shot off of the starting line and left Cai Yi far behind them, they knew that Cai Yi was certainly losing this round!

The point now was to see who would win between Yun Jian and Gu Nian.

Needless to say, the shock was overwhelming to the spectators right in the beginning. No one had expected both the girls to be so skilled that they had gone so far ahead of Cai Yi once they sprinted from the starting line.

"Oh my god, Yun Jian and that girl are insane!" someone began to exclaim watching Yun Jian and Gu Nian who were dashing on the track.

"Don't forget that Yun Jian's in the Advanced Special Forces! She's Slashing God of Team Monarch!" someone reminded.

Others cheered and squealed for Yun Jian once they heard that. In a blink of eyes, everyone's attention was on Yun Jian and Gu Nian as they broke out in cheers and hurrahs.

Cai Lin paled immediately. How was it possible? How could her cousin Cai Yi possibly lose to Yun Jian and that girl?!

"Guys, look! Over there!" someone shouted pointing at Yun Jian and Gu Nian who were much farther away.

The rest of the teenagers trailed their gazes after the person only to see Yun Jian gripping the rein and eventually surpassing Gu Nian. It was quite a challenge for Gu Nian to keep up but it was still discernible that Gu Nian was adequately skilled as well.

"Goodness, I've spent 30-40 years in this stable and this is my first time seeing a horse race this exciting!" Even Uncle Zhang could not help clutching the red flag that substituted a whistle as he tensed up.

Since Uncle Zhang was the professional, the teenagers who heard what he said felt their hearts lurch. How impressive must Yun Jian and Gu Nian be when even Uncle Zhang expressed his exclamation?

Yun Jian and Gu Nian stayed in their pace, maintaining front and back respectively, all the way until they were about to reach the finishing line. During the last ten seconds spurt, though, Yun Jian suddenly accelerated holding the rein. Gu Nian could no longer speed up, already at her limit.

In the last few seconds, Yun Jian charged past the finishing line five seconds earlier than Gu Nian did, jumping off the horse once she went past the line.

The horse was still galloping speedily and her jump was an incredibly dangerous act but she made it look easy.

Landing on the ground with a hop, Yun Jian then grabbed the rein to restrain the aggressive horse that was about to bolt away. It all took three seconds, top, for her to complete the series of action.

Gu Nian, on the contrary, held the rein to slow down her horse after arriving at the finishing line. When she stopped, Yun Jian was already looking at her with a squint.

Gu Nian hopped off the horse with a flip as well. The ease of both of them unmounting from the horses did not match their age as teenagers. The others were stupefied.

'As Gu Nian walked toward Yun Jian, she chuckled and told the latter, "I admit my defeat! Yun Jian, I, Gu Nian, shall work with you from today onward! Do you accept me?"

Yun Jian crossed her arms languidly and narrowed her eyes, replying what exasperated Gu Nian after some time, "You were my captive anyway."

Chapter 1270: Who Among You Is SG?

What Yun Jian said nearly made Gu Nian spit out blood. It had taken her a long time to make this decision.

When they were about to race in the beginning, Gu Nian had made up her mind that she would go and work with Yun Jian if Yun Jian could beat her. After all, she was not a weakling in Yulong Mainland either.

What should she do when she found someone stronger than her on earth? What could she do? She was going to cling to the person, of course! Make Yun Jian her master and learn from her—Gu Nian was not leaving even if she was chased away!

"Haha, little captive, looks like you can't escape after all," Qing You giggled as she walked over.

The starting line was actually the finishing line. Why? Departing from the starting line and racing around the horse racing arena, one would ultimately go back to the starting line. At the very least, the structure of the horse racing race track here was similar to the running track in schools.

The other students were standing on the spot. Other than Cai Lin and her clique of girls, the rest of them were incredibly impressed by Yun Jian. How cool she had looked just now was exactly like the imagination of their fantasy!

Cai Lin frowned, finally unable to take it anymore when she saw that her cousin failed to catch up after so long. Now that she saw her peers admiring Yun Jian, she was even more furious.

It was just that Cai Lin was clever and had never shown her detest for others on her face. She heard Gu Nian saying she would work with Yun Jian just now; it begged the question—what was she going to do with Yun Jian?

Catching the opportunity to find fault with Yun Jian, Cai Lin made her way to them right away.

“Congratulations for winning. You guys are very good,” Cai Lin said before she continued asking Yun Jian right in front of everyone with a fake smile, “What were you two saying just now? Why did she say she’s working with you? Work what? Heh, what you said just now sounds like you’re in the gang, like secret agents and assassins in the movies.”

“Don’t say that anymore. You two are girls. You shouldn’t act so frivolously and fight for the first place with guys. This isn’t what girls should do.”

“We girls should be docile and quiet. Otherwise, girls like you won’t be able to get married in the future for sure!”

Cai Lin switched away from the arrogant confidence that smugly assumed that Cai Yi was going to win. She intentionally made herself seem calm and went to Yun Jian and Gu Nian to loudly patronize them.

When others heard her preach—hey, they thought she made some sense. Hence, a few girls chorused her sentiment. As it went on, it seemed like Yun Jian and Gu Nian had done wrong for snatching Cai Yi’s first place.

Yun Jian scoffed but said nothing. Cai Lin, who saw it, grinned inwardly thinking that Yun Jian was unable to retort because of what she said. She mocked in her mind.

Hah, Yun Jian? Advanced Special Forces? Did she really think she was in the mafia? And that girl who raced against her and said something about working with Yun Jian—did she think she was in the mafia too?

Their confidence repulsed Cai Lin, especially Gu Nian’s tone when she spoke to Yun Jian that sounded as if they were really going to do something great.

Just when Cai Lin thought about that, three to four vans drove in to the horseback riding arena and a group of masked men in black got out from the vans.

The teenagers looked over in curiosity, wondering why so many strange people were appearing in the arena. They had only felt that things were going wrong when these men got out of the vans and ran to them to surround them holding various firearms.

A man who was big and burly, about two meters in height, with strong sinewy arms that were like the steel wall then stood before them.. He scanned the place and snapped, “Who among you is SG? Step right out if you don’t want me to kill all of you here!”