

Schoolgirl 1461

Chapter 1461: Mentioned That It's a Girl

Zhang Zhuti was already shocked when he heard Yun Jian state his serial number. After all, he thought how was Yun Jian going to find out about it if he did not declare it himself.

To search for a person's serial number with their name was probably something only the Falcon Hall higher-ups could do. Zhang Zhuti had never considered if Yun Jian was one of those guys because her young age was simply unconvincing.

In spite of it, Yun Jian had just stated his serial number accurately! It felt even more bizarre than a mythological movie!

Even then, Zhang Zhuti still did not guess that Yun Jian could be a higher-up, forget her being Falcon Hall's boss. Bullsh*t! The notion that she was Falcon Hall's boss was even more unbelievable than a fish cooking and eating itself.

That was why Zhang Zhuti's reflex was to question her serial number when he heard that she was a member of Falcon Hall as well.

Currently, the serial number represented a person's status and identity in Falcon Hall. There were Falcon Hall members all over Zhe Province and the total came up to over hundred thousands of people. It was a huge amount but it was not exactly overwhelming in comparison to the total population of Zhe Province.

Zhang Zhuti was one of the few with serial numbers toward the back. The reason he asked for Yun Jian's serial number was because he felt that hers must rank lower than his. How could a girl like her have a serial number way in front than his?

Nevertheless, he was dumbstruck when he heard Yun Jian's answer.

"W-what... What did you say? Serial number 1 what?" Zhang Zhuti thought that there was a series of number that followed behind and he did not catch it clearly, so he went closer to listen to it clearer.

The others who stood around were confused, having no idea what was going on, but could still vaguely make out what Yun Jian and Zhang Zhuti meant.

"I'm not going to repeat myself. Please leave my field of vision right now because you're an eyesore," Yun Jian said flatly with a smirk. She then turned to tell Lu Feiyan and Wang Cancan, ignoring everyone else who was there, "There are too many mosquitoes here—annoying. Let's go."

Lu Feiyan and Wang Cancan stood up since they did not want to stay around any longer as well.

Wang Cancan did not want to hang out there because she did not want to see her Senior Duan Ming being lovey-dovey with Chen Limei.

"Hey! Wang Cancan, are you leaving just like this? Don't you want to meet Senior Duan Ming? He's gone to use the restroom and will be back soon!" Chen Limei who saw Wang Cancan turning around to leave spoke up to stop her.

All of them knew that Chen Limei did not have any kind intention in asking Wang Cancan to stay. Everyone knew that Wang Cancan liked Senior Duan Ming and Chen Limei asking her to stay was to make her watch herself and Senior Duan Ming being close. That was her ulterior motive.

Wang Cancan could not help halting in her steps even when she knew that Chen Limei did not mean well.

Yun Jian's gaze turned sharp.

A tall and handsome young man entered through the door then. The way he looked was popular among girls, so he received attention and double takes from people around him the moment he came in.

The young man was Senior Duan Ming who was adored by Chen Limei and Wang Cancan.

As Duan Ming walked over to them and saw Wang Cancan, he could not believe his eyes for a minute. Wang Cancan was completely unlike how she was in school with the school uniform and pants; Wang Cancan today was extremely beautiful.

Duan Ming was supposed to go to Chen Limei but he stopped and turned to Wang Cancan, saying, "You're... Wang Cancan, right? I remember that I've seen you in school before. You look very pretty today."

It was then Zhang Zhuti who stood at the side suddenly recalled something and yelled at Yun Jian, shocking everyone with what he said, "I remember! I remember it now! Limping Three once mentioned that the boss of Falcon Hall is a girl and seems to be only a teenager who isn't legal yet. She—you... You wouldn't be her, right?!"

Zhang Zhuti shuddered at the end.

Chapter 1462: A Favor That'd Change Her Life

Zhang Zhuti remembered that a pal of his from Falcon Hall had mentioned that their boss was a girl and seemed to be underage.

In that case, Yun Jian who stood before him fulfilled all the conditions! The realization shocked Zhang Zhuti and he quickly stopped her to ask.

At that moment, everyone's gaze went to Yun Jian in astonishment.

Falcon Hall was a household name in Zhe Province. All the locals knew about the gang and some would be shaking in fear just hearing its name.

Despite that, what did Zhang Zhuti say? He said that Yun Jian was Falcon Hall's boss?!

"Ge, what sick joke are you cracking? She's Falcon Hall's boss? Hahahaha! It doesn't even make sense, okay? How could she possibly be the boss? If she's Falcon Hall's boss, I'd be the fairy from heaven! Please!"

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes but said nothing about it.

While Wang Qiaoyu blabbered in delight, Zhang Zhuti who had recovered from the surprise thought the same. Wang Qiaoyu did make sense. How could Yun Jian be Falcon Hall's boss?

Zhang Zhuti then said, "Yeah, it can't simply be a coincidence! She definitely isn't Falcon Hall's boss. I must've lost my mind just now! My brain had a short circuit!"

Yun Jian glared at Zhang Zhuti who ignored her after assuming that she was not the boss of Falcon Hall.

When Yun Jian, Lu Feiyan and Wang Cancan were moving around the group to leave, Duan Ming suddenly grabbed Wang Cancan's hand and asked her, "Wang Cancan, are you free at 6:30pm? Do you want to hang out and have a walk together?"

"S-Senior... can I really? I can hang out with you?" Wang Cancan was panicking and had completely lost her cool in front of Duan Ming. She was dumbfounded when Duan Ming invited her.

"Of course, it'd be my pleasure." Duan Ming wore a gentle smile that nearly swept Wang Cancan off her feet as she was caught in a daze from it.

"What are you still looking at?! Your Senior Duan Ming's left!" Lu Feiyan went up to Wang Cancan and muttered softly.

Yun Jian merely wore a slight smile.

The three of them ultimately went to Dynamall to pick Qi Yirou's present. Wang Cancan did have a good taste as after they went through the selections, she helped Yun Jian choose a nice apron for Qin Yirou.

The reason the gift was an apron was because Wang Cancan heard Yun Jian say that Qin Yirou worked in a florist and she would usually use an apron for that in order not to stain her clothes when she trimmed the flowers.

The florist had its own aprons but an apron from her daughter would always be different from the one in the florist.

Moreover, Qin Yirou did not lack anything now. A present was only a token.

Yun Jian listened to Wang Cancan and chose an apron that matched Qin Yirou's style before asking for it to be wrapped properly. It was actually Yun Jian's first time to buy a gift and ask for it to be wrapped.

"I owe you a favor. You can ask me for that anytime with the condition that it's within my range of ability," Yun Jian told Wang Cancan holding the present.

It was a huge favor to Yun Jian that Wang Cancan had helped her pick out a gift for Qin Yirou because she had no idea what to give the latter. She had never done anything like this in the past.

"We're friends from now on! There's no need for such formality between friends! Haha!" Wang Cancan replied Yun Jian openly.

Despite that, what Wang Cancan did not know was that Yun Jian would change her life soon because of such a favor.

Chapter 1463: It's Her, She Really Is...

Wang Cancan was going home because she had agreed to hang out with her Senior Duan Ming in the evening and was currently thrilled beyond herself.

Lu Feiyan was not going back to Xinjiang Town as she stayed in the school during the weekends. Sometimes, she went home once every two to three weeks; sometimes, it was once a month. Since it was not exactly convenient, she did not go back every week. This was more or less like Yun Yi back then.

Yun Yi was studying in Longmen City when Yun Jian was just rebirthed while both her and Qin Yirou were in Xinjiang Town. Yun Yi used to come home every two to three weeks—sometimes once a month, because it was money and time consuming to take a bus back home from the city. He would only stay for a day or two at home before he had to take another bus back to school again.

It was troublesome, so students whose hometowns were in towns and villages rarely went home.

After Wang Cancan left, Lu Feiyan went back to school for revision. They were having a monthly test some ten days later, so Lu Feiyan who had achieved all she had by her own hard work certainly had to revise and prepare for the test properly.

Dingding Bar, entrance.

This bar was opened recently and its business was incredibly good. It was just nearby Dynamall. Others might not know it, but Dingding Bar was one of Falcon Hall's property.

Yun Jian had asked to meet Xu Zetian here.

Since she started studying in the military school, it had been a long time since she asked about Falcon Hall. She ought to take care of the gang matters now that she was back today.

Holding the gift for Qin Yirou with one hand, Yun Jian stepped into Dingding Bar.

It was still daytime but it felt like nighttime inside Dingding Bar that was having good business recently. Stepping inside felt like going from day to night abruptly.

Just as Yun Jian entered the bar, she caught a few familiar figures at the bar out of the corner of her eyes. They were Zhou Dongxun, Wang Qiaoyu, Zhang Zhuti, and others whom she had met in the haunted house and café earlier.

It had taken some time when Wang Cancan and Lu Feiyan accompanied Yun Jian to buy Qin Yirou's present, so it was not strange that Zhou Dongxun and his friends had already left Dynamall.

What was a coincidence was that she could still run into them coming to a place like this.

Yun Jian was going to go around and away from the group at the bar when Zhou Dongxun with his sharp eyes was the first to notice Yun Jian and exclaimed in delighted surprise, "You're here too?!"

The delight in his tone upset Wang Qiaoyu who was next to him.

"Why are you always around?! You follow us everywhere! Do you even have shame?! As a girl, I think you don't even have the modesty of one!" Wang Qiaoyu shouted at Yun Jian thinking that the latter had purposely followed them here.

"Qiaoyu-mei, don't kick up a fuss here. This is Falcon Hall's place. Yelling and making loud noises like this will cause Falcon Hall's men to catch you! I won't be able to save you then," Zhang Zhuti told Wang Qiaoyu.

"Alright, okay, ge. I know..." Wang Qiaoyu turned to appease Zhang Zhuti before she turned back around to mock Yun Jian in a hushed voice, "Say, you aren't a hooker here, are you? Hah, what a shameless one..." Wang Qiaoyu was going to say more when a middle-aged man came over.

It was Duan Lei. Duan Lei went to Yun Jian and greeted her respectfully, "Sister Jian, Boss Xu has been waiting for you. Do hurry in."

Zhang Zhuti obviously knew Duan Lei, so he asked the latter in shock, "Elder Duan Lei, the girl who just went in... Is she—is she..."

"Mn, don't say things you shouldn't. You're not one to know who she is," Duan Lei hinted as he glanced at Zhang Zhuti.

His reply nearly made Zhang Zhuti exclaim in surprise. So she was... She really was her!

Chapter 1464: The Scary Woman Is Her

Zhang Zhuti nearly gasped on the spot but he ultimately repressed the shock deep within him.

Earlier when Yun Jian told him her serial number in Falcon Hall, he was in complete disbelief. After all, the number Yun Jian stated was too unbelievable. She did not say 1 and followed it with more digits—it was just 1, only 1!

Falcon Hall's serial number ranked one's ability from the strongest to the weakest in ascending order. Since Yun Jian said that her number was 1, there was no other option to her identity than being Falcon Hall's boss!

That was why Zhang Zhuti refused to believe that Yun Jian's serial number in Falcon Hall was really 1.

This was where Duan Lei came in. Currently in Falcon Hall, the people after the boss were Xu Zetian then Han Biao, the boss of the previous top gang in Zhe Province. Duan Lei was after the two of them.

What did it mean for Duan Lei then? His words in Falcon Hall were significant!

Previously when Xu Zetian was ambushed and resting from the serious injury, Duan Lei had been the one to stand in and manage Falcon Hall for the time being. He was of the level of an elder in the gang.

Yun Jian had done a large-scale reorganization in Falcon Hall previously, applying Gu Sha Mercenaries' management and serial number system to Falcon Hall. Now that one to two months had passed, Falcon Hall was obviously doing better than before that.

Zhang Zhuti was the only one who could feel the terror that overwhelmed him.

As Duan Lei went after Yun Jian and disappeared before their sight, Wang Qiaoyu spoke up again as if asking to be killed. She first mimicked Duan Lei's sentence and tone sarcastically before she ridiculed them.

"Don't say what you shouldn't. You're not one to know who she is."

Wang Qiaoyu wiggled left and right as she copied what Duan Lei said and laughed, mocking, "Pft, who does he think he is? I think that girl is here to sell herself yet she's trying to look proper and decent when she's, in fact, a prostitute. That man must be her client! What's he so arrogant for?! Ge, don't you think I'm right?"

Wang Qiaoyu said and turned to Zhang Zhuti only for the latter to growl back at her, "Yeah, yeah, right—you f*cking moron! Don't look for me ever again! Troublemaker!"

Once Zhang Zhuti remembered that he nearly offended Yun Jian because of Wang Qiaoyu, he was so enraged that he wanted to slap Wang Qiaoyu.

"Ge? Ge... how could you treat me like this because of her..."

Since Wang Qiaoyu had known Zhang Zhuti, she had never seen him so angry. She wanted to ask Zhang Zhuti who was heading for the door to stay, even had her hand out to grab him, but was flung to the floor by the young man.

"Piss off! Stop calling me ge. I'm not your real brother. Stop trying to make it seem like we're related! You're doing me harm! F*ck!" Zhang Zhuti already felt like killing Wang Qiaoyu. He turned to roar at her and went ahead to the door to leave.

"Uh... can you let us know what happened that cause you to suddenly get so emotional? I think we can calm down and talk it out..."

Zhou Dongxun was eager to know the reason since it involved Yun Jian.

"Talk it out? What's there to talk about?! Do you know who you guys are provoking? It's her! Her! She's the boss of Falcon Hall!"

"That man just now is Falcon Hall's Elder Duan Lei. Would Elder Duan Lei lie? Just stay away from me. I don't want to see you again! Bad luck!"

Zhang Zhuti fled after that, leaving behind Zhou Dongxun, Wang Qiaoyu and others who were stunned.

What did Zhang Zhuti say?

Yun Jian was... Falcon Hall's boss?

She was the scary woman who had spent a little over half a year in leading Falcon Hall to go from Longmen City's top gang to the current top gang in Zhe Province?!

W-what kind of a joke was this?!

Chapter 1465: An Introduction—She’s Slaying Luo

Zhou Dongxun, Wang Qiaoyu and their friends blanched in horror hearing what Zhang Zhuti said. The news was shocking.

Yun Jian had no idea about the terror that took place nor her identity being known by Zhou Dongxun, Wang Qiaoyu and others. She went around the bar counter to a VIP booth with ease—this was her agreed meeting location with Xu Zetian.

Just as she came to the door and was going to open it, a female server with professional makeup stopped her. “Hi, little girl. This is a VIP booth. May I know if you have an appointment?”

The female server was intentionally waiting here because she heard that a VIP was coming today to meet the other hotshots who were already seated inside. That was why she stood here to serve the VIP who was about to come.

Seeing Yun Jian open the door carelessly, the female server assumed her to be a lost young girl in the bar.

“I’m the one who made an appointment with the people inside,” Yun Jian said and pressed down on the door handle.

Just as she did and was going to open the door, the female server put her hand over Yun Jian’s and frowned, holding her temper to tell the latter, “Girl, stop messing around. Those who are inside are important people whom you and I both can’t afford to offend. Be good and go along to play elsewhere...”

“She’s the VIP you’re supposed to receive. You don’t have to come in again tomorrow!” Duan Lei’s voice rang when the female server was trying to stop Yun Jian. One sentence was all it took to decide the female server’s fate.

This young girl in front of her was the VIP she was supposed to serve? The female server paled and bowed to apologize to Yun Jian, “I’m sorry! I wasn’t seeing! Don’t fire me! I’m wrong, please give me another chance!”

The female server did lose her temper a little just now—her furrowed brows a giveaway, and Yun Jian usually did not care about petty issues like this. She opened the door and went in, leaving the decision to fire the female server or not to Duan Lei.

Entering the booth, Yun Jian was first greeted by Xu Zetian who sat in front of her. There were two middle-aged men who sat next to him.

Yun Jian was not here purely to talk about Falcon Hall affairs with Xu Zetian. There were other businesses to take care of.

These two middle-aged men seemed to be in a similar age and had to be at least in their forties. One of them was He Long, the boss of the top gang of Lin Province that was close to Zhe Province, while another was Qi Shangjin, the second in command of the top gang in Gan Province and also a good friend of He Long.

Both He Long and Qi Shangjin were famous names in the mafia world and they had specifically made the trip here to visit Slaying Luo, the boss of Zhe Province's top gang, with the intention to get acquainted.

Just as she stepped in, He Long and Qi Shangjin who thought that Falcon Hall's boss was here and were going to stand up to greet her saw Yun Jian who was a teenage girl.

The soundproofing effect of the booth was excellent, so the inside was unable to hear what happened outside just now.

He Long who had already gotten up opened his mouth looking at Yun Jian before he turned to Xu Zetian with a smile and asked, "Brother Xu, is this girl your daughter?"

Yun Jian was so young that she could easily pass as Xu Zetian's daughter.

Xu Zetian laughed heartily at that and introduced Yun Jian to He Long and Qi Shangjin, the words leaving his mouth shocking them, "Let me introduce her officially. This is Falcon Hall's current boss, Slaying Luo!"

Chapter 1466: No Alliance. Her Audacity

He Long and Qi Shangjin looked shocked after Xu Zetian introduced Yun Jian.

What? This little girl who was ages younger than them was the boss of Falcon Hall, Slaying Luo, whom they were visiting!

The news was far too shocking that He Long and Qi Shangjin froze on the spot, unable to snap out of their surprise for quite some time.

Yun Jian was honestly too young. She was only a teenager and barely came of age. Was she really Slaying Luo who had led Falcon Hall to becoming the current top gang in Zhe Province within just over half a year?!

"Hahaha, surprised? I'm sure you'll be more surprised after this!" Xu Zetian laughed. His admiration and reverence toward Yun Jian was no longer describable in words.

"What do you need me for?" Yun Jian spoke up after Xu Zetian as she went to He Long and Qi Shangjin.

Her demeanor and action did not look like how a child should behave. There was a sense of maturity that He Long and Qi Shangjin could not help but regard the teenage girl properly.

"Cough... Let me introduce ourselves first. I'm He Long, the boss of Riding Cloud and he's Qi Shangjin, the second in command of Searulean. I'm from Lin Province and he's from Gan Province. We're here with the wish to form an alliance with Falcon Hall..."

Seeing that Yun Jian was a mere child, He Long thought that she would definitely agree to form an alliance with his and Qi Shangjin's gangs as he assumed that she was young and naïve.

After all, she was literally a child. She must want to seek gangs who also wanted to form alliances since she had led her members in Falcon Hall in climbing to the top position in Zhe Province. Everyone understood the principle of having an addition friend was one fewer enemy made.

Moreover, there must be a lot of people waiting to eliminate Falcon Hall when it had already come to its peak position now. It had just ascended to being the top gang in Zhe Province. If Yun Jian was smart, she would form alliances with top gangs from other provinces to secure her place.

That was why He Long had brought up his purpose directly, confident that Yun Jian would agree.

She was only a teenage girl. She would definitely want to keep the current position now that she had risen to it.

In spite of it, He Long had miscalculated. Yun Jian rejected him directly, "Falcon Hall will not form any kind of alliance with any gang."

"Why?!" He Long questioned staring at her in shock.

Yun Jian had already gone to an empty leather couch in the booth. She sat down leisurely and crossed her legs; there was a sharp glint as she squinted.

Qi Shangjin was similarly perplexed.

Both their gangs were like Falcon Hall—they were the top gangs in their provinces.

Logically, Yun Jian should agree to their request eagerly as it was a win-win situation for the top gangs to form an alliance. It was especially the case for a young girl like Yun Jian; she should be inexperienced and lack foresight since she was so young. She should agree without any hesitation when a benefit like this presented itself to her.

Just when He Long and Qi Shangjin were bemused, what Yun Jian said next tipped their perception and astonished them, "I'm only accepting gangs that want to join Falcon Hall."

There was a pause before Yun Jian continued audaciously, "Of course, you can choose not to join me, but I believe that I'll be able to forcefully absorb your gang into mine in the near future."

She was confident, arrogant and audacious!

This was the first impression Yun Jian gave to He Long and Qi Shangjin.

She was clear with her intention. She did not want an alliance or collaboration. She just wanted acquisition! She would only accept He Long and Qi Shangjin to join Falcon Hall and work under her. She needed no alliance!

Chapter 1467: Have I Allowed You to Leave?

What Yun Jian said was not just audacious—it was unflinchingly devil-may-care!

Everyone was shocked by her declaration and sense of presence, even Xu Zetian jolted. Back then, this had been how Yun Jian had acquired his Dragon Head Gang as well and renamed it to Falcon Hall. A long time ago, Xu Zetian had invited Yun Jian to join what once used to be Dragon Head Gang but she wanted the whole gang to herself.

The scene just now felt like a replay of what happened a long time ago but what remained the same was that Yun Jian was still as bold! She had the ability and capability to be just that, too!

Dragon Head Gang was only a gang ranking last in Zhe Province back then but with Yun Jian's leadership, it had leaped to its spot as the top gang in Zhe Province today!

Xu Zetian had built Dragon Head Gang from scratch with his brothers, and he, more than anyone, wished that Dragon Head Gang back then, which was the current Falcon Hall, could go higher and further. It was just that becoming the top gang in Longmen City was already Xu Zetian's limit.

Recalling it now, Xu Zetian was even thankful that he had passed the gang to Yun Jian back then. Otherwise, it was needless to say that Dragon Head Gang could hardly maintain their position as the top gang in Longmen City, forget ascending to the top of Zhe Province.

Xu Zetian understood it perfectly, so he chose to trust Yun Jian.

In spite of it, He Long and Qi Shangjin were different. They were here today with the intention of forming an alliance. Yet Yun Jian had told them that she had no plan for that. It was not all—she wanted to acquire all the gangs? It was a fool's dream!

That was why He Long scowled on the spot and warned Yun Jian darkly, "Young one, I think it's not easy and you must be good that you, as Falcon Hall's boss, were able to lead your gang all the way up to the top in Zhe Province!"

"But you're still young and you aren't as seasoned as us whether it's experience or farsightedness! Don't be too ambitious at a young age! Falcon Hall is great but it's not great enough to take over all the other gangs!"

"You should know that there are people better than you and not be so audacious at this young age! One has to know when to back down and advance! Don't think too highly of yourself. Humph, if all the other gangs work together, I'd love to know if we still can't defeat you Falcon Hall then!"

He Long glowered.

Yun Jian said that she would forcefully acquire all the gangs one day.

He Long knew that there was no way an alliance could be formed now. Yun Jian was even claiming to take over all the gangs. Among those, there would be his Riding Cloud and Qi Shangjin's Searulean. Since she had already made it explicit, He Long did not find the need to be courteous.

"Shangjin, let's go!" He Long said and wanted to leave with Qi Shangjin, turning around madly after reprimanding Yun Jian.

They were here to form an alliance with Yun Jian but the latter was tactless to make such brazen claims!

Just when He Long and Qi Shangjin went to the door and were about to open it, Yun Jian's unnerving voice came from the back, "Very brazen of you to be acting like this in my territory... Have I allowed you to leave?"

As she spoke, He Long and Qi Shangjin felt a strong murderous intent coming for them from their back. They turned in unison only to see two curved knives flying toward them! The blades were thrown from a long way but they were so sharp that they horrified both the men.

They stepped aside and barely managed to avoid the lethal knives coming for them but they were not fast enough, causing their arms to be cut and bled from the blades.

By the time He Long and Qi Shangjin broke out of their daze, they widened their eyes at Yun Jian who had yet to get up from the couch. Just two flying knives from here could already injure them and they were unable to even avoid the attack!

The speed was incredible!

He Long and Qi Shangjin were appalled. If they guessed it right, Yun Jian had yet to show her full ability. If she did, both of them might not even last one exchange under her flying knives! How could she be so terrifyingly skilled?!

Chapter 1468: Preparing for the Birthday. Unexpected

He Long and Qi Shangjin were baffled and they ultimately scrambled in escaping. Yun Jian did not make things hard for them either.

After all, He Long represented the power of the best gang in the whole of Lin Province while Qi Shangjin stood for the influence of the top gang in the whole of Gan Province.

The gangs they were from stood equal in status and significance with Falcon Hall.

If Yun Jian did kill these two men, it would not benefit her in any way—and she would never do something unbeneficial.

Watching the men leave the VIP booth, Yun Jian narrowed her eyes and told Xu Zetian behind her, “Send some men to keep an eye on them. I want them to be eliminated within a year!”

One year would be the maximum for her to lead Falcon Hall to acquiring all the gangs in Country Z!

Xu Zetian was thrilled hearing what she said. Yun Jian’s ambitiousness was what he liked about her!

“Got it!” Xu Zetian nodded firmly.

She first returned to the mansion she stayed with Si Yi. Just as she opened the door, she was greeted with a familiar sense of a man before she was embraced by it.

“I thought you won’t be able to make it back?” Yun Jian asked, unfazed that she was pulled into the arms of the familiar sense of the man.

“Of course I have to be back for my mother-in-law’s birthday,” Si Yi replied softly as he rubbed Yun Jian’s head; he was tall and the top of Yun Jian’s head had only reached his chin.

Holding back his urge to kill Snow Eagle, Si Yi let go of Yun Jian reluctantly and yelled back with a glower, “Get your *ss down!”

She was tailing Snow Eagle carefully as she walked downstairs as light as possible. Snow Eagle had even held Si Luo’s hand when they went down the staircase. Si Luo looked at him a little timidly, scared that she would be called stupid if she did not follow his instructions.

That was why it took Si Luo some time as she hesitated before she slotted her hand into Snow Eagle’s extended one and was guided downstairs carefully.

Qin Yirou finished work at 5:30pm. Currently, the house was a bustling mess. Ge Junjian was cooking personally and was still in the kitchen wearing an apron.

The decoration was completed. Yun Yi and Qing You, Snow Eagle and Si Luo, Yun Zhu, Duan Li and Duan Ya, as well as Mo Sen—everyone who should be around was already here.

The doorbell rang right at 5:45pm. Qin Yirou usually came home from work at this time, so Yun Jian ran over to open the door in her slippers.

Despite that, she was not greeted by Qin Yirou when the door opened. It was Lu Lanhua, her supposed grandmother and Yun Gang’s birth mother.

Yun Jian’s expression froze, not expecting to see the woman here. She still remembered how Lu Lanhua had treated Qin Yirou and how shameless she had been back then.

Just when Yun Jian wanted to chase Lu Lanhua off, she suddenly got on her knees and cried, “Please, I beg you! Save Gang’er! Save him! You’re his birth daughter! His legs were already crippled! Please! I know that you’re New Cruise’s director. Save him! Save your birth father!”

Chapter 1469: I’ll Break Your Legs First

The last time Yun Gang went gambling again and could not repay his debt, Yun Jian had saved Yun Zheng and family who were innocently implicated. She did not care about Yun Gang’s life.

Yun Jian had said a long time ago that Yun Gang’s life and death were no longer related to her after she settled the five thousand yuan that he had lost in gambling.

Firstly, she was not Yun Gang’s biological daughter and Yun Gang did not fulfil a father’s duty toward her. There was no need for her to take care of him like he was a kind father.

Moreover, Yun Gang abandoned his family when he lost money in gambling and his mistress had even humiliated and insulted Qin Yirou later on. Yun Jian still remembered vividly how Lu Lanhua had told Qin Yirou that it was common for men to have affairs.

With the door opened and Lu Lanhua dropping to her knees in front of Yun Jian right at Ge Junjian's door, passersby and neighbors would easily see the sight even when this was a mansion residential area.

Putting aside why Lu Lanhua had come to Yun Jian, the fact that she was choosing this hour of the day where people finished work to kneel down before Yun Jian at the door must be because she expected that Yun Jian would be embarrassed and had to help her into the house soon enough.

If it had been others, they might really pull Lu Lanhua who was on the floor up—be it for their pride or their sympathy toward the old woman. This was not the case for Yun Jian, though.

“Gang'er's legs were broken the last time and he has problem walking even now... Th-those people won't let him go, they said that they'd kill him! You're Gang'er's daughter! No daughter will abandon her father like this! Save him! Save him!”

As Lu Lanhua cried, she tried to cling to Yun Jian's legs with both her hands, waiting for the latter to pull her up from the floor. She cursed Yun Jian in her head, however, wondering how long the girl was going to let her stay on her knees when she still made no move to help her up.

Lu Lanhua actually wanted to get Yun Jian's sympathy and be invited into the house from it. Once she had a seat, she would begin lamenting her sufferings and ask Ge Junjian or Qin Yirou to take her in.

It was unexpected that the damned girl, Yun Jian, had let her stay kneeling at the door! She actually made her own grandmother kneel for so long!

“I've made it clear that he's no longer related to me. You don't have to beg me here. Even if you stay kneeling until next year, I won't sympathize with you and let you in. Also, if you keep being a nuisance, I'll go kill him now before those guys cripple him!” Yun Jian spoke clearly.

It did not sit well with her that it was Qin Yirou's birthday today yet Lu Lanhua took the opportunity to play the pity party.

Luckily, Qin Yirou was not home yet. Otherwise, the past would only upset her each time she had to face it since no one would want to recall one that was not pleasant.

“You! You're killing your father! Goodness, how could such an evil daughter like you exist in this world?!”

Lu Lanhua was shocked by what Yun Jian said. She was used to cursing and admonishing Qin Yirou and Yun Jian before Qin Yirou divorced Yun Gang, so she could hardly change out of her habit now.

Yun Jian frowned before grabbing Lu Lanhua's collar to drag her to the mansion's gate while the latter cried and wailed.

“Hey, you—what are you doing? Yun Jian—Xiao Jian, you can't treat your grandmother like this, I'm your biological grandmother. I wasn't bad to you last time, right? Ah!”

The shrill cry at the end was because Yun Jian had thrown Lu Lanhua out of the gate.

The neighbors loved gossiping and watching dramas unfold. With something so interesting going on, they crowded over to watch—seeing Yun Jian drag a lump of something before she throw it out of the mansion next.

Yun Jian told Lu Lanhua in front of everyone without a care that her family scandal was being exposed, “If you step into my house again, I’ll break your legs first regardless of the matter!”

Chapter 1470: Twisting the Truth and Spitting the Denture

What Yun Jian said caused the neighbors who were watching to blink their eyes.

The moment she said that, Lu Lanhua sprawled on the ground and yelled unreasonably, “Justice! Does justice still prevail?! She’s hitting even her own grandmother! It’s too much! Too much! Folks, be the judge!”

Lu Lanhua hit her own thighs and cried like a homeless person but as she did, she recounted the tale in exaggeration while intentionally skipping her mistreatment to Yun Jian and Qin Yirou.

“Her father’s legs are no good now! But look at them! The mother remarries a military man and lives happily now! The daughter beats her own grandmother up and chases her out! Is justice dead? Where’s the police? Where’ve they gone to? Call them so they can be the judge of this!”

“All of you are ganging up on an old lady like me! You’re bullying an old, frail woman like me! T-This is outrageous!”

Lu Lanhua cried louder and more dramatically seeing more of Qin Yirou’s neighbors were gathering around.

Those who did not know better actually thought that Qin Yirou left Yun Gang after his legs were crippled to marry Ge Junjian who was rich while Yun Jian was stopping her own grandmother from visiting them.

Before Yun Jian could explain, what Lu Lanhua said had already stirred comments and criticism from the crowd.

“Tsk, I didn’t expect Ge Junjian’s current wife to be a woman like this. I heard that Ge Junjian’s stayed single for years after his divorce and he’s gotten married again suddenly. The new wife already has a family of her own and I heard that she comes from the backward village town.”

“Tsch! I think Officer Ge must’ve been tricked into marrying her. She must be a loose woman herself! Abandoning her handicapped husband, even! A woman like this should be drowned!”

“Right? I didn’t know Qin Yirou’s someone like that! She was decent when she greeted us last time but... we really can’t judge a book by its cover!”

Gossipers were ever present whether it was in the village or city, and they would always be there gossiping whenever something happened in a household. During this era, people despised women who left their husband for another man be it in the village or city.

What Lu Lanhua said was completely a twist of the truth. She was making it certain that Yun Jian and Qin Yirou would never get to get rid of her and Yun Gang!

Did her granddaughter think that she could really kick her off after she had started a company and gotten rich? Please, they were related by blood!

Moreover, Yun Gang's legs were broken not too long ago and they could not even afford the hospital fee. Lu Lanhua thought that she would kick up a fuss and ruin Yun Jian and Qin Yirou's reputation if Yun Jian refused to pay her.

People at this time regarded their reputation highly. With Lu Lanhua crying and wailing and hitting her own thigh sitting on the ground, the crowd bought into her lies. No one saw that Yun Jian's expression was increasingly darker.

Si Yi did not follow her out since he knew that she could resolve a petty matter like this on her own. Ge Junjian was cooking in the kitchen, so he had no idea what was going on either.

Yun Yi was the only one standing next to Yun Jian because the only people who could speak about this were the two of them.

Lu Lanhua who saw that the crowd was on her side rambled on more excitedly. Yun Jian was in no hurry to speak as she watched with her arms crossed.

By the time Lu Lanhua was done crying about her sufferings that had never happened, Yun Jian spoke up icily, "Are you done?"

The impassive question ran a shudder through Lu Lanhua but she felt that Yun Jian would not dare do a thing to her when there were so many people around, so she retorted, "Impossible. A wh*re like your mother who abandons her own husband... She..."

Lu Lanhua was doing this because she thought that Yun Jian would find the commotion she caused detrimental to her reputation and would give her some money to stop her from saying more since she was rich now.

However, Yun Jian stepped forward and slapped Lu Lanhua right as she said that, sending the latter to the ground and causing her to spit her denture.

The power in that slap nearly deformed Lu Lanhua's face!
