

Schoolgirl 1681

Chapter 1681: come and see me, or he will die

When Yun Jian entered the classroom and asked them who the school bully of No. 1 High School was, all the students in No. 1 High School's Class 6 thought that Yun Jian was a student of some school.

Zhang Chengjun was very famous in all the schools in Longmen City. Because of his good looks and good grades, many high school students in Longmen City knew about him.

Even some junior high school students knew of Zhang Chengjun.

Therefore, all the students thought that Yun Jian came to the class to ask about him because she adored Zhang Chengjun, the school beauty who was publicly recognized and selected by their school.

However, no one expected that Yun Jian, who gave the impression of a delicate and weak high school girl, would appear on the scene. She suddenly flashed a few times and appeared in front of Zhang Chengjun in a flash.

She was like a martial artist!

Seeing an ordinary girl use such a powerful ability, everyone present was dumbfounded.

However, this was not the end.

The students in the class saw Yun Jian appear in front of Zhang Chengjun in a flash. At the moment when Zhang Chengjun felt very good about himself, she flipped her hand and stabbed Zhang Chengjun's thigh before everyone could react.

Then, she said the words that made the pupils of all the students in Zhang Chengjun's class narrow.

"Ah! Ah! Ah!" However, at this moment, Zhang Chengjun's piercing scream had already sounded.

Being stabbed directly in the thigh by Yun Jian, the pain was far more real and terrifying than they had imagined.

The surrounding students who saw this scene were so scared that they rushed out of the classroom to call for the teacher.

Only a few of the braver ones, or a few of Zhang Chengjun's friends, remained in the classroom.

"You... You're Chen Xinyi's friend! ? Why didn't she ever say that she has such a powerful friend like you! ?" Otherwise, they would never have provoked Chen Xinyi!

The few boys in the class who were hanging out with Zhang Chengjun, and even this time when Chen Xinyi was in trouble, were all instigating Zhang Chengjun, causing the incident. They were so scared that their faces turned pale.

When they heard Yun Jian asking about Zhang Chengjun just now, they were still standing at the side, teasing and exaggerating as they whistled and watched the show.

At this moment, all of them were scared half to death.

Yun Jian's skill was obviously not an ordinary person. Wasn't Chen Xinyi just the daughter of a wealthy businessman? How did she know such a terrifying friend?

How could a normal girl rush up and throw a knife into a person's thigh!

Such a terrifying scene would scare normal girls even if they imagined it, but what about her?

After she stabbed Zhang Chengjun in the thigh, she said those words without changing her expression.

"Teacher Guo! Right Here! A girl rushed into our class and stabbed Zhang Chengjun in the leg with a knife!"

The trembling voice of the student who ran out to call for the teacher immediately sounded outside the classroom.

Soon, a male teacher with a huge lump of fat on his abdomen and a shiny scalp walked into the classroom with the support of the crowd.

The moment this male teacher, who was called teacher Guo, entered the classroom, the students at the scene quieted down.

Seeing Zhang Chengjun rolling on the ground, teacher Guo's face darkened. He shouted to the surrounding students, "Quickly call an ambulance!"

After shouting, teacher Guo looked at the cloud note and said fiercely,

"Which school are you from? ! How did you get in? ! How dare you hurt someone in our school! Don't think that you can't get into the police station before you turn 18. If you dare to hurt someone in public, you will definitely go to the juvenile detention center for eight to ten years!"

Zhang Chengjun's family background was not ordinary! Now that Zhang Chengjun had an accident at school, Zhang Chengjun's family would naturally not let Yun Jian go!

Seeing teacher Guo appear, Zhang Chengjun's friends, who were afraid of Yun Jian earlier, calmed down a little.

Teacher Guo was a physical education teacher at No. 1 High School. At the same time, he had undergone strict training.

His strength was naturally different from ordinary people. With teacher Guo around, everyone was sure that Yun Jian would not dare to do anything.

However, after Yun Jian heard teacher Guo's words, she coldly curved her leg and stepped on the butterfly knife that had pierced into Zhang Chengjun's thigh, sending the knife inside again.

This time, Zhang Chengjun was in so much pain that he curled up and fainted in the end.

The surrounding people looked at Yun Jian in disbelief, who still dared to make a move. However, hearing Yun Jian's words, they coldly and arrogantly said,

“Tell Your No. 1 High School’s principal to come and see me immediately. Otherwise, I’ll kill him right now!”

As she spoke, Yun Zhi stepped on the butterfly knife and once again thrust the knife at Zhang Chengjun’s thigh. Her expression was so cold that it made people shiver in fear. She was like the Grim Reaper of hell. Every word and action made everyone present tremble.

Chapter 1682: then I’ll Blow You Up

She wasn’t joking!

At this moment, everyone was shocked by Yun Jian’s actions and actions.

If the first slash wasn’t enough to make Zhang Chengjun faint, then Yun Jian stepping on his wound a few more times later was simply fatal! Ordinary girls would feel scared when they saw such a scene, but what about this girl?

Not only was she not afraid, she even did something even more shocking!

“Go and call the principal!” Teacher Guo, who had been very calm a moment ago, was now panicking. He was so scared that his face turned into an uproar and he hurriedly shouted at the students behind him.

If one’s aura could support the sky, then the aura of the cloud paper was enough to make teacher Guo’s legs go weak with fear.

Before becoming a physical education teacher, teacher Guo had gone through professional strength training.

Although teacher Guo’s body was full of fat, when he fought, his speed was faster and nimbler than most people.

But in front of Yun Jian’s aura, teacher Guo didn’t dare to say a word.

After about three minutes, the principal of No. 1 High School was hurriedly called here.

Seeing Zhang Chengjun faint on the ground and his thigh bleeding non-stop, the principal of No. 1 High School’s face instantly turned extremely pale.

Zhang Chengjun’s family background was not ordinary! The company his parents owned was famous in the entire Zhejiang province!

And most importantly, Zhang Chengjun’s father was the school director of No. 1 High School!

If Zhang Chengjun’s father knew that something had happened to Zhang Chengjun in the school, then would he still want to be the principal!

Therefore, principal Shi of No. 1 High School was scared silly when he saw this scene.

“You, you, you! Stop!” Seeing Yun Jian dealing with Zhang Chengjun, principal Shi was so scared that she rushed over to stop him.

“You can come over, but my knife doesn’t have eyes.” Seeing this, Yun Jian flipped her hand and held another butterfly knife in her palm.

Then, she swung the butterfly knife and placed it on the neck of Zhang Chengjun who had fainted at the fastest speed.

“It’s the knife again! How many knives does she have on her! ? Why Can’t I tell that she has a weapon just by looking at her appearance! Is she a spy from the movie! ? She can actually hide a weapon on her body!”

When the surrounding students saw Yun Jian take out another butterfly knife, they immediately stared in horror.

Even if an ordinary person hid money on their body, they could not make any sound, let alone guarantee that the money would be hidden in their clothes and would not be lost.

However, she had hidden two butterfly knives. These two butterfly knives were not small. Even if she were to hide them on her body, there was actually no flaw at all!

Was this something that an ordinary girl could do! !

“No, no, no! Stop! Stop! I will do my best to satisfy you! As long as you put down the knife...” principal shi was scared out of his wits by Yun Jian’s actions. He waved his hand at Yun Jian to show his weakness.

Hearing this, Yun Jian kicked away the unconscious Zhang Chengjun. She naturally disdained to use Zhang Chengjun to threaten others.

In just two short steps, Yun Jian walked in front of principal Shi and the others. She looked at principal Shi and the others and said with an extremely calm and unchanging expression,

“Chen Xinyi, who was pushed down from the second floor this morning, was my friend. She was almost declared dead and was barely saved now. However, because of the great sequelae left behind by this incident, I request your school to deal with it impartially.”

The culprit who pushed Chen Xinyi down from the second floor was the ugliest girl in No. 1 High School. Her name was Chen Yaqing.

After Chen Xinyi’s accident, Chen Yaqing was brought home by her family.

Because Chen Yaqing came from a wealthy family, her father was the richest man in the entire southern region. His wealth was priceless, so principal shi did not dare to expose Chen Yaqing at all.

To put it plainly, even if Chen Xinyi died, Chen Yaqing and Zhang Chengjun, who were the main culprits, would not be harmed at all. The two of them went to school where they were supposed to, and in the end, they carelessly used underage accidents to injure others to avoid it, this matter ended just like that.

When he heard that Yun Jian actually wanted him to deal with it impartially, principal Shi was so scared that his face turned pale.

He would rather provoke Zhang Chengjun’s family than provoke Chen Yaqing’s family!

“What if I don’t agree!” Principal Shi’s voice also became a little brighter.

Compared to Zhang Chengjun, Chen Yaqing's family background was even more terrifying!

"Then I'll bomb your entire No. 1 High School!" After principal Shi finished speaking, Yun Jian's arrogant words followed up one after another, allowing everyone present to hear it clearly.

Chapter 1683: blew up the principal's office

Yun Jian's unbridled words were like a landmine, spreading to every corner of the room. Everyone present was stunned for a moment.

When they came back to their senses, they were shocked and bewildered.

Bombed No. 1 High School?

She had the ability to bomb the entire No. 1 High School?

All the students present were slightly shocked.

"Look, look, look, she said she was going to bomb No. 1 High School!" After hearing Yun Jian's words, some students were slightly stunned for two seconds before they laughed out loud.

Although these students really thought that if Yun Jian really had the ability to bomb No. 1 high school, they would have a good relationship!

However, the problem was that a teenage girl like her actually said that she was going to bomb No. 1 High School.

Wouldn't she be laughing herself to death if she said such words?

When the surrounding students heard Yun Jian's words, they burst into laughter. However, when principal Shi and teacher Guo heard these words, they couldn't laugh at all.

"You are so arrogant despite your young age. As the principal of No. 1 High School, I have already given you a chance, but you are so stubborn! You are simply a lunatic!" Principal Shi gritted his teeth and shouted at Yun Jian.

At this moment, even principal Shi was angered by Yun Jian's words.

When Yun Jian heard this, she curled her lips coldly.

Then, in front of principal Shi, Yun Jian made a call. "Coordinate City No. 1 high school principal's office. Lock and blow it up."

Everyone who thought Yun Jian was joking thought that Yun Jian was really crazy.

"She came out of the mental hospital, right? Everyone, let's rush up and tie her up and send her back to the mental hospital!"

A male student next to him seemed to have come to his senses. He pointed at Yun Jian and said to everyone.

Other than mental patients, who else would do such a thing?

Besides a psychopath, no one else would do something like what Yun Jian did, right?

She stabbed someone in the thigh, said she was going to bomb the school, and even dialed a number. How could a normal person do such a thing? !

In fact, the male students only said this because they wanted to take a few bites of Yun Jian's tofu when they rushed over to tie up Yun Jian.

Even if Yun Jian was really a psychopath, there was such a beautiful psychopath in the world. The surrounding boys all thought that if Yun Jian was really a psychopath, when Yun Jian returned to the mental hospital., they would definitely go to the mental hospital to look for her one by one.

They would do something disgusting!

The boys who were at the age of youth would not and did not like to think too much about the future. However, regarding some forbidden things that could not be done, some of the boys even had to do it in order to show off their prowess.

As a result, many girls in reality were deceived by the boys at this age with flowery words. In the end, they ended up with extremely tragic results.

After these boys heard the words of the male student just now, they all fantasized that if Yun Jian was really a patient who ran out of the mental hospital, then they could do whatever they wanted...

However, just as this group of boys who made people feel disgusted were imagining things that people were unable to accept, and all of them were about to walk over to the Yun Jian, trying to suppress the Yun Jian together.

In the distance, they heard a loud boom from the office building. "Boom!"

The sound was so loud that it seemed as if the eaves were about to collapse.

Hearing the loud noise, the boys, principal shi, teacher Guo, and the others were shocked.

After the explosion, principal Shi suddenly shivered. He came to his senses and ran from the classroom to the corridor as fast as he could.

From the classroom corridor, he could see the scene of the office building in the distance.

At this moment, everyone could clearly see that the office building in the distance, except for the room in the principal's office, had been directly destroyed. The other rooms in the other office buildings were intact.

The principal who saw this scene immediately screamed, "My office! ! ! My Office..."

At this point, the principal and all the students present looked at Yun Jian fiercely.

She...

What she said just now... was true!

Who Was She! ! She could actually order people to directly lock onto and blow up an office!

At this moment, everyone's expression was as if they had eaten dog sh * t. it was so ugly that they couldn't bear to look at her.

Then she said to bomb the entire No. 1 middle school, is really not a joke!

Chapter 1684: handled safely

Everyone present was shocked.

Especially principal shi.

"You... You, you, you... you... You, you, you, you..."

Principal Shi was scared out of his wits. After a long time, he used his trembling hands to point at the cloud paper. His whole body trembled and he shouted a series of "You" words, but in the end, he couldn't say a word.

...

He could focus on the sniper point of the office building.

Qing Yan clapped his hands and took back the small self-made cannon that was aimed at the principal's office.

"The power is not bad. When these two potions are mixed together, they can create a big explosion. It gives people the feeling that it is no different from a cannon attacking the floor, but in fact..."

"If the police came down to investigate, they would only be able to find the explosion caused by the two chemicals. As for the school, they also have chemical potions, so the final result of the investigation could only be that the principal's office had accidentally placed two bottles of chemical potions, causing a natural disaster."

"No matter what, they would never have guessed that sister Jian had it. HMM... perfect, let's call it a day!"

Qing Yan put the small self-made cannon back into her kit and clapped her hands. She turned her head and smiled at Gu Nianzhi.

Gu Nianzhi's scalp tingled at the sight of her smile.

So that was how it could be played?

Using chemicals to create the illusion that the cannon had exploded.

If the cannon had really been used to destroy the principal's office, the police would definitely investigate.

After all, Yun Jian still had to survive in Longmen City.

It had to be said that the poison green glaze was researching had gone to the next level. This time, it had directly turned into a chemical solution.

Gu Nianzhi suddenly grabbed green glaze. She blinked her mischievous eyes and said to green glaze, "Green glaze, take me in as your disciple, Huh? Huh? Huh? Huh?"

Gu Nianzhi's eyelashes fluttered up and down every time she uttered the word "Huh."

"I'm hungry. I want to eat ten catties of hairy crabs and lobsters." Qing Yan suddenly put her hand on her stomach and glanced at Gu Nianzhi with a look that said, "Treat me, treat me."

"It's a small matter. Let's Go! Let's wrap up and have a big meal!" Gu Nianzhi wrapped her arm around Qing Yan's shoulders and the two of them left the classroom.

...

Inside and outside the classroom corridor.

Principal Shi was petrified by the shock. The students around him were all dumbfounded.

At this moment, no one was normal.

After recovering from their shock, everyone present shifted their gaze back to the cloud tablet.

They saw the cloud tablet standing in its original spot shoot a cold glance at principal shi. Then, the cloud tablet looked around and said to all the students present,

"If you're smart, when the higher-ups come down to investigate my friend's incident, tell them truthfully that there shouldn't be any favoritism. Otherwise, don't blame me for blowing up everyone's home! Oh... .. right, I will blow up the office together with your people!"

There was no one in the principal's office, so the only thing that was destroyed was the principal's office.

The purpose of the cloud note was only to scare everyone present.

The stab to Zhang Chengjun just now wasn't fatal, but Zhang Chengjun would never be able to walk on that leg again in this lifetime!

As for what the cloud note just said, if the cloud note didn't mention this incident, then everyone present, including principal Shi and teacher Guo.

When the police came to investigate Chen Xinyi's case, whether it was principal shi, teacher Guo, or everyone present, they would definitely point out that Chen Xinyi had accidentally fallen from the second floor.

As for Chen Xinyi being pushed down from the second floor by Chen Yaqing, as long as one was not stupid, they would know who to help.

In addition, if Yun Jian had not made a move earlier, Chen Xinyi would have already been determined to be dead.

Therefore, the final result could only be that even if Chen Xinyi died, the culprit would not receive retribution!

Because Chen Xinyi was at school, all the witnesses said that Chen Xinyi fell from the second floor by herself. Then, even if Chen Xinyi's parents went to court to fight against Chen Yaqing, they would not be able to win!

However, with Yun Jian's threat, it was impossible for Chen Yaqing to be completely fine after this incident.

After all, the law was still fair. Of course, before that, there had to be conclusive evidence!

Chapter 1685: I accepted without hesitation

Zhang Chengjun was quickly sent to the hospital by the ambulance.

Yun Jian was about to leave No. 1 high school. At this moment, no one dared to stop her.

With such a terrifying person, everyone present couldn't wait for Yun Jian to leave.

Principal Shi was even more afraid to stop Yun Jian.

But of course, this matter couldn't be let go just like that! She had blown up her office! The police would definitely come down to investigate! When the time came, she would say a few more words, including the matter of Zhang Chengjun being injured, and let the police deal with the cloud note!

At this moment, principal Shi did not know that her office looked like it had been blown up by a cannon, but in fact, it was just a huge explosion caused by two bottles of chemicals mixed together.

After Yun Jian left the entrance of a high school, he took a taxi to a villa forest in Longmen City.

The taxi also went to the headquarters of the new Start Company and Falcon Palace.

Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen followed closely in the car at the headquarters of the new Start Company and Falcon Palace.

"That girl named Chen Yaqing is the daughter of Chen Fugui. This Chen Fugui is the richest and most powerful millionaire in our southern region. He currently lives in the Villa Forest on Jiefang Road in Longmen City."

As soon as Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen got in the car, Ling Yichen told Yun Jian about the information he got from Falcon Palace.

Zhang Shaofeng, Chen Xinyi, and Ling Yichen had nothing to do on weekdays. They were all helping Zhang Zhifan manage the new startup company.

Later, the new startup company and Falcon Palace worked together. Zhang Shaofeng and the other two secretly managed Falcon Palace together.

It could be said that Zhang Shaofeng and the other two were all talented people with a lot of tricks up their sleeves. Now that the new startup company had become the leading brand in Z Nation, they couldn't do without the help of Zhang Shaofeng and the other two.

If Chen Yaqing knew that Chen Xinyi was working for the new start company, she would definitely not dare to do anything to Chen Xinyi.

This was because although Chen Yaqing's father was the richest man in the southern region, compared to the new start company, he was not even worth mentioning.

"Go to Jiefang Road." Yun Jian's face darkened as he said four words to the taxi driver.

...

Jiefang Road, Villa Forest.

There were many villas here, but only one villa was the biggest one on Jiefang Road.

This villa was naturally Chen Yaqing's house.

At this moment, the guard at the gate of the villa was still munching on melon seeds to guard the door.

At first glance, he saw a slim girl followed by two handsome boys who each had their own strengths walking over.

The girl walked at the front, and the two young men behind her were like her subordinates.

The guard thought so because the girl's aura was too strong.

It was so strong that the guard could only watch as Yun Jian stood in front of the door, cracked the password lock, and walked into the villa in three seconds. He only reacted after he walked far away.

"Hey, Hey, Hey! You Can't leave! You Can't Leave!" When the guard chased after them, Yun Jian and the other two had already disappeared.

Wealthy families often held parties.

At this moment, Chen Fugui invited all the socialites and handsome men of the same age from the upper-class society to hold parties at his house.

Chen Yaqing was also wearing a gorgeous gown. She chatted with the handsome men of the upper-class society as if nothing had happened.

"Your Daughter is becoming more and more beautiful." In the corner, a bald middle-aged man praised Chen Yaqing.

In fact, Chen Yaqing was so ugly that no one could match her.

When Chen Fugui heard this, he was overjoyed. He nodded and clinked the middle-aged man's wine glass.

However, the moment the two wine glasses collided, the door was kicked away. The door was not kicked open, but it was kicked open from the outside. The entire door was spread out on the ground like a carpet.

This sudden scene shocked everyone present.

Outside the door, a slim girl stopped and entered, followed by two handsome men.

Seeing that this girl was the one who kicked the door open, Chen Fugui was stunned. He didn't invite her, right?

He actually dared to kick open his door!

"Who are you? What are you doing here! Do you know what this place is? How dare you be so arrogant!" Chen Fugui stood up and shouted at Yun Jian.

"I am the chairman of the new Start Company and the boss of the Falcon Palace, Luo Sha. Chen Fugui, your daughter caused my friend to fall from the second floor and break his head. Today, I will accept your position as the richest man in the Southern Region!"

Chapter 1686: defeating the strong, girl

"I'll accept your position as the richest man in the Southern Region!"

Yun Jian's arrogant words rang out after Chen Fugui finished speaking and reached the ears of everyone present.

Yun Jian's words carried an unignorable arrogance, especially the last sentence she said, which attracted the attention of everyone present.

Even Chen Fugui couldn't help but bulge his eyes as he looked at Yun Jian who had broken into the room.

Everyone present was stunned.

After being stunned, there was a deathly silence.

After a long while, someone finally spoke.

"The chairman of the New Start Company? The boss of Falcon Palace, Raksha? Fugui, who is this little sister?" After being stunned for a while, a middle-aged man asked in surprise.

The person who asked was a middle-aged man who was invited by Chen Fugui to this party. He was also very wealthy.

"This little sister even claimed to be the chairman of the new Start Company, the boss of Falcon Palace, Raksha!" "Fugui, are you bullying this little girl again? Haha, you even came looking for her!" "Does sister-in-law know about this?"

Just as the middle-aged man's surprised voice fell, a laugh rang out.

It was an old man in his fifties or sixties who was about to enter his old age.

The old man smiled wickedly and said to Chen Fugui with a wicked look.

Chen Fugui was the richest man in the southern region, which was also the richest man in the entire southern region of Z nation.

Men who had money wanted to be unfaithful. This was not just a saying. Usually, a man like Chen Fugui would not bring his mistress and mistress home, but he still kept countless mistresses outside.

Chen Fugui's wife naturally would not care. She only needed to protect her position as the wife and the family's property. She did not care how many mistresses Chen Fugui had, as long as she did not give the family's property to the mistresses, everything was easy to talk about.

Many rich men were like this.

This led to the old man's suspicion that Yun Jian was one of Chen Fugui's female students after he saw Yun Jian's hostile words towards Chen Fugui?

Chen Fugui was already half a step into his coffin! This taste was really too big!

As for what Yun Jian said just now, everyone did not listen to a single word after the old man interrupted them.

Everyone only felt Yun Jian's arrogance, but they directly ignored what Yun Jian said just now.

"TSK, he didn't learn well at such a young age, yet he learned to be someone else's mistress? and he even used the new start company and Falcon Palace as a shield?"

"He's so beautiful. Look at him. His figure is slim, but his chest... could it be that he's being doted on by men?"

...

The old men around them sneered at Yun Jian, mixed with uncontrollable lust.

It had to be said that Yun Jian was really beautiful. The old men around him were really rich.

The rich old men naturally thought more.

However, only Chen Fugui knew that he had never seen Yun Jian before!

After the surrounding public opinion started to sound, Yun Jian's eyes flashed.

"Dad, I don't know her! Quickly get someone to chase her away!" Chen Ya Qing was dressed in a gorgeous princess gown. She was ugly and no matter how she dressed, it was futile.

After Chen Ya Qing finished speaking, the people around her who were lying with their eyes wide open gradually stopped talking.

"It's okay if you don't know me. It's enough that you know Chen Xin Yi." Yun Jian followed up after Chen Ya Qing finished her sentence.

After saying that, Yun Jian narrowed his eyes and continued to sneer, "Because I will replace her and let you go to Hell!"

After listening to his daughter and Yun Jian's words, Chen Fugui was very clear that Yun Jian must have come because of Chen Xin Yi's matter in the morning.

Chen Fugui didn't care about the matter in the morning at first because even if Chen Xinyi died, it was just an unknown minor character who died. He could just casually send money away.

However, Chen Xinyi's relatives and friends came to his house. This was a threat to his and his daughter's personal safety!

Therefore, Chen Fugui's face immediately darkened.

"Bodyguard! Where are the bodyguards? Quickly throw this lunatic out!" Chen Fugui immediately took out a walkie-talkie and said a few words to the walkie-talkie.

After he finished speaking, more than ten bodyguards immediately rushed in from the main entrance. Looking at their sturdy bodies, all of them were not ordinary.

"If you want to fight with me, do you think you are worthy?" Yun Jian curled her lips coldly. After she finished speaking, she flipped her hand and an exquisite butterfly knife appeared in the eyes of everyone present.

"Knife! She actually carried a knife with her!" The moment they saw Yun Jian's knife, everyone cried out in shock and immediately found a hidden corner to hide.

All of them were extremely weak.

However, just as everyone was stunned, Rich Chen swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

Among the dozen bodyguards surrounding Yun Jian, one of them suddenly looked at Yun Jian and shouted in front of everyone. He retreated to a corner in fear and didn't dare to fight Yun Jian:

"You... aren't you the girl who defeated the head bodyguard Lin Kui at our cheetah bodyguard company last time!"

Chapter 1687: What Do You Want? I want her dead

This bodyguard was obviously one of the bodyguards who had witnessed Yun Jian defeat Lin Kui, the chief bodyguard of Cheetah Bodyguard Company, when he went to Cheetah Bodyguard Company for training.

This bodyguard was a member of Cheetah Bodyguard Company.

At this moment, seeing Yun Jian recall Yun Jian's skills at that time, he was almost scared to death.

This bodyguard was hired by Chen Fugui to protect his personal safety. Coincidentally, he was a bodyguard of the Cheetah Bodyguard Company.

But after seeing Yun Jian, this bodyguard actually retreated to a corner?

And what did this bodyguard say just now?

"Lin Kui is the most powerful chief bodyguard of the Cheetah Bodyguard Company! A big shot like Lin Kui is a famous big shot even in the world!"

“You mean she defeated Lin Kui? How... How is this possible?”

The Old Man’s face, which had caused everyone to have a different opinion of Yun Jian, gradually darkened. His face was changing as fast as light.

The old man’s eyes widened in horror. He looked at Yun Jian in disbelief and asked in horror.

Who Was Lin Kui?

For example, even Chen Fugui, the richest man in the southern region, could not hire Lin Kui as his bodyguard.

Only an absolutely important person could hire someone of Lin Kui’s status.

Moreover, Lin Kui’s status in the world was well known.

Hiring a bodyguard was a way for some rich people to protect their lives.

No matter what kind of accident happened to a bodyguard, they would not evacuate before the employer left safely.

If the bodyguard did that, it would be a violation of the contract and the compensation would be deducted. The bodyguard company even had to compensate the employer for the bodyguard.

Not only that, it would also affect the company’s reputation.

All the bodyguards knew this, so sometimes, even if it was a threat to their own lives, they would not back down.

However, the bodyguard who said that Yun Zhi defeated Lin Kui was frightened by Yun Zhi and retreated to a corner.

It could be imagined that in his impression, Yun Zhi was even more terrifying than paying the employer double the compensation!

Therefore, everyone present was frightened by the bodyguard’s actions and behavior.

“How is it impossible? I saw her defeat Lin Kui with my own eyes! and she only used one move to defeat Lin Kui! She really only used one move! One move! ! !”

The bodyguard immediately responded to the old man with a terrified voice.

When the surrounding people heard this, their expressions changed rapidly.

“What! She defeated Lin Kui from your cheetah bodyguard company in one move?”

As soon as the bodyguard finished speaking, many terrified and stunned voices sounded in the surroundings.

Just now, the bodyguard said that Yun Jian had defeated Lin Kui. This was already an incredible thing!

But the problem was that Yun Jian had defeated Lin Kui in one move!

This... What kind of strength was this!

Was she really just a teenage girl! ?

At this moment, Chen Fugui thought of Yun Jian's self-proclaimed title.

The Chairman of the new startup company?

The boss of Falcon Palace, Luo Sha?

Could it be that she was really...

Chen Fugui swallowed hard. If Yun Jian was really the owner of the new startup company and Falcon Palace, although she could not cause him to go bankrupt, it was naturally not good to have an additional enemy.

Moreover, he had heard that the chairman of the new startup company and the Falcon Palace's Raksha were both women. They weren't old.

Therefore, Chen Fugui wanted to negotiate with Yun Jian, so he said to Yun Jian:

"Your Friend isn't dead, right? How about this, everyone take a step back. I will write a check for your friend's family! Is that Alright?"

Chen Fugui wasn't sure of Yun Jian's identity, so he had already spoken to Yun Jian with the attitude of taking a step back.

This was also because Yun Jian's strength was shocking, so he had no choice but to take a step back.

Chen Fugui was famous for being unreasonable.

Being willing to take a step back now already made everyone present incredulous.

But just as Chen Fugui finished speaking, Yun Jian's cold voice sounded again. She didn't give in and directly said,

"Money, we don't need it."

As she said this, she paused.

"Then what do you need!" Chen Fugui's face darkened.

"I want her to die!"

Her words suddenly rang out. At a speed that the naked eye could not see, Yun Zhi's figure flashed and she directly bypassed Chen Fugui. She instantly flashed in front of Chen Yaqing and directly kicked Chen Yaqing to the ground.

The knife had already pierced into Chen Ya Qing's abdomen without mercy, making a sound that made everyone's hair stand on end.

Chapter 1688: Leave No one alive

Yun Jian did not hold back at all. She directly stabbed into Chen Yaqing's abdomen and shattered her internal organs on the spot.

Chen Xinyi almost died.

Why did she say that.

That surgery was very dangerous because it injured her brain. Moreover, she did not take over the surgery immediately.

In the end, Yun Jian saved her by force.

For this, she even used the spirit energy of the Imperial Dragon Continent.

Using the spirit energy of the Imperial Dragon Continent on Earth, her cultivation would not progress for a hundred years.

Her constitution was different from other cultivators. Her cultivation would not progress for a hundred years, but if she used the spirit energy on Earth, it would not progress for ten years.

In order to save Chen Xinyi, in order to meet her first friend in Longmen City, she could not progress her spiritual power for ten years. Yun Jian was willing.

A person's patience was limited. Some things could be forgiven, but some things had to be made to pay a painful price.

Even if Chen Xinyi did not die, her brain had ruptured. In the future, she would not be able to run or do any strenuous exercise.

This kind of sequela would last a lifetime.

And after Chen Yaqing knew that Chen Xinyi might die, she dressed up like nothing had happened and attended the party here.

After Yun Jian's rebirth, she was indeed different from her previous life.

But it didn't mean that she would tolerate everything.

Today, Chen Yaqing had to die!

"Ah! Ah! !!"After the knife stabbed into Chen Yaqing's abdomen, Chen Yaqing let out a wail.

Yun Jian narrowed his eyes. After she stabbed the butterfly knife into Chen Ya Qing's abdomen, she drove the knife from Chen Ya Qing's abdomen to her heart. Then, she cut open Chen Ya Qing's abdomen and sent her to hell!

The blood gushed out like a hot spring, dyeing the floor of Chen Fugui's living room red.

Chen Ya Qing was killed on the spot!

"Qing 'er? Qing 'er! You, you actually killed Qing 'er! You actually... I'm going to kill you! Ah! ! ! I'm going to kill you! ! !"

Chen Fugui took a long time to recover from his shock. His pupils constricted. The moment he saw Chen Yaqing's death, he completely collapsed.

"Go to hell! Ahhhh! I'm going to make you pay with your life! I'm going to make you pay with your life! !"
Chen Fugui had completely collapsed. He flew towards Yun Zhi and roared as he rushed towards Yun Zhi.

Everyone present was so frightened by Yun Zhi's actions that their faces turned pale.

She actually killed Chen Yaqing!

"How dare you! How dare you..."before Chen Fugui could reach Yun Zhi, Yun Zhi kicked Chen Fugui away. She followed closely behind and immediately kicked Chen Fugui's abdomen in the air.

"Why wouldn't I Dare! Not just you, everyone present today will be annihilated because of you!"

At this moment, Yun Zhi's gaze was frighteningly cold. Even Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen were somewhat shocked.

The moment Chen Fugui was kicked to the ground by Yun Jian, he was so frightened that he could not help trembling.

The people around him screamed and ran to the main entrance the moment Yun Jian killed Chen Yaqing.

But before they could reach the main entrance, they saw Qing Yan and Gu Nian walking in from outside the main entrance with more than a dozen women dressed in black with a skull mark on their wrists.

At the same time, Qing Yan and Gu Nianzhi's men stopped the people in the room from running out.

"Sister Jian!"Qing Yan and Gu Nianzhi nodded at Yun Jian respectively when they saw her.

"Who... who are they?"Everyone's faces turned pale with fright when they saw Qing Yan and Gu Nianzhi's men.

"There's a skull mark on their wrists! Isn't that... isn't that the mark of an ancient mercenary group? !"

"What!"

...

Everyone present was paralyzed with fear.

"Why are the ancient kill mercenary group here? !"Someone shouted in horror.

"Mo Mo Mo... Could it be..."at this moment, someone suddenly looked at Yun Jian.

Could it be that she was from the ancient kill mercenary group? !

At this moment, Yun Jian, who was standing on Chen Fugui's abdomen, spoke coldly to Qing Yan, Gu Nian, and the dozen or so members of the ancient kill mercenary group behind them. Her words determined the fate of everyone present.

His words were so cold that it made everyone present feel as if they were in an extremely cold place:

“Everyone, leave no one alive.”

Chapter 1689: in this world, she was the only one who could cure it

A single sentence determined the fate of everyone present.

Strange, it was their fault for being on good terms with Chen Fugui.

...

For a moment, the sounds of killing rang out continuously.

Standing in the middle of the corpses, the cloud tablet’s expression was calm. No one could tell whether she was happy or sad at this moment.

At this moment, Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen seemed to have seen the god of killing.

Yun Zhi, who was standing among the corpses and pools of blood, was so compatible with the scene at the scene.

It was as if she was originally suited to live in such an environment.

At that moment, Yun Zhi felt that she had returned to the world of her previous life, the world where the light of a blade could see blood.

That... era that was filled with killing.

...

The next day, a major event happened in Longmen City.

The richest man in the southern region was having a party at his home, but unfortunately, a fire broke out.

At that time, the gate was closed, and everyone was burned to death by the raging fire. Without exception, everyone suffered a terrible disaster.

Many rich people who were invited to the party also died on the spot.

By the time they were discovered and put out the fire, everyone had already been burned to death. Some even didn’t have a single skeleton left.

When the news report came out, not only longmen city, but the entire Zhejiang province and even the entire Z nation were alarmed.

Why did this sound so much like a massacre? However, there was no evidence at the scene. In the end, the police determined that it was an accident. There was no way to investigate and close the case.

Chen Xinyi was in a coma for three whole days. When she woke up, she could not move her head. Her head was supported by a skeleton.

It was painful. It was as painful as death. After Chen Xinyi woke up, she was in so much pain that she wanted to commit suicide several times. But in the end, she heard Zhang Shaofeng and Ling Yichen tell her about their lives. Yun Jian risked his life to save her. After that, she fainted several times due to the pain, she managed to persevere through it.

Every time the pain reached the point where she could not hold on anymore, Zhang Shaofeng would come to Chen Xinyi and tell her that Chen Yaqing was already dead. God had punished her for letting her die.

They did not mention anything about what happened that day.

Also, the main culprit of this incident, Zhang Chengjun, was paralyzed because he did not send him to the hospital in time. He could only walk in a wheelchair for the rest of his life.

Zhang Shaofeng accompanied Chen Xinyi day and night. He was afraid that Chen Xinyi would commit suicide because of the pain. He often told Chen Xinyi some fun and interesting things, he even bit Chen Xinyi's hand when Chen Xinyi was in unbearable pain.

Yun Jian had just come out of Chen Xinyi's ward in the hospital when he heard shouts coming from afar.

"Doctor! Doctor! My Son can't be paralyzed! He can't live in a wheelchair for the rest of his life! Please think of a way! As long as we can save him, we can spend as much money as we want!"

When Yun Jian went downstairs and arrived at the main entrance of the People's Hospital, he saw a middle-aged couple pestering a hospital and begging bitterly.

A person was sitting in the wheelchair next to them. It was Zhang Chengjun.

Beside Zhang Chengjun stood a timid principal shi.

When Yun Jian walked over, he coincidentally heard the doctor say to the middle-aged couple, "We really have no way, but there is one person who can cure his leg."

"Who! ?"The couple's eyes lit up with excitement.

"The woman known as the 'hand of death' in the medical world, the patient in Ward 506 was already declared dead, and she was the one who saved him,"the Doctor said.

Just as he said this, the timid principal shi suddenly pointed at Yun Jian, who was about to pass by and leave, and shouted, "It's her! She stabbed Zhang Chengjun's thigh!"

When they heard that the person who had harmed their son was passing by, the couple turned around and pounced at Yun Jian as if they had gone mad:

"It's You? It's You! You've harmed our family's Junjun! You're so vicious at such a young age, why don't You Die!"

The couple had just pounced on Yun Jian when Yun Jian dodged to the side. Her face was exposed in the eyes of the Doctor.

"It's all her fault! It's all her fault. This has nothing to do with me!"Principal Shi wanted to get rid of the responsibility, so he pointed at Yun Jian and said to the couple.

However, just as principal Shi and the couple looked at Yun Jian with hatred and wanted to tear Yun Jian into pieces, the doctor quickly walked to Yun Jian, bowed to Yun Jian, and said respectfully,

“You... Why are you here!”

After asking the question, the doctor turned around and looked at principal Shi and the couple. He pointed at the Yun Jian and introduced,

“She is the ‘hand of death’ of our medical world. She is a famous top-notch big shot in the medical world. She can even save patients who have already been declared dead. She is the only one in this world who can treat your son’s leg!”

Chapter 1690: will make you disappear completely

“The hand of death? Her? She is the hand of death in your medical world? You... you must be joking!”

The doctor pointed at Yun Jian and said those words to Zhang Chengjun’s mother. Zhang Chengjun’s parents were dumbfounded. The two of them turned to look at Yun Jian in disbelief and exclaimed.

Especially Zhang Chengjun’s mother, Wen Shi.

Her son had always been her pride. She had given birth to a son, so he had a special position in the in-laws’ family.

Most importantly, not only was her son handsome, he was also rated as the school’s top student. He really followed her strong genes. This had always been the pride of Wen Shi.

However, she never expected that her son would be stabbed by a crazy woman at school. His thigh was paralyzed and he could no longer walk!

Wen Shi had always thought that the girls at school were not worthy of her son.

In fact, Wen Shi did not know the reason for Zhang Chengjun’s accident at all. She blamed all the blame on Yun Jian.

Therefore, when Wen Shi found out that Yun Jian was the one who harmed her son, she rushed up to vent her anger without saying a word.

However, Wen Shi had never expected that the girl who had harmed her son was actually the ‘hand of the Reaper’ that the doctor had mentioned as the top big shot in the medical world. She was even able to save the patient who had already been declared dead!

The girl who had caused her son to become like this had actually become the only person in this world who could save her son!

Her enemy had become someone she needed to please!

This...

Wen Shi was completely stunned. She had never expected things to turn out like this!

Zhang Chengjun, who was sitting in his wheelchair, was also completely stunned.

Principal Shi of No. 1 High School was also petrified on the spot.

“As a doctor, I also have the professional ethics of a doctor! I never make jokes like this!

“At that time, the heart and brain of the patient in Ward 506 had already stopped functioning in the emergency room! She was supposed to die completely!

“But as soon as she made her move, she miraculously came back to life! I saw it with my own eyes. No one can do this except for the ‘hand of death’ in the medical world!”

The doctor was very unhappy when he heard Wen Shi’s words. In addition, he wanted to show off in front of the cloud note, so he spoke to Wen Shi impatiently.

If the Doctor dared to say this, then how could this matter be fake?

No matter how much the people present didn’t believe it, they had to believe it.

“You’re really the hand of death! You’re so capable at such a young age, but don’t blame me for not reminding you that you’ve provoked someone you shouldn’t have provoked!”

Zhang Chengjun’s father was much more composed than Wen Shi. At this moment, Zhang Chengjun’s father, Zhang Di, was looking at the cloud note seriously and shouting at the cloud note with threatening words.

After he finished speaking, Zhang Di’s expression calmed down a little. His eyes were tightly gripping the cloud tablet as he directly stated his purpose:

“My Son is in a wheelchair because of you! As long as you think of a way to cure him, I will not pursue your responsibility anymore. Otherwise, just based on this, I will make you spend the rest of your life in prison!”

Zhang di did not think that there was anyone behind these threatening words.

With Zhang Di’s power, destroying a girl was a piece of cake!

The most important thing now was to cure his son’s leg.

As for whether Yun Jian would really let him go or not, that was hard to say!

“I won’t cure him.” Under Zhang Di’s threat, Yun Jian spoke without any hesitation.

“As for what you said, Will I spend the rest of my life in prison...” when Yun Jian said this, she had already walked in front of Zhang Di and the other two.

Glancing sideways at Zhang Di and the other two, she raised her red lips slightly and spoke to them with a voice that only Zhang Di and the other two could hear:

“Do you know about the strange fire that happened two days ago in the Jiefang Road Villa Forest? If you want to be like them and disappear from this world forever, then you are welcome to make your move on me.”

After a pause, Yun Jian's expression suddenly turned cold. At the moment when Zhang Di and the other two's expressions suddenly turned fearful, he said coldly,

"Don't worry, I will make you disappear completely."
