

Schoolgirl 1791

Chapter 1791: student gathering, built by GE Jun.

Xu Nina would never have dreamed that Yun Jian carried a knife with him!

Moreover, Yun Jian was dressed neatly, no different from an ordinary person. How did she hide that butterfly knife on her body? !

Moreover, according to Yun Jian's swift and violent hand speed, she should not be an ordinary person!

Since Xu Nina was a university classmate of GE Junjian, it was certain that Xu Nina had studied in a military academy before.

Xu Nina studied military medicine.

However, after she met her current ex-husband, she followed him and didn't finish her studies.

But after all, she had studied in a military academy before. Xu Nina knew very well how terrifying Yun Jian's technique of taking out a knife and placing the butterfly knife on her neck was!

This was something that even those serious male students studying in a military academy couldn't compare to!

Therefore, Xu Nina was so scared that her legs went weak. She could not control herself at all and directly knelt down to Yun Jian in fear.

Xu Nina's son, Xu Liao, saw that his mother was being held by Yun Jian with a knife. Not only did he not rush up, but he also pulled off Xu Nina's hand and ran to the side for more than ten meters, hiding in the corner of the wall in fear, he did not dare to come forward to save her.

Seeing this, Yun Jian sneered.

Ge Junjian deliberately kept quiet. When Xu Nina was so scared that her face began to turn pale and her forehead began to sweat, GE Junjian held back his laughter and pretended to use the tone of an elder to scold Yun Jian:

"Alright, Xiao Jian, stop fooling around! Dad still has to treat a few university classmates to a meal later!"

It was obviously unrealistic to kill Xu Nina. After all, this was a society ruled by law.

GE Junjian could also see that Yun Jian was only trying to scare Xu Nina.

After all, if he didn't scare a woman like Xu Nina, she would probably dare to come to his house again.

After hearing GE Junjian's words, Yun Jian curled his lips coldly and put away the butterfly knife. However, he kicked Xu Nina's stomach and directly kicked her to the ground.

"For the sake of my father, I won't spend this money to buy a coffin."

Yun Jian turned around as if nothing had happened. His long, elegant hair brushed past Xu Nina, making Xu Nina unable to recover from her shock for a long time.

“My daughter goes to a military academy, just like a boy. You also went to a military academy, so you know US soldiers. Our hands are stronger. Haha, Don’t be offended, don’t be offended!”

GE Junjian held Qin Yiruo’s hand and stood more than ten meters away from Xu Nina. He had no intention of walking over to help Xu Nina.

Moreover, he held Qin Yiruo’s hand. If Qin Yiruo didn’t walk over to help Xu Nina, Xu Nina would be too embarrassed to say anything.

This back and forth made Xu Nina so angry that she almost had a heart attack.

However, Xu Nina was stunned and couldn’t say anything. Just now, even her son, Xu Liao, had hidden far away!

Twenty minutes later, they arrived at the new family grand hotel on foot from GE Junjian’s house.

The new family hotel had been open in Longmen city for three or four years. The reception of the new family hotel was very good and it was very popular.

That was because the new family hotel could tell the taste of its dishes from its name. It was biased towards the masses, and the taste was similar to the local dishes cooked by ordinary people in Longmen City.

The big bosses also liked to set the venue for the party here.

Because the price was not particularly expensive, ordinary people would treat the guests, and the more extravagant ones would also set the venue for the party here.

The decoration of the new family grand hotel was very good. As soon as Yun Jian, GE Junjian, and a few others walked in, they saw a group of men and women about the same age as GE Junjian standing not far away.

These men and women about the same age as GE Junjian were definitely GE Junjian’s university classmates.

And these middle-aged men and women who were about the same age as GE Junjian were followed by some young men and women who were about the same age as the cloud paper.

Obviously, these people were the children of GE Junjian’s college classmates.

At large gatherings like this, many parents would bring their children along.

Especially in 1999, the standard of living of the people at this time was not high. Usually, when there was a party and someone treated, it was the whole family.

After all, at this time, they could not even eat meat a few times a year.

How could they be like this now, eating meat whenever they wanted? Could they not live at home? Then they would starve to death!

Today, because GE Junjian was treating, this large group of people stood outside and waited. When they saw GE Junjian, a large group of people surrounded him.

“Our Officer GE is here! Haha! Junjian, we haven’t seen each other for a few years. How have you been recently?”

A man with a big belly touched his beer belly and said politely to GE Junjian.

Holding Qin Yirou’s hand, GE Junjian laughed and replied, “Very good! Come, come, everyone, go upstairs! We’re late today, everyone must be hungry!”

Chapter 1792: Shao Feng’s disciple called her grandmaster

When everyone sat around two tables, the dishes were served.

GE Junjian ordered two tables of dishes because his university classmates had called the whole family over. There was definitely no room for one table.

Of course, whenever there was a gathering in this era, they would bring their entire family over to freeload. GE Junjian had already expected this, so the table was naturally prepared in advance.

There were only a few seats left.

After everyone sat down, GE Junjian looked around and saw that no one had arrived yet, so he asked,

“Where’s old Zhang? Why haven’t I seen him?”

Yun Jian was sitting next to Qin Yirou. She could feel that many women and young girls were staring at her with burning eyes.

“Old Zhang went to pick up his son from class! He’ll be here soon!”The beer-bellied man who greeted GE Junjian said to GE Junjian.

When people reached middle-aged, especially those men who looked like big bosses, none of them could escape the fate of a beer-bellied man.

It was simply because life was too comfortable.

“Good, good, good!”GE Junjian nodded his head.

Usually, men sat at the same table and women sat at the same table. Today was no exception.

Yun Jian sat with Qin Yirou.

Xu Nina sat opposite Yun Jian and Qin Yirou.

“Are you officer GE’s wife?”At this awkward moment, a woman looked at Qin Yirou and asked.

Qin Yirou nodded politely and replied.

“You and officer ge both got married for the second time, right? Back then, officer Ge was pursued by people in our school! You can consider yourself lucky to get married for the second time!”The woman looked at Qin Yirou and said with a smile.

After saying this, the woman turned to look at Yun Jian and changed the topic to Yun Jian:

“Then this must be the daughter of you and your ex-husband, right? She’s pretty, but she looks a little gentle and weak. Officer GE is a soldier, so it’s good that you and your daughter are gentle and weak. Haha! Officer GE is protecting her!”

The woman spoke in a strange manner. No one knew if she was praising Yun Jian and Qin Yirou or secretly mocking them.

However, everyone around them could hear one thing.

GE Junjian was indeed powerful, but Yunjian and Qin Yirou were obviously thin and weak people!

Hearing this woman’s words, Xu Nina’s body trembled. She didn’t know why she actually trembled when she heard these words.

This woman’s name was Wang Defang. Wang Defang was not GE Junjian’s university classmate. She was the wife of GE Junjian’s university classmate. Today, she brought her daughter to freeload.

After Wang Defang said this, she picked up a large pig trotter from the table and placed it in her daughter’s bowl. Then, she exhorted her daughter, who weighed 160 pounds, to eat:

“Wenwen eats meat! Eat well. Your father is a soldier. You have to give your father some face!”

At least, she could not be like Yun Jian, who was obviously a weak and gentle person!

GE Junjian’s university classmates were all military school students, while the women were military doctors.

Wang Defang’s husband was GE Junjian’s university classmate, so naturally, he was a soldier.

It was just that Wang Defang’s husband wasn’t as strong as GE Junjian, and his military position wasn’t as high as GE Junjian’s. Therefore, Wang Defang was very envious.

“Mom, last time at the Combat School, I defeated a boy!”Zhu Wen looked at her mother, Wang Defang, very proudly. She bit the Pig Trotter and started to tear it.

“Wow, our Wenwen is so powerful. She will inherit your father’s ability in the future!”When Wang Defang heard that, she even stretched out her hand and patted her daughter, Zhu Wen’s 160-pound body, she glanced at Yun Jian and Qin Yirou very proudly.

“Sorry, we are late!”At this moment, a man in formal clothes walked in from outside the door. There was a man standing next to the man. Obviously, it was the man’s son.

“It’s not late, it’s not late. Take your son and take a seat. We’ve been eating for a while!”GE Junjian waved at the man with a laugh and said loudly.

The man's son glanced around lazily. However, under everyone's eyes, he seemed to have suddenly seen a big shot. He shouted as he walked toward the cloud note:

"Grandmaster! Grandmaster, you're actually here!"

The man's son was none other than Zhang Shaofeng's disciple, Zhang Jian, the silly fatty nicknamed "Little Fatty."

After this exclamation, everyone around, including Wang Defang, who had just said that the cloud tablet's text was weak, and her daughter, Zhu Wen, were all dumbfounded.

Chapter 1793: stealing from me. He's dead for sure

Zhang Shaofeng had been hanging around Yun Jian recently, but Yun Jian had not seen Zhang Shaofeng's disciple, Zhang Jian, for a long time.

Zhang Jian was Zhang Shaofeng's disciple. At the same time, he was the little fatty in Yun Jian's class when he was in junior high school. At first, he had a dispute with Zhang Shaofeng. Later, after he was defeated by Zhang Shaofeng, he turned around and became Zhang Shaofeng's disciple.

Zhang Jian had gone to another province to study. It was not easy for him to come back recently, so it had been a long time since he had met Zhang Shaofeng and Yun Jian.

He had come today reluctantly. Originally, he had planned to meet with Yun Jian and Zhang Shaofeng. In the end, he did not expect that his father would drag him to such a dinner party.

However, Zhang Jian had never expected that he would actually be able to meet grandmaster here!

Therefore, Zhang Jian's discontented heart suddenly filled up at this moment. He jumped and ran to the front of the cloud paper in front of everyone.

"What... What's going on?" Even Zhang Jian's father was dumbfounded.

Not to mention Wang Defang, who said that the cloud paper was weak.

Wang Defang was completely stunned.

"Dad, this is the person I told you about last time. My Grandmaster! My Master's Master! The god of death of the King's squad! My Grandmaster is very powerful!" Zhang Jian excitedly turned around and introduced the cloud tablet to his father in front of everyone.

This introduction scared the people around him silly.

GE Junjian's university classmates were all military school graduates. The men were usually soldiers, and the women were military doctors.

The King's squad's God of death. This title was something that many of the people present had heard before.

"What! She's the King's squad's God of Death! Junjian, Oh Junjian! Your Daughter is the King's squad's God of Death! This... this sounds too amazing!"

A man immediately stood up from his seat in shock and looked at the cloud note. He walked over and grabbed GE Junjian's shoulder, exclaiming in shock.

The shouts of GE Junjian and his university classmates immediately rang out.

Seeing this, Wang Defang and Zhu Wen, who had just said that the cloud note wasn't it, as well as the shameless Xu Nina, blinked their eyes. They weren't very surprised, but they were also shocked.

Wang Defang and Zhu Wen didn't even know what the King's team was.

This storm passed very quickly. Everyone had their own thoughts during the meal.

Wang Defang and Zhu Wen looked particularly pale, and Xu Nina looked the same.

The new family was located on Nanlin Road. Nanlin road was a relatively remote part of Longmen City. Although there were shops around, there was no one walking on the wide road, which was in stark contrast to the bustling city center, people came and went, forming a sharp contrast.

After paying the bill, GE Junjian had just walked out of the door of the new family hotel when he suddenly received a phone call.

"Old Ge, two days ago, you said that you wanted to treat us at the new family hotel. Are you still at Nanlin Road?"

An anxious voice came from the other end of the phone.

"I'm here," GE Junjian replied.

"Quick, quick! An international criminal is driving a gray Bugatti Veyron and escaping from Longmen City from Nanlin Road! He killed a rich businessman in our Longmen City! We must stop him! The troops will arrive at the intersection in ten minutes. You only need to stop him for ten minutes!" An anxious voice came from the other end.

Yun Jian narrowed her eyes. When the surrounding people heard this voice and suddenly became frightened, she saw a familiar figure not far away.

It was Qing glaze.

Qing glaze walked toward Yun Jian in front of Wang Defang, Zhu Wen, and everyone else. Then, she reached out and handed a piece of information to Yun Jian:

"Sister Jian, an international criminal will be passing by later. Two weeks ago, he stole a treasure from our organization. It's worth five billion yuan."

Hearing this, Yun Jian's narrowed eyes relaxed.

Everyone around heard what Qing Yan said to Yun Jian, and they were all confused.

Just as everyone was surprised, Yun Jian asked Qing Yan for a Beretta 92fs pistol in front of everyone. Then, she left her long hair behind and walked towards Qing Yan's sports car not far away.

In front of everyone, she turned around and looked at Qing Yan. She opened the car door and stepped into the sports car. Like a cold-blooded killer, she said to Qing Yan with a cold face,

"I remember you have two sniper rifles in your car. Take one out for me. You Drive. Catch up to that Gray Bugatti Veyron later. If he dares to steal from me, he is dead!"

Chapter 1794: Temporary Mission: Protect my mother

Qingyan didn't mention that the international criminal stole a treasure from the ancient assassin mercenary group, but she emphasized five billion.

In front of everyone, it wasn't appropriate to mention this treasure because it would cause chaos.

This treasure was a necklace called eternal. The material of the necklace was very special. It was made from pure natural crystals. After being processed, it was made into a necklace. It was priceless on the market.

When worn by a person, this necklace could let them recuperate. It could also prevent some diseases and even prolong their life. It was not an exaggeration at all.

It was especially suitable for middle-aged people to wear. Moreover, it was something that the cloud memo had decided to give to Qin Yiruo.

The international criminal who stole this necklace called Eternal from the ancient killing mercenary group did not have the ability to do so.

The eternal necklace was sent to the factory for the most sophisticated processing. The value of the necklace itself was very high. If the eternal necklace was seen by others, it would attract a lot of people to snatch it.

Even if it was given to Qin Yiruo, it would also bring danger to Qin Yiruo's life.

Therefore, the cloud paper sent the necklace to be processed. This time, after the processing was completed, the necklace looked no different from an ordinary necklace on the surface.

However, he didn't expect that it would be stolen before it could be taken out of the factory.

Qing Yan said that the person stole the organization's treasure and emphasized that it was worth five billion. She was indirectly telling Yun Jian that the necklace that was given to Qin Yirou had been stolen.

The Gu Sha mercenary group didn't lack other treasures, and Yun Jian didn't need it either. However, Yun Jian had already set his eyes on this item and intended to give it to Qin Yirou, so he naturally couldn't just watch it be stolen by that international criminal.

"Yes!" When Qing Yan heard this, she obediently nodded and walked over. She bypassed the Yun Jian and sat in her sports car, starting the car.

Just as Yun Jian was about to turn around and sit in the passenger seat, GE Junjian came over in time. "Sit in my car, I'll drive! My Car is high, after catching up with that car, we can take action!"

It was easy to chase a sports car, but if one wanted to use a sniper rifle to snipe the tires of the previous car, sniping from the Jeep would have a much higher accuracy rate.

GE Junjian let Yun Jian get off the green-glazed sports car without hesitation. He took out a sniper rifle from the green-glazed car and followed GE Junjian to the jeep.

Wang Defang, her daughter Zhu Wen, and even Xu Nina, who had shamelessly come to GE Junjian's house to freeload for a few days, all had expressions on their faces.

"Junjian, we have to go for such a dangerous thing. How can we let you and your daughter be in danger!"

GE Junjian's university classmates were all soldiers, so they were naturally very upright. They all rushed to GE Junjian's jeep.

"Who's That! Officer GE's daughter, why are you going to join in the fun! Do you think the adults aren't troublesome enough?"

"This isn't a child playing house! Are you trying to drag the adults down with you!?"

Seeing her husband go with her, it sounded dangerous. The other party was an international felon!

Wang Defang, who said that the cloud paper was weak, shouted at the cloud paper again.

At first, Wang Defang couldn't be bothered with the cloud paper, but her husband also went with her!

If something happened to her husband because of the cloud paper...

Wang Defang didn't dare to imagine.

"Officer GE's wife! If your daughter goes with them, isn't she just adding to their troubles? ! She hasn't graduated from the Military Academy yet! Why is she in such a hurry to show off? Why isn't she showing off at school? Why is she rushing to join in the fun? ! Does she really think she's awesome? !"

When Wang Defang saw Yun Jian get into the jeep, she panicked and turned around to yell at Qin Yirou.

Qin Yirou ignored Wang Defang and only smiled.

Qin Yirou knew Yun Jian's identity, but she was thinking that it would be dangerous if her daughter didn't go with her!

The moment before the car was driven by GE Junjian, Yun Jian left a message to Chao Qingyan:

"Stay here and protect my mother."

Chapter 1795: Third Junction

After Yun Jian asked Qing Yan to stay to protect Qin Yirou, the Jeep sped out at lightning speed.

The Jeep built by GE Jun had a total of three rows of seats. Two people could sit in the driver's seat and the co-driver's seat, two people could sit in the left and right seats of the second row, and three people could sit in the last row.

It could seat seven people in total.

Yun Jian was now sitting in the second seat by the window, while Ge Jun Jian was driving in the front seat.

Besides Yun Jian, Ge Jun Jian's university classmates followed five people in the jeep.

When the Jeep sped out, Wang Defang's cursing voice could be heard in the wind. Yun Jian narrowed her eyes. She left the green glaze on the spot, not afraid that Wang Defang would behave atrociously towards her mother.

"I've calculated that the Gray Bugatti Veyron should be here soon! Junjian, turn the car around to the main road. Everyone, pay attention to the main road and you'll be able to find its tracks!"

The middle-aged man sitting next to GE Junjian was called Super Jade. Super Jade was the best in this group of people apart from GE Junjian. He was also very strong.

Super Jade lowered his head and looked at the watch on his hand. He spoke very seriously.

Nanlin Road had several forks in the streets. The people present could not guess which fork the international criminal escaped from.

If they missed the international criminal, GE Junjian's mission would be considered a failure.

However, Nanlin Road had a large intersection. To pass through the forks in these streets, they had to pass through that large intersection.

Yu supernatural was indeed powerful. He could calculate the time and estimated when the international criminal would arrive. He told everyone to pay attention to their surroundings at the intersection. Once the car passed, they could chase after him.

After Yu supernatural finished speaking, the people around started to search around.

"Supernatural, this is really your ability. Whether you can find the Gray Bugatti Veyron of this international criminal depends on you!"

"Thank Goodness You're here! Superhuman, you really are superhuman! If this international criminal escapes under our noses today, do we still need to keep our old face?"

While searching for any vehicles that passed by, GE Junjian's university classmates who were with GE Junjian started to talk.

When going on a mission, the thing they were most afraid of was not being able to find the target.

To put it bluntly, if they could not even find their target, what mission would they be on? They might as well go home and stay there! In any case, they would not even have the luck to meet their target!

This was like if they suddenly wanted to go to the toilet and take a dump, how would they be able to take a dump if they could not even find the toilet?

At this time, it was a very crucial matter to have someone with quick reflexes to lead everyone to the correct location to find their target.

Just as everyone was looking for the target and praising Yu Jian to the Max, a delicate female voice that sounded even better than a singing singer sounded. Everyone present was shocked:

“Drive the car to the third junction. He must have passed the third junction!”

Even Yu Jian, who had a very accurate budget, did not dare to make a conclusion. The international criminal would take the junction on Nanlin Road, so he asked GE Junjian to drive the car to the main junction and wait.

No one present had any intention of looking down on Yun Jian.

But, how could Yun Jian be so sure that the international criminal would escape from the third intersection?

“Why must he pass the third intersection? If we park the wrong car, we will directly miss him! Park the car at the main intersection. Later, even if we discover that his car is far away from us, we can still chase after him!”

A middle-aged man looked around and asked Yun Jian solemnly.

This was a mission! It was not a child’s Play!

“He will definitely take the third intersection!” Yun Jian pursed her lips and repeated.

This was because she was also a special agent and had been surrounded in the same way before. It was also because she had been surrounded in the same way before and had completely shaken off the people who were chasing her!

Chapter 1796: low-level assassin. There was no such possibility

The man remained silent for two seconds in response to Yun Jian’s insistence.

Yun Jian was the god of death of Team King. She was not as simple and naive as she appeared to be.

However, at this moment, time was money. If Yun Jian was wrong, she would mistakenly let an international criminal escape!

This consequence was not something she could bear!

“What should we do? Should we not listen to her?” An honest and honest man sitting in the last row of seats paused for two seconds and asked.

“No! How could the mission be child’s Play! We would rather wait until we see the Gray Bugatti Veyron and chase after it than take the risk! Moreover, the third intersection is a long distance away from where we are now. If we make a mistake, who will bear the responsibility?”

“I know that you’re the god of death of Team King, and I don’t mean to look down on you, but at this juncture, we can’t afford to make any mistakes!”

The man who asked the reason for the cloud note couldn’t hear the cloud note’s explanation at this moment, so he was very calm and insisted on his own thoughts.

“Yeah, even if that car will really pass by the third intersection, for the sake of safety, let’s wait at the main intersection. What if he doesn’t pass by there?”

“Right, right, we all agree with Yonghen’s statement.”

Other than the honest and honest men, the other middle-aged men unanimously agreed with this person’s statement.

This middle-aged man who refuted Yun Jian was called Cai Yonghen.

Yun Jian’s eyes narrowed. She didn’t say anything but said to GE Junjian, “Dad, let’s change seats. I’ll drive.”

Since they didn’t believe her, they would wait and see the result.

Even if they set off from here to the third intersection to chase after the Bugatti Veyron, she wouldn’t be a problem.

“You’ll Drive? Do you have a driver’s license?”The man named Cai Yonghen asked again.

Obviously, this man named Cai Yonghen was very old-fashioned.

Just as Cai Yonghen finished speaking, the honest man sitting in the third row suddenly pointed to the distance and exclaimed,

“The Gray Bugatti Veyron, that’s the one. There’s no mistake!”

In the distance, a gray Bugatti Veyron was speeding over. The trajectory along the way was heading towards the second intersection.

The second intersection wasn’t too far from here, but it wasn’t too close either. He could barely force himself to keep up.

The Gray Bugatti Veyron took a big turn at the intersection. Just when everyone thought it was heading to the second intersection, it suddenly shrank and entered the third intersection in a flash.

“It... it really... really went to the third intersection! ?”

In that case, Yun Jian was right?

Cai Yonghen’s face stiffened, and he didn’t react for a long time.

It wasn’t a short distance to chase from here! Moreover, they could lose the car!

Cai Yonghen and the others regretted what they had said to stop Yun Jian.

At this moment, Yun Jian had already quickly swapped places with GE Junjian. She sat in the driver’s seat, started the engine, let go of the clutch, and stepped on the accelerator. The car then filed out and chased in that direction.

The few people in the car leaned forward and grabbed the handrail as fast as they could. Their eyes widened as they watched Yun Jian Drive.

It would take some time to drive from here to the third intersection. By then, the Gray Bugatti Veyron would have already bypassed the third intersection and turned to another intersection!

Although this was not a downtown area, a car crossing the road would disappear in a few seconds. You had no idea where it had gone!

Yun Jian led everyone around a few intersections as fast as they could. Every time they passed by an intersection, they would move at lightning speed, and each time, they would only be a millimeter away from hitting someone's house, they moved forward fiercely.

Everyone present was so scared that their faces turned pale!

"That car is already gone. Can you really find it..." can you really find it?

As soon as Cai Yonghen said this, Yun Jian had already brought everyone to a deserted, flat road.

They saw the gray Bugatti Veyron speeding ahead of them, more than ten meters away.

"It has already shaken you off. How can you still find it!" And it was not the first time that his calculations were so accurate! Cai Yonghen stared at Yun Jian with wide eyes and asked in horror.

However, Yun Jian, who was driving, curled the corner of her mouth slightly. She passed the rearview mirror to everyone present. Suddenly, she slammed on the accelerator and said something that made everyone present dumbfounded:

"So what if it's an international felon? In the end, it's just a low-level assassin. It's impossible for it to escape my eyes!"

Chapter 1797:: If You Fall, you will die

Yun Jian's words carried a certain arrogance, but it made everyone present suck in a breath.

If Yun Jian had said that earlier, everyone present would have thought that she was bragging.

However, based on the accuracy of Yun Jian's guesses, including the fact that she had driven the jeep at lightning speed to catch up with the Gray Bugatti Veyron that they had already lost, everyone present had completely believed Yun Jian.

Since she said this, she definitely had confidence!

As expected, the god of death of the King's squad was really not an ordinary person!

In the past, everyone had also imagined this, but no matter how much they thought, they never thought that Yun Jian actually had such an ability!

This ability made everyone present go crazy!

Just as everyone was shocked, Yun Jian had already made a hand gesture with GE Junjian. As the Jeep drove, she and Ge Junjian swapped places.

“Keep your grip on the steering wheel and don’t let go of the accelerator. It has already discovered that we are tracking it. Not far away is the border of Longmen City. If we leave Longmen City, the troops will definitely not be able to reach here. Your mission will be considered a failure.”

During the execution of the mission, Yun Jian never called GE Junjian father.

“Okay!” GE Junjian was very cooperative.

“What About You?” Seeing that Yun Jian had arranged for GE Junjian to drive, Cai Yonghen, Yu superpower, and the others asked Yun Jian in unison.

Yun Jian, who was standing in front of them, curved her lips and smiled:

“Do you see the Red Porsche sports car following the Gray Bugatti Veyron?” Yun Jian asked.

Cai Yongheng, Yu superpower, and the others turned their heads to look ahead.

In front of the Gray Bugatti Veyron, a Red Porsche sports car and the Gray Bugatti Veyron were driving on the highway one after the other.

The Gray Bugatti Veyron was at the back.

“These two cars?” Cai Yonghen was interrupted by Yun Zhi just as he spoke.

“The intelligence is wrong. The international criminals that you want to catch and the things that I want to take back are all in the Red Porsche sports car in front of the Gray Bugatti Veyron.

“If I’m not wrong, the Gray Bugatti Veyron sports car at the back has been a cover from the beginning. The people sitting in it are at most the subordinates of the international criminals sitting in the Red Porsche sports car.”

Yun Jian was not in a hurry to make a move. It was not the right time. She sat back in her original seat and spoke to the surrounding people.

“What... What does this mean?” The surrounding men looked at Yun Jian in a daze.

What did this mean?

Just when everyone thought that the person sitting in the Gray Bugatti Veyron was the international criminal, Yun Jian suddenly said that the international criminal was not in the Bugatti Veyron sports car..., but in the Red Porsche?

Just as everyone was puzzled, Yun Jian curled his lips and continued:

“Using a sniper rifle to snipe the gray Bugatti Veyron is no longer effective. If we forcefully snipe it, the gray Bugatti Veyron will come at us, and the Red Porsche will be able to escape right under our noses. Therefore, we must not fire.”

After Yun Jian’s words fell, everyone present suddenly came to a realization. However, after coming to a realization, everyone was momentarily stunned.

This international felon was indeed worthy of being an international felon. If he did not have Yun Jian today, with his cunning, he would definitely be able to escape Longmen City!

While everyone sighed, they did not forget to take a deep breath.

Yun Jian was really not ordinary at all!

“Then what should we do! With this speed, it’s impossible to overtake. Do we have to keep chasing after that Red Porsche?” Cai Yonghen frowned and said this without thinking.

In times of danger, the person who kept shouting “What should we do” was the most useless person.

“Use your fastest speed to catch up with that Gray Bugatti Veyron sports car.” Yun Jian suddenly said to Ge Junjian with a deep frown.

After getting Yun Jian’s words, GE Junjian suddenly stepped on the gas and chased after the gray Bugatti Veyron.

In a short while, the three cars were side by side in front and back!

The one in front was a red Porsche.

The second car was a gray Bugatti Veyron.

The third car was GE Junjian’s jeep.

Yun Jian was in the third car, while the international felon was in the first car.

At this moment, Yun Jian suddenly pulled open the side door beside her, and a strong gust of wind blew into the jeep.

Seeing Yun Jian stand up, Cai Yonghen, Yu superpower, and everyone else stared at her with their eyes wide open in horror.

Especially Cai Yonghen, he asked Yun Jian in front of everyone,

“You... .. You, you, do you want to jump out of the Jeep ! ? Jump from our car to that Red Porsche? Do You Want to die? ! There’s a car in between! If you drive at this size, if you fall, you will die!”

Chapter 1798: stealing from me to show off

“If you were like me, using your life to fight for life and victory in every mission, you wouldn’t be as cowardly as you are today,” Yun Jian suddenly said to Cai Yonghen when he was about to stand up.

This sentence sounded very profound at first, but after listening carefully, one could still understand what Yun Jian meant.

Sometimes, using one’s life as a stake did not necessarily mean losing one’s life.

On the contrary, those who were worried about this and that, and were afraid that they would not dare to go forward once they encountered something, died the earliest.

Regardless of whether it was the cloud note that was the brake god in her previous life or the cloud note after her rebirth, she was always looking for a way out for herself in a desperate situation.

This was because she always believed in one thing.

She might not be as good as many people, but she could force herself into a desperate situation, forcing her to take another step back. Only when there was a bottomless abyss below would she cut off all thoughts of retreating and unleash a person's strength that exceeded her instincts, to become a person above others!

Yun Zhi's words gave Cai Yonghen and the group of men around him a lot of momentum.

Even a young girl like her could do something, but they were afraid again and again!

Just as Cai Yonghen, Yu Chao, and the others were shocked by Yun Jian's words, Yun Jian had already grabbed the handrail in the car and jumped out of the car.

If an ordinary person wanted to jump out of the car, they would have to prepare for half a day, just like how they would have to hesitate for half a day before jumping out of the car.

However, Yun Jian did not hesitate at all. Regardless of whether she succeeded or not, she grabbed the handrail and jumped out of the car.

At this moment, the crowd was so shocked that they felt like they had stopped breathing. This scene was definitely the most exciting and exciting scene they had ever seen in their lives

However, they saw a Yun Jian who jumped out of the car grab the handrail. At the speed of the car, she actually turned her body at a speed of one second and threw herself onto the roof of the car!

The people sitting in the car did not even hear the sound coming from the roof!

But they knew that the cloud talismans did not miss!

That meant that the cloud talismans were definitely on the roof of the car!

If a normal person jumped from one place to another, there would definitely be a loud bang!

But when the cloud talismans jumped onto the roof of the car, the strength they used was so light that they did not make a single sound!

This scene shocked everyone to the point that their faces turned pale.

This was too amazing!

This was not something that she could do on her own!

However, what shocked everyone was far from this.

In less than three seconds, a small figure appeared in front of the driver's seat's glass.

Yun Jian jumped two steps in a row and arrived in front of the Red Porsche in two flashes.

In just a split second, she jumped from the third car to the first car at a speed of over 100 km/h in the three workshops without being thrown out!

“This girl is too terrifying! I’ve never seen such a terrifying person in my life! This terrifying thinking ability and her agile skills... could she be some international big shot? !”

A man cried out in surprise.

Just as he cried out, the first Red Porsche suddenly swerved to the side and stopped in front of everyone.

Seeing this, GE Junjian immediately turned around.

The Gray Bugatti Veyron also stopped.

When GE Junjian stopped the car and everyone got out, they saw that Yun Jian had already forced the Red Porsche to stop. Then, he directly pulled out a figure from the driver’s seat of the Red Porsche sports car.

The owner of this figure was a man in his forties. The man was holding a box in his arms. It was Yun Jian’s necklace.

Yun Jian stepped on the head of the man who had fallen to the ground in front of everyone. He sneered at the man:

“You dare to Steal My Things? Are you demonstrating against my ancient massacre mercenary group?”

Chapter 1799: said something, as if afraid of her

The words on the cloud note were spoken in Portuguese, not Chinese.

The people present had limited exposure to the language, so they naturally could not understand what language the cloud note was speaking.

But the man who was suppressed by the cloud note could understand it.

A man was a killer. He must have been trained and learned the languages of many countries.

Perhaps the man knew fewer languages than the cloud note, but the Portuguese language used by the cloud note, the man must know it.

Because the number of Portuguese speakers was not small in the world, the proportion of people who received missions to go there was high. Naturally, it was one of the languages that must be learned.

Sure enough, just as the cloud note finished speaking, the man’s face instantly darkened.

From Afar, GE Junjian, Yu superpower, and Cai Yonghen could clearly see the man’s face. Under the lightning-like speed, the man’s face turned from a trace of blood to a pale white.

“If you dare to reveal my identity in public, you won’t die so easily.”

Just as Cai Yonghen, Yu superpower, and the others were stunned by Yun Jian’s words, Yun Jian’s voice sounded again. She continued to speak to the man in the same fluent Portuguese.

This man was caught by the police. As an international criminal, he was bound to die.

He must also know his own limits. As an international assassin or agent, there was only one outcome for him if he was caught or if his mission failed, and that was death.

Yun Jian was not stupid. Since she dared to reveal her identity to this international criminal, she was sure that he would not say it.

What Yun Jian said just now was a warning to the man. If he dared to talk nonsense, then it would not be as simple as death.

She had a thousand ways to make people realize that the most painful thing in the world was not death, but a life worse than death.

The feeling of being tortured to death was a sharp pain that came from the depths of one's soul.

Sha Shen was famous for her ruthlessness in the Dao. Not only was she powerful, but more importantly, her ruthlessness and cruelty in dealing with people who were also in the Dao were terrifying!

Brainwashed Killers referred to killers who had been brainwashed. Such people did not have their own emotions and thoughts. They only knew how to follow their master's orders. Even if they were caught.., no one could get anything out of them because they only listened to their master.

However, the way Sha Shen dealt with people back then made the brainwashed killer, who was known to have the strongest willpower in the world, Beg for his life. In the end, he gave up the person behind the scenes.

Naturally, the man also believed that Yun Jian had the ability to capture him from the police and make his life worse than death. He wouldn't even be able to die!

Therefore, the man would rather be captured by the police and executed than reveal Yun Jian's identity.

It was unknown what language Yun Jian used to say, but everyone present could clearly see that the man's body trembled slightly.

A grown man who was stepped on by Yun Jian did not feel humiliated. Instead, he was so scared that his entire body was trembling.

Whether it was GE Junjian, Cai Yonghen, or Yu supernatural, everyone present was stunned.

It was not the first time they had caught such a felon. Not to mention that the man in front of them was an international felon, even if he was an ordinary felon.., when they were about to be caught by the police, they would also take the last step of asking for help to give themselves a chance to escape.

No one wanted to give up the hope of survival!

But what did they see!

Why was this international felon, this man, running away so energetically just now! He looked like he would rather die than surrender!

But now that Yun Jian stepped on his head with his foot, he did not feel humiliated at all. Instead...

His entire body was trembling?

Was he afraid of Yun Jian?

Why?

Could it be because of the words that Yun Jian had said in an unknown language?

Cai Yonghen could not hide his words. He walked to a spot not far away from Yun Jian in front of everyone and looked at her. He asked in puzzlement,

“Jun Jian’s daughter, what did you say to him just now? Why does he look like he’s very afraid of You?”

Chapter 1800: Every movement of his was like the god of death

At this moment, Yun Jian’s foot was still stepping on the man’s head. She was looking down at the man coldly. After hearing Cai Yonghen’s words, she raised her head slightly and glanced at Cai Yonghen and the people standing around him.

“Do you want to know what I said to him?” Yun Jian narrowed his eyes and looked at Cai Yonghen with a strange smile.

“Yes... Yes!” Cai Yonghen took a deep breath for no reason. He took a deep breath and then nodded at Yun Jian.

He was very curious.

From the moment Yun Jian guessed which road the international criminal was going to take to the moment he lost the international criminal, Yun Jian could still clearly tell which road the international criminal was going to take. Then, he caught up with the criminal and jumped out of the car, and at that moment, he did not know what she said that made the international felon so scared.

GE Junjian’s original mission was to delay the international felon for ten minutes before the army immediately brought people over to arrest him.

Even Cai Yonghen, Yu Meizheng, and the others were not confident that they could delay the international felon for ten minutes.

But Yun Jian was different. The international felon, an international class 2s felon, was as easy as killing an ant in her hands.

Not only did she stop him, she even stepped on him like he was a cabbage!

What was even more bizarre was that he did not dare to say a word!

“Do you really want to know what I just said to him?”

Yun Jian stepped on the man’s head and slid twice like she was stepping on a football. Her slender thighs were wrapped in a pair of tight black pants. She looked at Cai Yonghen again and coldly curved her lips as she repeated what she just said.

Hearing Yun Jian repeat what he had just said, Cai Yonghen and the people standing beside Cai Yonghen were slightly stunned.

However, Cai Yonghen still said, “Yes...”

However, before Cai Yonghen could finish his words, Yun Jian’s voice suddenly rang out. His voice was clear and loud, “Get Down!”

Yun Jian’s words suddenly rang out. GE Junjian, Cai Yonghen, and the others were all stunned. Although they didn’t know what Yun Jian meant, they still got down as fast as they could.

Behind GE Junjian and the others, the subordinate of the international criminal who had driven the Gray Bugatti Veyron came back. He held a luger P345 automatic pistol in his hand and shot a bullet at Yun Jian’s head.

GE Junjian and the others stood opposite Yun Jian. The subordinate of the international criminal stood in the dark. If GE Junjian and the others didn’t lie down, they would be injured by accident.

After Yun Jian finished speaking, GE Junjian and the others quickly lay down. She dodged the bullet that was aimed at her head and kicked the international criminal toward GE Junjian like a ball:

“Suppress him!”

After saying that, Yun Jian pounced toward the underling of this international criminal at a speed as fast as a cheetah! It was so fast that even the naked eye could not see it clearly!

Yun Jian had just spoken to Cai Yonghen in order to let the subordinate of the international criminal who had shot her in the dark find an opportunity to attack her and then counterattack!

GE Junjian’s combat strength was not to be underestimated. After the international criminal was kicked by Yun Jian, his entire body went limp. GE Junjian pounced on him and firmly suppressed the international criminal, before the international criminal could react and escape.

At this time, Cai Yonghen and the others reacted and went over to help GE Junjian.

However, their eyes suddenly caught sight of Yun Jian not far away. Yun Jian dashed towards the man who had assassinated them.

When the man saw Yun Jian rushing towards him, he was so scared that he fired a few more shots at Yun Jian. Seeing this, Yun Jian pounced on the ground and rolled on the ground twice. As soon as he stood up, he was already close to the man.

With her skills, even the veterans in the army could not compare to her! She was as decisive as a death god!

Cai Yongheng and the others who were far away trembled.

Yun Jian had already snatched the pistol from the man’s hand and tied him up with his own coat.

The moment the soldiers rushed over, they saw this scene —

A teenage girl stepped on the man’s back with one foot, and the man’s stomach was on the ground. He was tied up by his own clothes, and his struggle was fruitless.

The girl arrived at the scene after the troops arrived. After lighting up the scene, she tilted her head and squinted her eyes to look in that direction.

Yun Jian, who was stepping on the man's back, narrowed his eyes slightly. His every move was like a grim reaper from hell, shocking everyone.
