Chapter 1811: stand aside and hinder us

After dinner and a short walk, Yun Jian and Si Yi went to bed early.

There were not many rooms in he Qing's house to begin with, but there was enough room for one person. Si Yi shamelessly followed Yun Jian into her house.

He Qing's house was connected to each other, and the soundproofing was very poor.

For example, if you farted in your own house, you could hear it in the next room.

At first, Si Yi wanted to touch Yun Jian with his pig's feet. Later, Yun Jian slapped away his pig's feet, and he Dongdong's farting came from the next room.

Si Yi silently withdrew his pig's feet...

It was a dreamless night.

The next day, Yun Jian woke up at noon. For some reason, she slept very soundly last night and only woke up at noon.

When she woke up, Yun Jian could feel Si Yi's hand resting on the back of her head, as if it had been placed there for the whole night.

He did not know when his hand had rested on the back of her head.

When she tilted her head slightly, she could see his bright and deep eyes. They were very beautiful.

Si Yi woke up at five or six in the morning. He did not wake up the cloud paper. He placed his hand on the back of her head to let her rest comfortably. He stared at her for five or six hours without getting tired.

"Sister! Brother! Wake Up! We're going to catch the birds! They're already at the back of the mountain. We're the only ones left!"

At this moment, the sound of someone knocking on the door came from outside. He Dongdong's tender voice came through the door.

They were referring to he Dongdong's group of brats, including their older brothers and sisters.

Today was Saturday, yesterday was Friday, and there were many boys and girls of the same age as Yun Jian and Si Yi who had gone to school outside. They had come back to Jinde village from the town or Longmen City.

Yun Jian and Si Yi had not gone far from Jinde village, so they had not met.

This morning, the group of people got up very early and went to the back of the mountain to fight birds with slingshots. Yun Jian and Si Yi slept until noon, and he dongdong called out to them.

Zhang Shaofeng and Chen Xinyi had already gone to the back of the mountain. After Yun Jian and Si Yi got up and ate the breakfast that he Qing had left for them, they followed he dongdong to the back of the mountain.

The back of the mountain was a place with trees and open land. The scenery here was very good.

Millet was sprinkled all around here. Millet was the favorite food of birds. Millet was sprinkled all around the back of the mountain. Birds would come over to eat it automatically.

When Yun Jian and Si Yi were brought here, they saw the group of children they saw yesterday, as well as the brothers and sisters of these children.

Seeing Yun Jian and Si Yi come here, because Yun Jian and Si Yi looked outstanding, the surrounding boys and girls all looked at Yun Jian and Si Yi a few more times.

“Wow, it’s the pretty sister and handsome brother from yesterday!”Fu Gang saw Yun Jian and Si Yi and dragged a rather handsome boy who was about 1.75 meters tall over.

Fu gang pointed at Yun Jian and Si Yi as he walked over and said to the boy, “Brother, these are the brothers and sisters that I met yesterday. They...”

Fu gang was about to say something shocking, but Zhang Shaofeng was one step ahead of them. He walked over from the side and interrupted fu gang just as he was about to say something shocking again.

“Ahem, ahem, Hello. My name is Zhang Shaofeng, and this is my cousin, Chen Xinyi. This is my master, Yun Jian. He is my big brother, Si Yi.”Zhang Shaofeng took the lead to extend his hand to Fu Gang’s brother and introduced himself and the others, he could be considered to have stopped fu gang from saying ‘Knock Knock Knock Knock’.

“My name is Fu Xin.”Fu Gang’s brother nodded politely to Zhang Shaofeng.

After a pause, Fu Xin looked at Yun Jian and the others and asked, “Are you guys here to hunt birds too?”

“Yes, that’s right!”Zhang Shaofeng rubbed his head and laughed.

“So you guys are from the city? No wonder you look so dainty. It’s obvious that you don’t know how to hunt birds, right?”At this moment, a girl walked over from the side, she looked to be about seventeen or eighteen years old. Her face was a little dark, her skin was dry, and her nose was very big. She was not pretty.

The girl walked over and glared at Chen Xinyi and Yun Jian. Seeing that Chen Xinyi and Yun Jian were pretty, her skin was fine, and it was fair and tender, she said with a sour nose.

However, she secretly cursed in her heart. What did the people in the city have? So what if they were pretty? Looking at their delicate looks, they probably hadn’t even seen a slingshot shoot a bird before, right? What use could it be!

After saying that, the girl glanced at Yun Jian and Chen Xinyi again, then pointed at Fu Xin and said to Yun Jian and Chen Xinyi,

“He is the most accurate and powerful person in our village who uses slingshots to shoot birds! You city people don’t know how to play slingshots, so just stand aside and don’t hinder us!”

Chapter 1812: there was one hit out of ten

“Mingyu, have you forgotten? Not only does brother Xin know how to shoot birds, he has even shot birds with a gun!”

Just as the girl finished speaking, a beautiful girl in a princess dress walked over and looked at the girl who had spoken to Yun Jian and the others.

The girl who was about 17 or 18 years old and had a dark face, dry skin, and a big nose was called he mingyu. She was a child of the village and her studies were pretty good. She had been admitted to the town’s high school.

In a place like Jinde village, even if she had been admitted to the town’s high school, it was still pretty good.

“Humph, of course I know he’s very powerful. You Don’t have to tell me that!” He mingyu was not friendly to this girl who walked over and spoke up for him. She was pretty in a princess dress.

This girl who was pretty in a princess dress was not from Jinde village. She was from the town, and her family was quite rich.

She came back to Jinde village with Fu Xin.

Fu Xin was pretty, and he was the beauty in the eyes of these girls.

He mingyu also liked Fu Xin, so she was not friendly to this girl who was speaking up for her in a princess dress.

And this girl who was wearing a princess dress to speak up for he mingyu was called Gu Liuli.

Seeing that he mingyu didn’t buy it, Gu Liuli also didn’t give he mingyu a good look.

“Humph! Who Are you trying to show your face to? My brother Xin shot down a bird with a gun. I saw it with my own eyes!” Gu Liuli laughed coldly in the direction of He mingyu, Yun Jian, and the others.

Gu Liuli and he mingyu were not on good terms, but they were also not friendly to Yun Jian, Chen Xinyi, and the others. They did not even need to talk to each other.

In fact, Fu Xin did not shoot the bird with a real gun. He only used a toy gun.

Fu Xin indeed had some talent. At this moment, when Fu Xin heard the praise from he mingyu and Gu Liuli, he felt a little embarrassed.

“Don’t mind what she said. If you want to play, let’s play together.” Fu Xin was a good person. He looked at Yun Jian, Si Yi, and the others, smiled, and said.

Then, he pointed to a wooden barrel not far away, “There are many slingshots over there. You can take them as you like. It’s okay.”

Seeing Fu Xin being so polite, Zhang Shaofeng also replied politely. Then, he walked over and took two or three slingshots.

Chen Xinyi was sitting on a big rock, watching the people playing from afar.

“Brother, a bird! There’s a bird over there! Quickly shoot it down with the Slingshot!” He Dongdong suddenly found a bird that was pecking rice on the ground. He pulled Zhang Shaofeng and said in a low voice.

“Okay!” Zhang Shaofeng responded. He was about to shoot the bird with the slingshot, but he mingyu was one step ahead of him.

As he mingyu spoke, she strode over and used the slingshot in her hand to press on the rock to shoot the bird. “I saw this bird first. It’s Mine Now!”

A rock was shot over, but not only did it not stop the bird, it even scared it away.

He Mingyu did not feel that it was inappropriate. She turned around and saw Yun Jian looking at her indifferently. She was so angry that she suddenly raised her head and said to Yun Jian in a smug manner,

“What are you looking at? Haven’t you seen shooting birds with a slingshot and pebbles? One look and I know you’re from the city. You really don’t know anything!”

As she said that, he Ming Yu shook the slingshot in her hand and pretended to be very powerful to show off to Yun Jian and Si Yi who stood beside Yun Jian. Her tone was as if she was a Superman in the universe:

“My brother Xin’s strength is naturally without a doubt. That is not something that you city people with delicate bodies can compare to!

“As for me, in the entire Jin de village, among the girls, I am the most powerful in using a slingshot to shoot birds! My hit rate, out of ten times, I can hit a bird!”

Chapter 1813: taught Zhang Shaofeng how to use the butterfly knife

He mingyu’s tone was as if she was a sharpshooter with a hundred shots. She was extremely smug.

“That’s true! Mingyu is the most powerful girl in our Jinde Village! Fu Xin’s hit rate is five times out of ten, and Mingyu’s hit rate is one out of ten!”

A boy who was about the same age as he mingyu and Fu Xin walked over. The boy said this in a simple and honest manner. He even touched his head and smiled a little embarrassedly.

What the boy said was also the truth.

The group of people around them were all children from the countryside, except for Gu Liuli, who was from a relatively wealthy family in the town.

The children from the countryside were still wild and could still run. He mingyu, for example, was dark because she was exposed to the sun every day.

The children in the countryside were wild, and the birds in the countryside were also wild. People had already gained experience in catching birds over the years, and the more birds were caught, the more experience they had in running away while stealing millet.

Whether it was Fu Xin or he mingyu, they had not spent their entire lives studying how to catch birds since they were young. To be able to have such a hit rate, in addition to their age, they were already the most powerful among the younger generation.

“You don’t have to say that I’m also the most powerful among the girls!” Moreover, they were a perfect match for Fu Xin! He Mingyu glared at Gu Liuli and then turned her arrogant head toward the cloud paper.

That look seemed to be saying, ‘How is it? Do you know how powerful I am?’?

Zhang Shaofeng twitched the corner of his mouth. He was almost disgusted by he mingyu’s ugly mouth.

“Dongdong, you can play with your friends by yourself.” Zhang Shaofeng handed the slingshot to he dongdong and turned to look at the cloud paper:

“Master, we haven’t exercised today. Why don’t we run ten laps around the mountain? There’s a sexy smell here. I Can’t F * cking smell it anymore.”

Zhang Shaofeng was quite a poisonous scorpion. Although he did not mention his name, everyone knew that he was talking about he mingyu.

He mingyu’s face instantly darkened to the extreme.

He Mingyu’s eyes suddenly turned. She accidentally heard Zhang Shaofeng calling Yun Jian Master, so she opened her mouth and spat at Yun Jian:

“Hahaha, master! You actually took in a disciple! Do you think you are an expert? You even learned how to take in disciples, hahaha! I’m dying of laughter. What kind of ability can a woman from the city like you teach a disciple?

“I advise you to go home and take a piss to take a look at yourself...”

When he mingyu started speaking, Si Yi pulled Yun Jian into his arms and retreated five meters away from he mingyu. As a result, he mingyu’s saliva did not spray onto Yun Jian and Si Yi.

When he mingyu said this, Si Yi’s face was cold and he frowned. He directly interrupted he mingyu, “Don’t you dare say one more word about my woman!”

Si Yi’s words carried an absolute pressure. He mingyu did not know why, but she was so scared that she shrunk her body slightly and really did not dare to speak.

“Go around the mountain and run twenty laps. After that, I’ll teach you how to use the butterfly knife,” Yun Jian glanced at Zhang Shaofeng and said.

Zhang Shaofeng had learned skills from Yun Jian for so long. He really wanted to learn the agile skills of Yun Jian when he swung the butterfly knife.

Hearing Yun Jian's words, Zhang Shaofeng widened his eyes and asked Yun Jian, "Master, really? I'll run, I'll run right away!"

As he said that, he disappeared.

"Tsk, you're quite good at acting." He Mingyu did not dare to speak in front of Si Yi, but she hid in the dark. Seeing Yun Jian's appearance, she could not help but mutter.

Zhang Shaofeng's physical strength was getting better and better. After more than an hour, he had completed twenty laps around the mountain top.

In this one hour, Yun Jian could not help but smile mockingly as he watched He Mingyu's technique of hitting a bird every ten times.

"Master! I'm done running!" Zhang Shaofeng took a few deep breaths and wiped off his sweat. He was not paralyzed like an ordinary person after running so many routes.

Seeing Yun Jian take out a butterfly knife from his pocket, He Mingyu looked at it and laughed coldly. "It's just a trick!"

Gu Liuli also looked over and also chuckled.

Yun Jian took out the butterfly knife and swung it twice. Then he said to Zhang Shaofeng, "The butterfly knife is flexible. If you want to throw it, you have to grasp its structure and the way to play it."

Yun Jian suddenly narrowed his eyes.

The surrounding people, including He Mingyu, Gu Liuli, and Fu Xin, were slightly shocked. However, they saw Yun Jian suddenly throw the butterfly knife out of one place.

Then, a scene that everyone present was so terrified that they would never forget in their lives appeared —

Chapter 1814: A knife flies over a string of three birds

The reason why the butterfly knife was called the butterfly knife was because its body was very similar to a butterfly.

A butterfly had a body and two wings. When the wings were folded, it could wrap its body.

The butterfly knife was the same. The blade of the butterfly knife was the body of the butterfly.

If a normal knife was to be put in a sheath, the sheath of the butterfly knife was not a sheath. It had two sheaths, one on the left and the other on the right. When the two sheaths were folded, the blade of the butterfly knife could be installed.

The two scabbards were like the wings of a butterfly. They could be closed at will.

In other words, the difference between a normal knife and a butterfly knife was that the moment the butterfly knife was opened, the two scabbards could be combined to form a normal knife. It could also grab a scabbard and throw it out, to hold the other blade.

Simply put, the butterfly knife was a tool that could be transformed into an ordinary knife and not an ordinary knife.

People who did not know how to play with the butterfly knife, if they grabbed a scabbard and threw the butterfly knife away, it was very likely that they would be accidentally injured.

Therefore, when many people were learning the butterfly knife for the first time, they would first use an unopened knife to practice for a long time.

Yun Jian held the butterfly knife in my hand and played with it flexibly. In the distance, he mingyu, Gu Liuli, and the others were dumbfounded.

The surrounding children had never seen such a knife. Even if they had seen such a knife, they had never seen a butterfly knife with such a blade and two scabbards that could be assembled into an ordinary knife, it was so smooth and smooth.

“Wow! Pretty sister is not only pretty, she’s also amazing!”

“Yeah! Pretty sister is too amazing!”

“Pretty sister is so amazing and beautiful. When I grow up, I want to marry such a pretty sister too!”

...

This large group of children were all at the childhood stage. They were innocent and said whatever came to their minds.

Seeing that Yun Jian was able to wield a knife so nimbly, this group of children were all dumbfounded.

Even Fu Xin looked at Yun Jian with his somewhat greedy eyes.

In response to this, Xu Mingyu and Gu Liuli, who were watching from afar, clenched their fists tightly. They were so angry that they wanted to immediately walk over and give Yun Jian a beating.

However, at this moment, Yun Jian suddenly put away her knife. She held the two scabbards together and folded the butterfly knife into the same shape as an ordinary knife. With the blade at the bottom, she held the scabbard that formed the hilt of the knife. Her eyes flashed sharply as she narrowed her eyes.

“CHIRP CHIRP CHIRP! Dregs! CHIRP CHIRP CHIRP!”

Not far away, because no one went over to disturb them, a large group of birds had already landed on the ground to look for food. They even let out satisfied cries after eating millet.

It was also at this moment that he mingyu, Gu Liuli, Fu Xin, and all the children saw a scene that they would never forget in their lives due to their fear

Yun Jian’s butterfly knife suddenly flew out from her palm towards the birds. Her knife was so fast that the naked eye could not see it clearly.

The knife flew out from her hand and flew towards the birds that felt the danger and wanted to escape at lightning speed.

The butterfly knife relied on the momentum and did not merge. The blade and the two scabbards formed an ordinary dagger and actually flew past the birds that wanted to escape.

The not long blade pierced through the abdomen of the three birds that were trying to escape, nailing the three birds to the blade!

The knife technique was accurate!

Yun Jian's butterfly knife not only hit the abdomen of the bird, but also pierced through the abdomen of the bird. Instead, it was like a lamb skewer, nailing the three birds to the blade of the butterfly knife!

This scene caused an uproar.

Silence, a dead silence.

Everyone was so shocked that their backs were erect, their pupils were constricted, and their mouths were agape, as if they had seen the arrival of the Grim Reaper.

Chapter 1815: there are treasures in the back of the mountain, and they belong to me

A knife pierced through the abdomen of three birds in a row! Yun Jian's knife technique was so accurate that it frightened and horrified everyone present!

He mingyu and Gu Liuli were so frightened by Yun Jian's move that their faces were beyond recognition. They could not speak for a long time, and even their minds were blank.

The group of friends around them were the same. In the end, Fu Xin broke the silence and looked at Yun Jian in amazement. "So... Amazing..."

He thought that all the girls from the city were delicate and delicate.

However, to be honest, Yun Jian's actions completely overturned everyone's understanding.

"My Master! Of course, she's amazing! You guys have never seen her at her best. Words can't describe her!" Zhang Shaofeng glared at the few people who were mocking Yun Jian and said smugly.

"When the Knife Falls, you have to use your voice to listen to the position of the target you're hunting. You're just learning now, so you have to familiarize yourself with the butterfly knife first.

"When you're so familiar with it that you can turn it flexibly even with your eyes closed, you'll be able to do this even without using your eyes to look."

Yun Zhi's voice came immediately after Zhang Shaofeng's words.

Hearing this, Zhang Shaofeng very seriously memorized Yun Zhi's words in his heart.

"If you need anything, you can mention it to me." Perhaps it was because Zhang Shaofeng and Chen Xinyi treated the cloud note well, Si Yi interrupted at this time and said to Zhang Shaofeng.

There were only a few people in the world who could receive Si Yi's words.

Zhang Shaofeng naturally knew that his master-in-law was a very mysterious person. To be able to say such words, it could be seen that he treated him well.

Zhang Shaofeng, who was about to call him big brother Si, unconsciously called him by the wrong name. Zhang Shaofeng excitedly called si yi, "Thank you, master-in-law."

After he said that, Zhang Shaofeng suddenly realized that he had called Si Yi by the wrong name.

F * ck! He was an idiot. He had called Si Yi by the wrong name!

Didn't master-in-law call Si Yi Old? !

Just as Zhang Shaofeng was about to change his words, he saw Si Yi, who was holding onto the cloud paper, curving his handsome face. That indifferent face, which seemed as if nothing in the world could enter his eyes, revealed a faint smile.

Did he see wrongly... ? ... Si Yi actually liked the way he addressed him?

Zhang Shaofeng felt that he had to shout this way more often!

"Yo, aiyō! Which family's child is this? He actually shot three little birds with a knife! The children of Jinde village are getting more and more good at catching birds! He's really different from this group of children from the city!"

At this moment, the grandmother of the little girl who ran home crying yesterday, Old Lady Lu's voice was heard.

Not far away, Granny Lu was carrying her granddaughter as she spoke.

Granny Lu had come to the back of the mountain because she wanted her granddaughter to play with the big guys. She did not expect to see that the knife on the ground had been hit by three birds in a row.

Seeing that Yun Jian and the others were there, she wanted to say a few words to show off her prowess as a jinde villager.

"Granny, she was the one who hit the three birds." Just as Granny Lu was feeling pleased with herself, Fu Xin's voice suddenly rang out. As he spoke, he pointed at Yun Jian who was not far away.

Upon hearing this, old madam Lu's expression immediately froze.

What! The three birds' blades in the string were actually sent flying by her!

Wasn't she a useless little girl from the city? How could she have such abilities! !

Just as Old Madam Lu was holding her granddaughter and standing there in shock, Yun Zhi and Si Yi suddenly felt the abnormality in their surroundings.

The next second, she exchanged a look with Si Yi and walked to a spot at the back of the mountain.

"Hey, where are you guys going..." Fu Xin, he mingyu, Gu Liuli, and the others were all surprised when they saw this. Then, they followed Yun Jian and Si Yi.

Zhang Shaofeng was puzzled because Chen Xinyi was there, so he didn't follow them.

About five minutes after they walked to the top of the back of the mountain, Yun Jian suddenly gestured to the group of people behind him.

He mingyu wanted to curse Yun Jian. What are you trying to do? !

But for some reason, she didn't react to Yun Jian's gesture immediately.

Just as he mingyu was about to make a sound, the group of people who followed her heard a few whispers.

"I heard that there is a treasure buried in the back mountain of Jinde village. Is it true or false?"

"It must be true! I guess it's near this mountain. It's said that even the residents of Jinde village don't know about this!"

"Recently, a lot of outsiders have come to Jinde village. Isn't it for the sake of snatching this treasure? Right now, the back mountain is full of people from all walks of life. We might run into this group of people at any time!"

"Hold on to the thing in your hand tightly. When the boss comes later, we have to do a big job! The thing belongs to none other than us!"

Chapter 1816: treasure was a family heirloom

Hearing the conversation between the two, Yun Jian and Si Yi, who were standing in the dark, had a flash in their eyes.

He mingyu, Fu Xin, and Gu Liuli covered their mouths tightly. They stared at the scene in front of them with their eyes wide open and forced themselves to not make a sound.

Fortunately, the group of children who were still in primary school didn't follow them, and Old Lady Lu didn't follow them, so they didn't make a sound.

He mingyu and the others were terrified because the two men standing in front of them each had two pistols in their hands!

Listening to their conversation, one thing could be known: the guns in their hands were definitely real guns!

As soon as their conversation ended, a burly figure suddenly jumped out from the bushes beside them.

These two were considered tall and thin. With their backs facing Yun Jian and Si Yi, one of them shouted at the burly figure, "Liu Huo, how is it? is the boss here?"

"No, Boss said that the information was wrong. There are no treasures at the back mountain of Jin de village. Let's leave quickly! This is all a F * cking bluff!"

The man named Liu Huo waved at the two tall and thin men.

His movements were very soft and his voice was not loud, but Yun Jian, Si Yi, and the others who were hiding in the dark could hear him clearly.

When they heard that the information was wrong, the two thin and tall men cursed in a low voice and left.

The scene in front of them was like a joke. After the three men left, Yun Jian and the others went back.

"Is... is the gun in their hands real... real..." he mingyu's heart trembled for a while before she asked the question she wanted to ask.

When they saw Yun Jian and Si Yi walking over, he mingyu and the others followed them without thinking.

He mingyu followed them with the intention to measure what tricks Yun Jian wanted to play. However, on the way back, her whole body was trembling, and she couldn't help but ask in a trembling voice.

"If you want to know whether it's true or not, why don't you go after her and ask her?" Yun Jian smiled coldly.

If Yun Jian had said this before, he mingyu would probably have refuted him. However, he mingyu was too afraid now and couldn't say a word.

When they returned to the place where everyone was hunting birds, although he mingyu and the others were afraid, they didn't mention a single word about the scene just now.

Fortunately, the people who went there were people around Yun Jian's age. Because they saw a scene that was extremely terrifying to them, no one mentioned what happened just now.

When they returned to the back of the mountain, everyone no longer had the intention to continue shooting birds with slingshots. Each and every one of them found an excuse to go home.

At night, it was past six in the evening. The Sun was gradually setting, and the afterglow of the sky was gradually showing. They had not yet started eating at home.

He Qing did not make dinner in time either. After he came back from outside, he hurriedly called Yun Jian, Si Yi, Chen Xinyi, and Zhang Shaofeng into the house.

"Xinyi, I've already made a call. In a while, your family's car will come here to pick you up and take you back to Longmen City," he Qing said, looking flustered.

"Go Home? Grandfather, we just came yesterday. Why do we have to go back?" Chen Xinyi was shocked and confused.

He Qing was silent for two seconds. He suddenly looked at Yun Jian and Si Yi. In the end, he seemed to have made a decision. He walked to the door and looked around. When he saw that there was no one at home, he closed the door and turned around to speak seriously to the crowd.

He first looked at Yun Jian and Si Yi. "Xinyi told me a long time ago that one of you is her best friend, and the other is her best friend's man. You can be trusted! I Won't hide this from you."

As he spoke, he Qing looked at the crowd and sighed. "Recently, many foreigners have come to our Jinde village. I don't know if you know, but recently, there have been many foreigners coming and going from our back mountain. They say that they are here to look for treasures."

Hearing this, Yun Jian's deep eyes narrowed slightly.

He Qing's extremely serious words were then heard. "They have been fruitless in their search for treasures at the back mountain. Some have gone back, and some are still not giving up.

"I heard that a group of people came recently. They are world-class big shots and have guns in their hands! I just heard from someone at the village entrance that those people won't leave until they get the treasure! They even want to go door to door to search for the treasure they want!"

As he Qing said that, he quickly walked to his own bed and bent over to the bottom of the bed. He lifted up a piece of the floor under the bed and took out an ancient box from inside.

He Qing walked over and stuffed the box into Chen Xinyi's arms. Then, he anxiously said to Chen Xinyi and the others,

"The treasure they want is the heirloom of our he family! "The treasure is in this box. It must not be taken away! "Xinyi, quickly take it and leave this place! "If they can't find anything in our Jinde village, they will leave!"

Chapter 1817: he Qing's younger brother betrayed him

"Grandfather! Then... then what are you going to do..."Chen Xinyi had never heard of this matter before, let alone that her family had a family heirloom. She was stunned and asked.

He Qing's words also made Yun Jian Blink.

He Qing could say these words in front of her and Si Yi. It could be seen that he Qing trusted her and Si Yi very much.

Zhang Shaofeng was also slightly stunned when he heard he Qing's words.

Meanwhile, Si Yi, who was standing at the side, acted as if he did not hear he Qing's words at all.

As the leader of the dark soul organization, what kind of treasures could he not get?

To Si Yi, those rare treasures were simply not as precious as his little paper.

His treasure was just a little paper. Other than that, there was no one or thing that could replace it!

"Dong Dong and I will stay here. Don't worry, everything will be fine. Those people don't even know that the treasure is in our house. Anyway, Xinyi, hurry up and take your things and leave! In a while, your family's car will drive to the entrance of the village to pick you up!"

He Qing said seriously.

This heirloom had been in the hands of the he family for many generations.

About a year or two ago, someone suddenly spread the news that there was a treasure in the back mountain of Jinde village. The people of Jinde village did not know about this news, but it caused a stir outside.

Later on, many people came to the back mountain of Jinde Village to search for the treasure, but they were all fruitless.

Basically, people searched the back mountain of Jinde village. If they did not find the treasure, they would leave.

However, the group of people who had come in the past two days were said to have been sent by some international bigwigs! These people all had guns in their hands! One look and one could tell that they were gangsters!

Just now, he Qing had heard in the village that those people had put down the Haikou and said that they would not leave until they found the treasure!

This time, he Qing was anxious.

Therefore, he quickly called Chen Xinyi back and planned to let her leave with the treasure.

As they spoke, the sound of a car honking could be heard from the door. Hearing this, he Qing let Chen Xinyi hold the antique box firmly, then told everyone to pack their things and leave.

"The car is here, Xinyi. Hurry back to Longmen City and give this box to your mother. Don't let your first uncle and second Uncle Know About It!" He Qing warned Chen Xinyi.

He Qing knew very well that his eldest and second sons were very greedy. If they knew that he had a treasure, they would definitely sell it for money at the first opportunity.

As he Qing spoke, he led Chen Xinyi, Yun Jian, and the others out of the gate.

However, just as they walked out of the gate, he Qing saw a small car parked not far away...

And beside this small car stood a group of fierce-looking people.

These fierce-looking people had guns in their hands!

The leader of this group of fierce-looking people was the man with a tattoo on his chest who was standing at the front.

Next to the man stood a person he Qing was very familiar with.

"Liang, why are you here!" He Qing looked at the leader of the group of people who was about his age and looked 90% like him.

The person called Liang was he Qing's younger brother, he Liang.

"Brother, what is that thing in your granddaughter's Arms? Where are you going?" At this moment, when he Liang saw the thing in Chen Xinyi's arms, his eyes lit up.

“He Liang! Do you know what you are talking about!”The group of fierce-looking people around them were obviously the world-class big shots. When he Qing heard he Liang’s words, his eyes widened in shock.

“You don’t have to call me by my name, brother! I can hear you!”He Liang said to He Qing in a strange voice.

After saying this, he liang was just going to pretend, but now his true form was revealed.

“Hmph, brother! You’re so good to your brother! When our father’s bones passed away, you were really good to him!”!

“He passed such a precious thing to you. If it wasn’t for Old Wang who heard the conversation between you and our father in the past, I wouldn’t even know if I died. Our family even passed down such a precious thing!”

He Liang’s words were full of sarcasm. Anyone who was present could hear it.

Chapter 1818: Trash Gun Yes, silver pistol

He Qing’s old father had passed away. Before he passed away, he gave the heirloom to he qing so that he Qing could pass it on.

For heirlooms, some people would think about how to sell it after they got it, while others would pass it on even if they starved to death.

Of course, there were very few people who could do the latter, and he Qing was one of them.

He Qing’s old father had long seen through the character of his other son, he liang. That was why he Qing’s old father had handed over the family heirloom to he qing.

At this moment, after hearing he Liang’s words, he Qing suddenly thought of something. His fingers trembled as he pointed at the group of fierce-looking people and said loudly, “Liang, could it be that these people... were all called over by you?”

His own brother had betrayed him!

He Qing did not know how to describe this feeling.

“My Brother, don’t act as if you’ve suffered a great loss. When that old man gave you the family heirloom, did he think that I was also his son! ?”!

“Hehe, I might as well tell you that the matter of the family heirloom in our Jinde village was also spread by me!”

He Liang’s face made Chen Xinyi and Zhang Shaofeng nauseous.

Yun Jian’s eyes flashed with a profound light.

Si Yi’s hand that was holding her waist never relaxed.

“You! You...”he Liang’s words made he Qing’s expression change drastically. He Qing could not believe that his younger brother would betray him like this. He clutched his heart and was so angry that he almost vomited blood.

“What are you guys still standing there for? Hurry up and snatch the treasure away! It’s in that woman’s arms!”He Liang suddenly spoke to the leader who was standing beside him and pointed at Chen Xinyi as he spoke.

The main playground of Jinde village was next to he Qing’s house, so the noise immediately attracted everyone in the village.

Whether it was Old Lady Lu, he mingyu, Gu Liuli, Fu Xin, and the others who met Yun Jian and the others in the back mountain, they all heard the noise and came over.

When they saw the leader standing there with a group of fierce-looking people, and each of them held a bright pistol in their hands, the ignorant people in the village were all scared pale.

“How Dare You Order Me!”The leader glanced at He Liang, waved his hand, and directly asked his men to grab he liang.

“What are you doing? Didn’t you say that you would give me half of the treasure! You...”he liang was still in shock when he was pressed down, when the leader’s men pointed the muzzle at his head, he Liang was completely silent.

“My name is Henry Si. I’m the younger brother of Country D’s arms magnate, Henry Wei. Old Man, if you know what’s good for you, then hand it over, or else... Hehe.”The leader said as he twirled the pistol in his hand.

At the scene, the scene of He Liang betraying he Qing and Henry si betraying he liang made everyone who didn’t dare to say another word tremble.

Looking at the shiny pistols, he Qing clenched his fists.

He didn’t expect that in the end, the one who destroyed his family’s heirloom was his own younger brother!

“Old Man, give it to me! or I’ll kill you!”Henry si saw that he Qing didn’t take out the treasure, so he grabbed the gun and aimed it at He Qing’s head.

“I won’t give it to you.”Just when everyone was watching and felt that he qing couldn’t keep his family’s heirloom, a beautiful female voice sounded.

Yun Jian took the antique box from Chen Xinyi and held it in her hand. She crossed her arms and looked at Henry in front of everyone.

“What did you say? ! Give it to me!”Henry heard Yun Jian’s words and angrily pointed his gun at Yun Jian.

The gun was pointed at Yun Jian’s head. She was provoking Henry who had a gun. was she looking for death!

The surrounding residents of Jinde village, including Fu Xin, he mingyu, and the others, all took a deep breath. They were so scared that their faces were extremely pale.

Old Woman Lu was so scared that her legs were paralyzed.

Just as Henry SI was being overbearing, a “Bang”shot rang out. Without giving anyone a chance to react, the shot was aimed directly at Henry Si’s wrist, which was aimed at Yun Jian’s head.

The bullet flew into Henry’s wrist that was holding the gun at a speed that Henry had no time to react to.

Henry’s wrist nerves were crippled on the spot! The gun in his hand that was aimed at Yun Jian’s head also fell to the ground unconsciously.

No one could see who fired the gun at all. When everyone looked towards the direction of the terrifying bullet, they only saw a shiny silver pistol appearing in Si Yi’s right hand that was wrapped around Yun Jian’s waist.

In terms of marksmanship, Si Yi was invincible in this world.

Si Yi’s face was dark as he looked at Henry without changing his expression. When no one knew when he had taken the gun and shot at such a fast speed, he had directly disabled Henry’s wrist, a voice that was so cold that it caused everyone to be shocked and eat crazily rang out. These words were said to Henry:

“Put your trash gun away. Don’t point it at My Woman!”

Chapter 1819: If You Want Revenge, the Dark Ones will find me

The surrounding people were shocked by Si Yi’s action and their faces changed.

What was scary was that Si Yi had a gun in his hand!

And all of Henry’s men had guns! Even if everyone knew that Si Yi had a gun, they would never think that Si Yi would do such a thing

Just because Henry pointed his gun at the cloud paper, Si Yi shot at Henry!

Putting aside Si Yi’s marksmanship, just his actions were to put his own life on the line just to protect the cloud paper?

There were many girls present, and Si Yi was so handsome. When these girls saw this scene, they could not help but feel restless.

Among the boys now, how many could really put their lives on the line just for the girl they liked?

Just as everyone was thinking this.., henry, who had lost one of his wrists, clutched it and roared, “How dare you shoot me! Kill him! Kill them all! After you take the treasure, leave no one alive!”

Henry’s tone was very agitated. It was the kind of furious roar that came from enduring the pain in his wrist.

So what if Si Yi had a gun in his hand! He was only one person after all! The Jinde villagers standing in the distance were all so scared that their legs went weak.

Henry had obviously suffered all kinds of knife and gun wounds before. How could he be ordinary when he was in the black market?

Although Henry was in great pain from Si Yi's attack, he could still endure it.

As soon as he finished yelling, Henry covered his injured wrist. He rolled his eyes and didn't look at the cloud note carefully. Now, he saw that the cloud note was delicate and beautiful.

This was more perfect than any woman he had ever slept with!

Henry's eyes suddenly narrowed and his lower body swelled.

Perhaps it was because si yi actually dared to shoot at him and injure him, but in the spirit of revenge, Henry pointed at the cloud of paper and said to his subordinates,

"Don't kill this woman, kill everyone else! Hehe! If you dare to injure me, I'll F * cking rape your woman in front of the entire village!"

The person Henry wanted to take revenge on was naturally si yi who had injured him.

He was the younger brother of Country D's arms magnate Henry Wei, how could this bastard provoke him!

Initially, Si Yi did not intend to make a move, but when he heard Henry's words, a strong murderous intent flashed across Si Yi's eyes.

Even he himself had not been willing to touch his family's small piece of paper!

"You can prepare to die."

Si Yi let go of the hand on the cloud paper's waist and walked two steps towards Henry.

Yun Jian blinked.

"What did you say! ?" Henry stared at Si Yi with his eyes wide open.

However, the moment Henry spoke, Si Yi's long figure appeared in front of Henry like a phantom.

He directly passed through the group of men protecting Henry like a bolt of lightning.

He raised his hand, and before Henry could even react, the pistol in his hand was pressed against Henry's temple. Without any hesitation, he shot the bullet directly into Henry's temple.

The residents of Jinde village had never seen such a scene before?

At this moment, the residents of Jinde village were so scared that they retreated three feet, and their faces changed in shock.

He, he, he! He actually killed someone! ! !

The second before Henry closed his eyes and stopped breathing, his eyes widened in shock and disbelief, and he fell to the ground.

His group of subordinates were all trained high-level killers!

These high-level assassins could even buy time for him to escape the pursuit of an international agent or one of the top ten assassins!

But just now, Si Yi was like a phantom, arriving in front of him in a few seconds and directly killing him!

This skill...

Other than the top-ranked international agent, Sha Shen, this man in the male circle who could do this...

Could he be from the dark soul organization! .

However, before Henry could think further, his body had already fallen to the ground.

The surrounding residents, including Fu Xin, he mingyu, and the others, all had a drastic change in expression. They were so terrified that they retreated to a corner.

Even Henry's subordinates were shocked by Si Yi's simple yet fast speed, which was so fast that it was impossible for the naked eye to catch.

At this moment, Si Yi had unknowingly put away the pistol in his hand. With both hands in his pockets, he kicked Henry's corpse more than ten meters away, he made Henry's corpse fall on the body of the underling that Henry was most proud of.

In front of everyone, Si Yi's thick and cold words that made people fear rang out. He spoke his identity directly, and his words were directed at Henry's underlings:

"Bring this piece of trash back to country D and tell Henry that if you want revenge, come find me at the Dark Soul Organization!"

Chapter 1820: brother Si Yi, he was bad and good

He was...

A member of the Dark Soul Organization!

Henry's men were not as smart as Henry. When they heard Si Yi's words, they all thought Si Yi was a member of the dark soul organization.

On the streets, anyone who was related to the dark soul organization was terrifying.

Therefore, these men who wanted to avenge Henry were all frightened.

In less than three minutes, the group of people left the scene with Henry's body.

Everything seemed to have returned to the time when nothing had happened.

The only thing left was the scene with the smell of gunpowder.

There was also he Qing's younger brother, he Liang's miserable body.

The surrounding people stared at Si Yi in front of them as if they had seen a ghost.

The gaze of the people from Jin de village could not be described as a horror.

He killed someone! He... he actually killed someone!

Obviously, the surrounding people did not know about the dark soul organization. No one here knew the meaning of the dark soul organization.

"Good! That guy just now killed a lot of people! He was also a criminal from country D. he came to our Z country to provoke our Z country. Does he really think that our Z country has no one? He deserves it!"

At this time, an old man knocked the ground with his walking stick and said loudly.

"That's right, he's just a D country man who came to our Z country to show off!"

"That's right!"

The older generation was more patriotic, so after that old man finished speaking, the surrounding elders all agreed.

Their voices were loud and clear.

So in the end, it was this group of elders who shouted at the crowd, "Young man, well done! We support you!"

In the end, the matter was naturally not settled. The people of Jinde village were almost persecuted by Henry, who came to look for treasures, because of He Liang.

In order to prevent others from coming here to look for treasures, the first thing the village chief of Jinde Village did was to deny the matter of He Liang telling the outside world that there was a treasure in the back mountain of Jinde village.

Naturally, he liang was left to he Qing to deal with it himself.

However, in order to prevent he liang from coveting his family's heirloom, he Qing still asked Chen Xinyi to bring it back to Longmen city quickly and handed it over to Chen Xinyi's mother, he shiya.

At this moment, Yun Jian and Si Yi had also ended their short-lived rural life and returned home.

The eternal necklace that they had captured from the hands of the international criminals the last time had been given to Qin Yirou, who was already wearing it.

On the third day after returning to Longmen City, Adam, who had just returned from a trip with Lan Su, booked a five-star hotel in Longmen City. He invited everyone to the hotel, saying that he was going to announce a major event.

Adam also called Xue Ying and Ling Wei, who were still in the dark soul organization, over. They were so noisy that it was as if they were celebrating a wedding.

At that time, Yun Jian was sitting at a dining table in this five-star hotel. He lowered his head and played the mobile version of the gluttonous snake game introduced to him by green glaze.

The original version of the gluttonous snake game was born in 1976. It first appeared on a arcade game called Blockade, which was a two-player game.

Later, it was modified to be a mobile version of the gluttonous snake. However, mobile phones in this era could not touch the screen, so Yun Jian used the keyboard on the phone to play.

“How is it, Sister Jian Jian? Is it fun?” Si Yi was not here at the moment. After Qing Yan failed to pass the level, she went up to Yun Jian and asked.

“So-so.” Yun Jian’s red arc curved slightly.

“Wow, Sister Jian, this is your first time playing! How did you eat such a long snake body and still survive!” Qing Yan could not help but exclaim in surprise when she saw Yun Jian’s skillful operation.

As soon as Qing Yan finished speaking, she saw Si Yi walking over not far away. Qing Yan consciously made way for him and Si Yi conveniently circled Yun Jian. His handsome face leaned close to Yun Jian and asked her in a low voice, “Little Jian, what are you playing?”

Si Yi’s words made her feel numb. Yun Jian pursed his red lips.

“Sister Jian is playing gluttonous snake!” Qing Yan suddenly added and ran away with a smile.

Yun Jian was slightly numb from Si Yi’s breath beside her ear. She did not raise her head but asked Si Yi, “Do you want to play?”

“Okay.” Si Yi did not hesitate at all. He knew that his Xiao Jian was just asking, but his hand unconsciously took the phone from her hand.

The moment he took the phone, his slender fingers deliberately held her little hand and caressed it for a full three minutes.

Yun Zhi: “...” did he stretch out his hand to take the phone, or to touch her hand?

Just as Si Yi’s tender hand refused to let go, Little Yun Zhu and the other two who were laughing and chasing beside him suddenly stopped.

Especially Little Yun Zhu, when he saw this scene, he suddenly shouted in front of everyone, “Wow, brother Si Yi is taking advantage of my sister again! He’s so bad!”
