

Schoolgirl 1861

Chapter 1861: mysterious black robe, the man has appeared

After hearing Yun Jian's words, Medan, who had been slapped by Yun Jian, his deep pupils contracted slightly. After all, Medan was not an ordinary person. He quickly returned to normal and then glared at Yun Jian.

At this moment, a stream of bright red blood was left by the side of Medan's mouth.

It was caused by Yun Jian's powerful slap, which hit his vital point.

"Maidan, are you okay?" The men standing next to Maidan looked at him worriedly.

Maidan only waved his hand lightly to show that he was fine.

After all, he was a person who was used to the wind and rain. Maidan strode forward and looked at Yun Jian. Although he did not unite with his friends to encircle Yun Jian like before, he arrogantly said to Yun Jian,

"Little girl, you have some guts! Then let's see who's better at the hunting school!"

After saying that, he snorted coldly and left with a solemn face.

From the reactions of the group of people from Denmark just now, including the fact that the hunting school was isolated from the world and that one had to sign a life and death contract to enter the school.

Even if no one said it out loud, if one were to die in the hunting school, whether it was man-made or truly unfortunate, it was indescribable.

"Yunjian, Are You Alright?" Shen Liwei asked Yunjian worriedly after seeing that Denmark had left.

"Do you think I'm someone who's in trouble?" Yunjian curved his head and glanced at Shen Liwei.

"Which country are they from? ! This is too brazen, this is too much! Don't tell me... Don't tell me they're going to lay their hands on you at the Hunting School?" Even a rich young lady like Meng Tiantian had come to a realization, she looked at Yun Jian with some fear and said in disbelief.

For Meng Tiantian, being sheltered by her parents since young, what happened just now had already exceeded her imagination and tolerance.

"Yes." Yun Jian didn't beat around the bush.

"AH? Then, then what should we do!" Meng Tiantian glanced at Yun Jian and asked hesitantly, "Will You Die?"

"No." This time, Yun Jian's reply was very straightforward. After saying that, Yun Jian tilted her head slightly. She curved her body coldly and raised the angle of the arc to the highest point.

She took a big step forward and tilted her body slightly to glance at Meng Tiantian. The angle of the arc that Yun Jian raised was just right. She said coldly to Meng Tiantian and looked ahead as if she had already made a plan:

“That level is not considered a threat at all. An expert whose strength is inferior to his opponent would never expose his killing intent in front of his opponent so that his opponent would be on guard. He is not qualified.”

After saying that, Yun Jian did not greet Meng Tiantian and Shen Liwei and left the noisy seaside and walked towards a remote and quiet path.

He walked along the quiet path by the seaside. It was a spacious seaside just now, but here was a quiet seaside path.

Yun Jian enjoyed the sea breeze blowing here.

The Night Breeze was chilly, but it gave people a dark and natural feeling.

“Whoosh!” At the moment when there was no one around, Yun Jian suddenly felt danger approaching her!

She bent down reflexively and stood up straight, dodging the attacks of the three knives at the fastest speed.

Yun Jian’s eyes darkened. After dodging the attacks of the three knives, her human eyes had already swept over the figure in black robes running towards Shen Liwei and Meng Tiantian.

Black robes?

Mysterious Person! ?

Yun Jian’s pupils constricted. She chased after the person in black robes.

“Eh, That’s Yun Jian? She seems to be chasing after someone?” Shen Liwei and the others who had been standing at the same spot did not leave.

When they saw Yun Jian chasing after a black-robed person with a mask on her face, Shen Liwei and the others were slightly surprised.

At this moment, Yun Jian had already somersaulted over the black-robed person and arrived in front of the black-robed person. She kicked the black-robed person’s abdomen and knocked him to the ground. Then, she took large strides forward, she stepped on the black-robed person’s abdomen in front of everyone and shouted,

“Tell me, who... Are You!”

Chapter 1862: time bomb, was complicated

Whether this man in black robes was the mysterious person or not, Yun Jian could not determine.

At this moment, Chen Yang and Ding Jianlin, who came from country Z with Yun Jian, brought a group of special forces soldiers from other countries who made friends with them after chatting with them for a while.

Seeing Yun Jian, Chen Yang asked, "Yun Jian?"

"He has a time bomb on him." Yun Jian didn't try to dissuade the surrounding people. Seeing that the surrounding people didn't listen to her, she didn't reply to Chen Yang in a hurry. Instead, she said it with a cold smile.

As soon as she said this, the surrounding people were so scared that their faces turned green.

However, some people didn't believe her.

Chen Yang and Ding Jianlin naturally couldn't just leave Yun Jian alone. The two of them, as well as the special forces soldiers from other countries who were also going to the hunting school, came forward one after another.

At this moment, the cloud note had already lifted up the expressionless black-robed man's jacket.

The black-robed man's jacket was lifted up, just as she had expected.

However, she only saw that the black-robed man's waist and thighs were filled with rows and rows of time bombs.

The stopwatch on the timer was jumping crazily. At this moment, the display was:

00:01:00.

There was still one minute left!

When they saw the time bomb on the black-robed man's body, the crowd started to panic. Then, they started to run at high speed. In a short while, they finished running.

At this moment, Chen Yang and Ding Jianlin were stunned, but they still walked over with a few new special forces friends.

"What... What's going on!" Someone frowned and asked.

"He has a time bomb strapped to his body. His goal is to kill me." Yun Jian stepped on the black-robed man who had remained silent after saying those words. Her lips curled into a cold smile.

"Then what are you waiting for? ! Run!" A foreigner exclaimed.

"This time bomb is very powerful. Even if you run a hundred meters away, there's no guarantee that you'll be safe. You have to dismantle it." As Yun Jian spoke, she flipped her hand and held the butterfly knife in her right hand, in just a few seconds, she pulled out many of the three red, yellow, and blue wires in the time bomb.

"I know a little bit about defusing bombs. Move aside, I'll do it!" A man saw that Yun Jian was going to defuse the time bomb, and his heart was still filled with fear. He walked over, wanting to switch places with Yun Jian and defuse the bomb himself.

Yun Jian did not give in. She curved her lips and pulled. She did not raise her head. Her hands and attention were focused on how to defuse the time bomb, but she still said the same thing:

“The Tsar’s time bomb, Model RDS-202. It’s the latest time bomb. It’s very powerful. If you defuse it wrongly, we will definitely be crushed into pieces. You defuse it. Are you sure?”

After that, the cloud paper was slightly stunned by the man. Without hesitation, it used the butterfly knife to cut one of the intertwined blue and red lines.

Chapter 1863: she said that explosives were to be used for practice

Just now, when the man was hesitating, Yun Jian did not hesitate at all and directly cut off the two lines that were densely packed with red, yellow, and blue lines on the black-robed man’s body.

When they heard the tsar’s time bomb, the surrounding people were all stunned.

What was the Tsar’s time bomb? That was the bomb known as the “King of bombs” among the bombs!

It was so powerful that anyone who knew about it, or a man who liked guns and ammunition, would definitely recognize the tsar’s time bomb.

And the man who said he knew how to defuse bombs just now only knew a little bit about it.

When he heard that this bomb was actually the tsar’s time bomb, the man’s body was stunned and he hesitated.

The expressions of the surrounding people changed.

However, Yun Jian did not give them a chance to think. She raised her butterfly knife and took out a blue and red line from the complicated red, yellow, and blue lines, she cut it with the butterfly knife on the spot.

Yun Jian’s action did not give anyone a chance to react.

The moment he saw the cloud note cut the string, the man who had said that he was going to dismantle it screamed:

“No! Don’t cut it carelessly! It will explode! ...”

At this moment, no one had the time to think about how the cloud note knew so much about this bomb.

No one thought about how the cloud note could find the three strings of the bomb at the first moment.

However, at this moment, the cloud note had already cut it off.

The man who knew a little about bomb defusing covered his eyes, not daring to watch what happened next.

Everyone knew that if the bomb was defused wrongly, it would only detonate the bomb in advance.

There was only one minute left before the bomb timer was set. A normal bomb defusing expert would definitely think twice before disarming the time bomb. They would not be able to make a decision.

If they were really not 100% confident, they could only disperse the crowd around them to minimize the damage. Their own group would be the last to evacuate.

But what about the cloud note! She was the best!

What kind of bomb disposal expert would mess around like her! ?

She found two wires and cut them with a butterfly knife without even thinking!

What if she defused the wrong wires!

This was the Tsar's time bomb!

Once the Tsar's time bomb exploded, its power could send people standing next to the bomb flying until not even a bone was left!

This was the power of the bomb!

No bones could be seen. That was exactly what it said.

But the cloud paper cut off two of the wires directly!

The surrounding people all closed their eyes and already felt the arrival of death.

...

One second later.

Two seconds later.

Ten seconds later.

Everyone slowly opened their eyes one after another.

They... didn't die?

Did they not die in front of the terrifying tsar time bomb, or did the cloud note successfully defuse the bomb! ?

The answer was naturally the latter!

"Really... you really defused the Tsar Time Bomb!"The man who said he knew how to defuse the bomb looked at the cloud note in disbelief and slowly said.

She really successfully defused the Tsar's time bomb!

The people around were all highly skilled special forces soldiers, so they naturally had a better ability to accept this extraordinary thing.

A few seconds later, these people all accepted Yun Jian's action of defusing the bomb just now.

"Are you very surprised?"Yun Jian glared at the man who had been talking to her.

"The Tsar's time bomb! You can actually defuse it... to be honest, I really didn't have any confidence just now..."the man who knew how to defuse bombs scratched his scalp and muttered.

Then, the man paused and introduced himself to Yun Zhi, "Hello, my name is Choyt, I'm from country Y."

Seeing that Choyt had greeted Yun Zhi, the surrounding men all expressed their goodwill to Yun Zhi.

Especially Cloud Note's astonishing strength just now, which made the people around her doubt her age and strength when they first saw her. At this moment, they did not doubt her at all.

Cloud Note nodded. She easily untied the row of time bombs and threw them on the ground.

Seeing that Cloud Note actually untied the time bombs so easily, joy swallowed her saliva and asked, "You seem to be very familiar with the structure of the Tsar's time bombs?"

"I have a bunch of such time bombs. I usually use them to practice, so I'm naturally familiar with them." The Cloud Note said these words in front of this group of stunned men.

Chapter 1864: he is your deputy instructor

After gulping down a mouthful of saliva, Choyt and the others gave Yun Jian a new label.

This little girl must be a monster!

That's right, she must be a monster!

A... Monster with such powerful strength!

"Then what should we do with him?" Choyt and the others asked Yun Jian after they reacted and looked at the black-robed man.

How should they deal with this black-robed man.

"He actually dared to surround explosives in public. This matter, we must definitely call the police!" A man said angrily.

"It's too late to call the police." Yun Zhi stood up at this time. She lowered her head and looked at the black-robed man under her feet. Suddenly, she said something.

Hearing this, the surrounding people were confused.

"Why is it too late?" A man asked in surprise.

What did Yun Jian mean by this?

Before Yun Jian could react, the black-robed man lying on the ground suddenly bled from his seven orifices and stopped breathing after a while.

"Why is He..." dead! ?

Seeing this, someone pointed at the black-robed man and asked Yun Jian.

At this moment, Yun Jian seemed to have become a god who knew everything.

The group of men seemed to have become ignorant, waiting for their teacher to teach them one by one.

“He’s just a puppet. If the mission fails, he won’t live. If the mission succeeds, he’ll die. Just now, he only bit the suicide poison hidden in his gums.”

Yun Jian retracted his leg and had a general understanding.

The mysterious man obviously knew that he wouldn’t die in a time bomb.

He sent such a puppet to find him just to pass on that sentence.

And the row of time bombs just now was a greeting gift from the mysterious man.

Greeting Gift?

Yun Jian curved his lips.

She wanted to see what the big surprise the mysterious man left for her at the hunting school was!

...

This matter naturally caused a stir among the police. Later on, Yun Jian and the others revealed their identities and were released by the police.

Three days later, everyone gathered at the main entrance of the six-star hotel in Brunei.

Jamil also arrived as promised.

“Is everything ready?” Jamil narrowed his eyes and looked at everyone present. Suddenly, he spoke.

Everyone responded.

When Jamil saw this, he let everyone sit on the bus that he had contracted and headed to the hunting school.

The hunting school was located in the tropical jungle of Venezuela. There were very few people here. The hunting school had built houses in the tropical jungle of Venezuela. It was not luxurious.

However, there were all kinds of training tools here.

Yun Jian followed the trend of the large group to come here. She had just arrived at the hunting school when she narrowed her eyes slightly.

This place was still as simple and crude as before.

“From today onwards, I will be your chief instructor. In a moment, you will be given a random number that belongs to all of you! “In this place, you are not allowed to call each other by their names. The students will be suspended from training for 48 hours. No matter what the reason is, it will be considered as giving up automatically!”

Jamil stood in front of everyone and spoke in a very serious manner.

After he finished speaking, Jamil turned his head and looked to the side.

He saw a tall, handsome, composed and dignified man around 25 years of age walking over from a small shabby house on the side.

When he saw this man, Yun Zhi narrowed his eyes slightly.

Jamil pointed at the man and introduced him to everyone present:

“This is your deputy instructor, Ling Wei. That’s right, he is one of the four great leaders of the dark soul organization. He holds the Dark Soul Organization’s assassin training camp and has trained countless terrifying existences in the world!

“Back then, the number one spy, Sha Shen, was also personally trained by him. Under his training, all of you will become extremely outstanding! However, the prerequisite is that all the hardships and tiredness will have to be kept in your stomachs!

“From now on, he will be your adjutant! Other than me, Jamil, all of you will have to listen to the Adjutant!”

Chapter 1865: Lin Wei’s words were shocking

Lin Wei’s sharp eyes swept across the entire scene. Finally, he paused on the cloud paper for two seconds before passing it by.

That cold look was as if nothing in the world could stop or attract him.

He looked at the cloud paper twice more because the young master had instructed him that no matter what, he had to make sure that not a single hair on the cloud paper was missing.

Otherwise, the person who would lose a single hair would be him, Lin Wei.

Lin Wei was naturally calm and composed. He was even more composed than Mo Sen, so he naturally would not shout out the words ‘Young Madam’ at such an occasion.

Yun Jian’s first reaction when he saw Lin Wei was not that he had appeared here.

Instead...

What a coincidence. In his previous life, as the god of the moment, he had been personally trained by Lin Wei.

In this life, he came to the hunting school and became Ling Wei’s subordinate?

This coincidence really made people not know whether to laugh or cry.

After Jamie finished speaking, he got everyone present to respond. Then, he got people to give each of them a number plate.

After giving out this number plate, Jamie continued to say, “Have you gotten this number plate in your hands? From today onwards, it will be your names!”

Yun Zhi flipped the number plate and saw two serious numbers appear before her eyes:

16.

Her number was 16. Although it was not 06, it was still related to 6. What a coincidence.

“Ling Wei, do you have anything to say?” After Jamil finished speaking, he gave the control to Ling Wei.

Ling Wei looked around the scene and only gave one sentence. “I will think of all ways to torture you. Whether you can endure it or not, it’s up to you.”

Other than that, he did not say anything else.

Yun Jian blinked.

This was Ling Wei’s personality. He was a man of few words, and his words hit the nail on the head.

Everyone present swallowed their saliva but did not say anything.

“Today is your first day in the hunting school. On this first day, I will show you a wonderful performance.” Jamil suddenly narrowed his eyes and clapped his hands.

Not long after, a huge lion was put in a cage and pushed out. It was placed in a huge cage in front of everyone.

A slender girl of eighteen or nineteen years old was also grabbed out from the side by Jamil’s subordinates. This girl was very beautiful. She had a pair of sharp sky-blue eyes and was as exquisite as a doll.

After the girl was pushed out, she glared fiercely at Jamil.

Then, not long after, the girl was pushed into the huge cage.

At this moment, the lion was released!

It and the girl looked at each other!

And everyone who stood at the same spot could feel that this lion had been roaring. It was obvious that it had been hungry for a long time!

The hunger made the Lion Roar twice on the ground and pounced fiercely at the girl.

Yun Jian blinked when he saw this.

The moment Ling Wei saw the young girl appear, his eyes moved but he did not make a sound.

The young girl was chased by the Lion for a while when she was suddenly bitten in the thigh. She was in so much pain that her entire body went numb, but she tenaciously stretched out her other leg and kicked the lion in the eye. Taking advantage of the fact that the lion was kicked in the eye, she let out a howl, she turned over and stood up.

The cloud tablet seemed to see her past self on the girl’s body.

Even if she was heavily injured, she had to stand up tenaciously and continue fighting. This was because once you fell, you would never have the chance to stand up again.

No one could save you. The only one who could save you was yourself!

The girl did not see the wound on her thigh. She was forced into a corner, but her eyes were staring at the lion.

Obviously, before this, the young girl had experienced inhuman treatment and understood the principle that the winner was king.

No one could save her.

The lion roared and pounced at the young girl again.

At this moment, the young girl was covered in blood. She was injured and in a sorry state.

She screamed and also pounced at the lion. However, just as she was about to look into the lion's eyes, a blade appeared in her hand. She flipped over from the lion's belly and slashed the blade across the lion's head, killing the lion on the spot.

"Clap Clap Clap!" At this moment, Jamil suddenly narrowed his eyes and clapped. Then, he spoke in a heartless manner as though he was enjoying a show. "What a wonderful performance."

This performance made the surrounding people's hair stand on end.

"Bang!" At this moment, Yun Zhi saw Ling Wei kick open the huge cage and walk towards the young girl.

Ling Wei pulled the girl up from the ground as if she was paralyzed. Then, he looked at the girl with his usual cold gaze. Under Yun Zhi's and everyone's gazes, he suddenly spoke without any room for rebuttal:

"Are you willing to marry me and give birth to my children?"

Chapter 1866: was not intentional. It was intentional

Ling Wei's sudden words startled everyone present.

Even Yun Zhi, who was standing in the distance and squinting at the girl fighting the lion without saying a word, blinked.

Ling Wei's words were truly shocking.

If Xue Ying were here, he would probably burst out laughing.

Not long ago, Xue Ying had asked Ling Wei when he would find a woman to carry on the family line. Today, Ling Wei walked in front of this young girl and directly said, "Are you willing to marry me and give birth to my children?"

How could it be so easy to marry a wife!

Ling Wei did not have any requirements for his partner. When he walked in front of the young girl just now, he saw that the young girl's actions just now were to his liking, so he forced himself to do it.

To Ling Wei, as long as his other half did not cheat on him, he would not find other women other than the other party. There was no love for sex. It was enough to just carry on the family line.

Moreover, he was already 25 years old. It was time to carry on the family line.

When he saw that the girl fit his requirements, Ling Wei came over and said those words just now.

Yun Jian, who was in the distance, blinked and crossed his arms as he watched.

The group of Special Forces soldiers from all over the world, as well as the head instructor of the hunting school, Miguel, who was also the chief instructor, who were standing at the side, were all taken aback.

However, they only saw that the young girl, who had fought with the Lion, was now lying on the ground in a sorry state. Her body was covered in injuries, and her originally not gorgeous clothes had been torn to shreds because of the battle with the Lion. She raised her head and was pulled up by Ling Wei, she looked at Ling Wei with a pair of surprised eyes as if she was about to collapse.

The girl was very beautiful. She had a pair of sky-blue eyes, her facial features were upright, and she was very thin. At first glance, she was very protective.

Especially that pair of stubborn and unyielding eyes of the girl. It was as if she could do her best to survive.

The girl's looks were no different from those of the Z nation. The only difference was probably that pair of sky-blue eyes.

However, this pair of sky-blue eyes was extremely exquisite and beautiful. They were different from cosmetic contact lenses. This pair of pure sky-blue eyes had a natural and refreshing beauty.

"189, hurry up and come out!"! You did indeed perform well after surviving from the lion's mouth just now. What Lord Ling Wei said was naturally a joke to you! Could it be that you have never looked at yourself in the eye? "How can a person like you be worthy of Lord Ling Wei!"

Before Jamil could say anything, a subordinate standing next to Jamil roared at the girl.

189 was the girl's number and name.

The subordinate next to Jamil was called Buddy.

The girl was personally trained by Buddy, and Buddy had been stealing the girl's beauty for a long time. He had never found an opportunity to lay his hands on the girl before.

Buddy had originally planned to wait for the girl to be sent out of the hunting school in the next few days and take possession of the girl.

But he did not expect that Ling Wei would stand up and say such words to the girl! So buddy immediately opened his mouth!

In the hunting school, the status of the students was not high!

Especially for someone like the girl who had been caught and trained here for more than a decade or a few years, her status was even lower than that of a dog!

After hearing what Buddy said, the girl's body trembled, but she did not walk towards him.

The girl was not stupid. She obviously knew that Buddy had bad intentions towards her.

Seeing this, Buddy cursed and pulled out a long whip from his waist, he wanted to walk towards the girl. "F * ck you, you don't even listen to me? Lord Ling Wei is looking at you pitifully, and you still want to take advantage of him?"

This girl is still a virgin, I haven't even touched her yet! Buddy thought to himself.

But towards Ling Wei, Buddy's strength was not as good as hers, so he was naturally respectful and found other reasons to get her back.

"I... I'm willing! As long as you take me out of here, I'm willing to do anything!" The girl was obviously a little afraid of Buddy. She suddenly knelt down towards Ling Wei and grabbed Ling Wei's hand.

"F * ck you, you female B * Tch, how dare you..." seeing this, Badi was about to rush over in an aggressive manner.

There was a steep slope here, and the steep slope was where the huge cage was. Badi passed by the cloud tablet and was about to jump down to the flat ground at the bottom of the steep slope when the cloud tablet suddenly stretched out its leg and kicked Badi on the back, directly kicking Badi down the steep slope.

Buddy did not have time to react, and was directly kicked down the steep slope by the cloud tablet. He fell face down like a frog and could not stand up for a long time.

After all, this was the hunting school, the territory of Buddy and his group. Seeing that the cloud tablet actually did not restrain itself, the surrounding people were terrified.

However, they heard the voice of the cloud tablet, and it sounded coldly, "Sorry, I didn't do it on purpose."

After saying that, Buddy, who had fallen to the ground in pain and couldn't stand up for a long time, and the others immediately heard Yun Jian say something that made buddy so angry that he almost vomited blood. "I did it on purpose."

Chapter 1867: the pretty name of a young girl, Ye Ling

After Yun Jian said this, he wanted to jump down the steep slope, but because he was kicked in the back by Yun Jian, he couldn't react in time and fell down the steep slope like a frog. Buddy's face was smashed by the ground, and he couldn't say a word.

At this moment, hearing Yun Jian say this, his face could be said to be as ugly as eating dog shit.

The worst thing was that Buddy's face was smashed hard, and his mouth was knocked speechless by the broken stones at the bottom of the steep slope.

When Jamil saw this, he did not say anything.

Buddy was Jamil's subordinate, but Jamil would not protect him.

This was a place where the strong preyed on the weak. Even buddy would keep an eye on Jamil's current position, and attack Jamil whenever he had the chance.

In this place, everyone could only live for themselves.

After buddy got up from the ground, he turned around and probed the cloud paper. He glared at the cloud paper and said ferociously in his own country's words,

“When you come to my hunting school, no matter how powerful you were in the past, you will start from scratch here. Little girl, I will remember this kick of yours!”

From the beginning, everyone's words were in Spanish.

Everyone had learned Spanish before coming here.

The hunting school was located in the tropical jungle of Venezuela. As long as a student entered this place, they would be signed with a life and death contract. In other words, even if buddy did something behind Yun Jian's back and Yun Jian died, no one would doubt it.

Therefore, in this place, most people who could leave alive were either so powerful that no one could match them.

Or, they could hide their outstanding strength. They could not be the weakest person, nor could they compete for the strongest one.

Buddy had recorded Yun Jian on the cloud.

At this moment, Buddy did not know that Yun Jian and Lin Wei knew each other, let alone that Yun Jian was the young madam of the Dark Soul Organization.

On the other side, Lin Wei had already held the young girl's hand and pulled her out of the huge cage.

Only then did buddy turn his head to look. When he saw Lin Wei holding the young girl's hand, he knew that his idea of the young girl was ruined this time.

Who Was Lin Wei? He was one of the four great leaders of the dark soul organization!

No matter how tactless buddy was, he would definitely not dare to snatch a woman away from Lin Wei!

Initially, he just wanted to let everyone here witness a good show between a lion and a young girl. In the end, he did not expect Ling Wei to actually take the young girl away. Jamil narrowed his eyes and did not say much.

Actually, to Ling Wei, if the young girl had rejected him just now, he would not have forced her.

He just wanted a woman who could reproduce for him. HMM... ... that was the case. Moreover, the task of reproduction was urgent.

...

Jamil wanted everyone to watch the scene of the girl fighting the lion. It was purely to understand the survival rules of the hunting school on the first day the students entered the hunting school.

Here, no one could protect you! You must protect yourself! Strong enough to survive! Just like that young girl just now!

And it was precisely because of the inhumane training of the hunting school that those who left here were usually the future pillars of the country!

The matter of the young girl was just an accident.

On the first day of school, Jamil did not say much and let everyone return to their own bedrooms.

Because all the people who came were men, Yun Jian was an exception, so Yun Jian was arranged to be in front of the men's residence.

Yun Zhi had just entered the dormitory when he saw the young girl Ling Wei had dragged away.

This dormitory had four shabby beds and three empty beds. Only the young girl's bed had some simple things on it.

Seeing Yun Zhi, the young girl was stunned, but she quickly remembered that Yun Zhi was the person who had helped her kick buddy.

The young girl immediately thanked Yun Zhi. "That... Thank you for earlier!"

The young girl had just been dragged away by Ling Wei and later begged him to let her go back to her residence.

Ling Wei's residence was filled with men, so the young girl was still a little afraid.

After living in the hunting school for so many years, to be able to maintain her innocence was something that would be inconceivable if word got out.

The young girl had also suffered a lot and had almost died! So naturally, she could not trust anyone easily.

Even if she agreed to Ling Wei's matter, it would still be a delaying tactic for the young girl.

How could the young girl not know what that Buddy had in mind for her.

"There's no need to thank me." Yun Jian continued after the young girl finished speaking.

After she finished speaking, Yun Jian turned his head to look at the young girl. It was rare for him to open his mouth and ask for her name. "What's Your Name?"

The girl lowered her head as if she had not called her name for a long time. After a while, she looked up at the cloud tablet and said firmly, "My name is... Ye Ling!"

Chapter 1868: caught his eye, and his body itched

Ye Ling was as beautiful as her name suggested. Her sky-blue eyes seemed to be able to speak, and even Yun Jian couldn't help but take a second look at her.

At this moment, Ye Ling was wearing loose, tattered clothes. The clothes she was wearing and her disheveled appearance were much better than when she fought the lion, but after tidying up and tidying up.., it didn't seem much better.

Yun Jian knew that this was the way ye Ling lived here to protect herself.

If it wasn't for ye Ling smearing herself like this, she would have been tarnished by the men here long ago.

"My Name Is Yun Jian, I'm from country Z,"yun Jian introduced himself briefly. Then, he turned over and lay on one of the empty beds. He put down his backpack and closed his eyes to rest.

Ye Ling saw that Yun Jian had closed his eyes, but she still nodded at Yun Jian and replied softly. Then, she sat on her own bed, deep in thought.

After a while, Yun Jian opened his eyes. Ye Ling saw that Yun Jian had opened his eyes. It seemed that she had not found someone to talk to for a long time. So, she asked Yun Jian carefully,

"Are you going to enter the hunting school on your own?"

Hearing Ye Ling's careful question, yun jian nodded, "Yes."

"Why? Why did you enter the Hunting School on your own? It's very scary here. We all want to leave this place,"Ye Ling asked in confusion.

"For strength. For having greater strength."Yun Jian narrowed his eyes.

Everyone's values and goals were different.

Some people hoped that they could become doctors in the future, while others hoped that they could become teachers in the future.

As for Yun Jian, what she pursued was supreme strength!

After hearing Yun Jian's words, Ye Ling was silent for a moment before continuing, "If you don't ask for my name, I've almost forgotten my own name.

"I've been staying here since I was very young. 189 is my name. The women who are caught here will either become the object of admiration for others, just like how I fought against the Lion just now. My life is in danger at any time.

"Then I'll be the crotch slave of those men!"

When she mentioned the crotch slave, Ye Ling clenched her fists in anger.

After a moment of silence, Ye Ling let out a sigh of relief, then, she said to yun jian, "The women living in the other dormitories are all like me. They've been here since they were very young, but other than me, they've all chosen to be men's venting tools."

As for her, she was struggling hard. This was not the first time she had fought with a lion. Every time, she was covered in bruises.

No one would sympathize with her, Ye Ling. If she did not leave this place, there would only be two outcomes for ye Ling.

Either she would compromise and become like the other women living in the other dormitories, becoming the venting tool for all the men here.

Or she would fight with a ferocious beast without stopping until she was exhausted and died in the ferocious Beast's bloody mouth.

"There used to be four people in this dormitory. Now, I'm the only one left." Ye Ling sighed.

Ye Ling did not know why she was so talkative today. She told Yun Jian everything that she knew.

After saying these words, she felt that she was a little stupid. Why did she have to say so much?

"Yes." At this moment, she heard Yun Jian softly promise.

Yun Jian usually did not pay much attention to people. To be able to respond to Ye Ling meant that he had already treated Ye Ling as Ling Wei's woman.

"Bang!" At this moment, the door of Yun Jian's and Ye Ling's dormitory was suddenly kicked open. A woman led a group of women through the door fiercely.

This woman had just entered the door when she stepped on a broken stool in Ye Ling's dormitory. She unceremoniously said,

"189, I heard that Lord Ling Wei of the Dark Soul Organization has taken a fancy to you? You Woman, your charm is quite impressive! Have you not been beaten for so long that your body is Itchy?"

Chapter 1869: lowly slave, you're courting death

Ye Ling sat up straight when she heard someone kicking the door. Her expression changed when she saw the woman who led the group step on the bench and say such words to her.

Basically, all the women here were capable.

However, Ye Ling was the most desperate and also the most powerful among this group of women.

However, Ye Ling's strength was not strong enough for this group of women to work together to deal with her. She could easily fight back!

These women were the same as Ye Ling. They had been captured and brought here since they were young.

The difference between these people and Ye Ling was that they could be fucked by any man here. They could be used as a tool to vent at any time and place.

To put it bluntly, they were the female branch girls.

Ye Ling had never compromised, so she was still a pure and innocent girl.

These women were very jealous, but they could not stand the suffering Ye Ling could endure, and they could not fight against a fierce beast like a lion.

That would kill people!

So these women would rather choose to sleep under a man's crotch than fight against death every day for the sake of their innocence.

Therefore, they especially disliked Ye Ling.

Why! Why Was Ye Ling still a virgin! And they had become the tools for all the men here to vent! A slut who could fuck anyone!

“211, my matter has nothing to do with you!” Ye Ling stood up and looked into the woman’s eyes.

Ye Ling was covered in injuries, but after looking into the woman’s eyes, she still refused to give in.

Everyone here used serial numbers to refer to each other. This woman with serial number 211 was called 211.

“TSK, what Lord Ling Wei likes is really different? A few of us sisters wanted to walk into Lord Ling Wei’s residence, but we couldn’t get in. You Little Slut, what right do you have to get Lord Ling Wei’s proposal? Sisters, strip her of her clothes and throw her outside!”

211 glared fiercely at Ye Ling and said.

After 211’s group found out about Ling Wei’s identity, it wasn’t that they didn’t find an opportunity to climb into bed, but they couldn’t even enter Ling Wei’s residence. They couldn’t even see her figure.

So when they heard that Lord Ling Wei had taken a fancy to Ye Ling, they couldn’t help but be angry.

In a place like this, the consequence of stripping a woman naked and throwing her outside was that they would be taken turns by the men who were eyeing her covetously.

One could imagine how Vicious 211 was.

Ye Ling’s brows tightened.

211 wanted to order the group of women behind her to attack Ye Ling, but she saw Yun Jian’s petite figure on the empty bed.

Seeing this, 211 glanced at Ye Ling and said to Yun Jian in a weird tone like a big sister,

“Oh, there’s a newcomer here? She just came in, right? She looks young and tender. Do you want to be like 189, a chaste and virtuous woman, or do you want to ride with thousands of people?”

The students of the hunting school, who were special forces soldiers from various countries, naturally had a much higher status than these women.

The status of these women was even lower than dogs.

For example, the difference between the students of the hunting school and this group of women was that their masters were no different from slaves.

And those who were ranked within 100 were students of the hunting school. People like 211 who were ranked below 100 were slaves of the hunting school.

Don’t look at how arrogant 211 was in front of women. When he was in front of men, he didn’t even know how to write the word ‘speak’.

Naturally, 211 didn’t know that Yun Jian entered the hunting school as a special forces soldier.

211 thought that at Yun Jian's age, she would at most be a girl who had just been brought here.

Yun Jian didn't say anything.

211 thought that Yun Jian was cowardly, so 211 gave a ferocious smile and ordered the group of women behind him, "It looks like she's a mute. That's good. Strip them both naked and throw them into the yard!"

If Yun Jian and Ye Ling were seen by the men in the yard, their innocence would definitely be lost! If the men saw this, it would be strange if they didn't pounce on them.

Just as 211 made a solemn vow, Yun Jian stood up and looked into 211's eyes. She curled her lips and revealed her number plate. Then, under the horrified gazes of 211 and the others, she suddenly said,

"Lowly slave, I am the new student of the hunting school this year, number 16. You actually dare to attack me in public. Are you courting death!?"

Chapter 1870: said that no one was allowed to go back on their word after giving birth

In a hunting school, anyone with a serial number below 100 was a slave. What did the slave refer to? It referred to an existence that could be bullied by anyone and could not resist even if they were killed.

In short, 211's status was not on the same level as Yun Jian's.

Yun Jian's serial number was 16. Obviously, this serial number was a new student.

And 211 was a slave here, which meant that 211's status was lower than a dog.

The women around, including Ye Ling, were all slaves. Therefore, 211 dared to be arrogant in front of people of the same level because they were all of the same level.

Just like the god of destruction of the Gu Sha mercenary group, compared to an ordinary member of the Gu Sha mercenary group, this analogy could be used to describe the difference between Yun Jian and 211's status!

Therefore, after listening to Yun Jian's words, 211's expression suddenly changed. She looked at Yun Jian in disbelief, and her terrified expression changed. "You! You're a student!"

Not a slave? ? She was actually different from them, not a slave! ?

The reason why 211 regarded Yun Jian as a slave was because Yun Jian was young, and there were many women who were brought here at Yun Jian's age.

Moreover, which batch of students from the hunting school were there women? Only men like Chen Yang and Ding Jianlin could enter the hunting school and become students of the hunting school!

Yun Jian was not only a woman, but also so young! Before 211, Yun Jian would not be lumped together with the students of the hunting school. Naturally, this was the reason.

Therefore, Yun Jian's words almost scared 211 to death.

Not to mention, the status of 211 and the others in the hunting school and the status of the cloud note were not on the same level.

Therefore, after 211 heard the words of the cloud note and looked at the number plate that symbolized the status of the cloud note, he was stunned for a few seconds before he was so scared that he fell to the ground and begged for the forgiveness of the cloud note.

The group of women behind 211 were also so scared that they knelt down and begged for forgiveness.

Yun Jian couldn't be bothered to argue with these women. She didn't come here to argue with these women about these things, so she lightly shouted, "Get lost." Seeing that these women were scared out of their wits, she didn't argue anymore.

...

After these women walked out, Ye Ling let out a sigh of relief. Just as she let out a sigh of relief, someone knocked on the door.

It was a man. This man was quite polite. Knowing that this was a female dormitory, he did not directly enter.

"You're looking for me?" Ye Ling pointed at herself and asked.

"It's Lord Ling Wei looking for you," the man said.

Ye Ling was stunned. For some reason, she turned to look at Yun Jian.

"Go." After saying this, Yun Jian closed the door of the dormitory, obviously not allowing Ye Ling to enter.

Ye Ling was stunned and followed the man to Lin Wei's residence.

Everyone here addressed Lin Wei respectfully as Lord Lin Wei.

After the man brought Ye Ling into Lin Wei's place, he closed the door and left, which made Ye Ling a little scared.

Ye Ling wanted to open the door, but she found it was locked. She opened it twice but to no avail. When she turned around, she saw Lin Wei standing behind her. She was so scared that her back was against the door.

"Ling... Lord Ling Wei, why are you looking for me..." Ye Ling swallowed her saliva.

"Do you remember what you said just now?" Ling Wei asked simply.

Ye Ling did not know what he meant for a moment, but she still nodded.

In front of a big shot, it was best to nod at everything. Otherwise, her life would be in danger. This was Ye Ling's experience.

Seeing Ye Ling nod, Ling Wei suddenly walked up to Ye Ling and put his hand on Ye Ling's chest.

"Ah, what are you doing!" Ye Ling was so scared that she pushed Ling Wei away.

"Giving birth," Ling Wei said simply, then added, "You promised."

“I...”Is he serious? Ye Ling rolled her eyes.

Ye Ling indeed wanted to avoid Badi, so she just promised Ling Wei to make use of Ling Wei’s identity so that Badi wouldn’t dare to do anything to her in the future.

Just as Ye Ling was deep in thought, Ling Wei walked over and circled ye Ling in front of the door.

Seeing that Ye Ling did not make a sound, ling Wei bent down and buried his head in ye Ling’s neck.

“I... I lied to you! I’m sorry! I didn’t... I didn’t do it on purpose...”Ye Ling was now afraid. She struggled to make a sound.

In the next second, Ling Wei grabbed ye Ling’s wrist, which was completely harmless to him. His eyes met Ye Ling’s eyes, and his breathing became heavy. His words were still simple and easy to understand:

“You promised to have a child with me. Now, don’t go back on your word.”
