

Schoolgirl 2011

Chapter 2011: Welcome Back to the king, Asura

“You’re too low-key!”

Mo Bufan was the one who shouted the last word.

Mo Bufan had just met these six people at the entrance of the university.

These six people were none other than Chu Ning, Chu Xiangnan, Jiang Weiwei, Liu Shiyun, Fang Xiaoran, and Hongfan, whom he had not seen for a long time.

Chu Ning and the other three were already enrolled in the military academy. Back then, Chu Ning and the other three had already entered the military academy earlier than Yun Jian. The youngest among them, Chu Ning, was also one year older than Yun Jian.

Yun Jian skipped a grade and was now in his first year, just like Chu Ning.

Mo Bufan saw Chu Ning and the other three blocking the students at the school gate and asked if they knew Yun Jian.

Chu Ning and the other three knew that Yun Jian was back, but they only knew that Yun Jian was at Jiangcheng University of electronic technology. So they rushed over to look for him.

It had been two years since they last saw each other. The six missed Yun Jian very much. This was the friendship between friends who fought together in the past!

Meanwhile, Mo Bufan had just heard Chu Ning and the others asking passersby if they knew Yun Jian at the school gate when he went over.

Then, he led Chu Ning and the others to the gym to look for Yun Jian. Along the way, he heard a lot about the legendary incident of Yun Jian at the Min Military Academy.

Although Yun Jian had been missing for two years, her title as the strongest killer of the king’s team was still deeply engraved in everyone’s hearts.

The word ‘killing God’ had once been the hero in the hearts of many youths, and the object of their worship!

Even Mo Bufan had heard of the killing God of the King’s squad back then, and together with a group of students around him, they had crazily investigated the deeds of the killing God of the King’s squad.

Mo Bufan had never imagined that the legendary figure whom they had worshipped back then, just by hearing the word ‘killing God’, would actually be Yun Jian!

Therefore, as soon as he rushed into the stadium, Mo Bufan used the most terrified and shocked voice of his life to shout out these words.

Without a doubt, the meaning behind Mo Bufan’s words made everyone present, including Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, and the others, widen their eyes after digesting the words.

“Yun Jian went to a military academy? Or... is she the famous Asura of the King’s squad in the military region? !”

Song Yu was obviously the same as Mo Bufan. She had once admired the killer God, a legendary figure of Country Z. at the same time, Song Yu widened her eyes and looked at Yun Jian with an expression of disbelief.

Mo Lianhua, who had been comparing her appearance with Yun Jian’s, staggered. Her lips instantly turned pale and she forgot to pretend to be a person. She shook her head with a face full of disbelief. “Impossible... how is this possible? !”

If Yun Jian was the god of death in team king, then the rumors about her selling herself to old men for money would be ruined.

Besides, if Yun Jian was from the military, Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, and the others would be insulting the soldiers!

If Yun Jian wanted to pursue the matter, then they...

Everyone present, including the first-year Computer Science Class 13, as well as students from other classes and other schools who had come to join in the fun, were all shocked.

Pan Qian, who had been dealing with Yun Jian all this time, turned pale.

“How is that not possible? The other six members of Team King are all here! Listen to them yourselves!” Mo Bufan saw this and took a step back, letting Chu Ning and the others stand in front of everyone.

“They are the other six members of Team King! ?” Mo Bufan’s words stunned everyone present.

The seven members of team king were not big-name celebrities, but each and every one of them was extremely powerful. Now, they were even more like big-name celebrities, and all of them were well-known throughout the country.

Asura had gone missing for two years. The other six members of Team King did not do it for nothing. They had set countless records in the past two years, bringing team King’s reputation to the highest point!

They used their actions to tell the people that although they were not as powerful as Yun Jian, they would not drag Yun Jian down!

“You’re all here?” Yun Jian narrowed his eyes and looked at the faces of Chu Ning and the other three who had grown up. His simple words were just like before.

“Yes, we heard that you’re back!” Captain Liu Shiyun said while trying to control his excitement.

After that, Liu Shiyun took out a medal with the word ‘killer’ engraved on it from his pocket and threw it into Yun Jian’s hand. He was excited but restrained. His unwavering words reverberated throughout the entire place, causing everyone present to be stunned, everyone was stunned as if they had seen the battle achievements of the King’s squad:

“This medal was obtained through our own hard work. It has each of our code names engraved on it, symbolizing the seven of us. I’ve always kept it for you, and now I’m returning it to your hand.

“Yun Jian, we’ve waited for you for two years! You’re an undefeatable legend! You’re the God in our hearts!

“Today, as the captain of the King’s squad, I would like to invite you, No. 006 Asura, to return to the King’s squad!”

Chapter 2012: The sports car It belonged to her man

Yun Jian took the medal and held it in her hand. She looked at the six members of team king looking at her with excitement.

Yun Jian suddenly smiled.

There was a kind of friendship called ‘comrades’. No matter where you were, there would always be people who were proud of you and regarded you as their faith!

Then, in front of Song Yu and the others who were so shocked that they could not close their mouths, Yun Jian raised a red arc and looked at Chu Ning, Liu Shiyun and the others:

“Number 006, codename Asura. After two years, please return to the team!”

This voice was like a loud and energetic soldier, resounding throughout the whole place.

The voice had infinite magic, as if it could make song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and the rest see the world where the blade could see blood.

It was a world that was naturally different from their ordinary university students!

It was a height that ordinary university students could never reach in their entire lives!

It was a symbol of strength and power as the god of Death!

At this moment, all the cells in Mo Bufan’s body were boiling. He seemed to see the future of the King’s team.

He seemed to be proud of everyone in the King’s team!

“Yunjian, Welcome Back!” When Liu Shiyun said this, not only Liu Shiyun, but also Chu Ning and the other three had tears in their eyes.

It had been two years, two years since they last met. Yunjian was even more dazzling.

After learning that Yunjian went missing in the hunting school, Chu Ning and the rest did not believe it. They did not believe that Yunjian would die in the hunting school.

How could a mere hunting school let Yunjian die!

She was Yunjian!

But two years had passed. She was still alive and should have come back a long time ago.

But even so, Chu Ning and the rest still firmly believed that Yunjian would not die so easily!

The moment they found out that Yun Jian was back, the six of them skipped classes and rushed to Jiangcheng University of electronic technology without stopping. They even forgot to apply for leave.

Who cares what was considered skipping classes? Let's see Yun Jian First!

At that time, the emotions of Chu Ning and the rest could not be described with words.

Whether it was Song Yu or Mo Lianhua who was standing next to them, they were all shouting at the top of their lungs.

Especially Mo Lianhua, who shook his head earlier and didn't believe that Yun Jian was the killer god of the King's squad. At this moment, Mo Lianhua's expression was dull, as if he had seen something unbelievable.

At first, he thought that what was the use of Yun Jian being beautiful was that it was a man's lower body!

But now, he suddenly found out that Yun Jian was actually the killer god of the King's squad!

Song Yu's expression also changed slightly.

When he found out that Yun Jian was not a mistress who relied on men to earn money, Song Yu heaved a sigh of relief.

Only such a woman was worthy of him!

"Yun Jian 'er, you're finally back!" At that time, Chu Ning had already thrown herself into Yun Jian's arms in front of everyone.

"Yun Jian 'er, our skills have improved a lot in the past two years. Although we can't compare to you, among our peers in the army, there are already very few who are our match."

"We said we wouldn't hold you back! Now we've done it!"

Chu Ning hugged Yun Jian and rubbed against it, looking like she was asking for praise.

After putting away the medal, Yun Jian turned to look at Chu Ning and said with certainty, "Very good."

This was Yun Jian's highest praise.

After hearing Yun Jian's words, Chu Ning almost hugged her and screamed in excitement.

"Go, go, go, Yun Jian 'er. Although you are very rich, it's not easy for you to come back this time. I'll treat you to supper! Next time, I'll trick you into treating me!"

As Chu Ning spoke, she put her arm around Yun Jian's shoulder and was about to walk out.

"Wait!" Pan Qian was shocked after hearing what Chu Ning said.

Yun Jian... was very rich?

“You said she was very rich? Last Time I saw her sitting in a Lamborghini, wasn’t she kept as a mistress?” Mo Lianhua had already reacted, but Pan Qian did not.

Chu Ning was stunned at Pan Qian’s words. Then, she glanced at Pan Qian with a sneer in front of everyone:

“Lamborghini? Isn’t That My Yun Jian ‘Er’s man’s car? Oh, by the way, that’s a limited edition sports car that only sells one in the world. Remember to take a look at it the next time you see it, because you won’t be able to see it even if you want to!”

Chapter 2013: The Scumbag Woman, White Lotus, and the Scumbag Man, Song Yu

Pan Qian initially thought that it was just an ordinary sports car.

But Pan Qian never expected that the Lamborghini was actually...

“That Lamborghini is actually a global limited edition? And it’s a super sports car that only sells one in the world?” Pan Qian widened her eyes in shock and exclaimed.

Everyone around, including Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and the class monitor Lou Zhenlin, gasped in shock when they heard Chu Ning’s words.

“How much do you have to pay to buy it...” Pan Qian mumbled listlessly.

“Do you think you can afford a limited edition sports car just because you have money? Many business tycoons have tried to buy a limited edition sports car with sky-high prices, but to no avail. They are indeed stupid. Their knowledge is limited to the school. What a country bumpkin!”

Chu Ning was good at talking. In the past two years, Chu Ning had bullied Chu Xiangnan a lot.

When she heard Pan Qian say that Yun Jian was kept as a mistress, Chu Ning almost rushed over to hit him.

In fact, Yun Jian had already put away the butterfly knife when Mo Bufan and Chu Ning appeared.

After being attacked by Chu Ning’s verbal attacks for a while, Pan Qian was both angry and resentful. But other than anger, she could not say a word. Her face was pale and her eyes were wide open, as if she was scared half to death.

“Alright, stop talking nonsense with such an ignorant person. Yunjian, it’s been a long time. Let’s go out and get together,” Jiang Weiwei said to Yunjian after taking over Chu Ning’s words.

The seven members of Team King were now a team. They were very well-coordinated.

“Okay.” Yunjian nodded. She put one hand into her pocket and walked towards the entrance of the gym lazily.

Just as she reached the entrance of the gym, Yun Jian turned around and looked at Lou Zhenlin, the class president, who was dumbfounded. She said, “Take a leave of absence. I Won’t be joining the Fellowship Party.”

After that, Yun Jian turned around and turned her back towards Song Yu and the rest. She reached out her other hand that was not in her pocket and waved at Chu Ning and the rest. The seven of them then walked out of the door.

Yun Jian did not wait for Lou Zhenlin's permission.

Yun Jian had always been her own way. No one could stop her.

It was not until Yun Jian's figure disappeared in front of everyone that Pan Qian heaved a sigh of relief. She then stared at the place where Yun Jian disappeared and said fiercely,

"What's so great about having a rich boyfriend? Even if you have a rich boyfriend, your boyfriend must be short, fat, ugly, and Chubby! What's the point of showing off!" Pan Qian suddenly shouted at the place where Yun Jian left.

Just like brother Kai from Jiangcheng University of electronic technology, his family was rich, so rich that he gave girls gold necklaces and silver rings, but he was still an ugly man?

God, they were all fair!

Pan Qian thought that Yun Jian's man was also an ugly man, and he was very fat, very ugly.

This kind of man was rich. Most of the money came from his family. He had raised himself to be white, fat, and fat since he was young. He was so ugly that she could not bear to look at him! He especially liked to steal women!

When she thought of this, Pan Qian felt that her envy for Yun Jian's rich boyfriend had lessened a lot.

She wanted to find a handsome and rich man in the future!

"Qianqian! How many times have I told you? Why are you always like this? You Can't curse like this! This is immoral!" Mo Lianhua saw Yun Jian leave and pretended to be innocent again.

As she said this, Mo Lianhua leaned on Song Yu. "Yu, don't you agree?"

"Lianhua, you are still so kind." Song Yu pulled Mo Lianhua into his arms, but his eyes were looking in the direction where Yun Jian left, and he didn't come back to his senses for a long time.

So she wasn't a mistress!

So she was the god of death of the King's squad that so many people respected!

Only a girl like that was worthy of a person of noble status like him!

Yun Jian. Song Yu kept muttering in his heart.

I really look forward to our next meeting!

Chapter 2014: I have been living very well these two years

In the gymnasium, Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and Pan Qian all had their own thoughts.

For the other students of the first year computer class 13, as well as the students of other classes and other schools.

Although the scene just now was shocking, after the limelight had passed, everyone still went about their own business. Under the organization of the class monitor Lou Zhenlin, they continued to participate in the Class Association activities.

It had to be said that the class monitor Lou Zhenlin's organizing ability was very strong. Very soon, the atmosphere of the activity once again rose to the highest point.

What happened just now was like a farce, and was quickly forgotten by everyone.

Of course, after Yun Jian left, Zhu Huili was not alone.

There were still many very friendly girls in the class, except for a few girls who made people speechless.

In general, besides Yun Jian, Zhu Huili also made a lot of friends.

Generally speaking, college girls were much more normal and friendly.

Especially freshmen who had just entered the university. Everyone was in an unfamiliar environment and did not have any friends, so they would show a very friendly expression to everyone in the class.

Only when they got along with each other for a long time and each of them had their own set of friends would they reveal their true nature.

This was a human instinct to protect themselves in an unfamiliar environment.

Naturally, it did not exclude the existence of girls like Mo Lianhua and Pan Qian.

...

On the other side, Yun Jian, Chu Ning and the rest had already arrived at a street where a hawker stall was set up near Jiangcheng University of Electronics and technology.

When they were at Min military academy, Yun Jian would also go out to eat with Chu Ning and the rest.

Although it was cool at night, people would walk along the streets of the bustling street vendors. They would choose a good vendor to sit down and order a few delicacies to savor. It was a very ordinary yet happy thing.

Although the vendors were not very clean, Yun Jian only pursued this kind of warm feeling.

The seven of them came to a street artisanal noodle shop.

Yun Jian ordered snow vegetable and shredded meat noodles. Chu Ning and the other three also ordered their own noodles. At this moment, they were sitting on the makeshift table and waiting for the food.

"Yun Jian 'er, you scared me to death. Did you know that you disappeared for two years in the hunting school? I almost thought you..."

“Hmph, I don’t care. This meal is on me. Next time, you have to treat me to three or four meals. Don’t you forget it!”

Chu Ning knocked on the small bowl that she was going to use to store noodles with her clean chopsticks and said.

Although Chu Ning’s words sounded like she was trying to trick Yun Jian into treating her, Yun Jian knew that she was just worried about him. Treating her was just a lame excuse.

“Okay, I won’t forget.” Yun Jian looked at Chu Ning’s beautiful face, which was obviously relieved. He curled his lips.

“Alright, Yun Jian is back already! Chopsticks are for eating, not knocking. All the bacteria that you can’t see are now in the bowl. Give me the chopsticks!”

Chu Xiangnan was much calmer than two years ago. He grabbed the chopsticks from Chu Ning’s hand and gave her a few words of advice.

“Mind your own business!” Chu Ning pouted and looked like she was not saying what she meant.

“These two are dating. Yunjian, don’t mind them. By the way, how have you been these past two years?” Jiang interrupted Chu Ning and Chu Xiangnan slightly and asked Yunjian.

Yunjian was not too surprised to hear that Chu Ning and Chu Xiangnan were dating.

After all, it was obvious two years ago that Chu Ning and Chu Xiangnan were a good match.

But after thinking for a while, Jiang Wei asked herself about the recent situation.

She had been staying at the divine spring with Si Yi for the past two years, for 666 days without missing a single day.

During the same 666 days at the Divine Spring, Si Yi did all kinds of embarrassing things to her without missing a single day.

And whenever she thought about the 666 days and nights she spent at the divine spring, Yun Jian’s face would turn slightly red and her ears would burn. She tried her best to look calm and replied,

“These two years have been very good for me.”

Chapter 2015: was plain and plain. It was an old street in Hengtang

“My Yun Jian ‘ER is amazing! How could he not have a good life? But Yun Jian ‘er, why is your face so Red? Don’t tell me you have a fever?”

Chu Ning suddenly noticed the redness on both sides of Yun Jian’s face and asked.

Yun Jian was just like two years ago. He had a high ponytail and was full of energy.

Ever since he was reborn, Yun Jian’s ponytail had never been cut short. Yun Jian himself liked this style.

When his hair fell down, it would affect his peripheral vision and make him wary of his surroundings.

The high ponytail was about to tie his hair up high. His long hair was elegant and gave people a relaxed and happy feeling.

However, there was one thing that was not good. His face was red. No stray hair could cover the red glow. Even his ears were exposed. The expression on his face could be seen clearly.

“Young Lady, your reaction is normal. The stove at my house that burns handmade noodles has a lot of heat. Usually, when we come out of the kitchen, our faces are red and our ears are red. It might be affected by the outside world too!”

The owner of the restaurant walked over with two bowls of hot shredded pork and snow vegetable noodles that had just come out of the pot. After hearing Chu Ning’s words, the owner of the restaurant explained.

As he spoke, two bowls of shredded pork and snow vegetable noodles were placed on the table. The owner of the restaurant said, “These two bowls are shredded pork and snow vegetable noodles. I’ll serve the other five bowls of noodles to you right away!”

As he spoke, the owner of the restaurant smiled and walked towards the kitchen.

In this way, Yun Jian successfully covered up the truth of his blushing face.

“I see...”Chu Ning nodded with a look of a great detective.

The noodles of the seven people were served one after another.

After a simple supper, everyone was enjoying themselves.

Along the way, they talked about a lot of things that happened when the seven first met, as if it was only yesterday.

“Yunjian, I still remember when you first came in. I’ve always been against you and even tripped you up. How generous of you. If it were any other girl, she would probably be my mortal enemy for the rest of her life!”

Jiang Weiwei could not help but feel a little ashamed when she mentioned how she dealt with Yunjian back then.

“You still know how bad you are! I thought you didn’t know! I really wanted to ignore you for the rest of my life back then. You’re so arrogant!”Chu Ning was filled with anger at the mention of Jiang Weiwei back then.

“Then why are you still talking to me now, Xiaoning?”Jiang Weiwei reached out and pinched Chu Ning’s cheeks, laughing loudly.

“Anyway, everyone is fine now. This is the best,”Fang Xiaoran, who did not speak much, said with a smile.

“Yeah.”Vice-captain Hongfan nodded as well.

The seven members of the King’s team had gone through all kinds of hardships to reach this day.

Their future was not over yet.

The starting point of the king's team had just begun.

After eating supper and strolling around for a while, Chu Ning and the other three found a hotel to stay in and went back home the next day.

Although Chu Ning and the other three were regretful that Yun Jian did not plan to continue his studies at the military academy, they still respected his decision.

At the same time, Chu Ning and the other three also invited Yun Jian to visit their military academy.

The Military Academy at the university was completely different from Min City Military Academy at the high school.

Yun Jian agreed.

Chu Ning and the other three rushed back to the school early the next morning. Of course, what they faced was the punishment of skipping class.

At three o'clock in the afternoon the next day, Yun Jian arrived at Hengtang Old Street on time to meet Diane and the other two.

But before Diane and the other two could see him, Yun Jian saw some figures he did not want to see.

Hengtang Old Street was near the university town. It was an unusual place for school couples and friends of the opposite sex to meet.

The environment here was good. Green trees were planted all around.

Hengtang Old Street, as the name suggested, was an ancient street.

Walking on Hengtang Old Street gave people the feeling of returning to the old streets and alleys when they were young.

Some of the old streets were built in the 1930s and 1940s. They had a very ancient flavor.

There was a flow of people here every day. The Food Street on the Old Street was bustling with people.

Of course, the place where Yun Jian wanted to meet Diane and the other two was not in a crowded place. Instead, it was in a small pavilion in a small pond away from the crowd on the old street in Hengtang.

However, to go to a small pavilion with almost no people, one had to pass through the bustling old street.

Yun Jian saw three people he did not want to see —

Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and Pan Qian.

Look at these three people. They came together with a group of young men and women.

Those young men and women were generally handsome and beautiful. Presumably, these people came out to shop together during the day.

Chapter 2016: If there was any more movement, it would be destroyed

Hengtang Old Street near the university town was a famous scenic spot. It symbolized Jiangcheng and was one of the symbols of Jiangcheng's great classical heritage.

Those who came to Jiangcheng for tourism had never been to Hengtang Old Street, so it was not counted as having been to Jiangcheng.

Jiangcheng was also famous for Hengtang Old Street.

There were many streets in Hengtang Old Street and forked roads. Many tourists came to Hengtang Old Street, but they did not know the route and could not even find the street.

Because this place was really too big.

It wasn't Yun Jian's first time here, but it was his second time here. However, Yun Jian's memory was amazing, so he didn't find the wrong way.

He just didn't expect to see Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and Mo Lianhua's little sidekick Pan Qian as soon as he entered.

However, Yun Jian didn't intend to pay attention to them. At this moment, Song Yu and the other two were walking with a group of young boys and girls, so they didn't see her.

Yun Jian went down the stairs to the left and soon turned off the busy street, arriving at a small pool pavilion that was away from the crowd that she had arranged with Diane and the other two.

Diane and the other two just happened to walk over on time.

"Sister Jian!" Diane, Gui Yan, and Gui Lian nodded at Yun Jian when they saw Yun Jian.

"Yes, let's talk inside the pavilion," Yun Jian replied.

Diane, Gui Yan, and Gui Lian followed the cloud jian into the pavilion.

As soon as they entered the pavilion, the Cloud Jian cut straight to the point. "Gui Yan, immediately send the five assassination teams of your assassination team to be stationed in River City."

Diane was the leader of the intelligence team of the Gu Sha mercenary group.

Gui Yan was a woman, and she was the leader of the assassination team.

As for Gui Lian, he was a man, and he was the leader of the investigation team.

"Yes, Sister Jian!" After hearing Yun Jian's words, Gui Yan nodded.

“Diane, immediately return to the organization and move half of the intelligence team to investigate the background of the emperor rebel organization. The more detailed the better. Report to me if there is any movement from the emperor rebel organization.”

“Yes, Sister Jian!” Diane obeyed and nodded as well.

“Gui Lian, send the members of the investigation team to investigate every move of the emperor rebel organization at all times. You stay in River City to assist Gui Yan.

“Three months later, Gui Yan, you will assassinate all the members of the organization. Leave a group of stronger members in the organization and send the rest to River City.

“Three months later, I will hold a gala in river city under the name of the Rong Yao Company. The Emperor Renegade organization will definitely participate in it.

“Three months later, I want to completely eradicate the Emperor Renegade!”

Yun Jian’s words entered the ears of Diane and the other two.

After hearing Yun Jian’s words, Diane and the other two only focused on doing their jobs. “Yes!”

That’s right. Three months later, at the party where the bosses of the multinational corporations of the RONGYAO company got to know each other, she had the witch place her in Jiang City.

And three months later, it would be the day she completely eradicated the renegade Emperor organization!

“Sister Jian, this is all the major international events that my intelligence group has collected in the past two years. You can browse through them.” At this moment, Diane took out a laptop from her backpack and handed it to Yun Jian.

The cloud note took it and turned on the computer screen. She scanned through it at a glance.

“You... Why are you here!”

However, just as the cloud note scanned through the laptop screen and quickly browsed through the major international events that the Gu Sha mercenary group’s intelligence team had collected in the past two years, an untimely voice sounded.

One didn’t need to raise their head to know that the owner of this voice was Pan Qian.

At this moment, Pan Qian was looking at the cloud note with a surprised gaze, and she cried out in panic.

Song Yu and the others had been strolling in the old streets of Hengtang for a long time. Now that they were tired, a boy suggested that there was a pavilion nearby and that everyone should go and rest for a while.

However, they did not expect to run into the cloud note.

Of course, among song Yu’s group, only song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and Pan Qian recognized the cloud note.

When Yun Jian saw that it was song Yu and the other two, he frowned.

Song Yu was pleasantly surprised.

It was her!

The pavilion could accommodate a lot of people, so Song Yu and the others walked into the pavilion.

Yun Jian pretended not to hear Pan Qian's words and looked straight at the intelligence data on the laptop.

After Song Yu and the others entered the pavilion, they found Diane and the other two next to Yun Jian.

At this moment, Song Yu and the other two remembered that the cloud note said they were going to pick up three old friends.

Could these three old friends be the three foreigners?

Pan Qian felt like she had eaten shit. She felt like she was slapping herself in the face.

But even so, Pan Qian couldn't help but be curious about what the cloud note was looking at. So she looked at the cloud note and asked, "Hey, what are you looking at?"

The cloud note didn't respond.

However, just as Pan Qian was about to force her head over to take a look, the cloud note closed its laptop.

She wasn't afraid that Pan Qian and the others would misunderstand. She turned to look at Diane and said something that made Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, and the others confused and frightened:

"If those old fellows from the international world make any more moves, they will be destroyed."

Chapter 2017: deal with her directly

Many things had happened during the two years when Yun Zhi disappeared.

Times were changing, and the world would not stop moving just because of anyone.

Yun Zhi's disappearance would not affect anyone.

On the contrary, during the two years when Yun Zhi disappeared, the rebel emperor organization was not the only organization that had risen.

And the rebel emperor organization was a very impressive and powerful representative.

The 'Group of old men in the world' mentioned by Yun Jian referred to the group of old men who were arrogant to the extreme when they had just risen.

These people's abilities were not strong at the moment, so they could be easily dealt with by Diane's intelligence group.

Of course, if they were not dealt with now, it was very likely that the group of old men would one day develop into the current emperor rebel organization, a tumor that could only be removed by making a big fuss.

Another point needed to be made. In the ancient kill mercenary group, all members had their own numbers, ranging from one to tens of thousands, hundreds of thousands.

This number was arranged according to the strength of the members. The strongest member had a number of one.

And this was only the strength number of all the members. It could change at any time.

According to the number, the ancient kill mercenary group also divided all the members into three groups.

These three groups were divided into the intelligence group, the assassination group, and the Investigation Group.

Of course, people were not randomly assigned. They were chosen according to their merits. A person should be good at one of these three areas. Each group that was assigned to one of the three groups would have a special assessment staff.

Here, it could be explained that if one was not a member of the intelligence group, they would only know how to gather intelligence. The members of the intelligence group would still do the things of the assassination group, and they would still have shocking strength.

However, the only difference was that compared to the members of the intelligence group, the level of the assassination group was not one or two levels higher than the intelligence group.

Therefore, it was enough for the cloud paper to ask the members of the Diane Intelligence Group to go out and deal with the matters of those old fellows internationally.

“Yes, Sister Jian!” In front of Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, and the others, Diane nodded at the cloud paper.

She looked like a subordinate who had received an order from his superior and was absolutely obeying it.

Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and Pan Qian, including the group of young men and women who came with Song Yu and the others, were all surprised and shocked.

Imagine a female university student staying in a pavilion with three foreigners and talking incomprehensible words, and one of the female foreigners even called her ‘sister’ in Standard Chinese?

It was as if Yun Jian was their leader.

When they first heard it, Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, and the others were indeed dumbfounded.

This... what was going on?

“Yun Jian, what are you up to this time? What are those old guys from the international world? And you even destroyed them? PFFT, do you think you’re a gangster? Such a society?”

“Aren’t you the god of death of the military’s king squad? You even made yourself look like a boss of society. Are you really afraid that others won’t know who you are?”

Pan Qian’s mouth was cheap, but she couldn’t help but say it out loud.

Yun Jian’s identity did indeed scare Pan Qian, but at that time, Pan Qian wasn’t afraid anymore.

Since Yun Jian was a soldier, he didn’t dare to hit her. Even if she insulted her, it didn’t matter!

Song Yu stared at Yun Jian, even his eyes couldn’t bear to move away.

Yun Jian’s mysteriousness made song Yu even more infatuated.

“Qian, do you know this beauty? She looks quite mysterious!” A boy who was with song Yu and the others also looked at the cloud note and asked Pan Qian.

Pan Qian was just about to say something bad about the cloud note to this boy.

Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, and the others suddenly saw Diane, who was standing in front of them, suddenly take out a silenced silver pistol from her waist and point it at Pan Qian’s head.

Pan Qian didn’t know what it was that was pointing at her head.

By the time Pan Qian realized what it was, Song Yu and the others had already seen what Diane took out. It was a pistol!

However, before they could scream, Diane held the pistol that was pointing at Pan Qian’s head and looked at the cloud note. In front of everyone, she asked the cloud note in the tone of a subordinate,

“Sister Jian, this person dared to insult you with words. Did you deal with her directly?”

Chapter 2018: the Emperor Renegade. Not a single person was spared

According to past practice, if someone dared to act presumptuously in front of the cloud note, the person would die.

Diane’s tone was as plain as ‘have you eaten today?’, but her plain words made Pan Qian, Mo Lianhua, Song Yu, and the others tremble.

“Gun, Gun? Gun, Gun, gun? Is this a real, real... real gun or a fake gun...” Pan Qian was so scared that she stuttered. Her entire body was trembling violently. It was obvious that she was frightened by Diane’s action of taking out a gun.

“This is definitely a F * cking fake gun! I’ve seen a real gun before. That thing is very heavy. This foreign woman is trying to scare you! I say, Qian, how do you know this beauty? Don’t you want to introduce her?”

The boy who asked Pan Qian if she knew Yun Jian said confidently. As he said that, he looked at Yun Jian. In order to attract Yun Jian’s attention, the boy lifted his short hair.

At that moment, Diane maintained the position of holding the gun and pointing it at Pan Qian.

Diane was waiting for Yun Jian's reply.

As long as Yun Jian gave the order, she would immediately kill Pan Qian.

Hearing the boy say that the gun in Diane's hand was a fake, everyone present recovered from their fear.

Pan Qian was not afraid in an instant. She reached out her hand and wanted to slap away the gun that Diane pointed at her head, but Diane dodged it nimbly.

"What, what fast skills!" A boy could not help but exclaim when he saw Dianni's nimble dodging skills.

"Kid, let me give you a piece of advice. Get Out of my sister Jian's sight immediately, or don't blame us for taking your lives!" Lian Gui glanced at Yun Zhi, turned his head to look at Pan Qian and the others, and said coldly.

"Take our lives? Do you dare? If we die, you'll be imprisoned for the rest of your lives!" Pan Qian retorted loudly when she heard Lian Gui's words.

Then, Pan Qian looked left and right at Yun Jian before continuing:

"Yun Jian, I don't know where you found this actress, but her acting skills are terrible! If you really want to be the leader of society and be a gangster, then go be the woman of the leader of society!

"Anyway, you've already hooked up with a rich boyfriend, so it doesn't matter if you hook up with another one! However, this will definitely let down the title of the King's squad Asura!

"HMPH, your King's squad Asura title was also bought for you by that rich boyfriend of yours! Who knows if you're really that powerful!

"I see you like this. When you see blood on the official black scene, you're scared half to death!"

Pan Qian glared at Yun Jian and kept shouting. However, just as Pan Qian said this, Yun Jian narrowed his eyes. Seeing that there was no one around, she crossed her arms and coldly ordered Diane,

"Deal with it. Remember not to leave any traces. I still need to stay in River City for a period of time."

"Deal with it." The three words were so flat that no one could feel any fluctuation.

However, it made Pan Qian and the others panic for no reason.

"You, you, you, don't really get too deep into character. Let me tell you..." Pan Qian pointed at Yun Jian and the other three and stammered.

However, before Pan Qian could finish her sentence, she heard the soft sound of bullets coming from the silenced pistol in Diane's hand.

It was only at this moment that Pan Qian and the others suddenly realized.

This, this, this... This was a real gun! It was a real gun!

Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and all the young men and women present were so scared that their faces changed.

Just when everyone cried out in surprise, thinking that Pan Qian's head would be blown off, Yun Jian's eyes suddenly flashed with a sharp glint. She turned sideways and used her elbow to push against Diane's hand that was holding the gun, she deflected the bullet away from the trajectory that was supposed to blow Pan Qian's head off.

Pan Qian was so scared that she knelt on the ground.

However, just as everyone thought that Yun Jian saved Pan Qian on purpose because he was afraid of seeing a bloody scene, they saw Yun Jian snatch the silenced pistol from Diane's hand at a speed of 0.1 seconds.

"Chi Chi Chi!"

The soft sound of three silenced pistols, including the one shot that was supposed to kill Pan Qian, made a total of four shots. They accurately hit the four people who were hiding in the bushes and eavesdropping about fifty meters away.

The four people died on the spot in front of Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, Pan Qian, and the others.

Song Yu, Pan Qian, and the others widened their eyes in horror.

She, she, she! She really dared! She really dared to kill people! ! !

However, before Song Yu and the others could scream, the voice of the cloud tablet, which was as cold as winter ice, ordered Diane and the other two like a Hell Shura, resounded throughout the place. The voice was neither happy nor worried, and it was extremely cruel:

"It's the people from the rebel emperor organization. Go after them. Leave No one alive!"

Chapter 2019: was not a person of the world

As soon as Yun Jian gave the order, Diane, Gui Yan, and Gui Lian leaped down from the steps of the gazebo like a bolt of lightning. Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and Pan Qian could not see them clearly with their naked eyes, they flashed dozens of meters away in an instant.

"Spear, spear, spear, spear, real spear, real spear... I almost, almost... I was almost killed by a real spear..."

Pan Qian was so frightened that she sat on the ground and trembled uncontrollably. She could not recover from the fear for a long time.

And Song Yu, Mo Lianhua and others are with the command of the cloud, eyes followed Diane ni three people to the end of the look.

Only to see Diane three people like ghosts, a few flash to dozens of meters away.

Diane ni three strength, Song Yu and others can not see who is strong who is weak, and Diane ni three people have come to dozens of meters away.

The four assassins who had been hiding in the bushes were shot four times by the cloud tablet and died on the spot.

Of course, the people from the emperor rebel organization were not so stupid. Since they had followed the cloud tablet and eavesdropped on the conversation between Diane and the other two, they must have sent more than four assassins.

One had to know the strength of the cloud tablet. Even if they had heard some information, they would not be able to survive.

Therefore, the group of people sent by the rebel emperor organization had a total of more than ten assassins.

Presumably, the boss of the rebel emperor organization had the mentality that even if a few of them died, as long as one of them returned alive with the information he had gathered, it would be enough for these ten assassins to eavesdrop.

Moreover, when these ten assassins hid in the distance to eavesdrop, each of them hid in a different specific location.

This was also the reason why Yun Jian attacked before they were discovered.

These assassins hid in different locations. Even if Yun Jian chased after them together with Diane and the other two, they would have to chase after them from different directions.

Hence, Yun Jian caught Diane's shot and killed four assassins who were in the best direction to escape in just a few seconds.

The remaining assassins who hid in a few locations in the dark could be easily dealt with by Diane and the other two.

Similarly, Diane and the other two did not disappoint Yun Jian.

The remaining killers who were discovered started to escape according to their plan. However, before they could leave the scene, they were easily dealt with by Diane and the other two.

Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and the others who were waiting on the spot could not see how Diane and the other two killed the group of killers on the spot.

However, Song Yu and the others could only see Diane and the other two flash past the killer like a rocket. The killer suddenly fell to the ground without a sound.

In less than half a minute, none of the killers sent by the Emperor Renegade organization survived.

"Dead... Dead Dead... dead? Yun, Yun Jian, you actually... you actually let your friend Kill... kill... kill..."!

Mo Lianhua's face, which was covered in heavy makeup, was completely pale. Even his palms were covered in cold sweat.

Mo Lianhua, who had forgotten to act like a lady when he was nervous and acted like a little girl, felt his heart skip a beat. He hid behind Song Yu as if he wanted Song Yu to bear the brunt of any danger.

Song Yu naturally sensed that Mo Lianhua wanted to use him as a shield, and his heart turned cold.

As expected, a woman like Mo Lianhua wasn't suitable for him!

The woman who was truly worthy of him should be someone like Yun Jian!

As Song Yu thought of this, his heart trembled.

Who exactly was Yun Jian? !

"Who are those people? Why did you kill them?" Song Yu tried his best to calm himself down. He turned his head to look at Yun Jian and asked.

Those people were naturally referring to the group of killers.

"Song, Song Yu is indeed worthy of being the campus belle of Dongfang University. I was already scared to death when I encountered such a thing... he was actually not afraid..."

A girl huddled in the corner of the wall and said these words in fear.

The group of people who came with Song Yu had long been scared beyond recognition.

Song Yu was actually scared too, but he was trying his best to resist and not look at the bloody scene in the distance.

"If you don't want to die, then forget about what happened today. Get lost." Yun Jian glanced sideways at Song Yu and the others, walked out of the gazebo, and stood on the steps halfway through the gazebo.

The three-hour forgetting liquid could make people forget things within three hours, but she forgot to bring it today. In addition to the high cost of the three-hour forgetting liquid, she would not use it again unless it was absolutely necessary in the future.

Diane and the other two had already dealt with the dozen or so assassins and were walking over.

"Send someone to deal with the scene immediately. We... will not move," Yun Jian said with a dark expression.

"Yes!" Diane and the other two obeyed and immediately turned around to take action.

Yun Jian then raised her feet and walked down the steps of the pavilion.

Standing on flat ground, Yun Jian raised her head to look at Song Yu and the others.

Although Yun Jian was looking up at Song Yu and the others from a low position, her natural aura made people realize that she was looking down on all living things.

While they were surprised, Yun Jian's warning voice was as cold as ice:

"I'm not from the same world as you. If you want to live, you'd better forget everything that happened today. Otherwise, I have a way to shut you up forever!"

Chapter 2020: my goal

Just now, Diane had already pointed the muzzle at Pan Qian. The moment the bullets from the silenced pistol flew out, Yun Zhi had a way to surpass the bullets at the same time. She used her elbow to forcefully change the trajectory of the Bullets!

It had to be said that Yun Zhi's strength was too shocking.

Her speed was actually faster than the Bullets!

Everyone present had truly witnessed this unrealistic scene!

Naturally, no one dared to question what Yun Jian had said just now.

If Yun Jian had said 'otherwise, I have many ways to shut all of you up forever' earlier, everyone present would only treat Yun Jian's words as a joke and might even laugh out loud.

But after seeing Yun Jian's soul-stirring skills and the soul-stirring strength of his underlings, Diane, and the other two...

No one dared to question Song Yu, Mo Lianhua, and the others anymore!

She had really ordered her underlings to kill more than ten killers on the spot!

If she were to say it again, how could it still be child's Play!

"We won't say it! We didn't see anything today! Please let us go! We are only university students!"

"Yes, yes, yes, we promise that we won't say anything!"

"Even if one of us dares to say a word about what we saw today, I'll beat him to death to make him shut up. So, we won't say anything. Let Us Go!"

...

Song Yu and the group of young men and women next to him solemnly promised as if they were making an oath.

In fact, Yun Jian never intended to kill Song Yu and the group of people.

She had always put profit first. Killing Song Yu and the others wouldn't benefit her at all.

She wouldn't do such a deal.

Diane and the other two quickly disposed of the dozens of killers' bodies.

At that time, Yun Jian didn't look at Song Yu and the others who were standing on the pavilion. She put her hands in her pockets and left without saying anything.

When Song Yu and the others saw Yun Jian leave, they were all paralyzed in fear as if they had seen the Grim Reaper leave.

It was obvious that there were few people walking around the gazebo, not to mention that this series of events had only happened for a few dozen minutes.

By the time there were people walking around, the dozen or so killers' bodies had already been disposed of.

...

In the following month, nothing worth mentioning happened.

During this one month, Si Yi did not come to the university to look for her.

The last time he separated from Si Yi, Si Yi said that he had to go back to the dark soul organization to deal with a lot of things. He would not be able to look for her in the near future. He wanted her to call him if she needed anything.

Even if there was nothing, Si Yi would call her every day on time.

Zhu Huili now knew that it was not like what Pan Qian said! How could Yun Jian sell it to his rich boyfriend.

Yun Jian's boyfriend called every day on time! He doted on her so much!

And Yun Jian's boyfriend's voice was so magnetic!

How could a short and chubby man have such a magnetic voice?

Zhu Huili covered her mouth and laughed, happy that Yun Jian had a boyfriend who doted on her so much.

The day of the incident in the pavilion was September 29th. It happened to be November 3rd, more than a month later.

On November 3rd, after staying at Jiangcheng University for more than a month, Yunjian did not meet Jian Ning, whom he had met on the plane.

Speaking of which, Yunjian decided to come to Jiangcheng University of electronics and technology because of Jian Ning's reminder.

Time passed very quickly. Although it was only November 3rd and September 29th, the weather had already changed from the scorching sun to the current cool, chilly wind.

Although Winter had not yet arrived, it was not far away. People had completely put on thicker coats.

This group of people from the Tian Yun Jian and the martial arts club were leaving the martial arts club and walking back to the school dormitory.

The wind was quite cold at night. They passed by a shop selling television sets in a busy market. The television sets in this shop were neatly playing the latest news broadcast:

"Recently, New START has gone global. New Start's president, Zhang Zhifan, attended the invitation from country Y's royal family and will fully launch the latest limited edition supercar. New START's world trade is on the right track. This is a global leap since the beginning of the year 2000...".

Hearing the color TV news broadcast on the television, Zhou Juntao, who had been injured and discharged from the hospital last time, pointed at the news broadcast and exclaimed to Yun Jian and the people around him:

“Listen, Xinqi Corporation has broken another record! It’s F * cking awesome!”!

“In the future, Xinqi Corporation will be my goal!”!

“If I ever see the chairman of Xinqi Corporation, I must ask him for advice!”
